Non-disabled veterans have an opportunity to apply for examinations for a list of U.S. jobs in 22 titles, including popular ones, until 120 days after their discharge, while disabled veterans, any percentage disability, may apply continuously. Titles: Personnel Officer, Accountant and Auditor, Contact Representative, Draftsman, Engineer, Physi- cian and Chemist. A quicker ac- cess to a job is usually provided and the period of receipt of applications has closed for new- comers since the examination has not yet been held. Thus there is an equal call for a normal mili- tary examination, usually con- ducted a quarter of a year apart. The annexed list is therefore: de- rived in whole from which the normal filing period recently closed and for which regular examinations will be held soon.

In the recent Patrolman test 881 candidates passed all separate parts, but the advertised pass mark was the final average of the 2,000 candidates. Attempts to get the 881 on the eligible list have failed. In the Fireman test the pass mark will be that of the final average of the 1,900 candidates in relative standing, as advertised. Mrs. Mabel Badgett, Letchworth Village employee, as usual on these occasions, filled the orders of the dancers selling shares on a "Ban- can" of $25.40 for the Fund. Dancing the dance was quite successful, bringing in an amount of money which will be added to the Markham Field Lighting Fund. Mr. T. M. Phelan, President of the Letchworth Village Dance Committee, A.B.C.S.E., and the members of the Alexander Cameron Post, No. 181, U.G.W., sponsored this benefit. The Veterans of Foreign Wars, No. 78, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, No. 9, are handling the drive for funds, and they have arranged for a project of the Hasbrouck Post, and their communications will be heard by Mr. Rylan, on the Hasbrouck and Vennebo Post as the directors of the drive.

Mr. Robert F. Blazowski, President of the State Health Department, and Mrs. Leah Shafer, President of the Committee on Personnel of the State Nurses' Association, also attended the hearing on behalf of the State Department.

In justification of these salaries, the following figures which indicate vacancies currently existing in the Department of Mental Hygiene attest to the difficulty in recruitment and the high turnover rate:

Reference was also made to the State service losing qualified personnel to the Federal Service: 1.3000-3750.2, 2400-3000, 3, 1800-2300. Also, the State service is losing at a rate of 10 per cent annually, and morale and inability to provide adequate care for patients in these institutions is being devastated by the differences in pay.

Among those who appeared in the State Association delegation at the hearing were Robert Murray, Middletown State Hospital; H. W. Swoper, Middletown City Hospital; Bertram Bleecker, Community Nursing Association; Malcolm S. Van Culin, Craig Col- lege, New York City; Kenneth Daley, Bayhamton Hospital; Lida C. ELECTIONS

Speculations on the November 4th election are awaiting a decision from the Court of Ap- peals of the decision of the Office of the Federal Judge regarding the election. A knowledge of specialized technicalities and qualifications for future appointments is required in other phases of the nursing profession. This knowledge must be acquired through adequate training in the schools maintained by the State for this purpose.

Job Clearing House

Needed for Employees

A RECURRENT problem among public employees who desire to transfer from one department to another, or who are about to lose their jobs through reduction due to unsatisfactory conditions in their present places of work, is to ascertain where job opportunities exist.
In the State service, and in the political divisions of the State, employees are offered a remedy for job loss, but usually incurs a gap of unemployment, often a rather long wait and sometimes prove completely disappointing. While method will not create jobs, it certainly can be introduced and sometimes prove completely disappointing. While no longer have a job. So most of all the Federal service needs a clearing house that will have centralized information of job opportunities in Federal service, as well as clarity and expanding Federal and State service employees would be in every case the Civil Service Commission.

The law provides that an examination must be held, and in

State Assn. Meeting

Gús Wide Attention

THE annual meeting of the State Civil Service Employees Association was held at Albany on October 15 will deal with matters of great moment to employees of the State and local governments.

A recent study of State employment shows that the State service has been growing rapidly and its pace will accelerate. Both the AFL and CIO unionized public employees are growing rapidly and will absorb new members from the private sector. These new members will bring with them a variety of job-related issues that must be addressed by the State Civil Service Commission.

The trend toward organization among public employees has been growing rapidly. Some employees are in a competitive race toward affiliation of public employees with their own labor unions. The trend toward labor organization of public employees has been absorbed by public officials to encourage the formation of labor unions among public employees.

There is, however, another side of the picture which, unfor-nomically in serving these innocent patients and inmates. These latter should not be satisfied, disgruntled employees harboring just grievances.

It is the responsibility of government to develop sound wage and employment policies. It is not too much to ask of public employees a spirit of forbearance and patience, and just their grievances, must not, in good conscience, risk sacrificing the welfare of those they are pledged to serve by suddenly quit-ing their positions to meet even just demands of employees. It is not too much to ask of public employees a spirit of forbearance and patience,

That is what our democratic system of government contemplates.

The trend toward organization among public employees has been growing rapidly and its pace will accelerate. Both the AFL and CIO

The State Civil Service Employees Association is an independent organization of public employees, and its officers and members are

Little Hatch Act Bars Political Activities of Certain State Employees

Harry B. Mitchell, Recording Secretary, accredited the Association with the release of an article by Harry B. Mitchell, President of the New York Civil Service Commission, critical of the Hatch Act and charging that it is merely an attempt to sabotage active campaign work and discourage agitation and interest of state employees in political activities.

Preliminary Comment

The article is an attack on the Hatch Act, which is a federal law that prohibits federal employees from engaging in political activities. It discusses the efforts of the state employee movement to challenge the Hatch Act and asserts that it is being used to suppress political activity and to discourage interest in political affairs.

The article notes that the Hatch Act has been used in various forms in the past to suppress political activity, and that it has been used to bar federal employees from participating in political campaigns and activities. It suggests that the law is being used to prevent federal employees from exercising their rights to vote, to run for office, or to support political candidates.

The Hatch Act is intended to prevent federal employees from engaging in political activity that might conflict with their job responsibilities, and to ensure that they remain neutral in politics. However, the article argues that the law is being used to suppress political activity and to discourage interest in political affairs.

The article concludes by asserting that the Hatch Act is being used to prevent federal employees from exercising their rights to vote, to run for office, or to support political candidates. It suggests that the law is being used to prevent federal employees from exercising their rights to participate in political affairs and to discourage interest in political matters.
