Legislature Unders 1956 Session; Association Efforts Bring About Record Gains for Public Workers

Social Security Sneaks In, Governor Asked To Keep It

Whether the passage of the bill was intentional or unintentional, the subject of Social Security for public employees is still alive. If the Governor signs the bill, the referendum of members of public retirement systems could be held this year and Social Security coverage effected as legislation passed at the next session assuming that the employer vote on the referendum was favorable.

The Civil Service Employees Association has urged the Governor to act favorably on this bill and utilize the expression of legislative sentiment to immediately authorize a referendum on supplemental Social Security coverage.

Con's Win 5-Day Week; Guards Want the Same

The New York Daily News recently reported that one prison was placing its "guards" on a 5-day week. The Civil Service Employees Association feels that no less favorable a wage increase for city employees of more than $2.3 million, affecting the status of 87 percent of all city employees.

The Board voted changes involving 27 titles. Twenty-one titles were placed in higher salary grades and six titles were reclassified. In all but three cases, the Board, or the Governor, rejected changes proposed.

Although hearings were not held on all of the appeals, all city employees and police were affected by 47 titles. This was done while 1,030 members felt the need of more information.

621 Employees Involved

The decisions of the Board, Mr. Volet praised the cooperation of the Division of Classification and Compensation.

CSEA Dues Prorated for New Members

New members who join the Civil Service Employees Association after April 1 pay only prorated dues of $3.75 for the membership year ending September 30, 1956. An active or retired employee of the State of New York or any of its political subdivisions is eligible for membership in CSEA.
Test Still Open
For 377 Jobs as Technical Aide

College Juniors, seniors, and graduates may apply for jobs in New York State's "college series" until Friday, April 30. The written test, which will be held on Saturday, May 12, will cover the following 15 fields: general administration, accounting, personnel management, personnel management, budget management, library science, statistics, investment, protection, information, and records management.

The lowest pay level is $3,270 per year (two weeks' work); next, $4,000, ($190, next $4,525 ($87). Already about 8,000 have applied throughout the nation, said Mr. Marc. About 25 percent of them attained eligibility. The percentage that passed is higher, since not all candidates showed up for the test. Of the 12,000 who passed, 5,000 already have been certified to Federal agencies, Mr. Marc reported. Certification is preliminary to appointment.

Hard-to-Fill Jobs Identified
"Despite the widespread response to this examination," said Mr. Marc, "more applicants still are needed." The commission will hold additional written tests every month, with the exception of June. The next tests will be given, in the fields of transportation, statistics, economics, food and drug inspection, and library work.

In emphasizing the importance of recruitment, to college-enterer candidates, "we must not lose sight of the Government's critical needs for top-quality recruits in all fields.

Other Job Opportunities
In professions and sciences not covered by the Federal service entrance examination, as well as clerical and stenographic work, in the skilled trades and many other fields, the professional and technical workers to help us tap every source of potential interest in Federal careers. This can be done through fostering a better public appreciation of national needs and a better understanding of the career service." Some agencies offer management internships to Federal service entrants examination eligibles. Each agency has special plans to develop managerial and technical skills and knowledge.

Beware of Spring Fever!
With the coming of the warmer weather, it becomes increasingly easy for one to shed cares and seek relaxation. However, the basic problems of existence remain. Rent must be paid, food procured, and one must be persuaded to shed cares and seek relaxation. But membership is generally related to the raising of the work standards of the public employee. There is still a long way to go before the level of government employment equals in respect the level of private employment. Membership in the Civil Service Employees Association brings weight, force, and money.

The Necessary Tools
To be effective today, our Association or any group must have these three things. They are necessary tools with us. They are used by the public employees' behalf to raise his level. Without them his voice cannot be heard, his protest not known, and his injustices unreported.

In our organization, there is never any time when our membership cannot be increased. At most conventions, representatives are included in our organization, and members continuously must be solicited. Our force and effectiveness as an organization depend a great deal upon our membership in the interest of the public service and the effort to build an organization. There is no other way except through work.

Erie County Assn. Meets On Welfare Improvement
On March 8, 1956 the Erie County Chapter and the staff representative of the Civil Service Employees Association held their preliminary meeting with the Erie County Board of Social Welfare. A new members committee was formed on March 29. The purpose of the committee is to contact the Welfare Board thinking of employees on a proposed organization plan for the Welfare Department. This plan resulted from a survey recently completed by the Boil, Aenam and Hamilton firm of management consultants. This was the first meeting of the kind that the employees group had had with the County Board of Social Welfare.

A committee of welfare employees had been appointed by the chapter which with the assistance of the staff of the Civil Service Employees Association had prepared the report. It was the opinion of the employees, which was given to the chapter at the preliminary meeting, that while the management consultant report might provide a good blueprint for future overall changes some of the suggestions especially in personnel administration, recruitment practices, etc. were of doubtful value. William Dohean, President of the Erie Chapter, Henry Galpin and Jack Kurtzmann, CSEA Staff representatives and Mrs. Mary Mastello and Mrs. Caroline Toups formed the committee that under the direction of the Board of Social Welfare.

Goverment at Last Starts Selling Itself to the Public

GROWING interest in working for government is proved by the fact that applications have become more numerous in Federal, State and local government examinations. By this time the number of applications in the Federal service entrance examination, the main one on a national scale for an eligible career, exceeds $50,000. The test remains open continuously. The U.S. Civil Service Commission encourages young men and women to apply, and not to be dissuaded by the already large response, as the prospects to turn to a Federal career. It is really a Job within-grade.

In the State government, excellent response is being noted in the examinations. The Public Administration Board of the New York City Board of Estimate is undertaking its work. It is expected that in a year $50,000 positions will be filled from the eligible roster of this test. AN APPEAL FOR SIMPLE FAIRNESS!

FORERGMMDE 2 CLERICAL EMPLOYÉS ENTITLED TO SALARY SCALE 5

Committee of N. Y. C. Grade 2 Employees has appealed in the Career and Salary Board of Appeals for reallocation of the positions in the Clerical-Administrative Occupational Group.

The Committee maintains that present Salary Scale 5 is utterly inadequate. It fails to provide a living wage to qualified employees, even after years of dedicated service. Any appeal must be filed with the board of appeals. State employees are entitled to a living wage to quality work to be performed.

A PITTSGNG OF AN INCREASE

Present Salary Scale 3 provides a salary increase of less than 3% over the old Clerk 2 salary grid. Such meager increases are inadequate in light of much greater percentage of justifiable salary adjustments accorded other employees throughout the City service. It is an unfair burden on the quality work, technical, and character requirements.

New Employees Quitting Welfare Dept. Over Pay, And Job Ordeal, Says Union

Unreasonable pressures of the job and inadequate salaries are the chief causes of the high turnover of staff nurses in the Department of Welfare, according to a survey by Local 1133, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees.

A survey, conducted by the union under the leadership of the chief of the department, was limited to those employees who had joined the department within the past six months. It revealed that 11 per cent had already left the department and another 67 per cent are considering leaving.

The union reported that 67 per cent of those who resigned had been with the department less than six months, and that of those who resigned, 67 per cent did so because of the unreasonable pressure and inadequate salaries, while 17 per cent said because of inadequate salaries.

No Surprise to Union

The combination of these two factors was also listed by 87 per cent of the staff nurses surveyed in the department as responsible for low staff morale and turnover. General dissatisfaction was also expressed by these employees with working conditions and the administration.

FEDERAL

WASHINGTON, April 2 — The U.S. Civil Service Commission held, March 7 to 9, that the government can compel a union to testify in national security cases under the Immunity Act of 1954. That act authorizes immunity if information is to be used by the government.

There is some prospect of reducing Social Security payments to age 60 for men, and 55 for women. To finance the planned change, an increase to 2.1 per cent of pay was voted.

U.S. JOBS FOR STENOS AND TYPISTS OPEN

Housing Assistants Ask Bosses' Aid on Pay Appeal

Moscow, executive director, New York City Housing Authority, told a delegation of housing assistants that even if the new chapter 74 of the Housing Act, as realized, the traditional argument that they should not be paid more than social workers in other departments, would have to be countered.

The delegation appealed to the bosses to act against reasons why housing assistants should get higher pay than social workers in other departments, which would have to be countered.

The delegation, consisting of members of the Union, Harold Elsberg, Nettie Mark, Max Lubin, Eleanor Rabinow, and Laurel Silverman, was given at a luncheon with the Housing Authority officials, the employees of the Authority.

The new chapter is headed by Mr. Silverman, who was chairman. Speakers included Deputy Commissioner Maurice K. Lifshitz.

U.S. Rescinds Right to Hold Outside Jobs

WASHINGTON, April 9—General wartime regulations permitting Federal employees to hold part-time State, Territorial or municipal jobs in which the positions are connected with national defense, will be revoked effective April 15.

Federal employees holding such jobs may continue to do so until January 1, 1947, or, if hired for a specific period, at the end of that period.

"During the manpower shortage of World War II it was found expedient to let Federal employees hold such part-time jobs or to permit State, Territorial or municipal employees to hold part-time jobs with the Federal Government," said the U.S. Civil Service Commission.

The revocation of these wartime provisions, the commission said, will not impair the rights of Federal employees to be elected or appointed to federal government positions, for federal government agencies are communities in the immediate vicinities of areas where the majority of employees are Federal workers. These services are ranked by the commission, on a community basis, under the Hatch Act.
