Budget Director Approves Publishing Notice of Test—Filing Opens in a Week—$2,420 Starting Pay—$3,000 Will Be Appointed

The Municipal Civil Service today informed The LEADER that the advertisement for the open-competitive examination for Patrolman (P.D.) has been approved by the Budget Bureau. Mayor LaGuardia had instructed Budget Director Thomas J. Patterson to rush approval of the printing of the examination notice. Mayor-elect O'Dwyer is said to be in agreement. Age limits are 20-29.

It is expected that applications will be opened within 8 weeks.

The delay is caused by the following, according to Samuel H. Goldin, Executive Director of the City Civil Service Commission:

1. Thirty-five thousand applications must be bonded, together with receipt blanks and other forms.

2. The legal aspects of the Board of Estimate's action approving the Council's measure raising the maximum age limit for veterans must be considered.

However, the following official statements from the examination notice were released to The LEADER:

2 Places to Apply

1. Applications will be issued and received at the Borough Hall, 100 Borough Hall, Brooklyn—Municipal Building, 40 Chambers Street, Manhattan—Municipal Building, 40 Chambers Street.

U.S. Needs Clerks; Jobs in 2 Days

A critical need for clerical personnel at the Veterans Administration Office, 346 Broadway, NYC was announced today by James E. Russell, Regional Director Second U. S. Civil Service Region. The prevailing shortage of discharged servicemen continuing their National Service Insurance in civilian life has created an additional need for clerical workers at this Veterans Administration Office.

Payroll deductions are no longer possible from the pay of these men and it has become necessary to set up direct billing and payment procedures, will all the additional work that this changeover entails. Positions are open at salaries of $1,100 to $2,187 per annum for a 44-hour week.

For the $1,105 grade no prior experience is required while for the $2,187 level one year of general service is required.

Effective Date is Oct. 1 and Limit 10%, Burton Tells State Assn. in Letter

ALBANY, Dec. 4—Early action on duties more hazardous or arduous will be taken by John H. Burton, Director of the Bureau, on payment of extra compensation, not to exceed 10 per cent, to State Civil Service employees assigned to duties more hazardous or arduous than normally performed by others with the same title. Simultaneously, the Senate Appropriations Committee, in its budget bill, has eliminated the 10 per cent pay increases for employees performing duties which, when they are determined and as soon as each separate group of employees surveyed is completed, effective as of October 1, 1945. A letter from Mr. Burton, answering an inquiry by Dr. Frank L. Tolman, President of the Association of State Civil Service Employees.

Extra Pay for Hazards Is Granted by State

Senior Urged To Act on Pay Bill

The Senate moved yesterday to settle the dispute over Congressional pay raises, introducing another legislative effort to resolve the issue. Senator Alfonse M. D'Amato of New York, who chairs the Senate Civil Service Committee, introduced a bill providing for a pay raise for government employees. The bill would authorize a 10 percent increase in pay for non-supervisory employees, 15 percent for supervisory employees, and 20 percent for executive branch employees. The bill also contains provisions for adjusting pay as needed in the future.

Senator D'Amato said the bill was introduced in response to the growing dissatisfaction among government employees over their compensation levels. He noted that the current pay structure had not been adjusted since the 1960s, and that the cost of living had increased significantly since then. D'Amato argued that the bill was necessary to ensure that government employees could live comfortably and provide for their families.

The bill was debated for several hours, with many senators expressing support for the pay raise. However, some senators expressed concern about the cost of the bill and the impact it might have on the federal budget. The Senate is expected to vote on the bill later this week.
NYC Advises How To Obtain a Job In Its Service

Advice on getting a job with New York City is contained in a memorandum which is sent by the Municipal Civil Service Commission to persons asking for information. The letter, over the signature of Samuel H. Chaney, says:

"A list of all positions in the various offices of the City of New York can be found in the Classification of the Civil Service Commission of the City of New York which is available in every public library..."

Patrolmen Eligibles Invited to Headquarters

All men on the Patrolman (P.D.) eligible list have been invited to visit Police Headquarters, 240 Centre St., New York City, to see eligible list. The letter, over the signature of Dr. Daniel H. Smith, goes down the line of ex-servicemen receiving their re-exam medical examination for permanent Patrolman. The check is part of the general checkup.

Delay on Permanent Jobs

The bill provides:

1. That when the qualifications for any examination of last for appointment to any office, position or employment in the city include a maximum age limit, any person who heretofore and since April 1, 1948, was entitled to a public hearing before the Municipal Civil Service Commission on the coming Police and Fire Department examinations, as well as on any other test procedures. As present the statute, unless a law or ordinance of the city is enacted, the age limit is 29 on the date of the written examination for any of the two examinations mentioned.

U.S. PHANTOM AID TO VETS STILL CAUSING HEARTBREAKS

The number of veterans seeking Federal jobs keeps gaining pace with the increase of the number of men and women discharged from the armed forces. The U.S. Civil Service Commission's handling of applications by non-disabled veterans is causing more and more heartbreaks. Applications may be reopened for veterans, in some instances only for disabled veterans, and while the granting was no doubt sincere at the start, experience has so thoroughly proved the folly of continuing the turmoil that it is surprising that the Commission does not call a halt.

Such an attitude is no doubt sincere at the start, experience has so thoroughly proved the folly of continuing the turmoil that it is surprising that the Commission does not call a halt.

STILL CAUSING HEARTBREAKS

It is surprising that the Commission does not call a halt.

Mr. Moore installed a number of lawyers in public jobs who have been appointed to responsible positions in private law firms, or who have gone into successful practice for themselves. As for opportunities for lawyers and other professional workers in public employment, compared to private industry, he would not commend himself, but let the impression that, in one field or another, it is up to the employee and industry to do his own opportunities, rather than to wait on some predetermined condition.

EXPERIENCE CREDIT OVERDONE IN ONE NYC EXAM

The examination for Borough Superintendent (Department of Housing and Buildings) was voided by the Court of Appeals a few years ago because of an inaccurate prediction by the President of the NYC Civil Service Commission that the candidates would be on the eligible list, although the oral examination had not been completed. Certainly the candidates had nothing to expect from the examination of the Commission. It does nothing to rectify a situation that is fast becoming notorious.

Mr. Moore has taken up-and-coming types of ever since anyone who knows him well can remember. He is a teacher and student even in his high school days, when sports are least subject to discussion.

At home, while in the academy, and later in business, he was always active in student, campus life, and community organization. He has always been a friendly, good-natured man; had to be. You see, he's one of these people who never lose their cool in a college course, setting arduous challenges for the football team, being a correspondent for NYC and Boston newspapers; he has written a column for the New York Graphic on the thrill of success of the New York Giants, and that is a form of studying for students. The book learning that he has displayed in his work is no accident, but he is not so sure that he could get a coaching position in the professional ranks.

TERMINAL LEAVE

To make a statement on the stand for application blanks, encouraged to fill in 20 years, will it be the last? He is up to the employee and industry to do his own opportunities, rather than to wait on some predetermined condition.

NON-DISABLED VET PREFERENCE IS FOR AT LEAST 5 YEARS IN NY

The Public Administration Clearing House, discussing the veterans' preference amendment ratified at the polls in N. Y. State on Nov. 6 last, says:

One provision of the constitutional amendment, placeing a seven-year preference for non-disabled veterans. These veterans are entitled to preference until Dec. 31, 1950, over other discharges. The military service of the non-disabled veteran is assigned.

The amendment places no time limit on preference for disabled veterans.

The amendment does place a 5-year limit on preference to non-disabled veterans, and not in the sense that the Clearing House conveys. It is a 5-year minimum. The amendment is designed to extend the non-veteran preference without limit.

What has struck close observers of the veterans' preference amendment is the present conscious effort to discourage the use of it by Garrison, and, in a sense, to force the issue. From a surprise, the interesting part of it is that it's now official. It is expected that Governor Dewey will want the present indication of joining the old office to run with him again, but in any case, it might not be positive that all of them will.

DENIED NYC PREFERENCE

Rocco D. Genovese was denied veterans preference on the Promotion to Assistant Personnel (Track) BMT Division list, according to the Municipal Civil Service Commission.

What a returned Veteran found out about New York

The great WAR JOB it did!

He got a thrill—and so should you—from the amazing amount and variety of the weapons that poured forth from his old home town. He hadn’t realized (few people do!) how many tools of modern war were forged in New York’s many plants. Here are just a few eye-openers: K-racks, gunsights, aircraft, bombights, life-saving drags, barges, uniforms, gun mounts, shells, radar, battleships... .

The surprising PEACE JOB it does!

Here’s another little-known fact about New York: we’re the leading manufacturing city in the country! We out-produce Chicago (next largest industrial center) by nearly 50%! In one field after another, New York makes the most... and generally the best of its kind...

PAINT... New York makes 10% of the country’s paint—more than one quart for every man, woman and child in the United States!

CLOTHING... Three-fourths of all women’s better dresses, 90% of their fur garments, are made here in New York.

PAPER... More than 1/2 of the country’s paper products—napkins, caps, cans— are made in New York town.

The OPPORTUNITIES it offers!

Best news for our returned veterans (and you) is that local plants tell us they expect to employ many thousands more people than they did before the war.

All a city needs to give its citizens prosperity... opportunities for all... is here in abundance in your own New York.

There’s a pent-up buying power soaring into the millions. Business has ambitious plans for expansion. The switch from war to peacetime production should be easy and quick. (The city’s manufacturing facilities are tremendous and distributed among 27,000 plants.)

And—to make all plans for expansion workable—there is ample, dependable electric power, supplied by efficient private management.
