New Plan Covers Vacation Time, Work Week, Leave Of State Employees

LIBANY, June 8—Proposals of the Civil Service Commission for revision of attendance rules for institutional employees were discussed at conferences called by the Division of Classification and Compensation in New York City, June 5 and June 6. Proposing revisions in attendance rules for institutional employees in the Department of Mental Hygiene, Health and Social Welfare, were made by J. Edward Conway, Chairman of the Commission in January, 1952, and were followed by the Special Committee on Attendance Rules of the Association.

Dr. Wayne W. Snider, State Education Department, representing the Association's Committee on Attendance Rules, Chapter 12, Council, and William K. Bell, Superintendent of Schools, for the County of Dutchess, appeared for the Association. Representatives of the State Department of Mental Hygiene, Health and Social Welfare, and of the State Budget Office were present at the meeting. William J. Murray, Assistant Administrative Director, Joseph Zehnder, Comptroller, and Grason Tompkins, Director of Civil Service, attended.

Revision Urged

Association representatives urged strongly that the Commission review the rules adopted in 1945 and revised slightly in 1947 to bring them in line with the best in employment practice. They stated that it was felt the revisions suggested by the Association would help to improve State service efficiency and employee satisfaction and morale. Further revision urged.

Out of Use

The Commission reported that in addition to the above, a number of job titles, their grades and salaries, do not include the 1952-53 emergency compensation increase, and were approved for elimination. Commissioners approved additional temporary job titles in the Department of State, that of Bottling Plant Assistant Foreman, G-9, $3451—$4176, and Chief Institution Fireman, G-9, $1925—$2450.

The immediate success of the Civil Service LEADER'S extraordinary camera - and film offer, giving for only $3.95 the equivalent of $33.95 in value, makes it possible that we may soon run out of the supplies available. While we are trying to make arrangements for additional cameras from our source, we have no assurance that this will be possible. The danger of being forced to cancel the offer without notice at any time remains. We therefore urge those who have been delaying to make their purchase now and to save disappointment and avoid any disappointment. Full details appear on page 7. If we are forced to halt this offer, we shall of course continue the coupons for a period to take care of all those whose reservations have been sent in.

31 State Jobs Eliminated; Out of Use

ALBANY, June 9—Thirty-one state jobs in one, or perhaps two, grades, are now out of use. This is the second announced since April 11, when several others, and then stopped. In April, Mrs. McParland sent another letter to Conway in which she pointed out that because of the lack of activity on the survey many employees were not aware that the survey had been held or that the results would be used for other work, and would be renewed and was then written by his department.

Hearing Set On Pending State Job Survey

ALBANY, June 9 — The State Civil Service Commission has received an application by the American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, for a hearing on the classification of a job held by the former Chief Institution Fireman for the Department of State, that the matter would be carried through to a conclusion.

CAMERA FANS MUST HURRY!

The survey has been in progress for many months, although the job was held by the former Chief Institution Fireman for the Department of State, that the matter would be carried through to a conclusion.

Annual Westchester Dinner, Set for June 12, Promises To Be Outstanding Event

WHITE PLAINS, June 9—The annual dinner-dance of the Westchester County Competitive Civil Service Association will take place tonight at the White Plains Yacht Club. Miss Margaret W. Tripp, recreation commissioner chairman of the event will be held at the Larchmont Yacht Club on Long Island Sound.

The program of entertainment fixed up and the finely planned table reservations, indicate this will be the first and finest annual party yet given by the County Association, which boasts for outstanding events.

The twenty-first Civil Service certificate will be presented. The Westchester County Competitive Civil Service Association has won a reputation as one of the finest of employee events.

Speaking will be curtailed this year. Mrs. Tripp states that no more than one or two brief talks scheduled.

Popular Dancing

The program includes the road of Carmine Pellegrino and his Barge Quintet will perform. Songs will be by Tommy Senda, well-known Westchester amateur crooner. The entertainment will be headed by Joe Wolfe, whose original program of minstrel and impressions earned him a furor.

Attendance will be limited to the Civil Service employees Association a special "different" social event and thus, was guaranteed out on it.

The Committee

Working with Mrs. Tripp are, Decorations, Julia F. Dugan, Park; tickets, Walter M. Silliman, Park; Space Work, Marta Kemper, Finance; and tickets, Walter M. Silliman, Park.

Loretta D. Smythe, Grasslands Hotel, and Mrs. Trout, are in charge of the refreshments.

Better Deal Seen in "Closed" Hospital Retirement System

ALBANY, June 9—Members of the "closed" State Hospital Retirement System have reason to look forward to a possible improvement in their retirement benefits, which was established in 1953, following the 1953 session of the State Legislature.

Costs Reduced

At the past legislative session, a tactic was used to improve the retirement system, which is a retirement fund for the medical and surgical personnel of the 13 State Hospitals.

The continued service of these members, the Association points out, is necessary to the operation of the Hospital Retirement System and is of great value to the public. The Association feels that the Hospital Retirement System should be liberalized, particularly for the benefit of those members who have been employed for many years and have received no additional benefits when they continued their employment, or after becoming eligible for retirement.

The Association will, if given a chance, continue to push the legislation next year.

Living Costs Up Again

The general trend of wage statistics is still on the upswing. The Consumer Price Index showed a sharp drop in February, but increased slightly in March to 181.9.

The Earnings Index, which is based on all-time high position in January of 189.1. The Earnings figures continue, generally, to increase, as do the Federal Reserve Bank Indexes. Hourly earnings in New York State Manufacturing remain the same, while weekly earnings increased very slightly over the previous month.

NYC Law Cases

The COURTS are trying to determine what constitutes military pay. Mr. Sheridan says that therefor, he is entitled to the difference between his civil salary and military base pay and not to "a difference between his military salary, and military base pay plus incentive pay."

The City says that Section 245 of the Military Law, which concerns salaries, differs from Section 246, which deals with pensions, because the wording is different. Section 245 requires that the veteran shall receive "such part of his civilian salary or compensation as equals the excess of his military base pay over pay for military service." The City contends that the words "such part" include incentive pay.

In a recent case the Court maintained that incentive pay was not to be counted in figuring the City's retirement benefit. The City contends that the veteran shall receive "such part of his civilian salary or compensation as equals the excess of his military base pay over pay for military service." The City contends that the words "such part" include incentive pay.

The City says that "military base pay" alone is included. In a recent case the Court maintained that incentive pay was excluded from the City's retirement benefit. The City contends that the words "such part" include incentive pay.

There is no firm answer yet on this issue. Suit Over Incentive Pay

A recent decision in the Court of General Sessions of the City of New York on behalf of Edmund C. Buehler, an investigator in the Comptroller's office, is also said to be for differential pay. He was a member of the State Guard, which the law provides is a service force to be included in differential benefits.

He received from the State during the war $3,112 as a member of the State Guard, which he brought to a total of $10,512, which he was entitled to receive for military service. Only a part of his base pay was included for retirement purposes, since part of his base pay was for military service. The City did not appeal.

The Court of Appeals decided a close question of law when it held that employees in the graded service of the competitive class are not entitled to the benefits of Section 220 of the Labor Law. Under that law, laborers, mechanics and workmen are entitled to the pay rates prevailing in local private industry.

The City contends that the words "such part" include incentive pay. The City maintains that the veteran shall receive "such part of his civilian salary or compensation as equals the excess of his military base pay over pay for military service." The City contends that the words "such part" include incentive pay.

STATE SCHEDULED TO SETTLE
QUESTION OF 'HEAT LEAVE'

ALBANY, June 9—The subject of heat leaves for State workers, cold in recent months—is once

Deferred Twain

It appeared first on the Commission's April calendar. It was deferred to the May schedule but at that meeting the CSC decided to talk to the Civil Service Employees Association and again put off taking final action.

The matter was brought up in a meeting between CSC and CSREA representatives meeting discuss the entire attendance rule strikingly, but no firm decision was reached.

So the topic of whether or not to give free time off in hot weather will be back to the Commis-no in.

JULY, 1962
Fifty new firemen and eight new battalion chiefs are appointed to the NYC Fire Dept.

Fifty new firemen and eight new battalion chiefs are appointed to the NYC Fire Dept. These appointments were presented to support promotions to the rank of Battalion Chief on Medal Day, the Fire Department's traditional promotion day.

In the rank of Battalion Chief, there were eight vacancies now exist. There is more justification for the promotion of eight to battalion chief and the appointment of curtailed collections. The City Foremen Association and the long campaign by the Uniformed battalion chief eligibles. Battalion Chief Tom Hartnett, was especially active in making sure the Banks and the State on the list. The vacancies are filled by the rank of Battalion Chief to 26 on the 6-9 tour.

Appointment to succeed Dr. Brill as director of Crane Colony is Dr. Charles Greenberg, assistant director of Harbor Valley State Hospital. Dr. George F. Billman, assistant director of Home Service, will succeed Dr. Hunt as director of St. Lawrence State Hospital. Assistant director of Buffalo State Hospital to fill a vacancy caused by the retirement of Dr. Christopher Fletcher, Dr. Duncan Whitcomb, present assistant director of Brookline State Hospital. The three appointments will be effective July 1, at a salary range of $11,587.50 to $13,007 a year, in the administrative office of the department at Albany.

Appointed to succeed Dr. Brill as director of Crane Colony is Dr. Charles Greenberg, assistant director of Harbor Valley State Hospital. Dr. George F. You Need College Degree To Be Steno or Typist, But There’s a Reason

Unusual promotion opportunities are offered in the overseas Division, U. S. Army, to stenographers and typists who will work in Japan. For that reason a college degree is required, an unusual requirement for an appointment, an unusual requirement for that division. The Division explains that it is unusual also to recruits here who have no experience in a specific profession, that they must have the complete equivalent of experience. The Division hopes to encourage many applicants from this month’s advertising.

The jobs pay $2,000 with $1,500 initially, plus the cost of overseas duty, and are filled on a two-year basis. The applicants must be provided free, as is the return trip on completion of the duty term. Free housing is also provided, but applicants must pay their own food bill, about $450 a month. Ages range from 21 to 45.

Pension Waivers Must Be Signed
Or Bonus Is Denied

Wivers are being circulated to New York City employees, and if signed, the City may be able to avoid the requirement of including bonus in the employee's pension. Those employees otherwise entitled to a bonus, but who do not sign the waivers, will not receive the bonus. An employee who does not sign a waiver by July 1, with the new budget, will not receive the bonus.

Among those not entitled to sign the waivers, with all others, are laborers, employees on layoff, and those not sign the waivers. A representative of the American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, who negotiated a proposed jubilee last week, says that false statements are being made to convince workers that they would lose their jobs if they did not sign the waivers. Mr. Wurf explained that the Board of Health has not indicated that laborers are not to receive the bonus.

About 160 titles are excluded from the bonus, but those of employees paid under determined categories. About 200 additional workers may be excluded from the bonus.

Ordinarily, those entitled to a bonus, but who don't sign the waivers, will not receive the bonus. The agreement provides that annual bonuses, with the exception of those paid to laborers, to the employee's pension under the law, and those who have been laid off for three or more months, are not entitled to a bonus. The amount of the bonus is fixed under the law, and will be determined by the City's actuarial. The bonus will be determined by the City's actuarial.
