Association Bill On Vested Rights Now In Legislature; CSEA To Fight For Passage

By PAUL KERN

ALBANY, Jan. 26 — A bill to give vested pension rights to members of the State Retirement System has been introduced by the Civil Service Employees Association and introduced in the State Legislature.

Senator McEwen and Assemblyman Noonan introduced the bill, which is now in the Civil Service Employees Association.

Some Members To Attend Annual Dinner Via TV; Rockefeller Is Guest

BY J. L. DEGRAF AND JOHN J. KELLY, JR.

ALBANY, Jan. 26 — The annual dinner meeting of the Civil Service Employees Association will be televised this year. To a certain degree, that is.

Vice-President James Howard, chairman of the CSEA Social Committee, announced that since there is no one place large enough to handle the heavy attendance expected this year that two rooms will be used at the Sheraton New York Hotel, where the dinner is to be held March 4. Those unable to obtain space in the main ballroom will be able to watch the proceedings through closed circuit television sets placed strategically around the Fort Orange Room.

Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller will be guest of honor at the dinner.

Registration of delegates will begin at 6 P.M. March 3. The business meeting usually connected with the dinner will start at 9 A.M. the next day.

Miss Leatham urged that reservations be made as soon as possible. She announced that a dance would follow the dinner.

ALBANY, Jan. 26 — An estimated $20,000,000 has been earmarked in the budget of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller to provide a pay increase for State employees this year, it was reported here.

News of the Administration plans to spread the money — across the board, percentage increase, etc. — has not been determined.

Governor Rockefeller also is asking $1,500,000 to increase pension benefits for Police.

The $20,000,000 figure could result in pay increase of a little more than five percent. The Civil Service Employees Association termed the amount insufficient to accomplish the Governor's stated goal of placing public employees on parity with those in private industry.

An Association spokesman said that further negotiations were to be held with Budget Director T. Norman Lurie and that "in our minds no final amount of monies has been settled on. We are still working for a full 12% percent, $500 minimum, across-the-board pay increase and will continue to do so until the last possible moment."

Knowledge of the Governor's plans on a pay increase came rather prematurely. Usually the State makes its offer just shortly before the budget is presented to the Legislature.

However, this year the State of New York has made its offer long before the budget is presented to the Legislature.

The Civil Service Employees Association, said new said administration officers want to know how the money is to be spent."

Trooper Action

No details were given on the $1,500,000 requested for more troopers but the appropriation $1,500,000 to the Division of Police. The CSEA has insisted that additional personnel be needed to solve many problems in the Division.

Powers' Comment

John F. Powers, President of the Civil Service Employees Association, issued the following comment on the statement made by Governor Rockefeller on the State's finances.

"In view of the repeated emphasis which Governor Rockefeller has put on the need for parity between state salaries and those in industry, and in view of the official state salary survey showing state salary levels to be about 10 percent below those in private industry and other public jurisdictions, the civil servants are satisfied at the failure of the announced budget appropriations to come even close to the promised parity."

"Twenty million dollars may seem like a lot of money but we wish to point out to the Governor that it represents less than half of what is required to meet the standards which he himself has advocated."

"We are not ungrateful to the Governor for the consideration which his announcement demonstrates. But his talk and his bills talk promise nor are we unappreciative of the taxpayers' interests which again we point out that facts are facts and twenty million dollars will not produce parity."

Kipling Said

"What we need is the section entitled was forced to correct the inequity. Every public official and citizen has, at one time or another, paid tribute to the efficiency and loyalty of the public servant, and also public officials and citizens have frequently testified that state salaries are inadequate. The civil servants not only in this state, but throughout the world, in crisis after crisis, through dedication to duty and sacrifice have demonstrated their loyalty to their communities. It seems, however, they are something like Kipling's Tommy Atkins."

Westchester Chapter Backs Levitt On Pension

A unanimous resolution by the Westchester Chapter of the Civil Service Employees Association favor full support to State Comptroller Arthur Levitt in his recent efforts to liberalize retirement benefits for state and city employees.

Mr. Levitt would like a voted retirement program also, and his measures would apply to all public employees in New York State.

Appointments are being steadily made in the Second Region (New York and New Jersey) through the new list of eligibles in the Federal service entrance examination. Most recent appointments were to jobs in the Bureau of Old Age and Survivors' Insurance, Department of Health, and the Office of Aeronautics Administration in the region.

A new list of eligibles will be established from the result of the last written test held. These names will be consolidated with others, in the order of overall relative standing by percentage scores.

About 3,000 of the eligibles who recently acquired that status are college seniors and would not be appointed to work until after graduation. Many will be given advance appointment, subject to evaluation. If they are not graduated they would not be put to work before of failure to meet minimum requirements. However, non-graduates might make the grade by attending summer sessions intended for qualifying them for graduation. Only a small percentage take advantage of this.

College graduation is not a requirement for employment or appointment. Securing a college diploma, one must have what the U.S. Civil Service Commission considers equivalent to job experience or education or a combination of both. "Those seniors who fail to fully develop their professional ability because of hardship, the failures, however, would have the experience.

CSEA Again Advertises For African American Firemen

The following deternined job opportunities in private industry.

The Job Market
A Survey of Opportunities
In Private Industry
By A. L. Peters

The description above is designed to give the prospective college graduate an idea of the types of positions to which he can apply with a college education. Many of these positions are in large corporations, and the salaries and benefits offered are very attractive.

For example, a large chemical company might offer a starting salary of $2,500 per year, with opportunities for advancement to managerial positions. Other industries, such as automobile manufacturing, offer similar opportunities.

In addition to these more traditional industries, there are many new and emerging fields that are open to college graduates. These include information technology, renewable energy, and biotechnology, among others. Many of these fields offer high salaries and excellent benefits.

The availability of these opportunities varies by region and industry, and it is important for graduates to research the job market in their areas of interest.

What about Vesting

Has the problem of vesting become the Governor's and legislative concern? The answer is obvious. Place the State salaries on a par with those of other industries and the problem will be solved. The Civil Service Employees Association has, for more years than it is possible to remember, advocated that the State employees be granted the same benefits as those employed by private industry. The State employees are working for the State and the State ought to be better able to take care of them than are private industry concerns.

The salary increase proposed for the State employees is based on a comparison with the average salaries of the State's own employees. This is unfair. It is hoped that the State employees, when they see how much better off their fellows are, will take heart and feel that their efforts have not been in vain.

In summary, the Civil Service Employees Association is asking the Governor to give the State employees a fair raise. The State employees have earned it and are entitled to it.

Norman Gallman

Albany, Jan. 26 — Norman Gallman, President of the Civil Service Employees Association, announced this morning that the Association has received a letter from the Governor's office indicating that the Governor will give the State employees a fair raise. Gallman was elated at the news and said that he would be happy to discuss the matter with the Governor at any time.

The Civil Service Employees Association has been working hard to get a fair raise for the State employees. Gallman said that he was confident that the Governor would do the right thing.

February Applicants Need No Physical for CSEA Group Life Insurance

Under Age 50

The Civil Service Employees Association announced today that applicants under the age of 50 will no longer be required to take a physical examination for Group Life Insurance. This change was made possible by the successful negotiation of a new contract with the State.

The new contract, which goes into effect on February 1, 1959, provides for a 10% increase in premiums for employees who are under the age of 50. This will enable the Civil Service Employees Association to offer Group Life Insurance to applicants under the age of 50 without requiring them to take a physical examination.

Overtime Gain Due

RIGHT near the top of the list of legislative aims of the Civil Service Employees Association is a bill for payment in money, at time-and-a-half rates, for overtime. This gain is long overdue and this is the year there is every reason why it must be enacted, as the Association will prove at hearings before committees of the State Legislature. Detailed documentation of industrial practice will be presented, Governor Nelson Rockefeller himself could support the Association's bill, and his membership on various boards of directors gave him full knowledge of what private industry does. Since his election he has resigned those posts, but lost none of his knowledge in the process.

Harlem Valley
Patients' Christmas Parties for every working group and every building were held. The Patients' Theaialical Group put on an annual Christmas show for both patients and employees. Mrs. Brenda Sullivan, assistant recreation worker, directed the Christmas play.

Employees' basketball games: These employees' basketball games were played. Four home games are scheduled for the month of January. Both patients and employees attended these sports events.

Veterans' Party: The Veterans' Party was held in the lower part of the American Legion Post 17 who will sponsor a social for our veteran patients.

Affiliate student sung carols in all buildings during the week of December 15-18.

The Pawling Methodist Choir entertained our patients and employees with a Christmas program. One hundred and fifty patients attended a movie at the Dover Plains Theatre.

Charlotte Bartfield who worked in Recreation, was enrolled into the Women's Army Corps for a period of three years.

Our deep sympathy is extended to Paul Becker, our Veteran Account Clerk, and his family in the death of his wife, Frieda Becker. The Ekblad family held a dance in the American Legion Hall in Pawling which was well attended by members and their guests. Music was furnished by Tom Adam's orchestra and dancing was enjoyed until 1 A.M. It is planned to run another dance in March.

Important topics will be on the agenda of the next meeting and your presence would be appreciated.

Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Schwemer were host and hostess for a surprise party given by friends in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Garomone on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary (Mr. Garomone is our Chief Stenographer). The popular couple were the recipients of three silver presents which were presented by Mrs. Arthur Schewrer. In expressing their appreciation for the gifts both Mr. and Mrs. Garomone made a witty and delightful speech which caused considerable mirth. Business entertainments were served and the center piece on the dining room table was a wedding cake appropriately decorated for the occasion. The happy couple were congratulated on this important milestone and the wish was conveyed that they may many more years of happiness together. All present spent a most enjoyable evening and expressed their appreciation to Dr. and Mrs. Schewrer for their generous hospitality.

On the sick list was Mrs. Robert Truax who was recently discharged from our hospital infirmary. Mr. Alfred Towle of the Engineering Department has also been confined to the hospital for a week and is now convalescing at home.

The death of Mr. and Mrs. Sammardin was announced. Mr. Sammardin was well known in our community, was a fine Christian, and a good friend. His death is another indication of the mortality which is occurring among those who have been associated with our hospital.

AMOUNTS OF ACTIVITIES THROUGHOUT NEW YORK STATE
The Oxford chapter of the Civil Service Employees Association honored James Race and Percy McLagan on their retirement. Mrs. Dorothy Hayes, chapter president, requested Superintendent Walter R. Vaden of the W.R.C. Home as the master of ceremonies and to attend in order to discuss the latest progress of the Association’s legislative program.

In order to discuss the latest progress of the Association’s legislative program, the Oxford chapter, CSEA, will hold its regular monthly meeting in the hospital assembly hall from 4:45 to 6 P.M. Wednesday, February 18. All officers and members are urged to attend in order to discuss the latest progress of the Association’s legislative program.

The chapter is doing everything in its power to help win a 12 percent salary increase with a $500 minimum for all New York State employees. Membership in the chapter continues to rise enthusiastically. New members include Maxvillie Abreu, Gerald Adkins, Nita Babler, Eddie Mae Burshe, John Barney, Gertrude Crofot, William Keene, Virginia M. Powell, and Marie Rogers, with about 30 others in the past month.

Althea Murray’s televised plans for TV sets to be donated for patients at our hospital is greatly appreciated by the chapter. The hospital’s number one and two bowling teams have had several formidable challenges from dark horse teams. There is no administration for the games and spectators may expect some fast action.

The chapter extends deep sympathy to his widow.

ALBANY, Feb. 26—Two appointments were announced today by Governor Rockefeller as part of his program to combat unemployment. Mr. Rockefeller named Solomon N. Seligman, a career civil service employee, to the position of senior civil service commissioner, a post he has held for ten years, and Edward J. Coghlan, a former state civil service commissioner, to the position of associate commissioner.

The announcement was made at a joint press conference at the Capitol. Governor Rockefeller also announced that he would appoint John P. Perrott, a noted conservationist, to the position of director of the Department of Environmental Conservation.

Mr. Rockefeller said that the appointments were made to fill the vacancies created by the retirement of Mr. Seligman and Mr. Coghlan, who have held their positions for many years.

The Governor said that the new appointees would be responsible for the administration of the civil service system, which is an important part of the state government's efforts to provide employment opportunities for New Yorkers.

Mr. Seligman, who has been with the civil service system for over 30 years, was praised by Governor Rockefeller for his dedication and service. Mr. Coghlan, who has been with the system for 15 years, was also commended for his work.

The Governor said that the appointments were made in order to ensure the continued success of the civil service system, which is a vital part of the state's efforts to provide employment opportunities and promote equality.

Mr. Seligman will be responsible for the administration of the civil service system, which includes the hiring and promotion of state employees, the establishment of fair and equitable standards for promotions, and the enforcement of civil service rules and regulations.

Mr. Coghlan will be responsible for the administration of the civil service system's training and development programs, which include the provision of training and development opportunities for state employees.

The Governor said that the appointments were made in order to ensure that the civil service system continues to provide high-quality services to the people of New York State.

Governor Rockefeller also announced that he would appoint an independent commission to review the civil service system and make recommendations for its improvement.

The Governor said that the commission would be composed of experts in the field of civil service management, and that it would be charged with evaluating the civil service system's effectiveness in meeting the needs of the state's citizens.

The Governor said that he hoped that the commission's recommendations would lead to improvements in the civil service system, which is a vital part of the state's efforts to provide employment opportunities and promote equality.
