Summary of Letter Exchange
With Falk on Non-Teaching
Aides of School Districts

The following is a summary of letters exchanged between the Civil Service Employees Association and Pat Falk of the State Civil Service Commission, on civil service matters and the non-teaching aide employee. CSEA questions are in bold face type.

The title of cleaner, a classification Riven to appointment under the title of custodian, school custodian-bus driver, and various maintenance positions, to appoint permanent or temporary and provisional appointees where the positions are classified permanent positions which should be filled from established eligible lists.

The School District, Unit of the Municipal Service Division has assigned one of its employees to school districts, making certain that the appointees are reasonable to the eligible lists, and trying to appoint permanent or temporary and provisional appointees.

The non-teaching school employees urge a more careful consideration in the announcements of examinations to make certain that residence requirements are clear and understandable.

The non-teaching school employees urge that the position be advertised as an actual examination process. If the job statement does not allow the position as it actually exists, but since the position does not have sufficient staff to make field audits of such requests, the statements made by the School District notified that the position has been vacated as an examination process. Opposition is growing to the transfer of H. M. Biggs Memorial Hospital from the County to the City. Mayor Robert Crouse, community service chairman, has announced he will do everything possible to stop the measure from passing. He reported out by the Assembly Ways and Means committee.

Assemblyman Harry J. Tiftt, of Horseheads, has announced he will work to gain the ear of the Legislature, to use his rights as a citizens into active resistance to the transfer.
Strong Assn. Essential For Aides' Well Being, Utica Judge Declares

UTICA, Feb. 6—One hundred forty representatives of State and local employees united in a meeting of the Central Conference, CSEA, and Associated county chapters in Central New York, at the Hotel Utica here, State Civil Service Commissioner Mary Goode Krone discussed the intricacies of civil service work.

A morning session of chapter presidents and CSEA 4th vice president and chairman of the County Executive Committee, presided at the local aids deliberations.

Charles D. Methe, Conference president, charged the State employees' session, which was attended by CSEA officials Joseph E. Polty, Robert E. Borer, Charles E. Lamb, Harry O. Fox, Charlotte M. Clark, Frances M. Casey and Virginia Leathem, Isaac Hungerford, of the State Employees Retirement System, and Larry Hold- tier of Ter Bush and Powell.

Mr. Lamb discussed ways of creating interest in chapter activities. Mr. Holdier discussed the payment of claims, and Mr. Hum- gerford announced the agendas for personal consultation with both representatives on personnel matters. Mr. Methe appointed a committee on organizing and standing committees.

A joint meeting of both groups heard Frank Casey discuss Social Security and retirement.

Fight Against Poverty Includes Low Pensions

ALBANY, Feb. 6—A study of the pensions of retired State employees and teachers has been urged by Governor Averell Harriman, as part of the Administration's "Fight Against Poverty."

"I am not satisfied that the present arrangements are ade- quate," Mr. Harriman told a State Legislature. "We should not allow our former civil service people and teachers to live out these years in poverty, without the means to maintain them at a de- cent, minimum standard.

"We need to know, among other things, how many retired teachers and State employees are solely dependent on these pensions and to what extent it makes sense to raise them to a level at a decent, minimum standard."

For Longevity Raised

The Uniformed Fire Officers Association of the NYC Fire De- partment is exacting strong efforts to get an increase of the pension allowed for service beyond 20 years. It was announced by the Department who were appointed prior to April 1, 1948 feel that the $50 added to pension for each year of service beyond 20 years is a pittance, since pension contributions by the em- ployee continue during those "sup-era-

After 20 years service, retire- ment remains the same for the first 10 years. In the last one, the member of the Fire Department continues working beyond that period. The figures are definitely working for half pay, anyway, because had he retired after 20 years he would have received half pay while not working. But when he con- tinues on, his pension contrib- ution likewise continue, and money he puts up during the ex- cess period, he figures is far more than the value of the extra amount of service.

The Uniformed Fire Officers Association of NYC Fire Department advocates the idea of difference in pension. This, they say, is the worst feature of Article 1 of the Fire Pension Fund. At the meeting, after 10 years, the addi- tional $50 is not added for each extra year of service.

The UFA has accumulated a portfolio of documentary proof of the justice of its claim. It re- ports that $100 of the $10 per cent of the prob- lems brought before the associa- tion by its members relates to pensions, and that recognition of the need for pension increase for the service years beyond 20 is one of the leading pension goals of the membership.

One proposal, referred to the delegates and employe groups, was that the written test be given greater weight than the physical. The UFA strongly op- posed the idea of difference in weight.

State Pension Commission Will Offer Variety of Plans To Combine Social Security

Social Security for State workers is in no way a device for pre-empting the present pension scheme. "When public pensions were first devised, the idea was one of heavy resistance because many workers feared the retirement plan was an excuse for forcing them to lose their jobs," Mr. Kaplan said.

Later, the introduction of Social Security has been justified because some public employees felt it was a plan to replace their present pension plan.

No Fear of Reduction

Mr. Kaplan, an advisor to Presi- dent Truman and afterward a leader on retirement matters and an expert on the Social Security Act, said that its major aspects is that the widow and children of a worker who dies will be given real security. If the worker is of relatively limited earning capacity, the Social Security benefit will be paid for as much longer as the worker lived. In effect, it was the same as an annuity plan. The disability benefit paid for as much longer as the worker lived. In effect, it was the same as an annuity plan. The disability benefit.

Mr. Kaplan, in an interview with several experts on pension plans, declared that at his age, Mr. Kaplan, says that when the workers are the beneficiaries of the Social Security plan, a number of them, 16,000 employees were in the Social Security plan.

In the two departments in which elections were held, both on the same day, the vote showed the identity of the union and the employees preferred, but no exclusive bargaining agency resulted under any City auspices. In the Sanitation Department, the Department was the official to test, the result was the same, however, if exclusive bargaining rights went to the worker, the union was the official to test.

A gentleman's agreement was reached between the two competing unions that the loser would yield to the victor completely, or the result of the decision was a victory for the union in its field.

The result of the election was said to undo the majority with the minority.

Why the Preference

Union leaders say that when they are the employer, the employee is best served, and the labor movement progresses faster, when only one union represents all the employees. These leaders freely admit that if their own union is defeated they would take the defeat with the best of grace, though, of course, preparing for the next election.

A proposal has been submitted by the Labor Committee of the New York City Employment Service, which was on the list of the top 150 largest bargaining agreements in the city. This proposal was the basis for the decision.

The next Department in which a union is to be heard is the Public Service Department, The City Employees Union, sanitation, is the only one that has a single coverage plan.

Fire Widows' Pensions Must Be Increased

A bill in the State Legislature would increase the pension granted to NYC firemen's widows. If ever there was an overwhelming argument in favor of the enactment of a bill, it exists in this case.

The $50-a-month pension was enacted years ago. This is a pitance. Both the City and the State have granted supplemental pensions, during the past few years, to retired employees whose allowances are pitifully small.

Why must the same consideration be withheld from firemen's widows?

The City Administration should give the bill the green light. That would just about guarantee its enactment. The bill, with the added hat of $11.54 a week bought precious little. Now it buys so much less that the widows' plight must not be permitted to continue.

The Uniformed Fire Officers Association and the Uniformed Firemen's Association agreed on the terms embodied in this bill, and had the measure introduced. Now their legislative committees are working hard in Albany to get the bill enacted. May they meet with the success that the energetic efforts and the worthiness of the cause deserve.

State Financing With Aides Loans Must End

A recent article in the Albany Times-Union reported that, in certain instances, State workers have been forced to borrow travel expenses from small loan companies to finance trips in the State's service.

While this money is later repaid to the employee by the State, the inconveniences of such an arrangement, leave the inequities, are obvious. In addition, the travel expenses allowed by the State are in such an inadequate amount in several instances that employees are known to have supported spending their own funds in order to obtain decent accommodations in some cities.

Under the State Constitution, advances of State funds for expenses are forbidden.

However, a possible solution to this problem has been proposed by Philip Florman, of the Commerce chapter, Civil Service Employees Association.

Mr. Florman suggests that the State arrange for a credit card system with banks, which would cut down on the out-of-pocket expense.

At the same time, an increase in the present car mileage rate, from 8 to 10 cents per mile, plus an increase in daily subsistence and room allowances from $11 to 18$, would alleviate the situation considerably.

Whatever cure is necessary, the State should give its most serious consideration to a problem that is nothing less than an imposition on State workers.

CLIMATE As a Function of Rating

By WINIFRED BERNARD

WHILE THE OBJECT OF holding a competitive civil service examination is to find those candidates that best qualify to fill the jobs, administrators report that the candidates who get the highest scores do not necessarily make the best employees, while some candidates, especially those who fail, say that civil service commissions do not necessarily give the best type of examinations.

A broad study of the reasons for the nature of examinations would reveal a division of personality and psychological factors, and the largely experimental attitude in a candidate difficult to bring out through Intelligence, aptitude, or professional competence criteria.

Let us consider the examination. As one of the tests that could not be expected to measure up to the job's requirements, That would go directly to whether the time of such an examination should be:

Taking It

When considering all the surrounding circumstances, such as the nature of the job, the minimum requirements to the examination, the salary, and the needs of the service, one could not be expected to measure up to the job's requirements. That would go directly to whether the time of such an examination should be

WHEN any raises are granted as the result of the NYC Salary Appeals Board hearings soon to begin, what would be the effective date? L. P.

Answer: If approved by the Board of Estimate in time, the effective date would be January 1, or July 1, the date on which salary changes usually take effect.

In applying for a Federal Job, must a person show proof of residence? A blank that was submitted was sent to me with the application.

Answer—Proof of residence is required for jobs in Washington, D.C., but not for those in the State. Hence veterans do not have to suffer through sieving even when applying for a Federal position. The blank about residence is sent out with application forms in exam possibilities for the nation. There is a State quota basis for some Washington jobs.

For Group's Scholarships

Applications for the annual scholarship program of the NYC Fire Department's Holy Name Society must be filed by Wednesday, February 15, with Fireman Joseph P. Lawlor, 26 Mottau Parkway, Bronx 18, N.Y.

The program, which includes 14 high school scholarships, is open to sons and daughters, brother and sisters of Society members in good standing.

PAY WENT UP, BUT GRADE SPREAD LEAFED

Before the NYC classification, architects, civil engineers, chemists, chemical engineers, electrical engineers, etc., had a base salary of $1,096. But a prospective assistant was paid a base of $1,096, a difference of $1,650.

At the second classification, the respective bases became $7,700 and $5,460, a difference of $2,240. Recruitment materials show that all the skins are committed in this name.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Brooklyn, N. Y.

ERWIN V. B. ESTEB

PRIVATE PENSION PLANS ARE FINANCIAL HELL

The LEADER: There is no real controversy over the pensions of State employees just don't want integration, any more than employees in private industry want it. There is no connection with Social Security pensions, which employees receive additionally. Under all' these plans there is no connection with Social Security. Kodak pays the full cost. General Electric, and Standard Oil have contributed provisions for vested rights.

Must we speculate that it may be the reason our career civil servants go to Federal courts to prove that no one per cent can, by vote, take away, reduce or impair the rights of the other 40 per cent which are established by indicating the proper test in our State Constitution?

ESTEVEN J. WRIGHT

Member, Rockefeller Chapter, Civil Service Employees Assn.

I AM a public employee. I have to do something travelling in the city where I work and live, in connection with my job. I do not refer to travelling to and from work. Now, as a matter of fact, I may make a deduction for this expense from my Federal income tax return but I do not reimburse me at all, I am wondering if I must claim the deduction in the case where I itemize my deductions, or whether I may make the deduction and figure the gross income, on Page 17 L C.B.

Answer — The deduction from the gross income, on Page 1, is the rule under the amended Internal Revenue Code. This is a special case, known as "local travel," and is to be distinguished from "travel expenses," which deal with overnight business trips out of town. Not all income tax examiners may be in agreement with this change. It would be well to cite the page in the booklet the Treasury Department doctored up, which this new feature about exclusions from gross income is set forth.

When any raises are granted as the result of the NYC Salary Appeals Board hearings soon to begin, what would be the effective date? L. P.

Answer — If approved by the Board of Estimate in time, the effective date would be January 1, or July 1, the date on which salary changes usually take effect.
Blue Cross-Blue Shield Open to State Aides
No matter how carefully you plan for the future, bills for hospital and medical care always seem to come at the wrong time. If you are a wage-earner with a family to support, you are probably sure to feel the pinch if you or one of your dependents should become seriously ill or have an accident.

Because any salaried worker might find himself in this spot, the Civil Service Employees Association, in cooperation with the government of the State of New York, has worked out special arrangements to make Blue Cross and Blue Shield membership available, on a payroll deduction basis, to State employees and their eligible dependents. Enrollment will be open during the month of February for coverage effective June 16, 1958.

The New York State blue service worker who has not yet enrolled may apply for coverage through the State group. Those already enrolled on a direct payroll basis may transfer to the new group and retain the continuity of payroll deduction as well as the advantages of lower group rate. Maternity benefits are available to the wife under the family contract.

REYNOLDS NAMED EDITOR OF INDUSTRIAL BULLETIN
Federal Commissioner Isador Kilner, head of the State Department of Labor, announced that he has appointed Paul Reynolds of Crotone-on-Hudson as an assistant editor-in-chief of the Industrial Bulletin, the department's monthly news magazine. The February issue of the 56-year-old publication will be the first to appear under his editorial direction.

Mr. Reynolds is a native of Brooklyn.

Fire Eligibles Sue to Compel
And Stop Out-of-Town Title
City to Obey Appeals Court Order

The Fire Lieutenants Eligibles
Association has obtained a Supreme Court order directing NYC
City to show cause why it has not complied with the order of the Court of Appeals. In the case of Reilly vs. Grumet, directing stoppage of the governmental practice of working members out of title.

The eligibles declare that their promotion prospects are being seriously injured by the City's failure to obey the court order.
Daniel Jacobson is attorney for the petitioners.

While the Reilly case had the active support of the 'Unformed Fire Officers Association, the eligibles alone are taking the present action.

All of the members of the unformed force are morally on the side of the eligibles. Working in the next higher title, but at the pay of the regular or lower title, has been a source of intense irritation to members of the force for years.

The Court of Appeals decision did not prohibit out-of-title work in all Instances, but sanctioned it in cases of catastrophe or other emergencies.

Clerks Start Mail Drive
To Attain Higher Grade

"Attainment of grade 9 is our goal," said Jack B. Tiebicli, chairman of the coordinating committee of NYC's Third Grade Clerks Employee Committee, as they began the drive in 28 municipal departments.

Addressing a group of 56 clerical officers at a luncheon at the New York Athletic Club, Mr. Tiebicli advised committee heads to seek support through labor unions and other organizations, adding that the committee's members are affiliated with these organizations.

He said there was no intention of forming a permanent organization and that the committees would dissolve as soon as the goal is reached.

Letter-Writing Campaign

The committee decided on a letter-writing campaign in which the Board of Estimates, the City Council, the City Police, the Metropolitan Transit Authority and all other City employees would be informed of the clerical employees' goals for classification in grade 9.

Mr. Tiebicli, secretary, Health Department committee, reported that her department and the Department of Hospitals, Welfare and Education prepared sample letters and established "bombardment day" to contact the letter writers.

Henry E. Rarig, former City Magistrate, counsel to the committee, laid down the legal aspects of the appeal for reclassification and announced that he has submitted the committee's brief to the Realty Appeals Board.

LOUIS SAMUELS, HOSPITALS

PHARMACY DIRECTOR, DEAD

Louis Samuels, director of pharmacy of the NYC Hospitals Department, died January 31 at a Brooklyn hospital after fighting cancer for many months. He was 62.

Mr. Samuels joined the department in 1933, served as chief pharmacist at Metropolitan and Bellevue Hospitals before becoming director of pharmacy in 1936.

Biweekly Pay Checks

- Appropriations of $282.3 million are recommended in this budget to provide sufficient funds to give an equivalent of a 15 per cent increase in wages to all eligible employees of the State, which means that most civil service employees will receive a flat $300 per year pay increase. These appropriations will also provide for the adjustment of the pay scale to permit the reduction by four hours per week of the hours of work for State employees, who have been working a regularly scheduled 44-hour work week.

- The New York City Employees Association has asked the Governor to approve the following increases in pay for State employees: $1.8 million, which represents a maximum of $1.00 per hour for all eligible employees. The increase is effective immediately, and the State will also contribute to an employee retirement plan for the first time in its history.

- The State has announced that it will increase its contributions to the retirement plan to $300 per year for each employee, and that it will also make a special contribution of $1.8 million to the plan. This contribution will be made over a period of 10 years, and will be used to finance the additional contributions of employees to the plan.

- The State has also announced that it will increase its contributions to the retirement plan for employees who work in the city, and that it will also make a special contribution of $1.8 million to the plan. This contribution will be made over a period of 10 years, and will be used to finance the additional contributions of employees to the plan.
