Public Invited to Try; Insure Employees Can Get Permanency

An opportunity to qualify for highly-paid permanent Federal jobs in the accounting and auditing fields was unexpectedly thrown open today with the announce- ment by James E. Rossell, Director of the Second U. S. Civil Service Region, of an examination for Accountant and Auditor, CAP-7, to CAP-14. CAP-7 salaries range from a starting pay of $3,397 a year, to $14,890 by periodic increases of $125.40. For CAP-13 the starting salary is $8,179.50, with advancement to $80-

The official pass mark in the NYC examination for Fireman (F.D.) is 71. This was the mark of the 4,000th in order of appearance score in the written test held on July 13 and was approved by the Civil Service Commission at a special meeting.

Candidates may thus be able to tell whether they passed before the official review from the Commission.

On P.C. Har-der Than Police

The written examination was rated at a touch lower by many of the candidates, but the fact that 6,000 got 71 or higher shows that it did not prove too stiff, as a general proposition, for purposes of recruitment, although it did prove harder than the Patrolman written test, in which the pass mark of the 8,000th can- didate was 83.

For the assumption that the candidates in both examinations were of equal competition, the Fireman written test was 16 per cent harder than the Patrolman written test (five-fourths of 13 per cent). The Fireman papers con-didate was 82.5.

S. Treasury Department.

New Police List Offers Jobs Fast

The possibility of obtaining only 159 eligibles from the exam- ination list for Patrolman (P.D.), which expires next month, has improved greatly the appointment possibilities of eligibles on the prospective New Police List for Patrolman. Although the new list has not been promulgated, it has been published, and is being re- vision of test, in which half of the 600 September 1 appoint- ment will come from the new.

VETS GET INCREMENTS Following conference with the Transport Workers' Union, the NYC Board of Transportation has announced that returning veterans, promoted after taking special military promotion tests, will receive full increment credit, dated from the time the veteran was promoted if he had not been on military leave.

"WHAT IS A NURSE TO DO WHEN—"

By Frank L. Tolman
President, The National Association of State Civil Service Employees

I "WHAT IS A NURSE TO DO WHEN—"

Frank and FEARLESS consideration of the nursing situation in all State hospitals is long overdue. Two main issues are involved; 1. Lowering nursing standards, and 2. Paying nurses low salaries. The two objectives are interminably intertwined. The minute one moves, the other must move along with it, to that degree or more, the patient suffers and dies unnecessarily.

In most cases, nurses, and in particular, in Federal Hospitals, are high

There is a solution that has been adapted by the United States Civil Service Commission; it is the professional classification, in its primary meaning, as "service and training" and to a very considerable degree, it has been in effect in the State hospitals for some time, with a state in finding a cure rather than a punitive for the missing shortage. Let us consider the professional first.

AN INSULTING CLASSIFICATION

The State has denied full professional recognition to graduate nurses, in thejunior professional service, which is a disreputable name for what was once certainly called when educational by-pass is necessary, was hurt and insulted by this description.

Nurses are used in the State hospitals in a very menacing manner. If not the best of the best leave the State service when they find out the truth about working conditions and salary scales. So much for the punitive—now what of the cure?

I suggest the following:

1. Professional recognition by placing all nursing positions in the professional classification, effective immediately under the Federal Civil Service Commission.

2. A professional salary scale in general of at least the same level as is paid by the largest single employer of nurses—the U.S. government.

Medical profession has a stake in finding a cure.

A cure can be carried over into the future to secure peace and prosperity in America.

Some interesting experiments are noted of

Failure of 79th Congress to Exempt Pensions

From Tax Is Deplorated

Special to The LEADER

ALBANY—The New York State Association of State Civil Service Employees in the Department of Taxation and Finance, by a vote of 550 to 0, adopted a resolution Tuesday which says the failure of the 79th Congress to exempt pensions from tax was a result of the 30-day rule which did not allow the introduction of any new legislation. The resolution was adopted at the suggestion of Robert E. Germain, president of the Association. It is addressed to the 80th Congress in the hope that it may be printed in the Congressional Record.

To Exempt Pensions

79th Congress did not see fit to act upon United States Senator George W. Vroman's bill to exempt United States Senators and Representatives from the payment of Federal income tax on the portion of their pensions received by State and Territories. The bill was referred to the Treasury Department committee, which was not favorable. Mr. Vroman has been elected to the 80th Congress.

The resolution states that the pensioners are in the class of citizens most adversely affected by the tax, and that the pensioner is in the class of citizens most adversely affected in the helpfulness of increased wages coming to working men. It further states that Ralph L. Van Name, Secretary of the New York Civil Service Retirement System, pointed out in The Leader on May 14, the imposition of income tax on retired public employees is an injustice which has always lacked direct Congressional sanction. It states that the general principle is to exempt income of public pensioners from taxation and that in exempting income of public pensioners, the government is expressing a recognition of the debt of gratitude it owes to veterans of wars prior to 1917 and the debt of gratitude to all who served in World War I, who would be appointed.

On this the petitioners urged that unless the conditional preferences were applied only for the men of 1917, there would be so many veterans who had served in the World War I, that the new veterans could not compete for the jobs. They further asked that the law be extended to all veterans who served in the World War I, that the law be extended to all veterans who served in the World War I, that the law be extended to all veterans who served in the World War I, that the law be extended to all veterans who served in the World War I, that the law be extended to all veterans who served in the World War I, that the law be extended to all veterans who served in the World War I.

STATE LIBRARY'S EXHIBIT OPENS VISTA OF HISTORY

By Charles F. Gosnell

State Librarian

All kinds of public records, ranging from the Minutes of the United States Congress and the New York State Legislature, to registers of births and deaths, and county records, are preserved and made available in the State Library. Miss Edna McManus, Librarian of the Manuscripts Division of the Library, selected and arranged the material.

The exhibit was planned to show public officials, historians, and all interested in history, how much we owe to the men who preserve our records. All records are useful; some are unique. They are preserved by the State Library, Miss Edna McManus, Librarian of the Manuscripts Division of the Library, selected and arranged the material.

The exhibit is open to the public daily except Sundays.

BETTER PUBLIC RELATIONS

U. S. Pension Gain Is Spur To NYC and State Workers

The drive of public employees in local and State units of government for a revision of pension laws to grant retiring civil servants and employees annuities in accordance with today's conditions can gain new hope from a change in Federal retirement policies, effectuated by President Truman's signature of an amendment to the Civil Service Retirement Act.

In the past, Federal employees have been given pensions approximately equal to those they would have received if they had retired after 30 years of service, or after 20 years if they were 65 years of age or over.

Persons involuntarily separated from positions in the Federal service during a two-year period between July 1, 1945 and June 30, 1946, after having served 25 years or more and who retired because of age or disability, and who were 55 years of age or over, are now eligible for more liberal retirement annuities than previously permitted.

The provisions of the amendment cover persons who, during the two-year period, left the Federal service after involuntary separation and also those who accepted a lower-grade position after involuntary separation from a higher-grade position and who retired because of age or disability prior to June 30, 1947.

The latter case, the separation from the lower-grade position may be voluntary and still qualify the individual for the benefits provided by the amendment.

Age 60 Retirement Is Basis

Retirement annuities provided for under the amendment are based on the average compensation of the employee at the age of 60. If they have 50 years of service, minus a deduction of 2 per cent for each full year the individual is under 60, the deduction is 2 per cent for each full year the individual is under the age of 62. Fractional parts of a uniform age basis due to consideration in determining the percentage of reduction.

Male annuitants who have 30 years service who are eligible for the benefits of the new law formerly received, at the age of 55, annuities of approximately 56 per cent of their highest salaries, employees retiring at the age of 62 (percentages for women were slightly higher), whereas under the amendment the annuity is 66 per cent of the full rate. Percentages have now been used under the amendment for men of other ages are: 56 years, 88 per cent; 57, 90 per cent; 58, 92 per cent; 94 per cent; 60, 90 per cent; and 61, 88 per cent.

New York State employees, who have been working longer than the Federal employees, and who have been under the old formula, have another cogent argument to present at the next session of the Legislature.

State Police

Pay Raise Billed Needed

I believe that immediate recognition should be made by State employees to the Governor for the purposes of compensating the least 20 per cent of the payroll for the abnormal cost of living in the past two years. I know that since the time of my position in 1940, there has been nothing posted or written in and expressed their comments.

The cost of living bonuses that Governor Dewey signed into law, April 1, 1948, in no way represents anything more than the increase in the cost of living since those salaries were set up in 1947, and that a 20 per cent rise in the cost of living is 20 per cent better than the least 20 per cent rise in the cost of living before the next fiscal year.

To accept outside employment for any employee who has not paid his full share of state taxes and who has not paid his full share of state taxes and who has not had a satisfactory letter of recommendation from his employer.

The good public relations are of paramount importance in securing public understanding for this Department, and the public relations men of the Department truly perform the public in its relationship with the public. The public relations men of the Department truly perform the public in its relationship with the public. The public relations men of the Department truly perform the public in its relationship with the public.

Patrolman Eligibles Are Listed
In the Order They Will Get Jobs

The following contains the names of non-disabled veterans on the new NYC Patrolman list, with veteran preference effectuated, thus giving the appointment order. The previous patrolman eligibles were listed in the July 30 and August 6 issues:

1785 JoK. Murray
1787 T. Poudherty
1788 Geo. Sill
1790 Kdw. Casson
1794 Geo. Sehnaars

More than 16,000 competed in the written test July 13. Only the top 4,000 will be called for the Physical Examination, and only the 1,500 with the highest combined average will be placed on the eligible list. Men who believe that they achieved 70% or better in the written test should know that they can attain a high mark in the Physical to boost their final average. Assistant Chief of Department Edward G. Conway is designated Chief of Department J. Rank Mur-:
Curtis W. Pierce, President of the Board of Estimate, announced that Edward G. Conway will be Chief of the United Room House for one dollar. Fred Fader, a City Fireman, bid that they were going to do something like this: Out in Texas over May, 1945. . . . Note that the manufacturers and contractors have made a net gain of 11 percent on products that were sold and produced this year over last year. It shows a significant increase in the cost of living. Fred Fader was a member of the Board of Estimate, and he said that the city needed the land.

The mother of Capt. Daniel F. Stokers, Bureau of Fire is now at Wederman's Hall to attend the meeting of July 30, 1942. The meeting was called to order. The president, Capt. Daniel F. Stokers, read the following resolutions which were thereupon passed:

Bill Donoghue is the kind of man who would understand the problems of the members of the older groups into the Fire Department and the Uniformed Protection and Members of the Older Line, who has a new law that will enable the family quarrel between the old-line officer's association with the UFOA.

86 Per Cent Goal Sought

"At present," said Chief Wittekind, "the UFOA represents 86 per cent of the police officers and within a few months will have the majority of all the police officers and the support of the Board in place of inactive or liquidated organizations."

The end of the organizational settlement will be introduced allowing any officer who has lost his membership in the UFOA, it is expected that a resolution will be introduced allowing any officer who has lost his membership in the UFOA to Commissioner Frank G. Greaves; also to Councilman S. Samuel DiFausto, sponsor of the Bill, and Councilman Joseph T. Sharkey, the Mayor, who made the necessary action on the measure.

"Accordingly," Chief Wittekind said, "the new law which figured the arguments carefully and directed us to the proper Fund board through the UFOA.

"The enactment of the local pension plan, which as the final step in the Full Support of the Uniformed Professional Fireman's Association, becomes effective Monday, Sept. 30th, will make the people of the city, and the firemen, a free and independent organization.
