Cortland County

THE CORTLAND CHAPTER, CSEA, held its meeting Wednesday evening, June 25th at the Cortland Y.M.C.A. Despite the uncomfortable humid weather, attendance was good, 150 members being present.

Donald Langom, president, introduced the guest speaker, Philo Kerker, public relations director of the Cortland County Employment Association. Kerker spoke on the public relations responsibilities of state employees in good public relations and offered suggestions on how to make our chapter an effective part of our Cortland community.

Suffolk County

DAVID ALBUTT of Babylon has been elected for the third time to head the Suffolk chapter of CSEA. Installation proceedings were expected to be held on Sept. 10 at the Suffolk chapter's headquarters in Melville. The Suffolk chapter is one of the largest of the CSEA chapters in the state, including 1,175 service employees in the county, including in the legislative and judicial branches.

Murray, Zausmer Named to High Civil Service Jobs

ALBANY, July 7 — William J. Murray has been named administrative director and Garson Zausmer assistant administrative director of the State Civil Service Department, effective July 1, it was announced by Edward W. Conway, President of the State Civil Service Commission. Both appointments are on a provisional basis. Murray, who is an administrative director of the State Department of Social Services, has been in that position since 1932. Zausmer was formerly a personnel officer with the State Department of Social Services.

Mr. Murray will fill the position left vacant by the retirement of Charles L. Campbell following three years of service. His retirement was effective July 1.

He joined the Civil Service Department with an appointment as associate administrative director after qualifying on the competitive examination. He is a graduate of. Cornell and St. John's University Law School. Following experience on the editorial staff of newspapers and trade publications, he joined the examining staff of the New York City Civil Service Commission in 1954. After six years he became Assistant Secretary of the Commission at its headquarters in New York City. He lived at 532 Madison Avenue, Albany.

William J. Murray, left, and Garson Zausmer, right, appointed administrative and assistant administrative director, respectively, of the State Civil Service Commission. Mr. Murray takes the position following the retirement of Charles L. Campbell, Mr. Zausmer, who had been secretary of the State Merit Award Board, takes Mr. Murray's former post.

"The examination date for No. 6160 Hearing Examiner only will be October 4, 1952." This examination is open to qualified residents of the Third Judicial District.

PUBLIC RELATIONS HELD SUBJECT TO EXAMINATION

ALBANY, July 7 — Public relations is subject to competitive examination, the State Civil Service Commission ruled last week. It disapproved a request of the Lien Island State Park Commission for a public relations aide for the Beach Park Authority.

AUDIT CLERKS HIT BY BUDGET DISAPPROVAL

ALBANY, July 7 — A recommend- tion to raise the pay of State audit clerks was granted — from $3,500 to $4,000 — which had been approved by the Director of Classifications and Compensation, was last week disapproved by the Director of the Budget.

Broome Aides in Decentralized Planning

BINGHAMTON, July 7 — An interesting brochure has been prepared by the Broome County Board of Supervisors. The 16-page booklet, chapter, CREA, with the title: "What We Have Done — What We Propose," is now available.

Among the accomplishments are: the hiring of a county economic development officer; the appointment of a county coordinator of the New York State Local Work Program; the appointment of a county welfare administrator; the establishment of an economic development office; and the appointment of a recreation supervisor.

The booklet also provides for the improvement of special and non-special school services.

Objectives

Present objectives are: salary range commensurate with the job or position; professional personnel to be employed on a long term basis; no hiring for staff positions; and an end to state interference with county economy.

Adequate personnel is necessary to assure the county's future and must be provided for in the budget, according to the board.

Citizenship Waived in Health Posts

ALBANY, July 7 — The State Civil Service Commission has ruled that problem somewhat unique last week when it decided to hold positions in the State Health Department.

The problem arose because of the shortage of qualified medical professionals. The Health Department had been told that by the citizenship requirements must be met. In other words, the shortage of qualified medical personnel, such as registered nurses, internists, and other medical specialists. The Health Department had been asked to make the citizenship requirements less stringent. This was done in order to recruit the needed medical personnel to meet the needs of the health services.

The Commission agreed to allow exceptions in certain cases, however. Apparently, the Commission feels, it is in the interest of the State to recruit for that post among citizens.

State Acts on Two Emergency Titles

ALBANY, July 7 — The State Civil Service Commission last week disapproved a request of the State Workmen's Insurance Board for the appointment of a State workmen's insurance board, and a request of the Board of Education for the appointment of a State school teacher. It did, however, allow a limited number of employees to be employed at a lower salary.

LABOR CLASS FOR PARK-Shirt RECEIVED

ALBANY, July 7 — The State Civil Service Commission acted on a request of the NYS Civil Service Commission to include the position of seasonal part-time in the labor class. This post is in the NYS Parks Department, and is likely to be filled on a part-time basis.

Of Statement

On Heat Leave

ALBANY, July 7 — Full text of the Civil Service Commission statement on heat leave as described in last week's LEADER follows. It is in the form of a letter signed by William J. Murray, Acting Administrative Director, State Department of Civil Service.

The State Civil Service Commission at its meeting on June 27 considered a memorandum from the Personnel Council recommending that the attendance rules be changed to provide that closing of State offices be permitted without charge to employees' pay. The Commission declined, in effect not to permit the closing of State offices on the basis of State attendance rules because of extreme heat. The Commission therefore has determined that no useful purpose would be achieved by amendment of the Attendance Rules.

General clauses are not permitted under the Attendance Rules, unless the time taken by the employee is charged to their leave allowance. Under the rules, however, it is entirely proper for a supervisor to excuse from work any employee who is unable to work because of the heat, and to reduce the hours worked, overtime, or vacation allowances, as the case may be.

The Commission is aware of heat-related absences which exist in the various units of the State department, and which are caused by the heat. It is impossible to define the exact nature of work which must be continued regardless of the heat.

A "certain degree of flexibility is always necessary to the exercise of discretion in individual cases. This discretion is vested in the rules as they now stand. The Commission concludes that the most equitable solution of the problem is for the employees to request in the departments the closing of offices on the basis of employee's request for early departure, the condition of heat, and the nature of the work on which they are employed. It is not within the power of the Commission to require that these requests be granted. The decision to close an office must be made by the supervisor, with the charge of such time, to the employee, the nature of the work to be continued, and the effect of heat on the employee, is of utmost importance, and must be considered.

The Commission hopes that employees will continue to work with their supervisors on the problem of heat leave, as they can be attained under the present attendance rules.
New Retirement Bills Summarized

ALBANY, July 7 — The State Personnel Council, in its Personnel News, has noted changes in retirement which are now in effect as a result of actions by the State Legislature this year.

Among the more important actions was a recommendation which extended the filing period under the new age-65 plan, permitting retirement for state employees between the ages of 65 and 69. This extension was made available only in the event of voluntary retirement.

Further, the filing period for the age-65 plan, which runs from September 1 to December 31 of the year, was extended until September 30, 1952. This change was made to accommodate the needs of employees who had decided to retire before the original filing deadline.

In addition, the law formerly provided that a member who became a member of the Retirement System prior to the age of 60 and later became a member of the system at age 60 could not receive a benefit equal to the amount of his accumulated contributions, but could receive only the benefits provided by the member's service since becoming a member. This provision was amended to allow such a member to receive his full benefit.

Supplemental Cash Stares This Month For Pensioners

ALBANY, July 7 — The State of New York, through the New York City Employees Retirement System, will pay out approximately $6,000 supplemental pension checks this month to retired city employees who are eligible. The number of checks issued and the total paid, approximately $8,000 supplemental pension payments, but the Department expects to disburse about 9,000 pensioner's checks.

Persons who retired prior to January 1, 1951, who are more than 65 years of age, who are drawing a retirement allowance without optional retirement benefit, who are eligible for a pension, who and how many persons will be receiving the supplemental pension, and the amount of the payments are as follows:

In most, who the checks will amount to less than $25 per check, with $25 increase Maximum for only group eligible to receive more than that amount $100 per month.

In case we the amount of supplemental pension checks will be paid the recipient's total to more than $190 monthly.

Enacted by the 1953 Legislature as Chapter 318 of the Laws of the State of New York, the Supplemental Pension Act continues for another year the policy of emphasis on retirement allowances for persons who were retired after 1941 at the start of the 1951 session. However, the law was passed in 1950 by the 1951 law in many respects.

Paid for all, the Department of Audit and Control points out in its Aug. 2 comments that the consumer does not apply for the extra 6% per month.

Supplemental checks will accompany regular monthly pension checks going out this month. They will be payable each month thereafter and will be payable each month thereafter.

CIVIL SERVICE RIGHTS

Mr. Weissberg, former Deputy Asst. NYC Comptroller, is an author of the book "Civil Service Rights." He frequently speaks on the subject of civil service rights.

On a court review of any personnel action, the state Civil Service Commission has the right to reverse the Director's decision. The court cannot, however, review the merits of the action; it can only order the Director to comply with the law.

More Attention To Pensioners

Pensioners in the State Retirement System who are receiving less than $100 a month will have their allowances supplemented, beginning as of July 1. The same conditions affect these pensioners as the one in other retirement systems. There's no reason why qualified employees of local communities should not also have the advantages of the Mahoney amendment, passed last year by the people who thought it would help all local-pensioned employees of the State and local units. New York City looks at a party by church, that would like something to offend the cynicism of Congress and provide a pitance of hope for better government.

The 1-in-3 Rule Often Works Wrong

Here's a letter we got the other day, from which we're deleting only the name of the place where it happened.

"On January 19, a civil service examination for supervisor of public works for my village was held. Two candidates took the examination, the acting superintendent and myself. In May 1952, I received word that I had passed with a grade of 84.64.

"I appeared before the Board and met. The Mayor read off the results of the exam. The acting superintendent had failed to pass the exam, which meant that I was the only successful candidate. Instead of appointing me, the Board voted for another exam, and in the meantime re-appointed the acting superintendent, who had failed the exam, until such time as another exam could be held.

"What I would like to know is whether or not the

Manhattan State Aid Reserves Reported

Representatives of Manhattan State Aid Reserves reported that the agency has received many requests for their services. At the Triborough Bridge Authority, for instance, the Manhattan State Aid Reserve officers were regularly turned down requests for food by the agency. Mr. Wallace, who was in charge of the Manhattan State Aid Reserve, pointed out that State employees need more and more assistance for their families. The Manhattan State Aid Reserve members are currently on a three-week vacation.
