Binghamton Credit Union Election

BINGHAMTON, Feb. 5—The Binghamton District State Employees' Federal Credit Union held its annual election. The position of vice president was vacated by Robert Osso, and Mrs. Alice Reilly of 71 Third Street, North.

The Background: Former Mayor William O'Dwyer, just before eliminating the position of vice-president by state law in 1949, named Edward Cari, former Assistant Chief Top Police, to serve his term as president of the association. Since the court held the law unconstitutional, pension payments to Police Department employees who retired during the past 11 years were not restored to them. They were Chief Inspectors.

License Clerk Devises Way To Help Eliminate Red Tape

ALBANY, Feb. 2—Departments throughout the state are now able to quickly eliminate the red tape that has plagued many businesses for years. Mr. Reilly, the new Commissioner of Vehicle and License Division, announced today that the department has developed a new system that will enable businesses to obtain the necessary permits and licenses in a fraction of the time it would normally take.

The system, which was developed by Mr. Reilly's earlier innovation, is based on an electronic process of preparing reports for the department. This process involves the submission of reports, which are then processed through an electronic system to produce the necessary permits and licenses. The system is so efficient that it can produce the necessary permits and licenses in minutes, rather than the hours or days it would normally take.

The system has already proven its worth, with businesses reporting a significant decrease in red tape and a corresponding increase in efficiency. Mr. Reilly is confident that the system will continue to be successful, and he is looking forward to expanding its use to other departments within the state.

McGovern Foresees
Advances

ALBANY, Feb. 5—Heating confidence that state employees would work toward wage increases, Mc Govern, chairman of the Civil Service Em ployees Association, reported today that the rank of state employees already has been reached by the professional and employment groups. He said that the time had come to come near equality in the social and political aspects that are being addressed.

McGovern said that the civil service bill for 1964 introduced in the Assembly and the Senate is in the process of being debated. He said that the bill would provide for a three-year program of pay raises for state employees. He said that the program would be based on the principle of merit and job classification.

McGovern said that the bill would provide for a three-year program of pay raises for state employees. He said that the program would be based on the principle of merit and job classification.

Social Security vs. Retirement Plan

Some controversy seems to be developing in the fact that temporary and non-regular state employees are covered by the Social Security Act, while the Civil Service Retirement system is available only to regular state employees.

The Civil Service Retirement system was established in 1912 to provide pensions for state employees. However, the Social Security Act, which was passed in 1935, covers all state employees, regardless of whether they are regular or temporary.

There are a few aspects of the civil service retirement program that are superior to the benefits available under Social Security. First, employees under the civil service retirement plan are entitled to an annual increase in their retirement benefits, whereas Social Security benefits are fixed at the time of retirement. Second, the civil service retirement plan offers a pension at the time of retirement, whereas Social Security benefits are not available until the employee is at least 62 years old. Third, the civil service retirement plan provides a death benefit for the surviving spouse, whereas Social Security provides a death benefit only for the surviving spouse if the employee dies before reaching age 62.

McGovern said that he is concerned that the civil service retirement system is not being used to its fullest potential. He said that the bill would provide for a three-year program of pay raises for state employees. He said that the program would be based on the principle of merit and job classification.

State Grievance Machinery Bumbles Along Slowly

ALBANY, Feb. 5— The State Personnel Relations Board, which has met six times since it was created, has approved departmental grievance procedures submitted by the following agencies and departments: Agriculture and Markets; Board of Regents (Central office, no county offices); Alcohol and Control; Housing; Department of Motor Vehicles and Naval Affairs; Division of Veterans Affairs and the Public Service Employees Association.

Mental Hygiene was for central office only and is expected to be ready for the general rules for the central office.

Overhaul of State Pension System Is Proposed

ALBANY, Feb. 5— Legislation enabling the revision of the state civil service retirement system has been introduced by State Sen. Seymour Halpern and Assemblyman Samuel Rabin.

The bill to bring about the overhaul was the second of the major over-hauling of the state's complicated civil service and retirement statute.

The first bill in the series is already in the hands of a temporary committee headed by Assemblyman Fred W. Preller of Queens.

But the subject of civil service law revision, that has set up the first commission confined itself solely to the first bill. The retirement system remained as a separate phase of the Civil Service Commission.  The Halpern bill is concerned with this job.

The measure calls for creation of a temporary commission to make a thorough study and analysis of the retirement statutes of the civil service law. Halpern and Rabin explained, "and device plans for the general improvement and rationalization of these statutes."

Minimum Pensions

Among the subjects the commission would study, the Queens Republican said, would be the minimum pensions for low paid employees and a lower or optional or compulsory retirement advantage for those in hazardous or arduous employment.

VETERANS RIGHTS

EXPLAINED BY STATE

Neil Byrnes, professor of Placement and Unemployment, also explained the Department of Veteran Affairs' points, preference and conduct of the examinations for state missions.

Mr. Byrnes said, that the Association assign a field representative to the Metropolitan Police Department.

Mr. Byrnes was a guest at the meeting, held in Willy's Restaurant on Tuesday, February 6, 1951.

NYC Chapter Discusses More Service to DPU

The "new money" needed for a minimum 15-cent raise in-crease for State employees is about $47,000,000 and that figure needs emphasis in salary discussions, Sidney Alexander, chairman of the Metropolitan Conference, said at the meeting of the 51st chapter of the Civil Service Employees Association, Mr. Alexander is a guest at the meeting, held in Willy's Restaurant on Tuesday, February 6, 1951.

A 15 cent across-the-board increase for State employees would involve $47,000,000, but by filling vacancies, most of them exempt jobs, a saving of $18,000,000 would be effected. Civil Service employees need increased salaries, the chairman said, and that the DPAW deny Association has in mind the vacancy plan of that kind, Mr. Alexander said.

More DPU Activity

Much interest was manifested by the departmental delegates in the salary question because State employees are so severely pinched by the present economic status.

Chapter also are feeling the wage pinch. President Boi Bendel expressed the desire of this chapter to discuss with Association President Dan Byrnes, the need of increasing the refunds to chapters, as was done in the old County Di-visions.

Mr. Byrnes, treasurer, report, for the month and gave a report on the executive expenses for the past year.

William Burke of the New York State Employment Service, a guest, long time member of the chapter, introduced increased chapter activities regarding problems in the Division of Placement and Unemployment.

Mr. Burke reported that he is the Assistant to the Administrator, told of effective work done by the Association in preventing divergences and in meetings withannie, lectures on the recurrent law problem.

President Bendet asked for a written report of the conclusion that the Association assign a field representative to the Metropolitan Police Department.

The True Story Of John Richards

The RICHARDS aren't on relief—but almost. The courage of the Richardses has been greatly rewarded this year. John Richards is a State employee—a file clerk whose salary is now $2,252 per year. That is $2,252 more than he was paid before deductions for income tax, retirement benefits, and a loan he had against his pension. Actually John Richards gets a check of $669.99 twice a month from the State of Massachusetts every month. That’s less than $34 a week. This is the money he has to pay his rent, buy food, and cloth. His wife and their one-year old son share these pay checks. They read about the promise of a career in the State service. For this reason, they have decided to include him in their plans. He has done the ordinary American things in life—gone to school, gone to work, borrowed. He’s in debt. He has a note with the Credit Union. The interest is 3.5% per month. His interest payments come to $30.00 per month.

John Richards is an ordinary American fellow. He has been a part of the American people. He has gone to school, gone to work, borrowed, and saved. He has a note with the Credit Union. The interest is 3.5% per month. His interest payments come to $30.00 per month.

The Employees would, a bonus, in the form of a gift. It was not a simple matter. The Court said that the bonus must be paid in the same way as any other gifts received. The bonus must be paid in the same way as any other gifts received.

DEFENDANTS

The first defendants in the case are the Employees. They applied for representation of the Citizens who supported the case. The Citizens argued the case for the employees. The court found that the employees had a reasonable basis for their claim. The court found that the employees had a reasonable basis for their claim.

Disabled Vets Honor Klein

The Alfred E. Smith Hall of the Disabled American Veterans was recently occupied by 500 members of the Veterans, including Arthur G. Klein with an award in honor of his service. The event was attended by the Citizens who supported the case. The Citizens argued the case for the employees. The court found that the employees had a reasonable basis for their claim.

The law under which the two defendants were convicted was repealed in 1972. The court found that the defendants were not subject to the law under which they were convicted. The court found that the defendants were not subject to the law under which they were convicted.

Robert A. Joyce, a member of the New York City Fire Department for 15 years, died recently of the occupational disease which strikes down so many firemen—a heart attack. Fireman Joyce, responsible for the saving of many other lives, lost his own at the unripe young age of 42. Mr. Joyce left behind him HIS WIDOW AND EIGHT CHILDREN.

Mrs. Joyce now receives the “magnanimous” amount of $11.83 weekly, as a widow’s pension. Since a fireman’s wife and children can get just as hungry as any other family, Mrs. Joyce—unpleasant as the idea was—made inquiry as to how much she might expect if the family went on home relief. A mother of eight, she learned, gets about $60.00 per week from the city—the same city that gives her, a fireman’s widow, one-sixth that amount.

Mrs. Joyce does NOT want to become a ward of the city—but she knows that she and her children can’t live on her miserable pension. Other firemen’s wives also complain that they can’t buy groceries with their husbands’ SUB-STANDARD TAKE-HOME PAY, as low as $37 weekly, OR WITH CITY HALL PROMISES of a pay envelope that would be in step with the high cost of living.

THESE ARE THE SHOCKING FACTS ABOUT THE NEW YORK CITY FIRE DEPARTMENT
(from a study made by two reputable independent survey organizations)

- Firefighters and their families are in dire need—50% are in considerable debt.

- Firemen have not received a wage increase in 2½ years. (an absolute minimum increase of 36 cents an hour is needed, yet a paltry 8 cents an hour has been offered.)

- THE CITIZEN’S BUDGET COMMISSION, New York newspapers, and other prominent groups LONG AGO RECOMMENDED AN ADEQUATE PAY RAISE for firemen.

- At the very moment citizens are being urged to join auxiliary firefighting groups, the regular Fire Department—the first line of defense in the event of atomic attack—is UNDERMANNED, UNDERPAID, and being allowed to DISINTEGRATE.

MR. CITIZEN, YOUR SAFETY IS INVOLVED. 5000 ADDITIONAL FIREMEN ARE NEEDED IMMEDIATELY. MORALE IS SHATTERED. Firemen are being offered 8 cents an hour increase AFTER WAITING 2½ YEARS... when 36 cents is the ABSOLUTE MINIMUM NEEDED.

Outside Examiners Are Headache to Commission

Another afternoon of hiring outside examiners became a matter of court record when candidates in the exam for promotion to Registered Engineer argued, through Attorney Salvatore Milazzo, that the exam should not be used.

They complained that an "unscrupulous" type test was given, in which candidates are allowed to consult with the examiner, ask some questions and answer in the test, were taken while standing from a study book. The Commission allowed the petitioners in the present study to appear before Attorney Salvatore Milazzo, who argued, that "nothing worse than poor judgment is lacking."

A previous examination, continued the commission when an outside examiner prepared the written examination as a Social Science Exam. Welfare Commissioner Ray mentioned that six hundred and numerous others contradicted the test. But the present Civil Service Commissioners were not in office at that time.

What Court Held

Justice Bolte made two main points in effect as follows:

1. The Commission had promised the candidates in the present "comparable right of selection" among questions in the new test sections, as was originally agreed to, and the test put the absolute question, with no right of selection. 2. After the Commission had decided the five questions in the original test should be struck out, only by methods by which all the candidates could have been judged competitively was by giving an entirely new exam to all. It held that the petitioners should be taken and the second competitive test be wanted.

TO THE READER

For the benefit of the public and of the employees in the State of New York, the New York State Employment Bureau has prepared a "Service Commission Book." This book is intended to inform the employees of the conditions of employment in the various departments of the State of New York, the rates of pay, and the duties and responsibilities of the various positions.

The book includes a detailed description of each position, the requirements for employment, the duties and responsibilities of the position, and the qualifications for employment. It also includes information on the salary and benefits of the position, the work hours, and the vacation and sick leave policies.

The book is intended to be a resource for employees, but it is also available to the general public. The book can be obtained from the New York State Employment Bureau, or it can be accessed online at the Bureau's website.

Swagger Set and Just Folks
Show Up for $1,860 Clerk Jobs

By HERMAN BERNARD

ANOTHER HIRING pool will be held by the Municipal Civil Service Commission, at 209 Broadway, on February 14 and 16, to get eligibles to fill 2,040 positions. More than 1,600 eligibles will be called. They shop around at desks within personnel directors or clerks of the department, which means the shops don’t have to troop around from department to department, also the personnel directors don’t have to spend a lot of time interviewing eligibles for the different departments.

Empire City to Decide Pay

The Clerc hiring pool has proved a highly democratic attraction. In the last one, held recently, many women showed up, some of them were wearing miniskirts; others almost in rags. Both the men and women, were among them, and the higher ascenders were generally represented. Widows were numerous. Women left alone in the world, even when they had to get the money, want a job, to help maintain their morale and sustain their interest in life. Many women seek a job for a change of pace, for a good-earning job, for more earning power. But they may get the 750 eligible to be called. That question will be decided this week.

And finally, "Children of the late Sixties No 60s"

The fact was mentioned also by Sergeant K. Stromberg of the Police Department, who’s been a very active participant in the hiring pool. His comment received sympathetic attention, as he’s one of those in the Sixties who’s been left behind.

There are many men and women over 50 years old among those seeking employment in the Municipal Civil Service Commission, where the hiring pool is being held at 209 Broadway.

The last hiring pool was held at 209 Broadway, on February 1, 1963. The event was called the "Children of the late Sixties No 60s." The event was held to celebrate the achievements of those who had been active in the 1960s, but who had not been able to find employment in the 1970s.

Franklin Institute Awards 25 Prizes

A good number of people have been interested in the Franklin Institute Award, which is given to the Institute for work that it deems important. The Institute has awarded a total of $31,300 in prizes.

The average score of the winners was 58.9. The winners were: Samuel H. Galston of the Municipal Civil Service Commission, who won the prize for the Institute's best work in 1961; and the Institute's best work in 1962, which was given to the Institute's best work in 1963.
