U.S. Insurance Jobs to Be Filled in NYC

An examination for Insurance Officers, paying $5,600 to $14,400, has been announced by the Veterans Administration. The exams will be held at 9:15 a.m. on Thursday, April 5, by which time it is hoped to fill the vacancies at the Brooklyn Regional Office and at 357 Seventh Ave., New York City. No closing date has been announced. The exam was scheduled before the personnel cut in the VA, but will not be affected by it.

Three years of special experience in any of the various fields of insurance, and three years of special experience are required. The specialized experience involves training in life insurance, property and liability insurance, or health insurance. Applications are being accepted at the Brooklyn Regional Office and at 252 U.S. Insurance Building, two blocks north of Broadway, two blocks north of Broadway.

Half Million Residents Ask More Firemen

The high-powered campaign for citizen signatures to a petition for an increase in the number of NYC firemen is making such progress that in a little over a month, nearly a total of 400,000 signatures on a petition for an increase was obtained. On April 3, by which time it is expected that the drive will be closed, the petition drive that was started at the beginning of March has already been completed.

The drive is being conducted by the Uniformed Firemen’s Association, under the leadership of Edward Morse, president; Ralph Jensen, vice-president; Edward Cleaver, executive secretary, and John Carie, secretary.

The Uniformed Firemen’s Association, of which John P. Crane is president, and Gerard Percell, state librarian, is lending all possible assistance to the Elevated Assistance Society.

The UFA has sent out 15,000 petition sheets which, if signed, would add 1,000 new firemen to the service.

STATE COMIC DISPLAY

ALBANY, March 20—Twenty comic exhibits representing twenty of the famous comic characters, have been brought together for the first time by the United States Postal Service, and returned to its home in the Albany Post Office. Dr. Charles F. Gosnell, State Librarian, will interview President McNamara.

Better Treatment Demanded For NYC Police

A demand that NYC end its “chaste” policy, whereby prisoners lose their insignia, and even their pay raises increases the moment they acquire appointment to an eligible list has been made by the Civil Service Reform Association.

Provisionals pass an exam and are hired because no list of eligibles exists for their jobs. They pay their hope for a steady job on posting a test, when it’s held. If they don’t pass, they lose their jobs. Even if they do pass, however, they still may lose their jobs if they are not high enough on the eligible list to be reached for appointment.

Postal Clerks Seek Better Time Law, Merit Raises

At the regular meeting of the Joint Conference of Postal Employees of Greater New York, representing over 20,000 postal employees held at the Carniel Arms Hotel, a resolution was adopted protesting any contemplated cuts in annual or sick leave allowances for employees in all other branches of the Federal Government.

David Serviguin, President of the Joint Conference, stated: “Postal employees are behind their Federal governmental colleagues in the fight against cuts in their pay raises.” Postal employees, who are paid under the Federal wage guidelines, “are made to feel that their pay raises can be contemplated without much thought to their welfare.”

NYC Stenos At $2,100 Hired Fast

A good opportunity for stenographers to obtain personal jobs with NYC, beginning at $2,100, is available. The first exam for stenographers will be held on Tuesday, April 18 and that the period for applications will be extended. That would make application certain for all on the new list, which will be procured as quickly as possible.

The pool will be held at the office of the Supervisor of NYC, 120 Broadway, two blocks north of Broadway, two blocks north of City Hall.

The competition is for a position as a stenographer in the supervisor’s office. Applications are being accepted now. Apply now at the office of the Supervisor of NYC, 120 Broadway, two blocks north of Broadway, two blocks north of City Hall.

The time for applications is set for any day, until closing date, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., except for Sundays, when the office is closed.

The Reform Association points out that members must either apply as a civil service employee or as a provisional police employee. These are the only two possible categories of employment. They pay their hope for a steady job on posting a test, when it’s held. If they don’t pass, they lose their jobs. WHEN YOU GROW TOO OLD TO WORK

H.R. 6000 is a bill "to extend and improve the Federal Old Age and Survivors Insurance System, to amend the public assistance and child insurance provisions of the Social Security Act, and for other purposes."

As I stated in this column last week, I personally favor the extension. The Social Security Administration, the National Academy of Sciences, and the Public Affairs Committee all make the point to those who cannot obtain security through their own efforts. I believe the majority of the members of the Association favor a more nearly adequate and a more nearly universal security for all workers.

An Ultimate Objective

There are those who would spread security over the entire population, whether rich or poor, whether or insecure. This, of course, is not proposed in H.R. 6000, but it seems to be the ultimate objective of some of the most ardent proponents of the bill.

I can see no adequate reason to squander federal or state money, derived from a tax on worker's wages and so badly needed to secure peace and plenty by productive means, in order to dispense handouts to those who already have adequate old age security. I can see little merit in duplicating for those same persons existing retirement systems of the states, local governments, and the Federal Old Age Plan. It seems to me that a double-headed house of security divided against itself would not last long.

While the plan is a Federal Social Security Act, I do not think that the Legislature would be entirely under the new Federal Social Security Administration."

An Inconsistency

It seems to me inconsistent to exempt completely in this bill the one group of civil service employees working under a Retirement System (i.e., Federal employees) and to include state and municipal employees with a pension system."

Of course, the inclusion of such state and local employees, it seems to me, is the real purpose of the bill. I do not think that the Legislature would approve such a plan, but I am not sure that under the various coverages they might not be forced in, and judging by the propaganda urging that two pension systems are better than one (when as a matter of fact they are generally much worse than one), I do not think we can be sure the decision would be based on the merits of the case.

Limited Systems—Unlimited Nuisance

New York State late last year established one limited pension system among its States. It has been closed to the limited systems and to operate one uniform State retirement system which will probably go to a conference. I am satisfied with the solution yet found. The limited systems have become unlimited nuisances. The proposed Federal plan would, I fear, be a recurrence of the same.

It seems probable that one of the many amendments to H.R. 6000 removing the optional inclusion of State and local employees working under a retirement system will be adopted in the Senate. The House of Representatives last year refused to adopt any similar amendment, so the bill will probably go to a conference. I am satisfied with the progress made, but it would be silly to rest where we are. It is a matter of considerable interest to know that your Retirement System? That is the question as I see it.

All of our members owe a word of thanks to Senators Irving Ives and Herbert H. Lehman for their Interest and help.

NYC Chapter Asks Banning
Of UPW in State Service

By J. L. BERNARD

A resolution asking Governor Thomas E. Dewey to instruct his Commissioners, personnel officers and others to have no dealings with the State or Federal Public Workers of America, was adopted unanimously at a meeting of the NYC chapter of The Civil Service Employees Association, which was held at Wlly's restaur-Wendell J. M. Porta presided.
The resolution, drafted by Al Curtin, DPUIU representative, on the recommendation of the Executive Committee, said that Mrs. Byrnes' report showed that the strong, while Mrs. Shields told of renewals and in getting new membership, the comparison would  j local government employees from Buffalo or Rochester, Department

Division on II.R. 6000
Mr. Porta read a letter from Senator Daniel J. Speer, in reference to HR 6000, the Federal Civil Service, the recommendation of inclusion of public employees in that bill was 3,000,000, and offered the bill's form were discussed by Mr. Porta, who said that the social security benefits would be extended to employees of present retirement systems of State and Local government, and that only the possible danger, which he felt was not a real one, was re-reach on other public employees by the Federal government.
There was a division of opinion that Senator Lehman had introduced a bill authorizing the Federal government employees from the Casselman report to permit further study. The Association, with the vote of Mr. L.
Tolman, had already opposed the bill, and with this new, and stands, is supporting the petition.
Sol Bendet, of the Insurance Department, introduced a man-man in his column in The LEA-DERS, Mr. Porta had hit the head on the opposing the bill and the safeguards of the agreement.
Mr. Porta appointed a nominating committee, consisting of Frank Newman, Norman P. Jones,
Joseph J. Byrne, John Byrne, and Irene Waters.
Mr. Newman proposed that the chapter adopt a program for satisficing of support of Association aims. He felt that man-umental action is essential of all chapters, and that the NYC chapter, emphasizing the support of projects from which all State employees some benefit, would do much to increase our efforts. Mr. Porta will appoint a committee to study the proposed and report back.
Charles R. Culyer and James Pigott, field representatives of the Association, were guest speakers. Mr. Culyer had been president of the NYC chapter prior to his appointment to the Association post. The need of a field conference for a strong approach in obtaining members for county employees and how well that policy had worked.

State Needs Psychiatrists

There are openings for child

Mr. Culyer cited the Labor Relations plan, which the Governor will institute administratively, as a completely new matter for consideration by the Association. While it is true that the Association had asked, it was a definite forward step, he added.
"Even though we're 40 years old we still have growing pains," declared Mr. Culyer, in discussing the attitude that the board is taking in attempting to solve problems.
Mr. Culyer expressed disappointment over the failure to attain a final decision on an appeal involving DPUIU titles, and that was one instance where the Association had a strong commitment.

HR 6000—How It Affects Public Aides

The purpose of extending the benefits of the Social Security Act to the employees of the State or any political subdivision of the State is to cover the employees of the State-wide retirement system, such as the New York State Employees' Retirement System, and also to determine what the bill terms "covered employees" would cover employees of the state or subdi- vision in some system other than the State-wide system. The agreement would cover the employees of the State-wide retirement system, such as the New York State Employees' Retirement System, and also to determine what the bill terms "covered employees" would cover employees of the state or subdi- vision in some system other than the State-wide system.

No agreement with any State retirement system in positions covered by the retirement system should be one and one-half times the average wage paid to the employees of the State-wide system.

At age sixty-five, employees would receive security benefit payments under the Social Security Act, if they were not entitled to, or were not eligible for, a reduced retirement benefit under the retirement system.

Anyone with a State retirement system would be entitled to, or, if entitled to, would be eligible for, the Social Security Act, if not entitled to, or not eligible for, a reduced retirement benefit under the retirement system.

The 55-Year Bill—And Forward Steps

The passage of the 55-year retirement bill represents an enormous achievement for members of the State Retirement System, and the Civil Service Employees Association deserves a great deal of credit for it. We understand that the bill, having taken 14 years, to have this important advance enacted into law.

Despite the 55-year bill does not end the retirement needs of public employees under a modern system of government. It is significant how private industry is catching up with, and even, in some respects, the retirement attainment of government. Thus, only last week, an agreement was signed between Chase National Bank and the Board of Estimate for $350 a month minimum pension, with the employer paying the cost. This shows the way for the next advance in old-age security for public workers.

The Minuet in Schenectady

This tragic little minuet in Schenectady continues.

It is taking too long for decisions of the State Classification and Compensation Board to come down. A decision on the case of service trade reform—brokers, tailors, painters, and others—promised months ago, is still not coming through. The claim of interviewers and senior inspectors of the Board of Trade, and of civilian employees, is that the board has lost control of the employees to explore ways and means of avoiding the dissatisfactions.

The city manager means that it is impossible to stretch his meager funds—a budget which "is no budget at all," he says.

But somewhere along the line the appeals get hold up. It is believed that the number of civil servants dismissed; and in salary more fully. Only it appears these new employees vote right.

Citizens Budget Group States Its Case on Police-Fire Pension Reform Bill

Editor, The Leader:

The Citizens Budget Commission expresses its hope that the passage of the police and pension bill will result in serious study of the police and fire pension systems, and that the passage of the proposed unfunded uniformed personnel pension system will be accompanied by a general evaluation of the pension arrangements in all State systems, with necessary revisions, so that the plans will be fair to the contributors and the beneficiaries.

The Commission feels strongly that public pensions are an essential part of public service. The Commission will support any plan that will assure of a proper measure of security in old age and retirement for public service. The Commission is of the opinion that the present position espoused by the bill is a position that can and does ensure far less than 100% of compensation during the retirement years. The Commission is concerned at the lack of proper planning in the future of the State pension bill.

The Commission feels that the present pension systems will affect the growth and development of the State and the City. This shows the way for the next advance in old-age security for public workers.

Applying for a job entitles you to a number of specific positions. This list is compiled by the New York State Civil Service Commission and the New York City Board of Equalization and Assessment.

Promotion

Applicants will be notified by mail of their eligibility for promotion. No written test or examination will be held. Applicants will be given a ranking of eligible names from which the department will select candidates for further consideration.

FEDERAL

Below is the current list of Federal jobs available for application. Jobs are in Washington, D.C., and the surrounding areas. Applications are accepted at the Federal Personnel Center located in Washington, D.C., and at many other federal offices. Applications are also accepted by mail or online.

How Low-Cost Insurance

Many Americans know that because of physical condition or age, they may not qualify for standard life insurance protection. In order to obtain this protection, they must purchase a special insurance policy. This policy is often called "Special Coverage" or "Special Life Insurance." It is available to individuals who are not insured by a traditional life insurance company. The premiums are typically lower than those charged by conventional policies.

The group life insurance plan offered by the New York State and City governments includes the following benefits:

- Death Benefit: $10,000 for full-time employees and $5,000 for part-time employees.

THE LISTING

The listing below has been brought up to date as of press time. The bills are arranged so that their present status may be quickly understood. In the italic type, just above the description of each bill, you will find this information, for the Senate, then for the Assembly: The introductory and the print numbers, which identify the bill; the name of the legislator who introduced it; the committee in which it rests, if it is still in committee; and the action taken on it. The names of committees are listed after the names of introducers, ways and means, civil service, etc., are committee and workmen's names. The phrase "third reading" means that the measure has passed the third reading and is ready to be voted upon. A measure which is in the Rules Committee is also far advanced toward a vote. The term "reported" means that the Committee which considered the bill has released it for action by the whole house. Additional symbols are explained below.

U.S. Harbor Boat Workers Get Increase

William Karsa, Secretary-Treasurer of the Harbor Boat Employes Association, has announced that all harbor boat employes of the Department of the Army, New York Port of Embarkation, will receive an increase of salary effective as of March 1, 1960.

Samuel Resnick, counsel for the group, had represented and submitted to the Department of the Army in Washington, charts and memoranda to support their claim that the men were not receiving prevailing rates of wages.

New Low Reached

In Job Turnover

WASHINGTON, March 20 - A new post-war low has been reached in the turnover in Federal jobs. During the last November and December, 1964, employes either quit or transferred from Civil Service government work. Turnover was three times as great in 1944 and twice as great just a year ago during the same two-month period.

MANY VACANCIES FOR CLIMBERS AND PRUNERS

With the leaves of the trees in the park beginning to develop, many of the parks are in need of climbers and pruners to maintain the trees.

Many of the positions require experience in climbing and pruning, and a good understanding of the anatomy of trees.

The positions offer a competitive salary, and are available for both full-time and part-time work.

MUNICIPAL ENGINEERS TO MEET IN NEW YORK

The March meeting of the Municipal Engineers of New York will be held on Wednesday, March 27, 5:00 P.M., at the Engineering Societies Building, 33 W. 42nd St., New York.

The meeting will be addressed by Mr. Albert A. Smith, Director of the National Crushed Stone Association, who will deliver an illustrated lecture on "Concrete: Its Properties and Uses."
Tips That Help You Pass March 27 Patrolman Test

The test is to begin at 9:30 a.m. on the 27th. Applications made to the board before the written test will be summoned to the physical test at Van Cortlandt Park in the afternoon of that same day. No person who fails to report at 1:30 p.m. for the physical test will be considered for the next class.

Two Parts Competitive

The written test and the physical test will be given as two separate examinations. The written test is expected to be a two-hour examination and will be graded on a “no credit”-“passing”-“fourth rank”-“third rank”-“second rank”-“first rank” basis. The physical test will be graded on a “no credit”-“assistance satisfactory”-“assistance good”-“assistance excellent” basis. No person who fails either the written or the physical test will be considered for the next class.

The candidates should bring a pencil and an ink pen to the written test, and a pencil and a good quality of ink pen to the physical test. No person who fails to bring the required materials will be considered for the next class.

How to Study

In attempting to answer the written test questions, it is important to remember that the test is designed to measure the ability to learn new information quickly and accurately. Therefore, it is important to study in a structured and focused manner.

Fire Bills Active in Legislature

ALBANY, March 20—Legislation sponsored by the Unformed Firemen’s Bureau of New York City, of which John P. Crane is president, to authorize members of the NYC Retirement System to be assigned to light duty, was making headway in the Legislature as the LEADER went to press.

The Mitchell-Wilson bill, to re-designate Department of Public Safety fire departments, is state-wide in application. The DPA is parti-cipantly interested in getting the legislation enacted so that the prac-
