A New Law Holds Up Fireman List in NYC

The adoption by the Council of an amendment to the law fixing age limits for Fireman candidates held up the list, which otherwise would have been promulgated by the Civil Service Commission free to access younger candidates, whereby attainment of age 21 by the time of appointment could be effective instead. Mayor O’Dwyer sent a message of necessity, urging adoption. The Council eliminated the minimum age limit of 21 on the date of filling. The delay in issuing the new minimum age limit for Fireman candidates may have their names placed on registers for appointment in only one year, either in Washington, D.C., and the immediate vicinity, or in the State of New York.

Police-Fire Raises Backed By Public in Petitions and Letter-Writing Campaign

A concerted campaign by organizations of the uniformed forces of the Police and Fire Departments of NYC for a 35 per cent pay raise, above $3,500 for the top Fireman and Patrolman grade, in line with a recently-adopted Council resolution, was begun today. The resolution called for making the bonus permanent and giving the added raise. The Fire groups started circulating petitions, while the Police groups concentrated on a letter-writing drive.

The NYC Civil Service Commission today considered reopening of the Patrolman (P.D.) examination. The period for the receipt of applications closed yesterday. The Commission is weighing the number of applications received with a view to allowing more candidates to compete. Also, the Council has passed a bill clarifying the maximum age limit for candidates. The minimum age required for filing might, if there’s a re-opener, be lowered even to 17, as the list may last four years, enabling a candidate to be 11 on appointment.

Plea Made for Stronger Drive to Prevent Child Delinquency

Local delinquency - prevention, and treatment services for children in New York State - are brought to full effectiveness by utilizing all resources available. Miss Grace G. Newell, President, United Bureau of Child Welfare, State Department of Education, declared at a meeting of the New York State Black Coalition, that the prevention of the malicious delinquency of children is the duty of the local community. 'A local community must not rely on the services of the Bureau of Child Welfare alone,' she said. 'There must be a plan of coordinating these services with the needs of the community.'

The State Employee

The State's Responsibility Toward Employees

In the NOVEMBER ISSUE of "Public Management," Charles S. Van Houten, Executive Director of the National Governmental Law Officers, writes on "Public Workers and the Right to Strike." Mr. Van Houten holds that the simple fact that a public employee may not strike. If a civil service employee "strikes" in the eyes of the law, he merely quits work and can be dismissed under the provisions of the Civil Service Law.

Another cause of strikes in government "are the direct result of the efforts by public employees to secure wage increases to offset the current increase in prices of all commodities. It is all too true that public employees are the lowest paid group of people in New York, and this fact has been emphasized by the current high prices more than most employee groups. For this reason, public employees are..." he points out. It is only natural that they feel the impact of employment.

Wage Scale a Basic Problem

This matter of wage scale is a basic problem of nearly all State and local governments. The reason enough for such a strike is that from time to time the law is amended and improvements in conditions of employment are made. The lack of a collective bargaining agreement is the fact that strikes by public employees are illegal and the very fact that they injureously affect, or in some instances effectively stop the work of government. Thus, it is evident that to prevent such strikes from occurring. Sympathy strikes grow more common.

"Real solutions to this troublesome problem are..." new being worked out... by seeing to it that adequate machinery is established for maintaining efficient and happy employees. Administration requires adequate machinery, for which is the principal reason for "the low pay scales." is that public officials in general have little or no knowledge of industrial hygiene and good will in the State service will be fully attained.

COUNTIES TO REMOVE SNOW

The Department of Public Works announced yesterday that the future of the State in personnel matters.

Every State agency recognizes the responsibility of the employees and the Association as the representative of the employees as an essential part of the machinery. The co-operation of all employees, maintaining industrial peace and good will in the State service will be fully attained.

CIVIL SERVICE LAW

J. Allen Sears, Chairman of the Board of Directors, announced at the Westminster County Comparative Civil Service Association will become the first organization in the field to join the Civil Service Employees Association. The pending new name of the Association of State Civil Service Employees. The Supreme Court recently approved the change of name and revised the by-laws to include other local employees to membership.

The Westminster act was made possible by the adoption of an enabling amendment to the county's constitution. This was the second time approval was voted, hence is now effective as a declaration.

It has also been learned that the New York State Civil Service Employees Association will take up at the next meeting the subject of amending its constitution, to encourage that organization to follow suit.

All actions taken by local groups according to the rules of the application made to the Board of Standards and Appeals, State Labor Department, for final effect-ation of the state-wide Association's project.

OTHERS PREPARE TO JOIN

ALBANY, Dec. 3 — A pending future opportunity to become members of the Civil Service Employees Association has aroused much enthusiastic support among local government employees. Moreover, the enthusiasm is spreading fast.

Formerly the statewide group
as the Association of State Civil Service Employees, was reorganized practically in State employees, but a revision of the constitution, voted last November,

Following an explanatory talk by William F. Burrows, Executive interest in joining the Association.

In fact, interest is being actively shown in Rensselaer and Monroe

In addition to the local em-

"What good would a mortgage-burdened home be to your wife and family if you were no longer here?"

NOW, The Dime can eliminate this worry. Its new Mortgage-Cancellation Plan assures a free, and clear home to your family — even though you do not survive to pay the debt.

For Example: You have a $5,000 mortgage, payable over 20 years. Your monthly rent-like payment is $31.65, including interest and principal. For only $2.85 more (at age 35) you can have this Mortgage-Cancellation Insurance. In the event of your death, the home remaining mortgage debt will be cancelled.

In addition to The Dime's low-cost, long-term, monthly mortgage plans, you can now emerge to have the mortgage home canceled immediately — through a life insurance policy—in the event of your death. The insurance automatically pays off the remainder of the mortgage loan, and your family will have a debt-free home. The Dime Savings Bank of Brooklyn and The Prudential Insurance Company of America have worked out this new Mortgage-Cancellation Plan.

If you now have an old-fashioned, fixed mortgage, or if you plan to buy or build a home, we urge you to investigate this new Dime Mortgage-Cancellation Plan.

Hearings Are Held on City-wide Pay Raises

Mayor O'Dwyer's Special Committee on Municipal Pay, headed by Budget Director Thomas J. Patterson, made it known that they were sympathetic to pay increases for city employees.

It was brought out by workers' spokesmen in a series of hearings on city-wide pay that unless city employees' salaries are increased immediately, there will be a general desultory of all city services.

Henry Feinstein, President of District Council 37, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME), argued that there would be a loss of $40,000,000 in sales tax revenue, if the above-mentioned conclusions are made.

He also predicted that there would be a substantial jump as a result of post-war hiring.

He was assured by members of the Special Committee that the Mayor and members of the committee were sympathetic to the plea.

Feinstein Submits Brief

Mr. Feinstein submitted a brief proposing salary raises ranging from $250 to $1,000 for some employees.

The brief also contained a request that the raises be made permanent and that city workers enter into new 40-hour work week.

The city has grave responsibilities in the maintenance of adequate pay scales, it is pointed out, if it hopes to avoid the failure to do so and serious consequences upon its employees; upon the kind of service the city gives to its constituents, and upon the American economy as a whole.

Mr. Feinstein was joined in his presentation by President of the Secretary of the Central Trades, Brother J. P. Burns, President of Local 524, Department of Public, AFSCME.

Police-Fire Raises Get Backing Of Public

The Rev. Andrew Corwin, S.J. and Captain in the U. S. Army Chaplains' Corps, recently returned from the Philippines, where he was imprisoned for more than four years, went on to tell a group of Fire and Police Department Holy Name Society members at Holy Martinito Church, that a proposed salary adjustment to Firemen established was a continuation of the same argument.

The psychological modes of operation in existing support are being increased.

However, the Police and Fire representatives say that the general public is generally self-controlled, that the psychology of the Police and Fire Department are disposed toward these very important protective services.

It is my hope that the Mayor and the Board will arrive at a conclusion on wage adjustment to 15-19/44 on the job.

State Pension Gains Must Be Steadily Won

ONE of the primary objectives of state employees is pension liberalization. Progress is necessarily slow, because large amounts of money are involved, but a substantial gain is in the offing in the near future. This requires some gains to be obtained from each successive legislature.

Employees of the State and its political divisions covered by the State Retirement Law know full well the need for a permanent measure at an earlier date. This may be achieved in various ways and one of the most popular is the age 65, 30-year-member-service retirement plan. Under this plan, the employee fully matches the employees' contributions. Under the present State 55-year plan the employee pays in full for minimum benefits such as NYC has. By this method, the employee is guaranteed against partial loss of pension rights.

A new opportunity, which the State could extend readily and at small cost, is additional annuity, whereby the employee could increase his retirement annuity by 25 per cent. The chief attraction of this instance is the low rate the employee pays. He can not buy anywhere else at anything like that cost. The net result will combine three things: a better benefit in such a plan a comforting addition to the normal benefits.

Looking Inside

T WICE recently has the civil service article of the State Constitution been removed from the ballot of a general election. Newly elected voters reinforce a State law of similar intent enacted by the 1945 Legislature, which would leave to the NYC Civil Service a situation identical with that which exists in other states.

The New York State Civil Service Commission has rescinded a resolution eliminating from the administrative staff of New York City the employment of permanently under-age candidates. The resolution, which had been passed five months ago, was rescinded on the ground that the policy of eliminating from the Administrative staff under-age candidates was not in compliance with the principles of competitive examination and the necessity of implementing a State law of similar intent.

New members of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, out-patient treatment, in radiology, and supervision of the collection of taxes where the method of payment is by payroll deductions, have been added to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment's personnel.

One of the principal objectives of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment is to assure that the expenditure of State funds is properly accounted for and that the expenditure of funds is in accordance with the provisions of the State Constitution and statutes. The Board of Estimate and Apportionment is composed of five members, each of whom is appointed by the Governor for a term of four years.

The Board also has the authority to make appointments of members of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, as well as to have the power to remove members of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment for cause.

Election of new members of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment would provide assurance that the Board is sufficiently staffed to perform its duties effectively and that the expenditure of State funds is properly accounted for and that the expenditure of funds is in accordance with the provisions of the State Constitution and statutes.

The Board of Estimate and Apportionment has the power to make appointments of members of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, as well as to have the power to remove members of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment for cause.

Special to The Leader
ST. LOUIS — The American Veterans of World War II, here today, advocated putting into operation the policy of "providing returned veterans for jobs held by persons with temporary appointments." This declaration was published exclusively in The St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

"From March 16, 1942, until the end of the war, all appointments in the Federal government were made on a temporary basis. "One of the primary reasons for putting employees into temporary positions under existing conditions resembling a permanent basis would be, in the opinion of men and women who served in the armed forces, the sentiment that our Government should preserve all that our Government did for us. As a result, there is sure to be a fur- ther increase in the percentage of permanent employees." Said

"The Legislative and Publicity Committee of the Affiliates Post-Postal Employees, under the leadership of Hubert B. Sheeley, Acting Director, believes it to be true."

It is a glaring injustice against postal employees when legislation, finally passed in their behalf, long after similar gains have been achieved by other groups, requires greater physical strain and long hours of service just because they receive less sick and vacation time than the many other groups of government employees? Postal employees have every right to receive the same treatment as the other innominate and 15 days sick leave granted other federal workers.

Meritorious Grades
Postal employees and carriers can attain what is known as the three percent grades, which are the rewards for faithful service, instead of only getting the standard rate of pay. They will take 15 years of additional service to get these when the grades have been attained. But the mail carriers along the routes are asked to do the same services, and out of all the men these people represent the same. The cost of living is the same for both carriers and postal employees. They also serve the govern- ment, and they should receive like treatment.

Overtime Equality

Asked by Clerks in Talk With Goldman

In an interview with Postmaster Albert Goldman, President Ephraim Handman of Local 19, National Federation of Post Office Clerks (APU), proposed more equitable overtime work. The union had asked that, as Public Law 124 permits, all employees be allowed to work each Saturday in December without compulsory time being granted, and that Sunday work required during that month be similarly treated.

The Postmaster replied that the extent to which he could accede to this request would depend on the volume of mail during the Christmas period. He added, however, that he expected this volume to be the greatest in the history of the New York Post Office.

Another problem discussed was temporary employees burdened with excessive hours of work while regular employees were being sent home after eight hours. This has produced great dissatisfaction among both groups of employees, said Mr. Handman. The Postmaster stated that he is in favor of an equitable division of overtime among both regulars and substitutes, that the benefits and the benefits of the emergency period should be equally shared. He also stated that the directive had gone out to carry out his ideas on the subject.

Another point raised was the question of the granting of a coffee period after eight hours, providing the working of any over-time division.

The Postmaster stated that he would take it under advisement.

PANEL DISCUSSION SET DEC. 10 BY STATISTICAL ASSOCIATION

Special to the Leader

ALBANY, Dec. 3—The appointment of a State Personnel Administrator and relegation of the present Civil Service Commissioners to an advisory role, with no administrative powers, will be proposed in a bill to be introduced by Senator Thomas C. Desmond (R., Middleborough) when the Legislature meets.

Senator Desmond asserted that few of the State Civil Service Commissioners have been personnel specialists.

"Expect direction is needed at the top level because recruiting, testing and classification of employees have become so complex," he said.

The Senator claimed that he was not aiming at the present Commission and pointed out that "the defect of the State's personnel system was present long before the present administration took office."

The proposed bill further provides for placing under the Civil Service merit system the positions of Deputy and Assistant Commissioners and Secretaries of all State departments, and prohibits Civil Service Commissioners and Commission employees from holding office in any political party, committee or organization.

Finally, the bill will require at least 10 years of top level experience in public or private personnel administration for appointments as a State Personnel Administrator.
