FIRST LIST OF NEW STATE EXAMS

Special to The Leader

ALBANY, Feb. 26—An examination of the State Civil Service Law and other laws affecting State employees is asked in a bill introduced in the Legislature by Senator Seymour Halpern and Assemblyman Andrew C. Wool.

The call also asks for a survey of the administration of civil service in connection with an efficient examination to determine the welfare of conditions.

BILL ALLOWS REVIEW OF HATCH ACT CASES

Special to The Leader

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26—Civil Service employees who have been dismissed from Government service for violation of the Hatch Act will have their cases reconsidered in the near future, a staff member of the Civil Service Commission revealed today. The Commission will reopen these cases immediately upon the passage of an act to fill all of them will be staggered, particularly as the revision of relating eligible lists is effective under the existing Statute, and maintaining the lists up-to-date in this respect, take up a considerable amount of time.

No Time to be Lost

The Civil Service Commission is anxious to conduct the examinations expeditiously as a means of reducing the number of provisional appointments to be conducted in April. Title and salary grades have been posted.

Examinations will be held for jobs in several other departments also, but no testing has yet been given of their titles. All told, however, the series of examinations, traversing State departments, agencies and institutions, will be the largest since pre-war days.

3 More Suits

An action was instituted today in the Supreme Court by Police Lieutenant John A. Baxterman against the Municipal Civil Service Commission for a construction of the veterans preference amendment to the State Constitution. The action is being handled by Attorney General John J. Fisk.

The new suit was started by James J. Weldon, formerly No. 299 on Lieutenant's list, now, as a result of Commission's revision, No. 48.

Letters have been received by Mr. Field from civil service employees located all over the State, seeking information and also the status of litigation.

Another suit is planned to be started this week on behalf of Paternal John M. Flannery, who is on the Senior list.

3,000 Steady Jobs Opened to Nurses

The Veterans Administration has announced vacancies for 2,800 architects and engineers in the newest Veterans Administration hospital construction program. There are openings for architects, engineers, carpenters, plumbers, electricians and laborers with experience in specific work on hospital construction, and it is hoped that these new openings will be filled by early March.

Hundrunds Will Get $3,000 Fire Jobs in '46

Men who are interested in jobs with the NYC Fire Department will soon have an opportunity to file applications for the competitive examination.

Officials of the NYC Civil Service Commission explain that a sufficient number of men are returning from military service to fill the call for Manhattan, but this is not in true of the Fire Department and that the P.D.S. exam has a high priority on the Commission's list with hundreds of vacancies to be filled this year.

As a result, the Commission is accepting applications for jobs in the Transit system as far East Line and the written examination for the 3000 men is scheduled for March 9. Next big examination, according to Commission plans will be the P.D.S. test.

The P.D.S. exam is among the most popular held by the City, and will take with a 3,000 base salary and promotion opportunities in the highest ranks in the Fire Department.

THE STATE EMPLOYEE: CITIZEN FIRST

The American Veterans Committee has the slogan, "Citizen first, Veteran second." Many State employees are members of the American Veterans Committee and the Association is interested in continuing close contact with the Veterans Committee.

The position of the Association of State Civil Service Employees in relation to the Veterans Preference Amendment was often misrepresented and the Association realized the importance of correcting this misunderstanding. The issue is water over the dam. But the Veterans Preference Bill has still to be drawn and the group of civic organizations that proposed a sound Constitution amendment and opposed the (to date) Cotton-Dwyer-Dohner amendment will continue to effort to pass the bill providing for a legal recognition of the Veterans Preference.

AIM IS CIVIL SERVICE PRESERVATION

The Association's aim also will continue to be the preservation of the civil service system as an essential evil of good government, in the interest of the people of the State.

We will quarrel with the essential aims of civil service that the best qualified persons shall conduct the public business and that no public money taken from the taxpayers shall be wasted for the purpose of inefficiency. But many look the other way when the political party in power is clamoring for greater retirement benefits for the public employees and is in favor of the annual increase of public expenditures.

Few decent people resort to political action fairly. The easy way is to leave everything to our legislators and the Governor. If the "pressure boys" will quarrel with the essential aims of civil service that the best qualified persons shall conduct the public business and that no public money taken from the taxpayers shall be wasted for the purpose of inefficiency. But many look the other way when the political party in power is clamoring for greater retirement benefits for the public employees and is in favor of the annual increase of public expenditures.

CITIZENS IN DEEDS AND IN NAME

The Association has enjoyed good relationship with the Legislature of the State. The Association has prepared and sponsored bills for the knowledge of State administration results in frequent requests for information and advice to the Association in the discharge of its duties of public policy. It is listened to when proposals affecting State civil service are discussed.

We hope to continue the high respect which the Association has earned as citizens first. We expect to be citizens in name only but in deeds as well.

WHAT EVERY STATE EMPLOYEE SHOULD KNOW

STATE COMMISSION AGAINST DISCRIMINATION HAS JURISDICTION OVER STATE EMPLOYEES

Last year the Legislature cre- ated the State Commission Against Discrimination to deal with the responsibility of enforcing provisions of the state de- signed law to combat discrimination in employment. The legislation is to count of race, color, creed, or na- tional origin.

There was little doubt that this responsibility would be given public employees. However, it was not so clear that the law would apply to any jurisdiction in cases of private employment. In order to resolve whatever doubts existed in this respect, Miss Minnie Davis, Trustee of Adelphi College, asked the Commission to request an opinion from the Attorney General on this important point.

Discrimination

Request and, after much, the opinion of the Attorney Gen- eral clearly indicates that the State Commission Against Dis- crimination has jurisdiction over discriminatory employment practices and is empowered to enforce the provisions of the State Constitution and the laws of the State.

The Commission has a strong ad- visory committee of corporate leaders, among them heads of the New York City Chamber of Commerce and the New York City Bar Association, to take an active part in the work of the State Commission. The Commission is composed of three members, including a public official or representative.

Many persons, especially those subjected to discrimination in employment, have not been aware of the Commission, or have not known of the filing of any complaints relating to race, color, creed, or national origin. There are numerous cases in which complaints are filed relating to race, color, creed, or national origin.

Two persons, one of whom is in the employ of the New York City Police Department, have recently been appointed to the position of public official or representative of the State Commission.

LEGISLATIVE support is increasing for the Vested Retirement Pension Bill. If approved, the bill will provide that employees who have five years creditable service will receive a deferred retirement benefit at age 60.

The purpose of the bill is to have the State recognize a pension as a bona fide asset, which will continue in force, unless the employee is entitled to receive it, and therefore not to be forfeited upon resignation. A deferred benefit, at age 60, is provided for those with five years or more of member service, and therefore not to be forfeited upon resignation. A deferred benefit, at age 60, is provided for those with 5 years or more of member service.

Any employee who resigns, regardless of length of service, forfeits the pension, which is the State’s part of the retirement allowance. The ex-employee gets back the amount of the retirement allowance which was withheld from the payroll of the employee during the period of service, and is in the nature of a reimbursement for the services rendered by the employee.

How Truman's Order Affects War Worker

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26—Here's a "wait and see" dilemma for Federal war workers who want to keep their jobs. They will have to take and pass a regular Civil Service exam, a new order of Truman's. The President's exam order is to be placed on an eligible list with other workers. The best policy is "wait and see." The President's offer exams in all the many thousands of Civil Service positions.

What's Ahead

1—War Service employees who are seeking a $500 a year annual increase will be entitled to a permanent appointment ahead of all non-veterans whose names have been on the job at least a year at the time Civil Service examinations are held.

2—If a war service appointee misses civil service exams, he will be replaced by permanent non-veteran "outsiders," with no penalty.

3. There is still another way in which Mr. X, a war service appointee, can be given a regular Civil Service status—by winning and holding a place on an eligible list for which he qualifies.

4. War Service employees who are seeking a 500 a year annual increase will be entitled to a permanent appointment ahead of all non-veterans whose names have been on the job at least a year at the time Civil Service examinations are held.

5. Veterans who win on the Civil Service exam and are given the points they added to their grade, and therefore have about 10 points added to their grades—and thereby will stand a much better chance than non-veterans. And they will be placed at the top of the list for which they qualify.

6—War service employees who have been on the payroll less than five years will stand a chance of reaching their name on the eligible list. The President's order, in fact, stands to keep them by giving them new opportunities.

7—War service workers who have been on the job at least a year at the time Civil Service examinations are held, may win a permanent appointment in competition with veterans, and with non-veteran "outsiders." This is to the advantage of war service workers in competition with veterans.

It will work this way. Let's assume our on-the-job war service employee has taken exam with a grade of 87. We will give him the equal of five more points to war service workers who fit into the new classification.

The exam order will be an incentive to all war service workers, even non-veteran war service workers, to be in better physical condition.

Some reservations exist among members of the sub-committee on Public Service, none of whom voted against the order. However, those who held reservations do not feel it will be the end of the war service workers. Other words the number of job candidates versus the number of available openings—will be the deciding factor.

The President's order is expected to be a plus factor for war service workers, and a minus factor for non-veteran "outsiders." It means that those who miss the exam will lose their current job, and that those who meet the exams will receive the points they added to their grade, and stand a chance of reaching the top of the eligible list for which they qualify.

Who's Eligible

Who are the eligible war service workers? Those who are eligible to apply for exams are those who have been on the job at least a year at the time Civil Service examinations are held. The President's order does not apply to people who have had any kind of leave of absence from the job.:

What's Happening

1. U.S. Senate James M. Mead of North Dakota, sponsor of the postwar bill, has been reelected chairman of the Senate sub-committee on Merit System. He is also chairman of the sub-committee on Public Service, which has been authorized to conduct examinations for non-veterans.

2. Senate Majority Leader Martin uncover the following notices to war service workers: "The Army of the United States.

Clarence Riley has been appointed to the Veterans Administration as Co-Chairman, will direct the effort of the Federal and business concerns in the metropolitan area.

The semi-annual Red Cross Drive is underway until February 28. It was sponsored by Local 137, National Federation of Federal Workers of America.

Hatch Act Violations

The Hatch Act is a violation of the "no politics" or "no political activity" as a Civil Service employee. In most of the cases handled by the Department of Civil Service, the violation has been committed by employees for political reasons. The Department of Civil Service believes that the penalty was too lenient in some cases and that the civil service employee broke the law.

Because of this belief, the Department of Civil Service issued an order that anyone with a bond who had a criminal conviction within the last five years, and who had been sentenced to between one and three years in prison, had been convicted of a serious offense, could be hearing for a period of one year at the time Civil Service examination is allowed. The President's order would apply to war service workers.

The President's order would apply to war service workers. Other words the number of job candidates versus the number of available openings—will be the deciding factor.

That's the story as far as war service workers are concerned. But I feel sure that there are war service workers who are not satisfied with the order. They are saying, "Yes, the order is better than what we have, but it doesn't all add up to so far as we're concerned.

That, of course, is a very disturbing situation as far as this writer is concerned. It is far too bad.

I assume that the Defense Department has become aware of the order and is working out the details. I assume that they are carrying out the order as the President declared when he issued it. I assume that they have discovered the position that the order took, and that they will be unable to come to a position of reality for about the same time, and the order is almost sure to receive much criticism.

The NYG Civil Service Commission today announced that persons desiring to apply for the position of Civil Service Commission, should file their applications with the Civil Service Commission, and in the Examining Board.

28th Annual Convention

The 28th Annual Convention of the Civil Service Employees Association will be held in the Hotel Statler, New York, on May 16. The Convention is expected to be attended by over 400 members of the Association.

More than 200,000 federal employees will participate in the 1946 Red Cross Fund Drive, Albert D. Goldman, Major General, and James H. Rossell, head of the Civil Service Commission, will participate in the Red Cross Fund Drive, Albert D. Goldman, Major General, and James H. Rossell, head of the Civil Service Commission.

Chairmen chosen already have announced that they will participate in the New York's quota of $100,000,000. Each of the governing bodies will be appointed to carry the appeal to their members.

When the selection of all representatives has been made, the Executive Board will give the winners a call and arrange a meeting where they will be able to present the new order to the President, Mr. Rousell. The selection of all representatives has been made, the Executive Board will give the winners a call and arrange a meeting where they will be able to present the new order to the President.

Police Academy Syllabus Aids Candidates

Hershey is published the second instalment of the syllabus of the Recruits' Training School of the Police Academy.

In order to give the recruit a head start, the instalment of the syllabus of discipline is concluded, the necessity for a more detailed study is evident.

The new instalment deals with the government and civics of New York City.

Whether the superior is absent or present, the character of the superior and the attitude of the officer:

i. Public emergencies, riots, rebellion, etc.

b. The commands of superiors.

d. Servility or Gruffness.

e. Morale.

Thus, while never ceasing to remember the right of citizens to petition the government for a redress of grievances, you must consider them as indispensable.

Many of the employees who have retention rights will be able to remain at the Yard, but will have to suffer a reduction in grade and salary. For example, mechanics with retention rights may be offered posts as mechanics' helpers to reduce their employees with lesser retention rights.

In addition to this, there will be some hiring—on a small scale, and with a clean bill of health from the censorship board in New York City. Also, at least 500 will be offered posts as mechanics' helpers to replace other employees with lesser retention rights.

Federal Civil Service Commission will assist the laid-off Yard workers in their search for new employment.

Theatre Guild announced that Blythe W. O'Brien's play, "Three Strangers," will be produced at the Strand Theatre. "Three Strangers" is a play about three strangers in a strange place, and their search for meaning and purpose in life. The play is a tribute to the human spirit, and its ability to survive and thrive in the face of adversity.

JOSEPH GAVIT

On February 13, 1956, Joseph Gavit completed 50 years of service with the State Library. The State Board of Regents presented Mr. Gavit with a citation of merit for distinguished service to the people of the State. Mr. Gavit also received a bound directory of letters written by all the ranking officials of the Education Department, extolling his services.

Appointed in 1896 as junior clerk, Mr. Gavit was rapidly promoted and in 1898 he was given charge of the shelf section of the Library, which post he still holds. In 1911, the Library, then in the Custodi, was destroyed by fire. In the salvaging of works, Mr. Gavit played a large part. He was intimately connected with the in-state papers and the Library, which was the origin of the Library's present collection of 5,000,000 books, pamphlets and manuscripts.

At 2 different times, from 1938 to 1940, and from 1944 to 1946, after the resignation of Director J. W. W. and Mr. Gavit served as Acting Director of the State Library. After this, Mr. Gavit was given the title of Associate Librarian for Library and Library History.

Banks As An Authority

In 1948, the Navy Yard employed 70,000 workers. Before the war, the Yard had a normal staff of about 6,000 civilians—and now it faces a return to peace-time operations. That means a reduction of about 60 percent below peak operations. There are 10,000 of those who were employed in the Yard, but many of them have not been able to find work elsewhere. The United States Employment Service and the

Two Bills Benefit Hospital Employees

ALBANY, Feb. 26—State Sena- tors Hiram E. Br阆ker and Samuel H. Liebowitz introduced two bills yesterday for retiring at a com- pensation which State employees who work in State hospitals will receive as an annuity upon death as well as during World War I. One measure extends to these employees the 1927 measure which will be paid in addition to their regular annuities. The measure is $1,200 per annum or $48 for each year of service. The other bill, which was introduced by the Senator Liebowitz, provides for employees who worked in the hospital service at the time of World War I.
