Ordinary Death Benefit Veto Brings Great Disappointment

ALBANY, April 29—Governor Averell Harriman's veto of the bill to increase the ordinary death benefit has created widespread disappointment among civil service employees. The LEADER learned this week.

The State Civil Service Employees Association, representing the majority of state workers and statewide spokesman for county workers, said aides had hoped for a minimum reasonable ordinary death benefit. The association strongly feels for years to have the benefit increased.

The Governor declared an allowance was made in the budget for increasing the benefit.

His veto message reads as follows:

Buffalo Aides Raise Due, City Okays Record Budget

The Common Council of the City of Buffalo has approved a record $85,000,000 budget. The budget includes a $2,200,000 reserve for adjustment of City employees' pay May I. Implementing salary schedules is supposed to be set June 1. It is expected that action on these will be taken early next month.

In the LEADER of April 3 it was reported that a pay raise is anticipated for Buffalo employees. Now with the adoption of the budget there seems no doubt that this employee gain will become effective.

The officers of the local chapter and the Civil Service Employees Association, staff have been active in obtaining this modification to the city employees pay schedule.

Both John Quinn, president of the Buffalo Competitive Unit of the EREA and Henry Galpin, salary research analyst of the Association, spoke at the budget hearings on May 13, urging upward adjustment of the City employee pay.

McFarland Named To Fill Assn. Post

ALBANY, April 30—John P. Powers, President of the Civil Service Employees Association, has announced the appointment of Jesse B. McFarland to the staff of the Association as Assistant Director.

Mr. McFarland's appointment will be effective on June 1, 1959, following his resignation from the Department of Social Welfare. He will be in general charge of the Said service and office procedures.

Mr. McFarland has been President of the Association for three terms—from 1955 to 1959. Before that, he was the 1st Vice-President for six years. He has served continually on the Board of Directors of the Association since 1957.

Racetrack Bill Is Termed Unworkable By Governor

Mr. McFarland is also very active in community work. He is President of the Albany County Heart Association, the Albany Lions Club, the Evergreen Bible Class of Albany, as well as the Bethel Church and the Cyprus Temple Band. He is Vice-President of the Inter-Churchmen's Fellowship of the Y.M.C.A., and a commissioner of a Boy Scout Troop No. 39.

He is also Judge Advocate of the Army and Navy Union in Rexsatter, being a member of the CSEA senior administrative assistant.

Tapper to Talk At Livingston Annual Dinner

Vernon A. Tapper, of Syracuse, 4th vice president of the Civil Service Employees Association and chairman of the County Division of the Association, will be the guest speaker at the fourth annual dinner of the Livingston County chapter of the CSEA on Tuesday, May 1, at the Big Tree Inn, Genesee, at 6:39 P.M.

Ballots have been mailed to members for the election of president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and delegate. Results of the election will be announced at the banquet.

Chairman of the banquet committee is Louise Barton, assisted by Florence and Mildred Westover.

Results of the election will be published in an early edition of the LEADER.
Federal Veteran Preference
Headed for Curtailment

WASHINGTON, April 10—Federal veteran preference is headed for modification.

The President's Commission on Veterans Pensions has gone deeply into the subject, and recommended that the one-year limit for preference be ended, with some exceptions. Special job security would be eliminated, but wartime veterans would receive a five-year preference.

Vet veterans and service-connected disabled veterans who have served during a war will be given permanent preference in both hiring and job security.

The President's Commission, headed by General O. N. Bradley, reported:

"Life-time preference tends to be self-defeating in terms of the readjustment needs of veterans just after the war. Both the labor force which consists largely of veterans, the young veteran must compete mainly against the older veterans who have the same kind of preference, plus greater experience or whatever on the job.

The Proposed Limit

A preference for a limited period, such as five years after discharge, would then do more for the veteran who is most in need of special help.

The special appeal procedure for veterans tends to make a traditional and necessary function of management into an elaborate, costly and time-consuming quasi-judicial procedure. The readjustment needs of the veteran does not need this privilege for more than a reasonable period after discharge.

"Preference in retention during reductions in force for able veterans has no real relation to readjustment needs and does violence to the basic principles of the Federal merit system.

The goal of open competition and equal treatment for all, on the basis of their ability to serve the people, would be achieved if there is arbitrary discrimination in favor of one group of factors having nothing to do either with their efficiency or with their readjustment needs.

"For veterans with a significant service-connected disability, preference will be awarded. Both in hiring and retention seems justifiable, since their disabilities are far-reaching. And new advantage both in obtaining and holding jobs. Still a permanent preference should not be given, however, to those with only minor disabilities—certainly not to those with less than 30 per cent ratings.

Applications for substitute clerical and substitute postal jobs in Long Island City will be issued by the Civil Service Department.

1,000 at Meeting clamor for Higher Clerk Pay
About 1,000 City employees packed the auditorium of the Central Commercial School when the Committees of Third Grade Clerical Employees held its first public membership meeting in the drive for upgrading from grade 6 to grade 9.

Jack Treich, chairman of the coordinating committee and chairman of the Committee in the Board of Education, described the Plan's present treatment of the clerks as "phony", unfair, unjust and undemocratic. He added that the grade 6 slot for the senior clerks was a "miserable and costly farce.

Uncle Tom's Cabin to Be House for A&M Travesty

ALBANY, April 30—An original musical travesty on Uncle Tom's Cabin will be presented by the Agriculture and Markets players on May 17.

Employees of the Department turned to original musicals for their spring festival a year ago. The 1935 fantasy bore the title "Let's Take Up a Collection" and was staged by a cast of 23 with a back-stage crew of eight.

Directors and music for "Uncle Tom McVey's Cuhber" is the work of Mrs. Foster Puffer, well known for her musical assistance in recent gridiron shows of the Civil Service Employees Association. Rehearsals for the travesty are now in their third week.

To Be Shown in North Troy

The show will be staged at O'Far- man Hall in North Troy in connection with the annual meeting of the Agriculture and Markets Chapter. Members of the cast said the title might give an insight to some of the spirit in that Executive and Personnel Officer of the Department is Gerald L. McVey. Providing the stage presentation are the Agriculture and Markets chapter and guests will be served dinner. The cast is composed of agency employees as officers. Eder K. Trolden, pres- ident; Thomas J. Stevens, vice- president; Ann M. Blondi, secretary; Christopher B. Degen, treasurer; Dorothy M. Chesman, delegate for two years and Fred J. Prone, alternate delegate for one term. The president of the Chapter is automatically a dele- gate and one two-year delegate, Dorothy L. Putnam, a state official.

The Retiring Officers Installation ceremonies will be in charge of Roy H. McKay, who is retiring from the presidency after serving the constitutional limits of two terms. Other retiring officers are Mr. Trolden, vice-president; M. Dorothy Von Dur- ser, secretary; Mrs. Eder K. Trolden, treas-urer; G. Wesley Welgate, delegate, and Dorothy L. Putnam, alternate delegate.

S.W. Greenwald Has Retired

On April 24th a dinner was tendered to Samuel W. Greenwald, Attorney (Review Division) with the New York State Labor Relations Board, at Headquarters Restaurant, 164 West 43rd Street, New York, in connection with his retirement from State service.

Over sixty of his co-workers and a number of other intimate friends were present. Among those who expressed felicitations to Mr. Greenwald were Joseph D. Dole, the Board's Chairman; its members, Jay Kramer and Frank D. McCullow, and the Board's Litigation staff; Judge Raphael Koenig, Commissioner; Harold Schwartz of the Workmen's Compensation Board; former Assistant District Attorney Nicholas Alles and Hon. Bernard Newman, Referee for the Appellate Division; Arthur H. J. MacMullen served as toastmaster.

Mr. Greenwald came to New York State Labor Relations Board in 1941. Before that he had served with the Federal Government as a Post Office Clerk, from where he moved to the Labor Relations Board and was later Division. Arthur H. J. MacMullen served as toastmaster.

Mr. Greenwald has announced it will have a complete program of legislation to benefit civil service employees in all counties in the State.

Dues Payroll Deduction Authorized by Governor

ALBANY, April 30—State em- ployees will soon find it easier to pay their dues to civil service employees associations or organiza- tions. After which the State Comptroller will deduct from the state workers' salary, with the worker's permission, any amount the worker specifies for dues to pay their dues to civil service employees associations or organizations.

PAYROLL DEDUCTION

The Governor's bill-signing marathon last week included bills to further benefit civil service employees. One was his approval of a first-time overtime payment in a pay increase for state workers; another is insurance plan for active and retired workers.

Among the major approvals were a pay increase for state workers; approval of overtime payments in political subdivisions; a reduction in work hours for state institution employees and a health insur- ance plan for active and retired workers.

The Association, among the goals still to be accom- plished in the eyes of the Association, are a complete reduction of institutional work hours to 40 per week without loss in pay, Social Security as a supplemental pension to existing pensions and further salary increases.

Greater gains for county and other political subdivision aids remain one of the major goals of the Association. By the time the Senate Legislature convenes next year, the CSSEA has announced it will have a complete program of legislation to benefit civil service employees in all counties in the State.

"We have a fine year be- cause of this job" he said. "We expect to repeat our successes each year because of even harder work."

Rochester State Lists Candidates for Election

Guest speaker at the April meeting of the Rochester State Hospital Chapter C.S. R. A. was Freder-ick R. Hughes, Secretary of the merit Award Board. The meeting was held in the Hospital Chop Room.

Mr. Hughes included in his ad- dress a brief history of the growth and development of the Merit Award Board since its birth in 1946. He explained the purpose, functions of the board and urged all employees to make suggestions.

He was also elected Chairman of the nominating Committee and the following committee members: Elizabeth Hammar, Art Levine, John Hockland and Beatrice Lynx. They have nominated the following candidates for the election in May:

President, Bill Rosslter and Arthur Graham; 1st Vice-President, Edna McBain and Charles Gaffer; 2nd Vice-President, Paul Paton and Donald Breen; Recording Secretary, Iris Jackson and Edna McNair; and Charles Gaff; and Dragon Secretary, Helen Sager, Chairman of the Admissions and Assistant Accountant titles.

The committee will meet at 6 P.M. on that day at the Elks Club in Rochester. Applications must be in by May 14, N. Y. If applying by mail, do not enclose return postage.

Mr. Tapper spoke on the strides made by the Association in its legislative program and the accom- plishments accomplished during the last legislative session. Mr. Kurtzman praised the Workshop group for its efforts in both workshops and individual chapters. Tom Canty, Ted Bish and Powell recommended our service in insur- ance problems.

Following the afternoon session, the County chapters met for dinner with the members of the Western Conference. Presentation was expressed by Shirley Corr, president of Cattaraugus chapter who served as host to the County chapters.

LABORS ARE TO GET NEW STATUS AT OLD PAY

THERE could be no objection, on the merits, to putting New York City laborers in the competitive class. Some laborers—the skilled ones—were put in the competitive class long ago. The only reason that unskilled laborers were not, was a kink in the Civil Service Law. That provision, it is now evident, can be removed, with no loss of the public interest, by sanction competitive status for skilled laborers, without specifically authorizing reclassification of the unskilled. Attorney General Jacob K. Javits in an opinion held that it could be provided.

The New York City Council is not the proper place to put prime responsibility for the enforcement of the grading, to avoid paying the much higher prevailing rates, and will promotion opportunities to those doing the same work as before. Also, if there is only one examination and civil service commission, officers of State departments and agencies that have vacancies.

The procedure was found to be the most successful and was extended to Albany in February 1952. In April of that year the test was open to the entire State and has been an integral part of our recruiting activity ever since.

Traffic Ticket Tells the Penalty

Denver, Colo., plans a traffic ticket that will fit the fine to the offense, the report of the Municipal Court Association reports. Drivers who commit minor offenses or who have seldom been violators will pay a lower fine than drivers who commit serious offenses or who have a record of getting tickets.

PROBLEMS IN OBSCENITY

Kalamein, N.Y., has taken positive steps to ban obscenity publications. The city attorney quoted 48 cities on their practices. According to the International City Managers' Association, the only basis for the attorney to send these conclusions to the Kalamein Council:

- Police chiefs and city attorneys lack the power to decide whether or not a publication on obscenity is a violation of law; if they attempt to do so they may be violating freedom of the press
- A decision that is not necessarily obscene by local standards and therefore cannot be legally suppressed by the city
- The City Council is not the proper place to put restrictive action against obscenity publications. The city attorney quoted 48 cities on their practices. According to the International City Managers' Association, the only basis for the attorney to send these conclusions to the Kalamein Council:

The best approach is not by force but by negotiation and cooperation.

The city has reached agreement with local magazine dealers that they will not stock certain magazines and "art" magazines and that certain other objectionable magazines will not be sold to anyone under 18.

State Promotion Tests for Stenos

The principal stenographer promotion exam has been opened by the Department of Administrative and Claims Adjustment. Eligibles will be appointed to positions in seven state departments and agencies.

The test, which is open to senior stenographers in the competitive class, will have completed at least one year of service on or after June 23, will consist of a written exam weighted at 60. Experience counts 40.

Applications from the resulting list will be made to the Audit and Control, Education, Public Safety, and Commissioner of Insurance, as well as to the Thruway Authority, State Teachers Retirement Board, and the Port Authority Executive Department, as salaries range from $3,450 to $4,750.

Three offices will be located in the West 40th Street building: the New York State Department of Civil Service, Room 276; and the New York State Department of Public Service, Room 53.

Pay for Accounting Jobs Rises to $4,028

Effective April 1, the starting salary for state accounting assistant jobs in the comptroller's department has been increased to $4,028, over $260 more than the previous rate. Eligibles will also be appointed to positions in the comptroller's department.

The comptroller's department is considering a total of 200 new positions for accounting assistants, with the majority of positions located in the comptroller's office in One City Hall Plaza.

The comptroller's department has been experiencing a high turnover rate among accounting assistants, with many employees leaving to take positions in other state agencies.

Governor OKays Bill On Salary Equalizing

ALBANY, April 30.—Legislation correcting inequalities in the salary of certain positions in the classified service of the State of New York has been approved by Governor Averell Harriman.

The bill signed by the Governor provides that the salary of employees in positions in classified service of the State allocated to salary grades appointed or promoted on or after Oct. 1, 1953, and before April 1, 1954, shall not be less than the salary which the employee would be otherwise entitled to if the appointment or promotion had been on April 1, 1954.

PHYSICAL THERAPISTS LOSE SUIT OVER ORAL EXAM

Supreme Court Justice William C. Hecht, Jr., in New York County, dismissed the suit filed by candidates for physical therapists who sought to have their oral exam ruled invalid. The oral test consisted of 25 questions and was weighted at 25.

Justice Hecht felt that an oral exam could properly determine the fitness of candidates. He ruled out the contentions that the examiners were personal friends of some applicants and therefore partial to them. Justice Hecht upheld the New York City Civil Service Department's decision to exclude the oral exam.

Public Works officials report that the work has brought valuable materials to the School and has resulted in increased public relations and contacts.

Governor's Advice

Governor's Advice continued on several occasions urged state employees to take a more active part in helping department officials to improve agency functions. In a recent letter to Dr. Frank L. Tolman, Chairman of the Merit Award Board, Governor's Advice stated, in part, as follows:

"If people receive the suggestion and ideas of the merit award system as an integral part of the State-wide personnel improvement programs. It is an important method of encouraging and recognizing outstanding efforts of State employees in behalf of more effective and economical government.

"Your report indicates that the Merit Award Board intends to promote wider participation of State employees in the suggestion program during 1956. You may want to point out to your employees that the people are more likely to work toward this objective."

BRIDGE TOLLS

Trilboroug Bridge revenue payments to October 1 are $2,265. All winners received Certificates of Merit and an Executive Secretary Seal and signed by Governor Harriman.

Two Aides Win $500 Each As State Pays $2,265 for Ideas

ALBANY, April 30—State employees taking a direct interest in the improvement of department and institutional operations and submitting their ideas through the State Employees' Suggestion Program benefited to the tune of $2,265 in the first three months of 1956. Workers from nearly all State agencies contributed a total of 564 suggestions to the Merit Award Board for consideration during this period.

Fifty-four suggestions were adopted and the first of these, for the year, 41, of them sharing the $2265. All winners received Certificates of Merit and an Executive Secretary Seal and signed by Governor Harriman.

NYC Credit Union Now Lends to Some State Employees

New credit privileges were opened to State employees when Governor Averell Harriman approved a new charter for the Municipal Credit Union, which has the power to make loans to any individual, with certain limitations. If the head of the State department, board, or bureau approves the assignment.

One immediate effect of the new law is to open to those state employees who work in New York City the facilities of the 40-year-old Municipal Credit Union, which has the power to make loans to any individual. Employees but only when the borrower is able to offer security.

The Municipal Credit Union, which has helped 335,000 City employees through its offices, offers loans up to $5,000, with interest payable at 1% per cent a month charged against the unpaid balance. In addition, the cooperative organization provides disability insurance to borrowable for a period of ten to 18 years. These are considerably better terms than are available from other lending agencies, says the Credit Union.

Sanitation Hopper

Sanitation was honored by having one of its own brothers, Deputy Commissioner on the Loyalty Day Parade. It was the first time in the history of the department to have a uniformed officer and parade unit. The parade units were by a motorized route, resulting in an estimated 1,000,000 people along the parade route. Perhaps a million people lined the streets during the parade and took full advantage of the festivities. The parade was to present a picture of the department to the public and to show their appreciation for the work of the department.

The Sanitation Department is a very important part of the city's welfare system and is responsible for the cleanliness of the streets and public places. The department is responsible for the collection of refuse and the disposal of solid waste. The department also provides snow removal services during the winter months.

The Sanitation Department is headed by a Commissioner who is appointed by the Mayor. The department is divided into several bureaus, including the Bureau of Refuse Collection, the Bureau of Refuse Disposal, and the Bureau of Snow Removal.
