Deductions Make First New Checks Smaller For Aides

ALBANY, April 13 — Comptroller Arthur Levitt reports many state employees now are receiving less take-home pay than they did before the 1959 Legislature voted to grant a $20 million pay hike.

The principal reason for this," Mr. Levitt told The Leader, "is the New York State income tax withholding system."

The state's chief fiscal officer said deductions have begun from each employee's pay check in accordance with formulas worked out by the State Tax Commission.

The only statewide Democratic officer in Albany did not refer directly to the tax increase, which Governor Rockefeller, a Republican, had sought and obtained, but the inference in his statement was clear.

Many Inquiries Made

Mr. Levitt said hundreds of inquires had been made to his office about the fact that many employees received a smaller net payroll check April 8th despite the fact that the new check should have been included in this paycheck.

He added: "The new higher salary base resulting from the salary increase legislation also requires larger contributions to the State Employees Retirement System and, in some instances, increases in social security payments."

"In addition, the bi-weekly paycheck of all state employees this year has also been adjusted to take into account the extra day involved in the leap year clause, a reduction of all these factors, in many cases, results in less rather than more take home pay."

This year's income taxes must be collected during the coming month, but the deduction smaller than usual for this first period of the new payment method.

Add Ronan To Workshop Speaker List

Dr. William Ronan, Secretary to the Governor, will represent the Civil Service Employees Association at the Western Conference of the Civil Service Employees Association to be held April 25 at J. N. Adam Memorial Hospital, Perry-burgh, N. Y., with nomination of the New York State Teachers Retirement System.

This current bill served to give similar status to these teachers as well as to the other retired members of the State system. The Republicans have done a disservice to the thousands of persons who have given lifetime service to the State. I intend to introduce this measure anew next year."

Delay on Vested Rights

The Comptroller also noted that the measure to delay the posthumous action on measures to grant vested rights to members of the Retirement System and to increase the system's ordinary death benefits, Levitt said, "As in the case of the supplemental pension, both of these measures were developed on a bi-partisan basis with everyone concerned with the problem in agreement as to their necessity. The Republicans should have allowed these modest pension increases to go into effect over the whole of the Legislature for action. At the very least, they should have informed me as to why any objections they might have had which we could have corrected, Rockefaller at the combined, spring workshop of the Metropolitan and Southern Conferences of the Civil Service Employees Association.

The workshop is being held April 11 and 12 at the Conrad Hotel, Kinsamsha Lake. The addition of Dr. Ronan to the speakers list completes the Workshop program, Charles E. Lamb and Irwin Schlesinger, co-

Westchester County Aids, Gang State Health Plan, Long a CSEA Chapter Goal

Westchester Chapter, Civil Service Employees Association, has long been a strong advocate for a state health plan. The chapter is currently working on a plan that would provide health insurance to all state employees.

The current state health plan is provided through the New York State Employees' Retirement System. The plan is only available to employees who are members of the retirement system and who have at least one year of service.

The Westchester Chapter is working to expand the state health plan to include all state employees.

The chapter is also working to improve the benefits of the current state health plan. The chapter has been working with the state legislature to increase the benefits of the plan and to ensure that it is affordable for all employees.

The chapter is also working to make the state health plan more accessible to employees. The chapter is working to ensure that employees have easy access to information about the plan and that they are able to enroll in the plan without difficulty.

The Westchester Chapter is committed to providing comprehensive health insurance to all state employees. The chapter is working hard to make this a reality and to ensure that all employees have access to the care they need.

The career executive has arrived because he is needed, stated Commissioner Jones, "and has proved his worth at each step... Every alternative so far suggested, whether one of system or of a different kind of officer, has been tested and has failed to give as good an account of itself."

Even the possible weaknesses of the system, he said, have been compensated by better training. By defining the executive's role, and by transfer to the political executive of functions distinctive to the career concept.

The career executive has been a long time developing, said Mr. Jones—from Theodore Roosevelt's term as Civil Service Commissioner, through the two World Wars and the NRA era. "By and large," he said, "the business-minded did not want an executive career in government. Perhaps the good officer would do... The ideas of using career men to do more than carry out policy began to make political sense, as well as to fill operational necessity."

Continuity Is Keynote

It was found, he said, that "the sentimentally provided by career executives seemed to increase efficiency, promote economy, and presumably know how to do many jobs."

"With the great expansion of Federal Government in our time, many of these young people did have an idea of staying for more than a few years; that they did have the certainty of rising steadily through merit; and that their careers will bear witness, not to a bureaucratic aristocracy of office holders, but to a flexible and useful aristocracy of competence in the discharge of the public business."

Mr. Jones concluded that the career executive is far from a straw man and is still far from fulfilling his ultimate destiny.
Inferiority Complex Reigns In Civil Service, Says Survey

Civil servants' professional esteem for themselves has decreased over the past 25 years while the public's opinion of them has improved. Civil servants now respect their colleagues less than they did in the past, and they feel inferior to those in the private sector.

The survey found that compared to private sector employees, civil servants are more courteous, while workers in government offices are more likely to have a high opinion of their colleagues and take pride in their work.

NYC Establishes Five New Lists

New York City will establish five new civil service lists, effective April 5. They follow with the number of eligibles:

Promotion Assistant
City Wide 1,191

Assistant Resident Building
Superintendent
City Wide 19

Resident Building
Superintendent
City Wide 61

Power Maintainer
Group B

City Wide 97

The starting pay is $2 an hour and can reach $6.25 an hour through annual raises, with 10% added for those who do not prefer civil service careers. They also feel there was more opportunity for advancement in private industry.

Despite these findings, the study found that the major barriers to contact between high-ranking civil servants and their subordinates in private industry was the lack of the liberal expense account through which many informal work contacts are made by commercial business men in bars, expensive restaurants, and at golf courses.

A more positive approach through the mass media to publicizing government programs to dispel public ignorance of them is needed and would be very desirable, since only a small portion of the public is negative in its attitude toward civil service. But government agencies are usually not provided with adequate staffs or budgets for public information programs.

The conclusion reached by the study was that more attention should be given both to making the public more conscious and better informed about civil service and to maintaining and improving the image of government. Specifically stated, if inadequate mass media programs represent administrative limitations, it's up to us to find out how we can improve contact personnel.

Applications are still pouring in for the substitute clerk examination of the New York City Post Office, with 840 jobs that pay $60 a week. Bernard Katz, executive secretary of the National Association of Civil Service Examiners, reported that 49,000 people will have to be examined to fill all the slots.

Already, he said, 17.8% have filed for the July test, and these have been scheduled for examining and 1,800 have been tested. The July test will be run well into the summer. Mr. Katz noted that 112,000 people applied for the jobs last year.

There are no education or experience requirements. New York City residence is not required, but does get preference. The written tests are taken at the Morris Isaacson Post Office, Ninth Ave., Manhattan.

Although most people are satisfied with the administrative procedures of government, they have little knowledge of how the agencies work that make up a government. Specifically, governmental operations can, however, produce frictions and outburst situations.

On what basis were social security benefits calculated for the 55-year plan since 1942? I am employed by the State of New York, and I am a member of the New York State Employees’ Retirement System since 1942. I am now 60 years of age and have had five years allowable service credit. If I retire before age 60, I can only do so to change to the 60-year plan? Do I understand correctly regarding amount of retirement benefit that keeps me from working? One difference I have seen is the ability to get fired up by a good working idea.
A Fingerprint Expert By Any Other Name-Is What?

"When is a fingerprint expert not a fingerprint expert?" That's what various fingerprint technicians in New York City are trying to find out.

The fingerprint technicians in Magistrate's Courts, under the banner of the "Association of Fingerprint Experts of New York," have retained attorney Samuel Resnicoff to try for a reclassification of their jobs from grade 6, $3,500 to $4,500, to grade 8, $4,500 to $5,250, with a chance in title from fingerprint technician to fingerprint officer.

Meanwhile, fingerprint technicians with the Transit Authority, taking Magistrate's Court, are after the same rate's fingerprinters now describe the Magistrate's Court group as "comprising the fingerprint technicians in New York City civil service." The Magistrate's Court group has agreed to amend its appeal to give some concessions to the other three groups, but it still contends it does more highly skilled work than do men in the other groups. But the other groups contend otherwise.

The promotion examination held recently for senior fingerprint technician was open to the Magistrate's Court group and to the Personnel Department group, but not to the Correction Department and Transit Authority groups.

All three groups of fingerprinters outside Magistrate's Court want to know why. If the Magistrate's group do more highly skilled work, the Personnel Department group should be included in the senior technician examination, and if not, what is it that they contend, why the Correction group and the Transit group should be excluded from it, which they do.

These three groups are of the opinion that they do equally responsible work, the Magistrate's group and that a unified appeal for reclassification coming from all four groups would have more chance of success.

And only Blue Shield covers more than 160,000 New York State Employees and their families under the Three Part Statewide Plan.

Tailored to protect your family against the financial burden of minor illness, serious illness and catastrophic illness, the Statewide Plan includes Blue Cross hospital benefits, Blue Shield doctor benefits and added Metropolitan Major-Medical coverage.

BLUE CROSS—PAYS MOST HOSPITAL BILLS IN FULL

Today's new era of medicine means new drugs and medicines, new life saving equipment, new and modern techniques. And, many of these items are expensive.

A recent actual bill from the Blue Cross files show $2,244.95 paid in full for a New York State employee. Laboratory examinations alone were $293.50. This is a single instance of the kind of bill you could face and the kind of job your Statewide Plan can do for you.

BLUE SHIELD—APPROVED BY THOSE WHO KNOW MEDICINE

Doctors know the problems of paying for medical care. That is why they developed Blue Shield as the method of paying doctor bills. And, that is why more than 23,000 doctors in New York State are participating physicians.

To back up your Blue Cross for hospital bills, Blue Shield covers surgical and in-hospital medical care by your own private physician, plus allowances for anesthesiologist fees and for radiation therapy. Provides payment in full for nonmaternity care by any participating physician—"if your annual income is $5,000 or less ($4,000 if single).

MAJOR-MEDICAL—PAYS UP TO $15,000 IN BENEFITS

It's a comfort to know that many "extra" medical expenses such as prescribed drugs, home and office doctor care, and x-ray treatment are included. Pays, after a $50 deductible, 80% of covered medical expenses. And, Major-Medical alone provides up to $7500 in medical benefits in a calendar year and $15,000 total for each individual.

FILINGS CONTINUE FOR THOUSANDS OF P.O. JOBS

The department has sent for 302 applicants, with 126 vacancies. Appointments are effective as of April 11.

Testing is fast and in big batches, with little waiting time from application to exam. Schedule of examinations for individuals has been simplified, without the complex and sometimes baffling mailing of notices as before.

The job requires enough physical ability to do the work, which requires strong arms and legs. The test periods, of standing, walking, throwing and reaching, plus handling heavy sacks. You should have at least 20/20 vision in one eye, with or without glasses.

You must be a citizen, at least 17 years old, and weigh at least 120 pounds — although your exact weight requirement is waived for veterans. It is also waived if you can shoulder a 100-pound mail sack in a lifting test.

Postal service jobs have long been known as reliable, long-term service. Substitutes usually move up to regular jobs, according to appointment seniority. And the higher-level jobs are generally filled by promotion from service people.

The application form, Card Form 5000-A, can be obtained in person or by mail at the Board of U.S. Civil Service at 379 Park Ave., New York 22, N. Y., or by telephone at 777-3276.
