Association to Strike Blows for State Troopers

The Civil Service Employees Association will make a firm effort to improve conditions in the Division of State Police this year.

The Association's Executive Committee has approved a resolution which calls upon the CSEA to use all the means at its command to relieve the poor working conditions created by the 'poor working vision of State Police this year.'

A similar resolution was introduced by the Association's Executive Committee and when passed will help to improve conditions in the Division of State Police.

HIRING UP 50 P.C. AND STILL RISING IN U. S. ENTRANCE TEST

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 — The U. S. Government's drive to recruit talented new employees will be resumed with added emphasis as the nation's colleges resume operation this fall.

The unprecedented success marked last year's federal-service entrance examination, said Philip Young, Chairman of the U. S. Civil Service Commission.

Last year's effort was highlighted by the attendance of 900 college campuses and a total of 82,000 applicants.

The Government is planning to hold its written examination eight times during the 1955-1956 school term, as compared to only six times during the 1954-1955 term.

The first 1955-1956 examination is scheduled for October 13 in key locations throughout the nation. Others will be conducted in November, January, February, April, May, July, and August.

The plan is to increase the number of College seniors, college graduates, and those with appropriate experience as a matter of priority.

Those who pass an additional written examination at an examination center also will be eligible for Federal management intern positions. Management training will be provided by the Federal agencies.

Following completion of training, candidates also may apply for any of the several kinds of civil-service jobs.

Results of First Effort

In New York City, apply to the State Civil Service Department, 270 Broadway, New York 7, N. Y., or in person, by representative, or by mail.

Judge Emphasizes Loyalty, Duty of State Nurses

The Honorable Charles S. Golden, recently retired from the Supreme Court of the State of New York, addressed the Fourteenth Graduating Class of the Pilgrim State Hospital School of Nursing in one of the most successful events in the School's history. Speaking to a large audience, including the families of the graduates, employees, faculty, and others of other Schools of Nursing and patients of the hospital, the Judge reminisced on his experiences during the long years of service as a Judge in the Supreme Court and his many contacts with psychiatric problems.

He was particularly impressed with the services rendered by the nurses of Pilgrim State Hospital and emphasized their devotion and loyalty in the performance of their duties. Addressing the graduates, the Judge presented the present activities of the nurses with those of Florence Nightingale, the founder of modern nursing as a profession.

Judge Golden was introduced by Dr. Harry J. Werthing, Director of the Pilgrim State Hospital, and a close friend of the late Mr. Nightingale.

Plan to Put Reservists Of Air Force Into 8,000 Civilian Jobs Near Reality

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 — The U. S. Government plans to approve an Air Force plan to fill about 8,000 jobs at flying training centers with civilian employees expected to be released from the Reserve.

Regular service rates would be paid for 8-day jobs. In addition to paying for Reserve service, Civilians could also qualify for both Air Force and civilian service protection and pensions.

The Air Force is requesting, in effect, that the Commission require that appointments to the course that would be filled on the early openings of the hospital in 1955 be present position as the largest psychiatric hospital in the world with a present population of close to 12,000.

The School of Nursing began in function in 1949 and has since graduated many professional nurses who have made their mark as nurses in all branches of profession.

The graduating class of this year is as follows: Fred Baggs, Jr., Morris Ditter, Sylvon Bryan, Dorothy Gard, Eliza Clarke, Dorothy Thomas, Madison Denes, Deedee Dall and Katherine Roatch, Bayshore, New York.

The Annual Meeting and The Future

This week the 46th Annual Meeting of the CSEA Service Employees Association will be held. At this meeting the 1957 Legislative Program of the Association will be drafted. The 500 delegates will express the views of the members of the Association in the resolutions calling attention to the work of public employees in the state and municipalities. The work of this delegates' meeting will, as usual, be orderly, firm, and impressive.

A Representative Association

The CSEA is the only representative body of the state's employees. The employees. The membership rolls include well over half of the state's 80,000 employees.

However, although size is important, in an organization of our type, it is not enough. There must be, in addition, a spirit of belonging, and a willingness to share in the business of making our program effective. This means a personal participation and interest by each member in the work of the Association. The 1957 legislature will have before it many hundreds of employees' bills. There unquestionably will be bills on salaries, social security, and miscellaneous amendments to retirement law, and improvement of working conditions in the municipalities.

Stress on Sincerity

There will be need during this coming session—as in the past—to demonstrate the will and ability of the legislature of the sincerity and the force of the Association's program. The staff of the Association will be on hand to interpret the program to the best of the Association's ability. This will be much, but not enough. The important additional work must come from the members. If each legislative representative can be visited by his constituents in his home and made to see the force and sincerity of the employees' point of view, a great deal will be gained in translating the program into favorable bills. A friendly discussion of issues is a forceful tool. If the members, all of the legislature are visited in this way, they cannot fail to be impressed with the oneness of purpose and organization of the Association.

In order to demonstrate our qualities of unity and member interest in our program, The CSEA has a large and strong organization. From the recent reports of the membership committees on the progress of the dues deduction program, there is evidence that it is rapidly growing. You can be told without fear of contradiction that by examples alone, it is the only representative body of the state's employees. The membership rolls include well over half of the state's 80,000 employees.

HATCH ACT QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY U.S.

The U. S. Civil Service Commission issues its questions on political-activity restrictions under the Hatch Act.

Q. What groups of employees are affected by the Hatch Act?

A. In general, they are employees in the Government and the Government of the District of Columbia, including temporary and part-time employees. Also restricted are employees of certain states, county, and municipal agencies that are Federalized.

Q. What is the penalty for violation of the Hatch Act?

A. The Hatch Act provides for a penalty for violation of removal. The minimum penalty is one year imprisonment and a fine of $2,510.

Q. Are any executive branch employees exempt from the restrictions of the Hatch Act?

A. Yes, there are a few specific exemptions, including members of the military, some federal judges, and officials who determine national security. The President's plan for this position is also a partial exemption, as to local elections only. You can vote in one community where you live and in the vicinity of Washington, D.C., under certain conditions.

Q. What is the partial exemption for the residents of communities with 25,000 or more of population?

A. Subject to certain restrictions, you can engage in political activity in local political management and any political campaign if you are in a community with a population of 25,000 or more. The residents of communities in which they live may engage in a political campaign, but not in the activities of a political campaign.

Q. No. Excepted employees are subject to a different report. It is not necessary for the employing agency to be responsible for enforcing the Hatch Act.

Q. What are the exceptions for military personnel?

A. You are an employee affected by the Hatch Act. You must explain your responsibilities and rights under the Act.

Q. You have the right to vote as a civilian and as a member of a political opinion, but you are forbidden to take a position as a political agent. You are occasionally asked for political contributions. What are your rights?

A. The right to vote as a civilian and as a member of a political opinion, but you are forbidden to take a position as a political agent. You are occasionally asked for political contributions. You have the right to vote as a civilian and as a member of a political opinion, but you are forbidden to take a position as a political agent. You are occasionally asked for political contributions. You have the right to vote as a civilian and as a member of a political opinion, but you are forbidden to take a position as a political agent. You are occasionally asked for political contributions. You have the right to vote as a civilian and as a member of a political opinion, but you are forbidden to take a position as a political agent. You are occasionally asked for political contributions. You have the right to vote as a civilian and as a member of a political opinion, but you are forbidden to take a position as a political agent. You are occasionally asked for political contributions.

Q. If you are a state employee, does the Hatch Act apply to you?

A. Yes. If you perform duties in connection with an activity not conducted on your own time, the Hatch Act applies. If you accept a portion of your income for performing your duties, you are subject to the act.

Q. I want to write a letter to a political party or write to a newspaper expressing my opinion on a partisan political issue. Am I allowed to do this?

A. Yes, but you must not solicit votes or carry on any political party or candidate.

Q. I may make a campaign contribution to my party. Am I allowed to do this?

A. Yes, but you cannot require contributions of employees. The contribution cannot be made in a Federal building, or to any other employee who is prohibited by Federal law from accepting contributions. Of course, you may contribute money to candidates in the party you support.

Q. Has a appeal been asked to run for public office in the president's administration. Is this permissible?

A. No. Federal employees cannot be candidates for any national, State, or district-wide office in general elections. You may run for office in your local government, or on a part-time basis if you appear on the ballot without partisan designation. In the preceding campaign, you may not hold public office, and the campaign parties conduct an independent campaign.

Q. May I serve as an officer of an organization that is not permitted under the Hatch Act?

A. That depends upon the law of the state. If your state law permits officers of local governments to serve as election officials, you may do so provided that you do not use your official duties in your political capacity. Under no circumstances can you serve as an officer of a political party, or a political party official.

Q. I would like to work for a campaign and help get the voters to vote for my favorite candidate. Is this permissible?

A. Yes, but not while on duty. You may engage in an activity for the benefit of a political party, but not while on duty.

Q. Am I a Federal Government employee but my wife isn't. She wants her to help her in a campaign for political office. Is this permissible?

A. Yes, the Act does not restrict the activities of an employer or the members of his family in his own behalf. It only applies to his political activities in his behalf. You may retain the right to campaign for her friend, but you must do so in a partisan manner.

Q. I am a Federal Government employee and have been in a position of the peace of the peace. I have heard that I am violating the Hatch Act. Is this true?

A. No, providing you were appointed to your position, or elected to it, in a nonpartisan election. The Hatch Act does not apply to employees who are appointed to their positions.

Q. Some Hatch Act positions are prohibited to hold appointments on boards of education, school superintendents, and boards of public libraries, and are subject to Federal law. How can I get a job as a political party official?

A. The Hatch Act positions are prohibited to hold appointments on boards of education, school superintendents, and boards of public libraries. You must be appointed to a position by the Federal Government, such as a political party official.

Q. When am I allowed to campaign in a political campaign?

A. The campaign is held in your capacity as a Federal employee, and not in your capacity as a political party official.

Q. I am a state employee. Does the Hatch Act apply to me?

A. Yes. If you perform duties in connection with an activity not conducted on your own time, the Hatch Act applies. If you accept a portion of your income for performing your duties, you are subject to the act.

Q. I have been a legal resident of the country for at least one year immediately preceding the election date. Saturday, November 17.

A. The Hatch Act applies to you on any day you perform work for the Federal Government for the full 24-hour period of any day.

Q. I am a state employee. Does the Hatch Act apply to me?

A. Yes. If you perform duties in connection with an activity not conducted on your own time, the Hatch Act applies. If you accept a portion of your income for performing your duties, you are subject to the act.

Q. I want to write a letter to the editor of a newspaper expressing my opinion on a partisan political issue. Am I allowed to do this?

A. Yes, but you must not solicit votes or carry on any political party or candidate.

Two Points Essential For Social Security

REFERENCE among members of The Civil Service Employees Association, consisting of both state and local government employees, is in line with the supplementation plan of Social Security benefits, and full opportunity for local government workers to obtain coverage.

The board of directors of the CSEA adopted a resolution favoring supplementation, which makes Social Security the same as to those in the Employees Retirement System. The resolutions committee has cleared the resolution for vote by the delegates at the annual meeting, in progress in Albany as this is written.

Thus questions about employee sentiment, open to doubt in the beginning of the discussion more than a year ago, have partially resolved. Social Security is not a matter of "if" but only of "when." A most important consideration is to give the employees what they prefer, especially as they do not shrink from paying their share of the extra cost.

Law Cases

Counsel Sidney M. Stern, representing the New York City Civil Service Commission, in law cases as follows:

JUDICIAL DECISIONS:

Special Term, Supreme Court
Hannan v. Roberts
Petitioner was dismissed from position of probationary patrolman (P.D.) because he was at one time arrested as a bookmaker, for which he was tried and acquitted in the Supreme Court. The court held that the action of the Police Commissioner was not entertained, and that petitioner was entitled to reinstatement.

Triial Term
Lembo v. Adams
Petitioner was passed over for appointment to probationer (P.D.) because he was over age, and the decision in Berger v. Waltz to direct the Commissioner to appoint petitioner. He remitted the matter to the Police Commissioner for reconsideration and a determination which will be free of unanswerable or questionable action.

PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED:

Castano v. Schechter
Petitioner was rejected medically or position of probationary patrolman (P.D.) was not filled. He seeks to compel his appointment.

Speranza v. Lembo
The ruling of an asbestos worker required that applicants be not over 45 years old on last date for filing. Petition for appointment and reinstatement of applicants over that age and stated their dates of birth in the application. They were admitted to and passed the exam and were subsequently appointed. After investigation the Commissioner of the Department of Labor brought to attention of Commissioner and their certifications were revoked. They seek re-appointment.

Marino v. Ford
Petitioner, a stenographer in the Department of Water Supply, Gas & Electricity, was not permitted to employ as an employee. This is a matter of appointment of the commissioner which is discretionally granted.

U.S. EMPLOYEES BARRED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1—In answer to requests from Department of Commerce employees for permission to do volunteer work for a candidate, the U.S. Civil Service Commission ruled that such activity is prohibited to Federal workers.

The Commission contended that such employment, with or without pay, violates the Hatch Act. According to the Commerce Department, there are 600 employees and officials beneath the rank of Assistant Secretary. (3.50 to non-nicnbcrs.)

Three workers have been admitted to and passed the exam and were subsequently appointed. After investigation the Commissioner of the Department of Labor brought to attention of Commissioner and their certifications were revoked. They seek re-appointment.

Safeguards Asked on Classification Appeal

Reports have been received of consideration being given to adoption of a plan by the New York City Classification Appeals Board without public hearings, instead of using oral public presentation of arguments before the Board. It has also been said that the Board may consider the duties and responsibilities of employees as of the time of the appeal, and not as of the time the employees described their duties in the position classification question.

Since considerable time may elapse before hearings, a departmental reorganization could entirely eliminate a particular position up for reclassification. Employees making such appeals should be reassigned to lower level positions. Bureau shifts and changes may also be used to assign a position of higher allocation, although filled by a more competent body of employees. The solution favoring supplementation, which makes Social Security the same as to those in the Employees Retirement System. Safeguards Asked on Classification Appeal

Reports have been received of consideration being given to adoption of a plan by the New York City Classification Appeals Board without public hearings, instead of using oral public presentation of arguments before the Board. It has also been said that the Board may consider the duties and responsibilities of employees as of the time of the appeal, and not as of the time the employees described their duties in the position classification question.

Since considerable time may elapse before hearings, a departmental reorganization could entirely eliminate a particular position up for reclassification. Employees making such appeals should be reassigned to lower level positions. Bureau shifts and changes may also be used to assign a position of higher allocation, although filled by a more competent body of employees. The solution favoring supplementation, which makes Social Security the same as to those in the Employees Retirement System. The resolutions committee has cleared the resolution for vote by the delegates at the annual meeting, in progress in Albany as this is written.

Thus questions about employee sentiment, open to doubt in the beginning of the discussion more than a year ago, have partially resolved. Social Security is not a matter of "if" but only of "when," a most important consideration is to give the employees what they prefer, especially as they do not shrink from paying their share of the extra cost.

Law Cases

Counsel Sidney M. Stern, representing the New York City Civil Service Commission, in law cases as follows:

JUDICIAL DECISIONS:

Special Term, Supreme Court
Hannan v. Roberts
Petitioner was dismissed from position of probationary patrolman (P.D.) because he was at one time arrested as a bookmaker, for which he was tried and acquitted in the Supreme Court. The court held that the action of the Police Commissioner was not entertained, and that petitioner was entitled to reinstatement.

Triial Term
Lembo v. Adams
Petitioner was passed over for appointment to probationer (P.D.) because he was over age, and the decision in Berger v. Waltz to direct the Commissioner to appoint petitioner. He remitted the matter to the Police Commissioner for reconsideration and a determination which will be free of unanswerable or questionable action.

PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED:

Castano v. Schechter
Petitioner was rejected medically or position of probationary patrolman (P.D.) was not filled. He seeks to compel his appointment.

Speranza v. Lembo
The ruling of an asbestos worker required that applicants be not over 45 years old on last date for filing. Petition for appointment and reinstatement of applicants over that age and stated their dates of birth in the application. They were admitted to and passed the exam and were subsequently appointed. After investigation the Commissioner of the Department of Labor brought to attention of Commissioner and their certifications were revoked. They seek re-appointment.

Marino v. Ford
Petitioner, a stenographer in the Department of Water Supply, Gas & Electricity, was not permitted to employ as an employee. This is a matter of appointment of the commissioner which is discretionally granted.

U.S. EMPLOYEES BARRED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1—In answer to requests from Department of Commerce employees for permission to do volunteer work for a candidate, the U.S. Civil Service Commission ruled that such activity is prohibited to Federal workers.

The Commission contended that such employment, with or without pay, violates the Hatch Act. According to the Commerce Department, there are 600 employees and officials beneath the rank of Assistant Secretary. (3.50 to non-nicnbcrs.)

Three workers have been admitted to and passed the exam and were subsequently appointed. After investigation the Commissioner of the Department of Labor brought to attention of Commissioner and their certifications were revoked. They seek re-appointment.

AN IMPORTANT STATEMENT
BY YOUR DOCTORS—

WHEREAS, it has come to the attention of the Medical Society of the State of New York that as provided by law, the Temporary Health Insurance Board is now concerned with the development of policy and specifications of a health insurance program which will provide group surgical and medical insurance for the employees of the State of New York and their dependents, and,

WHEREAS, no plan of surgical and medical care can be implemented without the services of physicians, and

WHEREAS, the Medical Society of the State of New York is the recognized representative of the medical profession of the State, and,

WHEREAS, the doctors, in the interest of their respective communities, are the founders and sponsors of Blue Shield and recognize it as their official surgical-medical prepayment plan, designed specifically to serve all groups in the State, and,

WHEREAS, the medical profession is convinced after seventeen years experience that benefits as provided by non-profit Blue Shield Plans in cooperation with physicians offer the greatest protection to the entire community at the lowest possible cost for comprehensive quality care, and,

WHEREAS, over 40,000 employees of the State of New York have enthusiastically endorsed the benefits and philosophy which are uniquely inherent in this community endeavor by subscribing to Blue Shield through payroll deduction, now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Medical Society of the State of New York pledge its continued full support to the cause of the best surgical-medical care for the people of the State of New York, and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Medical Society of the State of New York strongly and respectfully urges the Temporary Health Insurance Board that in the development of specifications for prepayment surgical-medical care coverage for the employees of the State of New York and their dependents it be guided by the coverages offered by the Blue Shield Plans of the State of New York including free choice of physician as fully endorsed by the Medical Society of the State of New York.

ONE CITY EMPLOYEE DISASSOCIATED WITH WAGNER, Editor, The Leader:

Here is one city employee who is determined not to vote for Wagner for U. S. Senate, and is going to see that he convinces his family and friends to do likewise.

The various City departments employed those large numbers of exempt provisions, while men and women who took exams wait for appointments.

Recently others got salary increases. The members of the City Council also increased their expense allowances. While the cost of living rises, City officials grant proportionate increases to low-paid City employees.

Disparity of Increases

The Career and Salary Plan has meant increases for only those in the higher brackets, while those in the lower grades received nothing.
NOMINATIONS ASKED FOR NEW FEDERAL MANAGEMENT COURSE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1—The U. S. Civil Service Commission invited all Federal agencies to consider employees in grades GS-7 through GS-12 as potential trainees for its new Management Course, which opens next February 1959.

At the time of application, candidates must be acceptable for Federal service. Successful candidates shall be placed on an initial examination list for the course. The written test will be weighted 50-70 percent. The written test will be used to determine knowledge of general intelligence and ability to understand written orders and directions. A successful applicant shall be of good moral character.

Candidates who fail to attain the pass mark set for any test or whose examination shall be declared invalid or whose professional compensation shall be deemed to have failed the examination and no further consideration shall be given to them.

Candidates who pass the written examination and pass qualifying medical and physical fitness tests prior to certification shall be rated. Successful candidates shall be assigned to the course, which will be held January 12.

Selection shall be based on educational attainment and professional compensation together with any other factors the Commission may consider most appropriate.

Minimum Service One Year. Candidates must have had a minimum of one year's Federal service. Candidates with at least three years' service in the title of railroad clerk are eligible.

The five-month course will include lectures, creative work assignments, and study at universities and in Washington, D. C.

Metro Group Insists On Health Insurance By Jan.

Reports that the State may delay its employees' medical-insurance plan until after January 1 have been denied by spokesmen from delegates to a meeting of the Metropolitan Conference of the Civil Service Employees Association.

At the meeting, held September 22 in Kings Park State Hospital, delegates demanded that the health insurance program be under way by January 1.

It was pointed out that $1.5 million had been provided in state funds in order to have the program started at that time. Delay was blamed on the Temporary Health Insurance Board, which, to date, has released no official report on its progress, if any.

Speakers Listed

At the meeting included Dr. Charles Buckman, assistant director of the New York State Hospital; Paul Kyer, editor of The Leader; Harold G. Mauhs, chairman of the health insurance program board; and Charles Culver, association field representative. Kings Park Hospital was host.

Dr. Buckman told the delegates that it was the duty of directors and supervisors to "lead the way toward the promised health insurance program and the compensation legislative program.

A. J. Coccaio, Conference chairman, introduced the last meeting of the CSEA Executive Board and later led a discussion on resolutions approved by the Association Resolutions Committee.

Resolutions adopted included:

1. Consideration of including doctor visits and office calls in the Association's proposals on health insurance.

2. Consideration by the Pension-Insurance committee of a paid-up policy on retirement in lieu of refunds on premiums.

3. That the Association's resolution 1A be broken down into three parts so that the first resolution would read: "A 15 per cent increase in base pay for all state employees would result in substantial base pay for all state employees, and in order to achieve the promise of a case that the secretariat does not judge the main facing disciplinary action. We must remain compassionate but logical or at all times."

Culver asks Full Head of Steam

Reports on the current membership of the Association and deduction of dues plan, Mr. Culver reported there was a potential reduction of dues plan, Mr. Culver declared.

"A splendid opportunity is before us and we should reap a bountiful harvest in membership this year," he said. The delegate proceedings declared.

Mr. Culver urged the delegates to "get up a full head of steam on winning up old and new members and to get the authorization of all Association headquarters as swiftly as is possible."

He predicted a total CSEA membership of over 125,000 for the coming year, which would be an all-time membership strength.

Leadership Speaks

Paul Kyer, the Leader's editor, urged Committee members to let their voices be heard on the many important issues now before the Executive Council and the general membership.

Complimenting the group on its special co-operation in shifting up interest in social security, Mr. Kyer said the group could do the entire Association a service by sending the same efforts toward the promised health insurance program and the compensation legislative program.

A. J. Coccaio, Conference chairman, introduced the last meeting of the CSEA Executive Board and later led a discussion on resolutions approved by the Association Resolutions Committee.

Resolutions adopted included:

Leadership Speaks

Paul Kyer, the Leader's editor, urged Committee members to let their voices be heard on the many important issues now before the Executive Council and the general membership.

Complimenting the group on its special co-operation in shifting up interest in social security, Mr. Kyer said the group could do the entire Association a service by sending the same efforts toward the promised health insurance program and the compensation legislative program.

Culver asks Full Head of Steam

Reports on the current membership of the Association and deduction of dues plan, Mr. Culver reported there was a potential reduction of dues plan, Mr. Culver declared.

"A splendid opportunity is before us and we should reap a bountiful harvest in membership this year," he said. The delegate proceedings declared.

Mr. Culver urged the delegates to "get up a full head of steam on winning up old and new members and to get the authorization of all Association headquarters as swiftly as is possible."
