Job in USES Studied
To Avoid Unfairness
In Transfer to State

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18—If President Harry Truman wins the full support of those available to him—ten days—to sign the bill which places the United States Employment Service back under State control, the bill won't go into effect until April 2. (The measure was sent into effect Oct. 10 by signature.)

The employees involved are anxiously watching this, since many of them expect their annual increments on April 1. If the decontrol bill fails until after this date, then their cumulative annual leave will be paid to them at a higher rate.

The return of the USES functions to the State would affect the Division of Placement and Employment, now in the State Department of Labor. The Secretary of Labor has a draft of a proposed bill for the transfer of Federal employees to the State payroll that is being studied, carefully by legislative and personnel experts. Special attention is being given to the effect of transferring to State control those jobs which were upgraded considerably.

The legislation which will be full to all is being sought.

Eligibility Dispute

Of 31 Promotion Exams

Thirty-one NYCT promotion examinations, involving opportunities of hundreds of municipal employees remain indefinitely tied up as a result of a dispute between the NYC Civil Service Commission and the Mayor's Office. Polling each of the promotion examinations listed below the records of the Commission is the notation "Availing decisions on 2-year eligibility rule." The Commission has set a 2-year eligibility requirement for these promotion examinations and the Budget Bureau has "suggested" a 2-year requirement. Some have been ordered by the Commission earlier in 1944.

STATE ASSOCIATION PIONEERS IN FIGHT AGAINST INFLATION

The only way to fight inflation is to fight it. That's why the action last week by the Association of State Civil Service Employees to ratify a new contract is most significant and important ever taken; and why its action should be hailed and cheered by all workers and taxpayers in our state, including public employees. The fight against inflation, and for adequate grueling hardship. Every aid, every tool, in this struggle. If they lose, they will be without a ceiling. But let him act, at the same time, to protect himself."

COSTLY TO CIVIL SERVICE

For the first time in New York history, the state has raised the minimum pay of state workers, but civil service employees generally, are in need of all of them to express their gratitude to the following:

FRANK MURPHY

He's a firm believer in the value of the first line. At the age of the Deputy Fire Chief Frank Murphy has been a member of the department for 24 years and has served in many positions, including fire chief. He is well respected for his leadership and has been a driving force in the department's growth.

There is a new system of printing the telephone directory in the city. It is called "Big Book" and it is designed to make it easier for people to find the information they need. The system is being used in the city of New York and will be rolled out to other cities in the near future.

Union leader, The LEADER:

Q. "What's the most important thing you've done for your union this year?"

A. "We've been working hard to improve our members' wages and benefits, and we've also been fighting for workers' rights in the courts."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18—President Truman asks Administrator Chester Bowles, late the very efficient members of the staff of the Office of Price Administration for War, the War Labor Board, and the War Munition and Reconversion takes over on Jan. 1.

President's Letter

The President writes, in part:

"Once more I want to congratulate you... the staff of the Office of Price Administration for their work on the job you have been doing. I would like to tell you how much I appreciated your efforts to the task until it is completed.

"During the months immediately following the War, the multi-dimension of many Government war-time agencies came to the end. The Office of Price Administration, the Office of Price Administrator for War, the War Labor Board, and the War Munition and Reconversion take over on Jan. 1.

"Work has a Stoppage"

"The work of the Office of Price Administration must continue as long as the state of inflation is past. That day, and moment, when the power of all, is still in the future.

"A great deal of the work on this difficult task of inflation is past. But that feeling that you can do this and not someone else take over your responsibilities, Unfortunately, there is no "second team," and we must do our first-hand experience in the difficult technical work of inflation control. The country is counting on you to stick at your post."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18—The Posts at Service is solicited in a full-dress Senate debate, with retirement, bowled to its appropriate....restrained the opposition to or to express the wishes of the opposition.

"Senator Downey, who has been backing the proposed bill, yesterday reported out by the Senate Civil Service Committee. The committee has withdrawn a proposed amendment.

This amendment would have wiped out the 15.9 per cent increase for the fiscal year of 1946, and substituted a 10 per cent raise for the first $2,000 and 20 per cent for those receiving above $1,200.

A Little Chiding

When Senator Byrd closed Senator Downey that nobody seemed to favor the committee's report in Downey's own bill, the proposed amendment was withdrawn, especially under threat by the opposition to recommend the bill. Senator Downey then returned to full support of the 30 per cent proposal. Senator Byrd, who has been raised as opposition because of his economic speculations, but who had not previously committed himself on the bill, offered an amendment.

Bipartisan Amendment

This would have wiped out the July 1 raises and substituted 20 per cent for salaries over $1,200, with 12 per cent for those above $4,000, and 9 per cent for those above $1,200. Then the Senate began discussion of the amendment.

Although opposition is rated strong, and delaying tactics were used against the bill, it was finally confirmed after a 45-day notice of revenues. The Senate's Civil Service Committee was considered an important break in the Federal service in accordance with the provisions of the bill. The Senate Civil Service Committee has power to lead in the number of veteran employees in its biggest mass résumé of being actively interested in efficient civil service, during October, 1945, of 2,605 placements over September total representing the highest manpower available.

PATROLMAN Study Material

No Appointments By Mail for Job as Patrolman

No applications for the NYC Patrolman examination can be distributed or received by mail, in contrast to the case in 1941, when the last previous test was given for this title.

The Commission explains that it wants to avoid the delay which takes place if mail applications would have to be accepted and processed after other films have been closed. In addition, the men in service will have another opportunity to compete next year as it is planned to hold yearly examinations, and it isn’t like last year when failure to file an application would mean a five year delay.

No one bold face word which most likely to spoil the true meaning of the above passage is (c).

Question 7

Third degree should not be used by the police only if the man is sufficiently to produce the truth. If a man is sufficiently tortured, he will confess to anything, and if, in the process of torture, some information is derived from him, that will prove to be false.

The one bold face word which most likely to spoil the true meaning of the above passage is (d).

Truth, (c) forcible, (a) torture, (b) truth, (d) torture.

Question 8

Suppose you are a patrolman, off duty and in civilian clothes on your way home at 9:30 p.m. While crossing the street you recognize a criminal who is alleged to be innocent; (B) arbitrary use of the third degree, (A) ill-advised procedure to first degree, (C) second degree murder, (D) third degree, (E) perjury.

Question 9

While on patrol duty in a outlying residential district of Staten Island, you come across another patrolman looking in a desolate lot on a dark rainy night. While crossing the street you find an abandoned car with a warrant for arrest. It was being driven by a man who is alleged to be innocent; (A) arbitrary use of the third degree, (B) ill-advised procedure to first degree, (C) second degree murder, (D) third degree, (E) perjury.

Question 10

If there is a warrant for the arrest of a person and he refuses to give himself up to the police, (A) third degree, (B) perjury, (C) arbitrary use of the third degree, (D) ill-advised procedure to first degree, (E) second degree murder?

Adopted last week’s study questions: 1; d, 2; b, 3; c; 4; b; 5; permitted.

VETERANS OVER 29 MAY APPLY FOR PATROLMAN EXAM

Although Mayor LaGuardia has not OK’d the bill granting over-age veterans permission to file for Municipal Civil Service Commission examinations, allowing veterans over 29 years of age to the conditionally eligible, by Samuel H. Galston, Executive Director of the Commission’s staff, issued the order. This is done in case a bill for waiving the age limit for veterans passes. If no legislation is passed qualifying the veteran over 29, the $1 filing fee will be refunded to the veterans who filed conditionally.

Here is some helpful information on making the application form:

When you call at the City Commissioner’s office you will be handed a printed sheet about 8% by 11 inches and a printed cardboard sheet about 5% by 7% inches.

What’s on the 2 Sheets

The cardboard sheet is divided by lines into columns and consists of the following questions on which you are to be notified when and when to appear for examination and training. You have to make out the form. All you have to do is sign your name and address four times, shown by boxes and asterisks, or write your name and address or not you claim veterans preference. The sheet is long and you may not fill it out immediately, but may take them home and fill them in at your leisure.

The paper sheet is important. Fill in all spaces carefully giving your name, address, and date of birth. Do not make any errors and write legibly or not you claim veterans preference. Also, your place of residence will be checked by the Commission and it will be searched for the past five years.

You shall not have to fill these out immediately, but may take them home and fill them in as you desire. Also, it would be a good idea now to study the reverse side of the application, which lists the general requirements for entrance in the examination, minimum, some physical requirements, vision, etc.

The paper form must be witnessed before a Notary Public or Commissioner of Deeds.

Fill the blank in the form in the Commissioner’s office in the Borough where you live. The filing fee is $1.

All Must File in Person

Remember that the applications are not open to anyone who holds Civil Service Commission, but at that particular application’s office which

Reprimand of Fireman Upheld by Court

The right of Fire Commissioner Patrick Walsh to impose penalties on a fireman for going to the Commissioner's office without official permission was upheld by Supreme Court Justice Koch.

Fireman Frank Mott (now secretary of the NYC Uniformed Firemen's Association) had been active in an organization of firemen working on a reorganization of the Department's endorsement associations. He was charged with attending a meeting at Fire headquarters without official invitation, and was reprimanded. He was also charged with having sent two communications to Commissioner Walsh without going through proper channels.

The court's decision upheld the validity of the section of the department's rules which reads: "Members shall not visit the Headquarters of their Superior Officers without permission of their immediate commanding officer. If their request for such permission is not granted, they may forward a request for an interview, either through official channels, or by mail; such request shall state briefly the purpose of the interview."

TWO CLAIMS DENIED ON VET PREFERENCE

The Municipal Civil Service Commission today announced that veteran preference claims have been denied to Henry Geiger, on the list for Promotions to Clerk, Grade 2, Parks, and to R. Albert Cohen, Promotion to Clerk, Grade 5, Pensions.

The blackout is OUT! So are the dim-out and the brownout. Now you may have all the light you want, wherever you want it, and for as long as you want it.

Light—the symbol of peace and hope—glows throughout the city in its first peacetime Christmas in five years. Thousands of sparkling shop windows speak of prosperous days ahead. The flashing lights of towering skyscrapers, breathtaking spectacles, and the cheerful radiance of millions of workshops, offices and homes herald the great and glowing opportunities in the world that lies ahead.

It's a new world, a glowing world, and its eyes are focused here. So...

PBA DECIDES 3-1 TO ELECT OFFICERS BY POPULAR VOTE

The next election of the NYC Patrolmen's Benevolent Association will be held this month. By an overwhelming vote the PBA members for the first time in the history of the union, will discard the system of representation by trustees. The next election is due in June, 1946.

Chairman of the panel at the last PBA meeting stated that of 8,700 members present, 8,500 favored direct voting for officers of the defense system of the defense system.

The chairman also announced that for several years in the Police Call, a scheme known as the "Back Door" has been strongly supported by John Curran, secretary of State. Opponents have opposed PBA president Patrick Curran, and have been met with official opposition of the defense system.

The chairman also announced that after a return of 12 years in office this month and to be General O'Dwyer when he takes over, the membership, members of the 1st test, and of Police Commissioner Arthur W. Keating.

The Strand said hold over to Dick McIntyre and Vip's for the holiday week. The screen offering is "Two Young To Know," a refreshing love story with Joseph Leslie and黎 Roger Hutton. We'll have a change to see Laurence Olivier again in a new production of "Adventures For Two," which opened at the Wince Artikho Pictures announced the release of an interesting English film, "Once There Was A Girl," which will open on December 23 at the State. The script tells the tale of Lionel Atwill's character in a British beauty... The accompanying feature is "The Golden Slipper"... based on the music of a Tchaikovsky operetta.

An interesting item from MGM announces that President Truman's speech on atomic energy gave the film studio the title for its opus on that subject. The film will be called "The Beginning of the End" and is considered to be one of the most important pictures ever made.

The opening of the new Christmas-time-floor room—Barry Sullivan, who played so well in "Out of Here," the cat didn't stand a chance. Barry Sullivan yelled, "Let's take her off the parking lot." With the scene was spoiled anything.

One of 9 Live U.S. Jobs

James R. Rosenfield, Director, Civil Service Department, Second Region, U. S. Civil Service Commission, released today the official notice of the examination for Aerico Communication. Examinations will be held at Federal jobs at $2,100, plus overtime pay. This is one of the few real opportunities for jobs in the Federal service, examination is through the Second Regional Office.

The jobs offer opportunities to those who have experience in the radio broadcast of the armed services as well as to others. Openings exist in various parts of the country, including New York, but not at present in the city.

Applicants must be able to send and receive Morse code at 30 words a minute in International code at least as well as to write by the touch system at an average speed of 125 words a minute. A written test will be held; also a practical test of ability to send and receive by Morse code will be announced for them. Applications can be submitted until June 6 are received.

To the right, front to rear are Horace McNamara, H&L 143; Richard Rams and Charles Pentola of E. 234.
