NEW AIRPORT PAY

Special to THE LEADER

ALBANY, April 2 — Special description of duties and qualifications for four more State exams are given this week, supplementing similar data for 28 other State exams published in last week’s LEADER. Also 23 more village, county and town exams were announced.

The full data will be given concern Tax Examiner, Junior Tax Examiner, Estate Tax Examiner and Principal Paying Clerk.

Meanwhile, however, unofficial indications are that the pay mark will be between 80 and 85 per cent. With each of the 80 questions rated at 14, points that mean that the candidate with the correct answers has a good chance to pass.

The official tentative key answers, which appeared in The ALBANY, April 3—The large group of employees of the department of Correction met to perfect an amendment of the Association of State Civil Service Employees, to elect new chairman and secretary, upon formal request by Governor Dewey and because Chapter 218 of the Laws of 1946, its structure prior to April 1 an amendment. There is a further incompleteness in the present law arising from the fact that in some cases an employee who receives such a partial increment would have been entitled to a full increment in his old position if he had not been promoted. This amendment remedies the situation by providing that an employee who is promoted shall, in all cases, receive a full increment on the first day of the next fiscal year.

Temporary Service

(3) Liberalization of the law with respect to increment credits for temporary service when the employee receives permanent appointment.

The present law provides that an employee who has credit for service upon temporary appointment may receive permanent appointment if he is appointed to the same or a similar position. Consequently, if a clerk is appointed on a temporary basis at $1,200 and serves for three years, receiving three $100 increases, he will receive $1,500 upon her permanent appointment as a clerk, but would have to take a reduction to $1,200 if she received a permanent appointment as a stenographer.

The bill, introduced by Senator Brit and Assemblyman Oyler, makes important changes in the present law. The present law in the Field-Hamilton law.

New Reclassification Would Remedy a Mess

The much-needed reclassification for NYC personal service, to put titles and duties in their proper places, is being worked on, although independently, by the Civil Service Reform Association and the Citizens Budget Commission, Mayor O'Dwyer is interested. So the issue would result in downward revision of some pay scales. City officials maintain that NYU employees are underpaid. The exception is that some are overpaid. However, even the Budget Commission, an agency that had a proper committee of prominent New Yorkers, voted.

New York City's employees will be the first civil servants in the country to benefit by a comprehensive pay revision. The action is entirely voluntary, but its observation will serve as a shining example for other cities to follow. In short, it is expected that a number of factors will work together to make it possible.

The city owns the Health Insurance Plan of Greater New York—was developed by a committee of prominent New Yorkers. It is a non-profit membership plan which now has 55,000 members. The plan is not a group insurance, as such, but is a benefit plan for employees who are members of the New York City Health Insurance Plan (HIP).

Robert E. Hopkins, one of the sparkplugs of the Association of State Civil Service Executives in Washington, D.C., is President of the large Buffalo Chapter this June. His chief interest outside of his important job is working for better working conditions for the employees. He is characterized by the membership as "family, insurance, people, reading.""-

Army Is Offering Civilians Many Jobs Overseas

The following is the list of 12 jobs overseas for which the Department of the Army has been authorized by the President to fill by non-career military personnel. All positions are for civilians. The President in his letter of 22 January, cited the benefits that would accrue to such overseas civilians in order to attract them to the United States Army. The President was pleased with the results of his letter and is asking for the cooperation of all Army civilians in removing any barriers that may prevent them from considering overseas opportunities. An application for any of these positions must be submitted to the nearest personnel office in the United States. Applications should be submitted as soon as possible, but not later than April 6, 1946. The President will review all applications and make recommendations to the Secretary of State. The President also noted that the benefits to be gained by overseas service include additional pay for certain positions, special benefits for some positions, and an emergency compensation of 22 per cent. These benefits are available to all positions for which an overseas assignment is authorized by the President.

Recall of Eliot Kaplan
By Reform Group

Mayor William O'Dwyer was urged by the Civil Service Reform Association to recommend the immediate recall of Eliot Kaplan, its Executive Secretary, to the Department of City of Westchester County. Kaplan is a veteran of World War II and has been a member of the Civil Service Commission since 1945. Kaplan's recall is being sought because of alleged financial irregularities.

Neglect in providing benefits

By Refornt Group

The Civil Service Commission has been negligence in providing benefits to veterans. It suggests that veterans with a five-point preference for jobs have been affected by this negligence.

County Jobs Open

At Summer Camps

Juniors in the children's summer camps of the Westchester County Civil Service Commission have benefited from the recent Kelley strike. The Commission has opened several jobs to the juniors in an effort to provide them with employment opportunities.

Student Jobs

Universities and colleges have begun to hire students as part-time employees. This has been done to help students finance their education and to provide them with valuable work experience.

Student Surveys

The results of surveys conducted at universities have been used to determine the employment opportunities available to students. These surveys have been conducted at both public and private institutions.

Student Defense

Students have been encouraged to speak out against the policies of the colleges and universities with which they are affiliated. This has been done to ensure that they are able to participate in the decision-making processes of these institutions.
