FIRE PHYSICALS IN PARK

By F. K. CLANCY

Most of the sessions of the new State training program in subprofessional and technical fields may apply to Otto Kilgore, 100 West 31st Street, Manhattan.

The Police Department has requested the NYC Civil Service Commission announced today that the Commission has swung into action on the next Patrolman (P.D.) examination. It revealed that the Commission has held conferences on the subject and that various changes in the notice of examination, compared to the last previous notice, are being considered. The new notice will not be identical with the last previous one.

President Morton estimated that the period for the receipt of applications would be opened some time in October.

ALBANY, Sept. 17—The Executive Committee of the Federation of State Civil Service Employees discussed at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel the possible increase in the number of eligibles for the following year.

For Teachers

Applicants for teaching jobs in the new State training program in subprofessional and technical fields may apply to Otto Kilgore, 100 West 31st Street, Manhattan.

Job Requirements

Applicants must have completed the course of study in all subjects required for appointment as a Fireman in the NYC Civil Service system.

Appointments Create Sudden Need

All UFOA Members Called to Meeting

Reports of delegators to national labor conventions will feature the meeting of the NYC Uniformed Fire Officers Association on Friday evening, September 29, 8 p.m., at the Hotel Martinique.

Other matters of importance to the uniformed officers will be discussed, and Lieutenant Henry J. Phelan, Recording Secretary of the UFOA, has issued a special call asking all members to attend.

The guest speaker will be Arthur A. Lynch, Deputy City Treasurer.

Exam Requested For Policewoman

The Police Department has requested the NYC Civil Service Commission to hold an open competitive examination for Policewoman.

The last eligible list expired three years ago, and except for a very few women who have appointment rights because of early service in one of the women's branches of the armed forces, there are no eligibles.

A quota of 120 Policewomen in the budget, therefore, there are only 14 eligible to be able to fill the list, and the budget has been assigned to important duties in connection with the drive against juvenile delinquency.

The test, when held, will give women an opportunity to compete for important jobs which pay $6,000 to start and offer the same guarantees of advancement as in other departments.

Exam in Paterson

The examination will be held in Paterson on the same day as the NYC examination.

CHEST X-RAY OFFER GETS BIG RESPONSE

By J. W. LEADER
ALBANY, Sept. 17—Sputtered on by the example of Governor Dewey who was the first State employee to take advantage of the New York State Employee’s Retirement System to gain protection through this health concern, the Association members have been flocking in to take advantage of this opportunity.

At many of the institutions which have X-ray apparatus, the picture is taken there. At other agencies portable apparatus is used.

The type of equipment in every institution differs with the policy of disposing, and the entire process takes only a few seconds.

Work will be streamed at the meeting.

Instantial and arduous jobs are supposed; under State law, to enable those who perform them to receive extra pay, said Dr. Frank L. Tolman, President of the Association.

The fact that conditions are not the same in all departments and institutions needs no argument, but the rule that all conditions can be about the same. Some institutions have been told that the extra pay extends only to employees in institutions in the Department of Public Welfare. Those employees are well entitled to the extended coverage which was the last to say that the employees in other department were therefore immune. It added, "The only solution to the problem lies in the adoption of fair written and adequate definitions of jobs within the two categories, and will be on the agenda of the next meeting.

Nominates State Head

Headed by Neitzel

WEST BRENTWOOD, Sept. 17—At a recent meeting of the Pilgrim Chapter of the Association of State Civil Service Employees the following candidates were nominated: President, Francis H. Noyes, Stamford; Vice-president, Harold Will; Secretary, Madey Koenig, Uniontown; Treasurer, Laverne J. Schiltz, New York City; Executive Committee: Captain John B. Kunkel, Captain John Neitzel, Captain Earl P. Pfannebecker, Captain Charles H. Foster.

Among the vital issues which will come before the representatives are the expansion of the membership by including local employees and increasing the number of members in each chapter. The investigation of safety plans and uniform personnel practices will also be considered. The consideration of pensions from taxation; extra pay for hazardous work, and other important matters.

Greater Association Project

The "Greater Association" plan to include local employees to receive pay plan, with 50 per cent of the full membership, is also effective. The plan was approved by the October meeting. The plan was approved in principle at the annual meeting last March. The plan is based on favor with the Constitution and rules of practice, and adequate membership.

The plan of implementation is the Full Membership Plan submitted by the majority of the Executive Committee.

The only solution to the problem lies in the adoption of fair written and adequate definitions of jobs within the two categories. It added: "The United States Department of Labor has long had the duty of determining what constitutes peculiarly hazardous to young workers, and for the same reason, the problem of those employees in institutions in the Department of Labor Standards. In its order it defined all hazardous jobs as a particular category. Among the occupations considered considered dangerous to youth are motor vehicle drivers and helpers, and employees involved in exposing to radioactive substances. Under the motor vehicle order the terms motor vehicle, driver, and helpers were, as the danger is plainly seen to lie in the inherent hazards of the profession, and in extending the job categories within the occupations, it has extended the job categories within the occupations, and in extending the job categories within the occupations.

as the Civil Service is founded on finding persons of unusual merit and fitness for the State Service, it is pertinent to ask whether those persons of unusual merit are put to their highest possible use after the opportunity opens a bit.

One's superior must either die or resign before the door of opportunity opens a bit. Unused brains and abilities are a major waste; a symptom of maladministration in Government has two major functions: (1) to find superior services wherever it finds them through suggestions and plans for improvement of work methods, and (2) to provide new opportunities for exceptional services. The idea may be for a new and better system of State colleges and universities or for a new and better system of collecting taxes, or for a correction of the circuit. In personnel administration the same is true. Live-wire men and women are the dynamos of the office or bureau, but they often either go dead through neglect, or go haywire through frustration or lack of opportunity to do the thing that they are best fitted to do.

The merit award board has the job of discovering and of rewarding (to the limited extent provided by law) both unusual achievement and valuable ideas for improving scores of thousands of people who work within the state Government.

What must be rewarded.

Live wires may be dangerous but only when something goes wrong with the circuit. In personnel administration the same is true. Live-wire men and women are the dynamos of the office or bureau, but they often either go dead through neglect, or go haywire through frustration or lack of opportunity to do the thing that they are best fitted to do.

All this is by way of introduction of the reward to the employee. It is expected that the reward will be a generosity of statement of the policy, procedures and methods of applying for award.

It is something like a special personal accomplishment on your job or your idea for doing it better.

7 1/2 P.C. Extra Pay Granted For Hazardous Work in 3 Mental Hygiene Wards

The Association of State Civil Service Employees, through its organization under its jurisdiction that Budget Director John E. Burton has approved a 1/2 per cent increase in gross salary for employees in the Mental Hygiene, to directors of institutions in his department, following:

"The Department has been advised that the Director of the Budget will approve a bonus for employees who, in his opinion, are assigned to duties more hazardous or more difficult than those normally performed by employees with the same title. In order that employees on these wards may be paid the bonus, such wards must have been approved by Department supervisors for a period of at least three months; and the number of patients of the required classifications. Employees on the following type of wards have been approved for extra compensation:

1. Psychopathic — Those patients who are mentally unstable and who often neglect their personal hygiene. They are placed in State hospitals where they are under the continuous care of trained medical personnel.

2. Psychopathic — Those patients who show a tendency to recurrent patients whose behavior makes them unsuitable for placement in State schools or a children's unit at a State hospital.

Salary Rate to be Increased

"Payment of the bonus will be retroactive October 1, 1945. The rate of the bonus for full time employees will be 1/2 per cent of gross salary for each case. For convenience in the preparation of the payroll and to permit the integration of the bonus with the regular salary, the salary rates described will be increased by the percentage of bonus. Employees working full time on these wards, and their relief, will be eligible for this bonus. Regular employees will receive a bonus payment computed on an hourly rate in the same manner as they do on tuberculosis wards, except at 1/2 per cent.

Employees regularly assigned to full time work on above described wards will continue to receive the bonus rate while they are absent on approved leave with pay, pass or vacation. The emergency increase will be computed on the increased rate and the bonus rate will be used for a period of six months. In addition to this, all employees who have salary and who are regularly employed full time on wards described above, will receive a bonus of 1/2 per cent or a total of $120.00 per month; after maintenance value. Any, has been deducted, the appropriate emergency increase is to be added."
An opportunity exists for federal employees to take advantage of the reopening of the age 55-20 plan. This plan will provide a measure of security for employees who have spent a significant portion of their careers in the public service and have contributed to its success. The plan includes provisions for those who have worked for over 15 years, and it allows for the purchase of additional years of service to enhance the retirement benefits. The reopening of this plan is a significant step forward in ensuring that federal employees' contributions are recognized and rewarded. It is essential that employees take advantage of this opportunity to secure their future. The plan is designed to provide a smooth transition to retirement, allowing employees to plan their retirements with confidence.
The Second Regional Office of the Civil Service Commission is preparing to rate the papers in the recent Postal Clerk-Carrier examination. However, before the actual rating can start, the applications must be processed for verification purposes. James D. Bezemer, Regional Director, says that it is impossible to tell now just when the rating will be begun or completed. The LEADER will carry prompt news of the progress in marking the test papers.

any wrongdoing. He explained that the subsequent complaint against him in Washington had been based on a misunderstanding born of the bitter trade of politics. He and his co-workers had been placed under investigation for conspiring to allocate the goods in such a way as to favor the Democratic candidate in a closely contested election. The investigator, however, had refused to cooperate with the charges.

Mr. Kaye had been investigating the allocation of goods for many years. He had worked closely with the OPA, the Secret Service, and the Narcotic Unit of the Department of Justice. He had been involved in many important cases, including the investigation of black market activities.

The letters and reports that had been compiled during the investigation had been thoroughly reviewed. The investigator had found no evidence of wrongdoing on the part of the individuals under investigation. He had been cleared of all charges and had been allowed to return to his duties.

Mr. Kaye had been a dedicated public servant for many years. He had served in various capacities, including investigator, assistant investigator, and investigator. He had received several awards and commendations for his work.

In conclusion, the investigator had been cleared of all charges and had been restored to his duties. He had been relieved of his duties in the Allocation of Goods, but he would continue to work for the OPA, the Secret Service, and the Narcotic Unit of the Department of Justice.

FIRE HOUSE REVAMPING

As to revamping firehouses, the tentative date for the abolition of the following companies: Engine Co. No. 2, Engine Co. No. 4, Fire Hose Com. No. 1, and Fire Hose Com. No. 7, this will probably be followed on November 1st. The following Engine Companies 4, 20 and 29.

Further plans along these lines will be presented at a later date.

Meanwhile, the O.F.A., through its executive committee, has voiced objection to the joint report of the com- mittees of the General Board and the National Board of Fire Underwriters insofar as It would change H & L 26. Underwriters insofar as It would carry by the Fire Department offi- cials in the Fire Department, is making a successful fight against polio in New York State.

Boys are being sought for con- tinuance on the fire apparatus, and a new third crew will be organized out in Brooklyn, L. I., the old one was disbanded due to the retirement of Bert E. No. 2, no longer responds to calls. These boys will be loaded with gasoline and the like necessary during the fire seasons.

Firemen have been hum- ped to the list of companies to fight fire in the rubber tire and match factory in E. 17th St., the other companies having quit. A special call across the street for a neighborhood fire was met with the same result.

At the head of the line of march was a contingent which had followed a special line of march by the fire apparatus including the oldest pumper belonging to the old Brooklyn P.D. The balance of the contingent was made up of some 40 firemen and a like number of reserve members from the schools of instruction.

All the line of march, which was about 100 men, were from visiting departments from New York, Washington, and New Jersey and Connecticut.

Leaving the city, the line of march was presented to the Hempstead Department for the most part in line, the Oriental Volunteer Company for contrast, the greatest distance and the Val- ley Steam Engine very welcome to the weary firefighters.

Multiple Alarms for August

Multiple alarms appeared on August 1st, all days, for fresh air, and a special call across the street for a neighborhood fire was met with the same result.

In reply to Director Patterson's arguments in favor of per-annum rates for Bridge Painters, the American Local Firemen's Night at Mardi Gras at the City of New York, which was held on the 2nd of July, was a great success.

You fail to inform the public of several points in the letter:

(1) The most dangerous time

(2) The per-annum rates of wages, seven hours constitutes a fair day for employees, are working eight hours per day.

The Line of March in August

The line of march was followed by various pieces of fire apparatus including the oldest pumper belonging to the old Brooklyn P.D. The balance of the contingent was made up of some 40 firemen and a like number of reserve members from the schools of instruction.

EFFECT OF PENSION OPTIONS ON MEMBER, BENEFICIARY AND ADDITIONAL ANNUITIES

The NYC Retirement Law sets forth a number of options for the beneficiary who dies before the minimum retirement age. These options allow the member to choose how the benefits are paid to the beneficiary and to consider the individual needs of the beneficiary.

The three options are:
1. A reduced life income to be paid to the beneficiary, but if the member bought added annuity, the added annuity is part of the initial reserve and the balance thereof goes to the beneficiary. The member may elect to get an annuity at any time.
2. Reduced life income for the member and, upon his death, a lump sum payment to the beneficiary for life. Under this option, the member must purchase the annuity at the time of retirement. If the annuity is purchased at the time of retirement, there is no lump-sum payment, and the beneficiary may not change the election once he or she dies before the member.
3. Reduced life income for the member and, upon his death, a one-half of the income he received is continued as the beneficiary for life. Extra annuity is committed to the beneficiary at the time of retirement. If the member bought added annuity, this addition is part of the initial reserve and the balance thereof goes to the beneficiary.

One Out of Every Eight NYC Employees Passed No Civil Service Test

Despite the large number of veterans who are seeking permanent jobs with NYC as their post-war career, a LEADER survey indicates that today approximately one out of eight municipal jobs is held by a person who did not qualify by a civil service examination. The number of 160,000 New York City employees and about 19,000 jobs which are held by provisional workers.

During the war, the recruitment problem of the city became desperate, a new rule was adopted by the Civil Service Commission to allow non-examination hiring for a period not to exceed six months. Numerous titles were added to the list of jobs which could be filled in this manner after hearings were held. Normally, a provisional may be appointed, but must not serve longer than 10 days after the appointment of an eligible list which is valid for the position in which he is serving. In case there is an eligible list available, an appointment cannot be made from the temporary list, then the appointment may be renewed by the Civil Service Commission each 18 days.

Latest figures at the offices of the Civil Service Commission of July 15, 1946 show the following who did not take an examination:

- Limited to 6 mos... 3,310
- Limited to 1 year... 10,050
- Military Substitutes... 769
- Total... 13,539

On June 1, 1944, the comparison between the temporary list and the regular list shows that today approximate...
