Assm. Henderson Urges Wider Use of Armories At Employees' Conference

GREAT use should be made of National Guard armories throughout the State," according to Assemblyman Charles D. Henderson of Hornell. This was the subject of his talk as principal speaker at the opening meeting which concluded the annual conference of the New York State Armory Employees Association, held recently at the Sherwood Hotel in Hornell.

"It would be a sound investment," he said, "for the State to provide adequate pay and sufficient manpower to open our armories up as a general policy, would do so much to raise a better appreciation of their importance."

In a series of emergency, he pointed out, the people realize their great value, but, he said, "the armory is not taken for granted as just another Government building."

Mr. Henderson complimented the armory employees on their fidelity of spirit of cooperation in crisis activities, but pointed out that not enough people realize the fine contributions and service they make to the benefit and security of the community, the State and the nation.

"The use of our armories," he concluded, "can be a great benefit not only to our youth but to our senior citizens as well, for recreation and the development of community activities.

Two-Day Session More than 40 delegates attended the two-day session. The opening meeting was devoted to committee work in preparation for the business sessions. Principal speakers at the opening meeting were Charles R. Verwey, a second vice-president of the Adjutant General's Office in Albany, Jack M. DeLisi, New York City, the Association's representative to the C.S.E.A., and Henry Galpin, salary research analyst of the State Education Department, director of the law division of the State Education Department.

They discussed the classification setup for armory employees which will probably be in effect shortly. Millard H. Mallory, Watershed Conference, addressed the business sessions. The Armory Employees Association has 870 chapters throughout the State.

CSEA, Southern Conf. Meets

The annual meeting of the Assembly's Southern Conference was held recently in New York City, attended by 23 assemblymen from the 27 conferences throughout the State.

A school program cannot be in the best interests of the community and the teachers, according to John P. Powers, C.S.E.A. president. We have now reached the point where we are at the best and the largest in the field, and it is primarily due to the hard work done by the rank and file members and individual members.

The remarks were made at the annual meeting and election of officers of the Association's Southern Conference, held last week in Bear Mountain.

A major association recently had to increase the pays a small amount," he continued, "but if we are not for efforts on the individual, chapter and conference level, costs for an organiization of this scope would be many times what they are now.

Technical Library Opens At Kings Park Hospital

More than 150 guests attended ceremonies officially opening the Kings Park State Hospital Technical Library. There are more than 8,000 volumes for professional use by the staff and about 6,000 volumes for the use of patients at the hospital.

Dr. Joseph H. Stimson, associate director of the hospital, cut the tape marking the library's official opening, assisted by the librarian, Pauline M. Vaillancourt. Speakers at the ceremony were Dr. George Valer, assistant director, and Ms. Margaret Sanders, librarian of the New York State Psychiatric Institute, Bellevue Medical Center; Cecile Kramer, librarian of the library of Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons; Dorothy H. Smith, Schirmer library director; John Balkema, librarian of New York State Psychiatric Institute; Ruth Nielson, librarian of Creedmore State Hospital; Emmanuel Douppe, director of Northport library; Frank Brammeier, librarian of the Manhattan State Hospital; Mrs. Kathleen Weber, librarian of Brooklyn State Hospital, and Mrs. Marian Meeker, librarian of Central Desk State Hospital.

Hudson River Retires Retiring Treasurer

Mrs. Mae McCarthy, outgoing treasurer of Hudson River State Hospital Chapter, Civil Service Employees Association, was honored recently by a dinner at the Italian Center, Poughkeepsie, as she retired from State service.

In presenting her with a set of golf irons on behalf of the Chapter, Mrs. Franklin Frost, past president, cited her for 13 years of faithful service to the Chapter.

John J. Kelly, Jr., C.S.E.A. counsel, was toastmaster. Other distinguished guests included the hospital's assistant director, Dr. Witt C. Graham, and Mrs. Graham; the hospital's business officer, Henry D'Amico, and Mrs. Emer; C.S.E.A. Southern Conference President James Anderson and Mrs. Anderson; C.S.E.A. Southern Conference President Charles Lamb and Mrs. Lamb; William G. O'Brien, Blue Cross-Blue Shield representative from the Greater New York area; Hugh McDowell, Blue Cross-Blue Shield representative from the Poughkeepsie area, and the Rev. Baumam and Ran- dolph.

Chapter officers installed this month were Mrs. Ruth Davis, president; William R. Hoft, first vice-president; Harold Hendley, second vice-president; Mrs. Margaret Killakofski, secretary; and Mrs. Helen Brophy, new Chapter treasurer.

GUESTS AT CAP. DIST. CONFERENCE PICNIC

Kennedy Busting Ranks in Police Dept.

“Acting” ranks among Police Department captains, lieutenants and sergeants for the first time in the city’s history, as of last week, since the order by Police Commissioner Stephen K. F. Kennedy abolishing them.

The 28 acting captains, 62 acting lieutenants and 37 acting sergeants have received “acting” titles, but never from Mr. Kennedy.

At the same time, Commissioner Kennedy banned orders assigning lieutenants and 37 acting sergeants to perform the duties of these titles. It was stated that the new rules set up clear-cut lines of authority and responsibility, and they make more flexible the assignment and deployment of the Police Force at the commissioner’s discretion.

The revised duties as outlined below are:

Captain:
- To command a precinct, not a unit, squad, bureau or office which, in the opinion of the Police Commissioner, because of its importance or responsibilities requires the assignment of a captain; to exact the proper performance of police duty from, and to supervise, subordinate members of the force assigned to the various branches of the department; to make investigations and reports on police conditions and activities; to perform all additional functions prescribed for the rank by relevant laws, Rules and Procedures, orders or directives of the Police Department; and to perform administrative duties in department offices and commands, and special duties or assignments as directed by the Police Commissioner in his discretion.

Lieutenant:
- "To act as a desk officer in a precinct; to exact the proper performance of police duties from, and to supervise, subordinate members of the force assigned to the various branches of the department which, in the opinion of the Police Commissioner, because of its importance or responsibilities, requires the assignment of a Lieutenant; to make investigations and reports on police conditions and activities; to perform all additional functions prescribed for the rank by relevant laws, Rules and Procedures, orders or directives of the Police Department; and to perform administrative duties in department offices and commands, and special duties or assignments as directed by the Police Commissioner in his discretion."

State Employees!

Are YOU Getting These Benefits
Under the State Health Program?

Only H.I.P.—the largest comprehensive health plan in the state—offers these advantages:

- In H.I.P. there are no doctor bills and no need for claim forms, deductibles or other red tape.
- H.I.P. provides more fully prepaid doctors' services, including full and continuing specialist care, than any other option.
- H.I.P. has no extra charges beyond the premium — the one exception being a possible $2.00 charge for a home call between 10 P.M. and 7 A.M.
- In H.I.P. there are no waiting periods for maternity or any other condition.
- H.I.P. obstetricians provide full maternity care without any extra charges.
- H.I.P. sets no limit on the number of physicians' or laboratory services that may be rendered.
- In H.I.P. the qualifications of every family doctor and specialist have been approved by a medical board of distinguished physicians, which sets standards for medical training and experience.
- H.I.P. offers safeguarded choice of physician. Each doctor in the medical team provides only those services for which he has been specially trained. This means that babies are cared for only by pediatricians, mothers are delivered only by obstetricians, surgery is performed only by qualified surgeons, and all other services are performed only by radiologists and laboratory tests are interpreted only by pathologists and so on.

H.I.P. provides its services to 350,000 persons in New York City, Nassau and Suffolk Counties and in parts of Suffolk, and Westchester Counties. In Columbia County, H.I.P. has just extended its area of coverage to include the Townships of Lebanon and Canaan.

State employees may join H.I.P. and the expanded Blue Cross Plan under the State Health Program or change options from June 22 to July 22.

Branches in the Mid-Hudson Valley: Newburgh, Beacon, Poughkeepsie, and Ulster.

For Sub Clerks, Carriers

A five-county post office examination for substitute clerk and carrier has been announced for the area of the Catskills and Mid-Hudson Valley. The counties are Dutchess, Orange, Rockland, Sullivan, and Ulster.

No experience or formal education is required. The current job exists at 23 an hour, and reach $2.42 an hour through normal increases. An extra 10% is paid for night work.

The examination will cover jobs in 164 post offices. Applications will be accepted until further notice.

Bernard Katz, executive secretary of the Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners at the New York Post Office in Manhattan, stated that there is no residence requirement. However, Mr. Katz said, for jobs with individual first class and second class post offices will go to residents within the delivery area, and to those already employed there.

Priority will next go to those residents within the county, and then to all others who are eligible.

Required is U.S. citizenship and an age of 18 to 70, although 17-year-olds may apply.

This is the first time a single examination will be held for the entire five-county area. Up to now, each post-office or less was handled by employees on its own, and was limited to a very small area. A similar area-wide examination began a few weeks ago for Suffolk and Nassau Counties on Long Island.

Examinations will be conducted by the Manhattan P.O.'s Board of Civil Service Examiners, by appointment between New York's State Personnel Board. Manager and Board Chairman C.B. Felts, and CSC Regional Director James P. Googe.

Written tests will be held at central points such as Middletown, Newburgh, Poughkeepsie, and Kingston. Candidates will be notified of the time and place.

The eligible list established from this examination will be merged with existing registers for these jobs.

Application forms and further information are available at almost any local post office in the five-county area. The completed forms should be submitted to the Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners.

People To Do the Job

WHEREVER LARGE SUMS of money are handled, you have to have a strict standard of procedure, strictly kept. Otherwise, you open the door to trouble.

The Support Bureau of the Domestic Relations Court collected last year more than $16,000,000 for neglected families. That’s more than three times the total for 1966, and indications are that it is still going up.

During the dozen years that this work load boomed, the clerical force has increased—from 67 to 677 employees. If an employee falls sick, goes on vacation or quits, the Bureau is in a hole. So are the abandoned families who need the support money.

In the future, the clerical force in Brooklyn must be mailed on the same day. So the understaffed organizations have to cut corners. It is a wonder that big trouble hasn’t cropped up yet.

John Warren Hull, Presiding Justice, has warned that if things are allowed to rock along as they are, the Court cannot be held responsible for whatever unpleasant situation develops. More people are badly needed, to let the Bureau do at least an adequate job.

Vets’ Pension, Vets’ Compensation—How Do You Tell the Difference?

There is a lot of confusion among veterans about “pension” and “compensation,” reports the New York State Division of Veterans Affairs. The terms are not interchangeable. It is stated.

A veteran’s pension is payable to a veteran who is disabled, World War II, or the Korean Conflict who is permanently and totally disabled by a war injury or disease and is not connected with his service; and which is not the result of willful misconduct or gross negligence or vicious habits.

If the veteran has a total and permanent non-service-connected disability, and he is 65 years of age or older, the Bureau will meet the service requirements, the VA will pay him a monthly pension of $40.15. If he is rated permanently and totally disabled for a continuous period of 10 years or more, starting the age of 65, and unemployable, he will receive a pension of $75.75.

Veterans requiring aid and assistance are entitled to an additional pension allowance if they are not being cared for in a VA hospital.

Compensation is payable by the Veterans Administration for service-connected injuries or diseases or for service, who suffer from a disability of 10% or more, which may be ascribed to their service.

The rates of compensation range from 10% of the wartime rate; the peacetime rate: the wartime rate: the peacetime rate. The rate of compensation ranges from 10% of the wartime rate: the peacetime rate.

Kings DA Clerks Ask Higher Pay

The clerical forces in the Kings County (Brooklyn) District Attorney’s office are upset because of the low salary status and grade in an appeal filed with the state Civil Service Commission.

The employees claim they perform the same duties as the clerks in the New York County (Manhattan) District Attorney’s office, who receive a substantially higher classification and receive more money. The group is represented by attorney Samuel Rossetti.

A hearing will shortly be scheduled on the complaint.

6 State MV Aides Share Over $1,000

ALBANY, June 22 — Six employees of the State Bureau of Motor Vehicles have qualified for awards under the State Employees Merit Award system, three of them from the New York Office and three from the Albany office.

Reuben Schriro and David H. Kerner of New York shared an $800 award for submitting a suggestion which eliminates several steps in recording traffic violation convictions and Lucia Pepe received a smaller award for another time-saving suggestion.

William L. Fox and Percy Culp of Albany each received $250 and a cigarette lighter and Lydia E. Kendrick got an award of $25 and a lighter for their suggestions.

All six were given their awards plus certificates by Commissioner William S. Hults.

CSEA Council's Report on 1959 Legislative Session

PUBLIC EMPLOYEES — HARNESS RACING

The Governor vetoed one bill which we supported. This was a measure which would have provided a public employee with a salary of less than $7,500 (except for law enforcement officers who had been employed at harness racing tracks during 1953 to each part time at such harness racing tracks, with this measure not to coincide with the Application measure which would have raised the limit to $7,500 irrespective of previous employment, we did oppose the bill. The abort was, Intro. No. 1145, Print No. 137, which would have least applied some public employees in connection with employment at harness racing tracks. The Governor's reason in disapproving the legislation reads as follows: "This bill would permit the employment at harness race tracks of public officers and employees whose governments salaries are not more than $7,500 per year, and who were employed as harness race workers prior to 1954. Presently, only those who receive less than $3,500 may be employed. Somewhat similar bill were vetoed in 1953. The bill shown to the Governor has not been made to this legislation is either necessary or desirable." "Accordingly, this bill is disapproved."

BILLS WHICH BECAME LAW BUT WERE OPPOSED BY THE ASSOCIATION — PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

Chapter 715 of the Laws of 1959, which restricts the practice of Accountancy in the future to two years, was approved. The requirements for Certified Public Accountants are basically what they have always been, but this law requires the enrollment of anyone else who wishes to practice as a Public Accountant. To enroll as a Public Accountant, one must be 21 years of age, a citizen, and a resident of this state. In addition, he must submit evidence that he was engaged in the practice of Accounting on July 1, 1959 as his principal occupation, or that for six of the last ten years, he, as an employee of the United States, the state, or a political subdivision, performed duties entailing accounting or auditing or the examination or investigation of tax returns.

Anyone who wishes to apply for enrollment must do so before October 1, 1959.

Basically, the Association objected to the enrollment requirements and regulation by the Education Department. There is, however, a substantial number of public accountants who now practice in New York State and who are neither limited nor precluded from giving assistance to the requirements and regulation of the Education Department.

This bill would provide the licensing and regulation by the Education Department of all accountants. Adequate provisions are made for the regulation of all public accountants who are now either in public or private employment.

"There are certain ambiguities in the bill which are not of sufficient merit to warrant disapproval. The bill does not clearly permit corporations duly chartered to engage in public accounting in the state prior to July 1, 1959, to continue to do so. National banks and other financial institutions have experienced accountancy services of much desirability. The New York State Education Department certified Public Accountants, the Association, the American Association of New York City, and the Association of Public Accountants have assured us that they will continue to do their work in this area.

The Education Department, the accountants associations mentioned above, the Association of Civil Service Accountants, the New York State Bar Association, the Commerce and Industry Association of New York, and Local 1447 of the CSEA of State and Municipal Employees will urge approval.

"This bill is approved."

Reelected were: David A. McHale, president; F. McDonald, vice president; A. Cortez, treasurer, and Kathryn Freeman, secretary.

Vito Ferro, president of the College's Accountants Council, was the installing officer. Jack M. Kurtzman, CSEA field representative, announced the results of the elections and accomplishments of the Association and urged members to take an active part in the Chapter's programs.

A new Chapter member, Robert Manganaro, was introduced by President Morrison.

The Chapter went on record as willing to accept members who reside in Catskillas County and are employed in the Department of Public Welfare.

Brockport T. C.

More chapter election results will appear in next week's Leader.

ACTIVITIES OF EMPLOYEES IN STATE

Creegmoor

Plants are being made for members of the CREEGMOOR State Hospital Chapter, Civil Service Employees Association, by the CSEA. The Chapter is sponsored by the CSEA and is being held in the new building for the public accountants mentioned above. The Association of Certified Public Accountants is basically what they have always been, but this law requires the enrollment of anyone else who wishes to practice as a Public Accountant.
