State Employees ‘Shocked’
Dewey Omits Raise

Pay Drive
Is Started
With Rush Of Letters

State employees, shocked that Governor Dewey, in his message to the Legislature, made no mention of a general pay raise for them, though living costs have increased more than 10 per cent since last year, have started a letter-writing campaign to get a new cost-of-living bonus. Letters were addressed to the Governor principally, but Assemblymen and State Senators also received batches of such mail.

The Governor, in his message, did not say that a cost of living bonus, or general raise, for State employees was "out," but did say that "our State employees are now well paid."

The Board of Estimates, which on Thursday ratified an agreement with Bridge Painters for a $3,500 annual salary, over the protest of AFL union leaders, found yesterday that the question was by no means settled. Painters charged that the so-called agreement, whereby the annual rate was fixed, and the men paid on a 260-day-a-year working basis, was obtained under duress, and therefore was illegal, also that the agreement pay basis represented an attempt to circumvent Section 220 of the State Labor Law, which they said requires the only to pay skilled mechanics the rate prevailing in private industry. That rate is $16.40 a day. Applied to 260 working days, that rate would total $4,100 or $600 more than the agreement established. According to law. of the Board. However, the Board members voted for the agreement by a narrow vote of 2-1, and recalled that on June 29, 1946, he made a determination, according to law, of the per diem rate for this time, of $16.40 for eight hours' work, while the agreement calls for 260 days without applying the full rate. Mr. Joseph said that he believed that the agreement in the Bridge Painters' case was contrary to Section 220, and recalled that on June 29, 1946, he made a determination, according to law, of the per diem rate for this time, of $16.40 for eight hours' work, while the agreement calls for 260 days without applying the full rate. He held the city in already bound by the rate he set. The fact is that the Plumbers and Helpers of the City of New York, likewise opposed the ratification of the agreement by the Board. However, the Board members voted for it, and the Comptroller also opposed the agreement by the Board. However, all Board members voted for it, excepting Comptroller Lucas Jones, who listened to the argument of the Board members, but who did not vote for it, and who was opposed to the Board's position.

Bill Seeks to Cut Maltbie's Power

Special to The Leader

ALBANY, Jan. 15—A bill to cut the powers of Chairman Milo R. Maltbie of the Public Service Commission, who has been under attack for "lame-lobed" action, was introduced in the Legislature by Senator Manfro, of Saratoga county, on the theory that the Commission has "ranged from novel and rigid to ambiguous and inconsistent with the law."

Manfro asked for action on his measure by a voice vote and said it would be referred to the Senate committee on public utilities.

The Association expressed confidence in the Board. Chairman, they do have confidence in the Board. His report continues:

"While the employees have lost much in their current campaign for salary raises, the existing difficulties will be corrected."

In the meantime, the Association is now well ahead of the other public service unions in the State.

Section 3 of the law provides that the employee to bear the full cost of retirement pension five years.

Decrease in Cost of Living

Incidentally, it will increase employees' monthly income over 20 years.

As a credit to the Association, the new budget goes into effect. The open meeting, which was held a week in the Commission and held a question-and-answer period, was attended by the employees to bear the full cost of retirement, pension five years.

Speedy Action

The Legislative Committee worked very hard and brought a bill for the sum of $50,000, incurred in the State.

ASSEMBLY BILLS DISCUSSED BY LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE

ALBANY, Jan. 30.—The approximate 80 measures constituting The Civil Service Association's legislative program were thoroughly discussed and dis- carded in the various committees of the Association. The program included approximately 20 legislative measures on salaries; a special list of the measures is available on request.

In the meeting were Dr. William T. Bryan, President; John T. DeNin, Committee of The Civil Service Employees Association; Judge Edward T. Brown, Assistant Counsel, and John T. DeNin, Committee of The Civil Service Employees Association.

As soon as the proposals were read aloud, they were examined in detail. The next proposal was for the introduction of a bill to establish a civil service board for the State of New York. The proposal was introduced by Dr. William T. Bryan, President of the Association, and was referred to the Committee of the Whole for further consideration.

Teachers Pay Throughout U.S

Up Only $25 a Month in Year

Teachers in 10 major cities now get salaries averaging round $450 a month, up $25 from a year ago, while throughout the country, they are rising this or that in every city. Further teacher pay booms to meet more of their needs.

The Municipal Finance Officers Association, citing a National Association of City Auditors survey, repays $450 in Cleveland, $450 in Chicago, $440 in Denver, $450 in New York, $450 in Boston, and $450 in St. Louis.

Several big cities recently increased their salaries in addition to granting raise pays. The single-salary pay plan put all teachers in the same salary ladder, without regard to whether or not they teach in elementary, junior high, high or college grades.

PRESIDENT MARKS 64TH ANNIVERSARY
Of Signing of Merit System Act

"It seems to me that it is very appropriate that each year we take some time out of our busy schedules to reflect on the progress which has been made in the development of a civil service program. It is through the dedication and hard work of those who have fought vigorously for the achievement of such a goal. The civil service system must adapt itself to conditions which arise in a dynamic world society."

Senator Langer will bring to his new position his years of experience and respect for other Federal employees. The Postal Employees of Greater New York and Vicinity, representing 25,000 A.F. of L. postal employees, have been introduced in the House of Representatives by Representative Keogh. It is hoped that this bill will proceed through the legislative process and be passed into law.

Since VE Day in 1945, veterans by the hundreds of thousands have been discharged from the services and are making the transition to civilian life again. A very high percentage of these men take advantage of the G. I. Bill to complete interrupted educations. Many others have found job-hunting difficult because of their lack of technical or trade experience, and have turned to trade and technical schools to prepare themselves for an educational and professional career.

Schools, colleges and trade and technical institutions have enjoyed a boost during the past many years and have expanded facilities to accommodate the larger number of students. The discharged veteran has turned to these institutions in an effort to meet the need for practical experience accomplished by non-veterans, and to qualify for positions of a technical or semi-technical nature.

A notable number of those veterans have been preparing for Civil Service careers by attending schools. Examples are candidates for staggered grades in the Police and Fire Department in NYC and to other positions in the city, State and Federal offices. This factor is definitely advantageous to the government agencies, in that they examine well-prepared candidates who make better eligibles, hence finally winners.

Allowances Help
Another factor of considerable weight would be the allowances to veterans for readjustment to civilian life through his period of schooling. Thus he will have completely done away with the feeling of restlessness that almost necessarily follows an extended period in the armed forces. Here, too, the government agency as well as private industry, benefit from the incentives given the ex-G. I. To go back to school.

It is important to be attached to "book learning" as a pre-requisite to the final selection of an occupation. It helps him to familiarize himself in his chosen field, and gives him a groundwork on which to build a career through knowledge of his work through experience.

Our veterans are coming back into government and private enterprise as prepared and better qualified. The fact that the G. I. Bill is still sponsored while the door of education has resulted in a more diverse range of potential employes.

For those who want training only in special subjects the following sections are open:

Special to The Leader

ALBANY, Jan. 28—The Civil Service Employes´ Protective League in conjunction with ports that its accident and sickness insurance plans are being expanded continually. This plan pays a cash monthly indemnity to the insured member who is disabled due to accidental injury or sickness. The Association has asked members insured under it to consider these three things that will enable the plan to continue functioning smoothly.

1. Return the form of the Commercial Casualty Insurance Company in time when they become disabled.

2. See that it is paid into each month.

3. Have it entered once in every seven days during their employment in order that the reimbursement is specifically according to the contrary by the insurance company.

Exams Will Give Temporaries And W-S-I Chance at Permanency

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20—The U. S. Civil Service Commission announced competitive examinations are contemplated for all Federal employees who hold Temporary Indefinite or War-Service Indefinite Appointments. Candidates who successfully pass the examination, if they can be reached for appointment on a list of eligibles, may be certified to their employing agencies or another Federal agency, and accorded probational status. Upon the successful completion of their probational or trial period, they will be accorded permanent Civil Service status, said the Commission.
