The Consumer Price Index dropped slightly for the month of September, chiefly because of the fact that the prices in the food group dropped. Food prices are generally lower in September than in August. The Wholesale Price Index also decreased. Index, The Wholesale Index which represents prices at the basic source, that is, manufacturers' prices, again moved downward. The general trend of the economy is thus toward growth.

Enforcing Code of Ethics In Government Employment

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24 — A bill to codify for all public employees, at all levels of government, the code of ethics proposed by Commissioner O. K. Armstrong (民.) has been approved by Congress as the ideal for public servants, saving the New York State administration thousands of dollars, the code of ethics should be enforced by law, Mr. Armstrong said.Chairman of the Code of Ethics Committee, approved by Congress as the ideal for all government employees, was Mr. Armstrong. The code of ethics should be approved by Congress as the ideal for all government employees, he said.

"It should not be enforced by law, but by the public opinion of the day."

Mr. Armstrong's proposals:
1. At all times I will consider public office as a public trust.
2. I will uphold and obey the Constitution, laws and legal regulations of the United States and of all governments therein.
3. Mindful of my obligation to the general welfare, but in the performance of my duties.
4. I pledge my best efforts to ensure a correct day-to-day activity of the Albany office of his board.
5. Unfortunately for the people of the state, the size of the counseling staff and budget limits most of this service to the Albany area.
6. Telephone calls and letters from other areas are, of course, given prompt attention, but it is physically and economically impossible for Miss MacFarlane to visit every applicant for assistance or for those applicants to come to Albany every time they seek aid.
7. We would seem that similar work would be fruitful in the New York City area, but no provisions for it exist.
8. With the exact status of the entire personnel relations program pending action next year on what ever recommendations may be submitted by the Mahaney Commission, there seems little likelihood of any change at this time of expanding any of the services, including counseling.

PUBLIC WORKS MAN DIES OF HEART ATTACK

HOLLAND, Nov. 24— Alonzo H. Charchian, employed in the Bab-ien edition of the State Department of Public Works, died on August 15 of a heart attack. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Alice Charchian, and three children, Mrs. Elizabeth Charchian, Mrs. Ethel McAllister, Annabelle and Daniel. Mr. Charchian worked for the State of New York for 35 years.

The annual dinner and installation of officers of Genesee Valley Armory Employees chapter, CSEA, was held on October 28 at Dunking Hill Towers, Rochester. Those who attended included, left to right: Jack Hartman, CSEA field representative, who installed the chapter officers; Carl Hansen, chapter secretary; William Kel- lip, president; August Schieler, treasurer; and Paul Hays, vice president.

PUZZLE—How Many State Workers?

How many persons are employed by the State of New York? It all depends on what you mean.

The figure can and does vary anywhere between the low seventy and middle eighty thousands. While no figures are available for the Civil Service Department, there are estimates that there are approximately 34,000. The office of the Comptroller, which apparently gave Mr. Shoemaker his figures, comes up with a much higher total than the Civil Service Department, but does so because it counts every worker, whether temporary or part-time.

Civil Service insists on counting only full time employees.

In defense of the increase—though not admitting to an increase as large as Mr. Shoemaker claims—the Civil Service Department points out that the Legislature has big blocks of workers on the State payroll by creating over three hundred tuberculosis hospitals, and similar activities.

Payment as the Measure

It was pointed out that the Civil Service estimate of some 74,000 jobs does not include, among others, sizable numbers of highway light maintenance workers employed for about six months per year by Public Works. Nor does it include many hundreds more who work seasonally for the Conservation Department, Bureau of Motor Vehicles, and many other agencies.

All of these are included in the Comptroller's figures because, as one Audit and Control spokesman says: "They all get paid, don't they?"

NYC Chamber's Membership Soars

Membership in the NYC chapter, CSEA, is growing by leaps and bounds, with more than 5,000 new members recently. Employees seeking to join should contact Joseph J. Raynor, at 49 Centre Street.

Employees Have Stake in Financial Planning

NYC employees, acting through their organizations, have expressed dissatisfaction with the lack of progress by NYC toward sound financial planning, and rightly so. They request a voice in discussions looking toward a solution. That voice they must have. Their own future is closely connected with a solution of the recurrent and increasing financial difficulties.

One group of employees wants a committee appointed, on which the public, the City employees, and the State and City governments would be represented, and a closely connected with a solution of the recurrent and increasing financial difficulties. Employee organizations have been lobbying for years for a strengthened move to legalize off-track betting.

Another of this group is Howie Riegelman, a "sleeper" prospect is Beardsley who is a "sleeper" prospect is Beardsley, a Republican congressman from New York who has made a name for himself in Congress as a financial expert.

Brooklyn State Hospital

DURING the absence of Arnold M. MacIntyre, recently elected to the Brooklyn State Hospital chapter, CISBA, all chapter activities will be handled by Frances L. Wilson, R.N., vice president, in West Building. All committee chairmen are urged to turn over dues payments and other chapter matters to Miss Wilson. She will act as chairwoman for the coming election of officers.

Let's make it a success. By helping the chapter, each member helps himself.

The next meeting of the chapter's board of directors will be on December 3, at which time a new secretary will be elected to fill the unexpired term of Frank H. Conkllng, former chapter delegate.

Congratulations to Thomas F. Klingman, former chapter delegate. The committee on arrangements consisted of: Peter Pearson, chairman, Herbert Kanoff, John Enright, James Kirkland, Joseph Colombo, Harold Blotzer, and Paul Harter, acting guests.

The chapter president is busy these days appointing chairs for the various committees.

The next meeting of the chapter's members have taken place in the presence of Miss Wilson, Eleni Carpenter, Nita Eckert, White, Hemler, Katherine Divine, Charles Kinghorn, Gertrude Kassn, John Swidoff, William Parke, William Oldfield, and Dr. Fredmose. Bill Would Rename Police Sergeants 2nd Lieutenants

There are more sergeants in the NYC Police Department. They'd be known as second lieutenants instead, if a bill introduced in the Council by Vice President J. B. T. Sharkey is adopted.

The NYC Civil Service Commission has decided to hold the above examination on Tuesday, February 17, 1943. This will be open to all persons who are citizens of the United States and of the State of New York and of the City of New York, who are not members of the armed forces of the United States, and who have not served on active duty in the armed forces of the United States after the date of the last examination.

We're Doing a Good Job, NYC Commission Holds, Answering Its Critics

Answering charges in two reports to the Mayor's Committee on Management Survey, regarding filling jobs and establishing proper careers in the Police and Fire Departments, the NYC Civil Service Commission complains that both reports are "replete with inaccurate statements, faulty conclusions and illegal recommendations." The reports were "The New York Police Survey" and "Career and Salary Features of the Police and Fire Services in NYC," and were prepared by the Research Department of the Committee. Recommendations and charges in the report, the Commission's answers follow, in condensed form:

The Police Department should conduct its own exams. Answer — The examining function should be conducted by the Civil Service Commission. It preserves the balance required by the Public Service Law and the Police Department.

Both reports are "replete with inaccurate statements, faulty conclusions and illegal recommendations." The Civil Service Commission's answers are based on topics with which the average person should be familiar.

The examining function should be conducted by the Civil Service Commission. Answer — Often the written test, although not that third person, cannot be taken by the candidate, who is then required to take the physical, so that they are not properly screened, possibly death, under the law.

Patrolman exams should be conducted by the Civil Service Commission. Answer — The 1951 patrolman list was established the very day after the 1947 law expired. The examinations have gradually changed. Answer — The standards are adhered to stringently and are of a quality second to none, designed to eliminate the unfit. A preliminary medical test is given, after the written test, so that the.Civil Service Commission won't waste money examining candidates who well fail the written test and are not eligible to be considered. The examination implies that the extra punishment was taken on the pre-pension medical and the time of the departmental medical, and that no appointment therefore resulted in the overweight being corrected. 2. Insurance Groups Have More Pay

In the Insurance Fund case, one group consists of employees in the State Department of Insurance, who were satisfied, on the allowance of $15 a month, and who had at least 15 years' credited member-service, unless retired for disability, when benefit amounts assume the following: Specific requirements, two years.
