New Draft Rules Hit Public Employees Hard

WASHINGTON — Revised Selective Service regulations are expected to draw thousands of job-deferred public employees into uniform. Under these major changes, two former classes of occupationally deferred men, the 18-to-25-year-olds, and the 25-to-30-year-olds, have been lumped into a single class. This requirement for deferment has been changed to "indispensable and irreplaceable to war-supporting activity" instead of the former "necessary to and regularly engaged in" war production or war-supporting activity. This is where the regulation will hit Federal employment hardest.

The largest groups of job-deferred employees in Government, those in Army and Navy, are expected to undergo drastic cuts. The two groups of deferred employees, 18 through 29 will be covered in the same manner as registrants in private employment. Forms for occupational deferments for Federal workers in the 25-33 group, however, except must also be filed by agencies on the basis of "necessary to and regularly engaged in" war production or war-supporting activity.

Pay Runs to $166 a Week

WASHINGTON — Hearings will commence soon on the Civil Service Commission's omnibus pay bill, which Senator Sheridan Downey of California introduced in Congress with an amendment, adding, providing a 10 per cent increase in base salary for all Federal employees under the Classification Act. [The bill was described in last week's LEADER.—Ed.] House and Senate leaders understand to remedy the administration's serious omission of a special cost-of-living salary raise for the 1,500,000 white-collar Federal employees by writing a wage-earner book section into the omnibus bill calling on the Government to pay bills forwarded to Congress by the Civil Service Commission. The bill hasn't been introduced in the House, and it has not been decided whether to wait for action on the House bill, where House Civil Service Committee is currently engaged in a study of Federal wage rates. This means that Federal agencies employing deferred men under 29 must file a new request for deferment of each employee on a revised form through the Personnel Review Committee by April 1. The total number of deferments is expected to be reduced by this reason because of the more stringent requirements.

The regulations state specifically that "Federal Government employees 18 through 29 will be covered in the same manner as registrants in private employment." Forms for occupational deferments for Federal workers in the 25-30 group, however, except must also be filed by agencies on the basis of "necessary to and regularly engaged in" war production or war-supporting activity.

NYC Postal Men Thrash Out Vital Legislation

At a meeting of the Joint Conference of Affiliated Postal Employees, the "reclassification" bill introduced by Senator Thomas G. Burch for the Post Office employees was strongly endorsed. The major objectives of the bill are a permanent increase in salary, four-and-one-half-and-one-half for overtime and recognition of improvements, which will make the Post Office a much more attractive place for unity in the drive to get the bill. The proposal was urged by Raymond B. Sisson, of the New York City".

At the same conference, the New York City Postal Men, with Raymond Sisson as chairman, met and the"reclassification" bill was endorsed by the New York City Postal Men.

In the meritorious service grades, overtime when worked in excess of the normal hours of work, when paid for at a rate of one-and-a-half times the regular rate for the time actually worked, will be included for pay. In this respect it is asked that the"reclassification" bill be given the necessary support in Congress in order to give the Postal Men the same treatment as those in the government and other public agencies.

NYC Admits 5-Year Lag in Handling Back Pay Cases

Admission that last year's investigations of claims filed by NYC employees for back pay were filed in a hearing before Supreme Court, 1933, and 1937, highlighted a report by the Civil Service Commissioner. He said that the reasons for the delay in investigating and settling the claims were due to the backlog of cases and the lack of funds.

The Commissioner acknowledged that the backlog of cases was due to the lack of personnel and the inability of the Department of Labor to keep up with the number of cases. He also stated that the Civil Service Commission was working on a plan to hire more personnel to handle the backlog of cases.

Estimate Board Kills Half-Pay Veteran Pension

A bill to grant half-pay retirement to members of the NYC Fire Department who become disabled in military service was defeated by the Board of Estimate last week.

The City Council had passed the measure on January 28, 1946, but the Board of Estimate had opposed it. The bill was reintroduced in the next session and passed by a vote of 5 to 4. The Council then approved the measure, and it was sent back to the Board of Estimate for its final vote.

If the Board of Estimate had passed the bill, the NYC Fire Department would have had the power to retire members disabled in military service at one-half of their annual salary.

Civil Service Will Hold Public Hearing
Before Changing Promotion Eligibility

Adding another year's wait for eligibility in New York City promotion lists has been asked by the Budget Bureau. Following the conclusion of the January 1, 1945 promotions among clerical employees, several employees who should have been promoted were not because they hadn't reached the maximum salary of their grade. The Budget Bureau made this request: That the eligibility period for promotion remain the same as it extended from the present requirement of one year.

Ask Public Hearing

The Civil Service Commission is still considering the Commission's request; it still hasn't acted on it. However, the work of the Commission will be completed before the Budget Bureau has requested a public hearing before any action is taken on the change which the Budget Bureau had asked.

The employee organization was advised that the matter is still being considered by the Commission, who hope to arrive at a satisfactory compromise; that a public hearing would be called before any action is taken to extend the eligibility period for promotion.

The Budget Bureau held last week the calendar of the January 1, 1945 promotions among clerical employees. The Budget Bureau advised that the matter is still pending on skill. These jobs are preparatory to final action.—Ed.

Disabled Vet Entitled to Preference on Test Taken Before Going to War

A place on a civil service list in New York State is open to change in time of war. A candidate may be on a top of a list, suddenly find himself moved down because veterans’ preference has been granted to eligibles on other lists. But if he has moved up to the top, the length of time he has been so placed is counted. An opinion of the Attorney General, which has been upheld by Court decisions, ruled that the time referred to is when the veteran’s certificate of disability and requests for such appointment or promotion may be made.

Do you know what a "steal" is? If you live in New York City, police tell you that a "steal" is a term used by Federal employees when discussing promotions or transfers.

A "steal" is a private kind of promotion which can only be accomplished through a special transfer of position. The boys who make these extra-special transfers are usually accomplished through a private channel, and it is not always known to the general public.

One of the most important things to remember about a "steal" is that it can be used on a civil service promotion or a regular promotion. The boys who make these extra-special transfers are usually accomplished through a private channel, and it is not always known to the general public.

The Commission's offices are open from 9 to 6 daily. The open-door policy is that of Sanitation Commissioner William F. Carey, host of the "Let's Work Together" program on the radio and television. However, the few employees who haven't forgotten or neglected the open-door policy are now before the Legislature. In fact, that's one of the reasons why the open-door policy is so popular.

GREATEST ADVANCES IN CIVIL SERVICE HISTORY NOW BEFORE STATE LEGISLATURE: STATE ASSN. REPRESENTATIVES PRAISE COOPERATION OF GOVERNOR AND CABINET

ALBANY.—Last week saw the fruition of several great advances in civil service. Taken together, these advances are being widely heralded as the most important and far-reaching improvements since the enactment of the Field-Hamilton law. The legislation incorporating these provisions into the law was worked out through the cooperative efforts of the Governor, the Cabinet, administrative heads, and the Association of State Civil Service Employees. Its final form in the United States, when included in their plan, the Association officers who had worked out the provisions—Charles Breitel, Counsel to the Governor; Harold C. Ostertag, Associate Counsel; and Edward Conway, Civil Service Commissioner, will be presented to the State Legislature this month. The legislation, called the Field-Hamilton plan, provides for:

1. A permanent Salary Standardization Board.
2. A higher minimum salary in state service.
3. A permanent vacation law.
4. Alliances for war-duration appointments.
5. Further liberalization of the provisions for higher increments.

Three State officials who, together with Governor Dewey, were given high praise for their cooperation in passing these improvements in the State service. They are, left to right, Harold C. Ostertag, Counsel to the Governor; John T. DeGrutt, President of the Association; and Edward Conway, Civil Service Commissioner.

Permanent Pay Board

1. Creates a new division of the field of the Civil Service—salary standards. The new field is to be headed by a permanent five-man salary standardization board appointed by the Governor. Provision is made for the appointment of a majority of the board to be employees of New York State agencies. Last week I nearly went A.W.O.L.

I AM PAYDAY I planned to be Absent With our Official Leave—from the place where I usually buy my War Bonds. I was going to blow myself into some new clothes.

While I was checking to see if my nose was any longer getting killed, don't you stop longing for War Bonds! As for fun, sure you're entitled to some—if you earn it.

My mirror came right back at me. "You know darn well," it said, "that we're all soldiers—and till the fighting stops, and men are no longer getting killed, don't you stop longing for War Bonds!"

"OK, Serge," I said, "you win. I can just make it to that War Bond place. I'll just get those clothes later."

The way my mirror made me look, you'd think I was wearing a wind coat!

DON'T WEAR A BADGE!

Avoid radio interference and jamming. Pick up any radio set in your neighborhood and adjust the tuning dial. If you hear any stations you recognize, you will see that they are not using the same frequency as the one you are tuning in. This is a good indication that they are using a frequency that is not legal. You can also check by comparing the frequencies printed on their calendars with those of the station you are listening to. If they do not match, it means that the station is jamming your program.

The above information is based on the latest data available from the Federal Communications Commission. It is important to remember that you are required to follow all regulations concerning the use of radio equipment, including the wearing of a badge, or other identification, when operating a radio station.
