The combined efforts of three employees in the Westchester County Division of Sewers resulted in the award of a gold cup from the New York Sewage and Industrial Wastes Association for the trios superior report on the operation of the Counties sewage treatment plant at New Rochelle. The three, all members of the Westchester chapter of the Civil Service Employees Association, are James Brown, center, and Dominick DiBello, second from right, and Duncan MacPhail, far right. Making the presentation are Ralph C. Catherwood, executive director, that six employees in private industry.

ALBANY, July 20—State investigation on all employees hired after January 8, 1957. The reduction in vacation allowances has proven to be a definite deterrent to recruitment, and we are sure that attendance of employees generally will attest to this especially in view of the fact that State employees' salaries are constantly behind those in private industry.

ALBANY, July 20—More than a dozen important improvements in the State Attendance Rules have been urged on the State Civil Service Commission by the Civil Service Employees Association.

1. In a letter to H. Elliot Kaplan, commission president, the association outlined not only improvements, but presented arguments to support the need for such changes.

Rules Set for Cash Payment of Overtime And Vacation Credits

ALBANY, July 20—All state agencies and employees hired after January 8, 1957, will use an elected member of the Budget and the Department of Audit and Control. It listed them as follows:

"Payment for unused vacation and overtime credits upon separation from state service may not be made until the end of the second biweekly pay roll period following date of separation. The payroll for each pay period shall be submitted to the Department of Audit and Control after expiration of the second full payroll period following the separation."
1000s Take RR P.O. Exam: You Can Still File for Job

A total of 2,100 men have been scheduled to take the First New York City examinations for postal transportation clerk. Meanwhile, applications continue to come in for later tests.

In Manhattan, exams will be held July 23 in three sessions at 8:30 A.M., 11 A.M. and 2 P.M. About 2,000 will be examined at the Federal Building, on Christopher Street, and about 50 more will be examined at the Main Post Office, 451 Ninth Ave. The exam will last about an hour.

Update examinations for about 200 are being scheduled at Albany and other points.

No experience nor formal education is required for the position. Hourly pay starts at $2, and moves up to $2.42, with 10 percent per cent more for night work.

Jobs in the Metropolitan area are generally at rail and air terminals.

Those who will be examined this time will be those who applied up to July 16. The next cut-off will probably be about mid-July.

Hiring from the new lists will start soon, as old lists are nearly down to zero. As soon as the new lists are cut-off will probably be about mid-July.

Applications

Indicate on your application card (Form 5000-AB) where you wish to be examined. Applicants must be New York State residents, U.S. citizens, and must be at least 18 years old by the end of the period for filing applications — which has not yet been announced.

Preference will go to residents of the area where the job is located.

The Post Office class titles for these jobs are "distribution clerk, railway post office" and "distribution clerk, highway post office." Employees separate, distribute and route mail in transit — work in shifts involving the handling of letters, newspapers, packages, mail sacks. etc.

Requirements

You must be physically able to handle this type of work, and must have good distance and reading vision in one eye, glasses are permitted. You must be able to hear ordinary conversation, with or without a hearing aid. If you have lost an arm or leg, or are deaf, there may still be jobs for you. There is a physical examination before appointment.

This type of career offers you security, up to 26 days of paid vacation, and up to 13 days sick leave a year, low-cost group life insurance, opportunities for advancement, rewards for good work and ideas, and a liberal retirement program.

To apply, send for Announcement No. S-261-119 and Card Form 5000-AB to your local Post Office, except for the New York and Brooklyn main post offices. Mail the completed forms to the Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners, United States Post Office, 3rd Street, near 8th Avenue, New York, N.Y.

Welfare Fund Goes For Employees' Teeth

White collar employees of seven New York City firms, including Ruppert Brewery and Canada Dry Company, have obtained the nation's broadest dental insurance. It was practiced. Practically any service needed—regardless of the present state of their teeth—is included. Although their employers will pay the monthly premiums, the unique feature—correction of present dental defects—is provided through $100,000 of the welfare fund reserves of Office Employees International Union, Local 153, AFL-CIO, for the purchase of an insurance rider.

Ben J. Cohlan, secretary-treasurer of the Office Employees International Union said, "Our trustees have pledged $100,000, which represents an investment of $50 in the dental health of each of 2,000 members who belong to the Welfare Fund. $50 is the per capita cost of the insurance rider which we are buying from OHDI (Group Health Dental Insurers).

Kennedy: New on Fund Raising

Two Police Department rules on fund-raising activities of employees were laid down last week by Commissioner Stephen P. Kennedy. This is in line, It was stated, with the department's long-standing policy on such activities.

The Commissioner said that "effective and efficient law enforcement requires strict neutrality on the part of all members of the police in dealing with the public. The Police Department must provide police services to all persons and groups within the community without favor. It certainly is not conducive to a suitable climate for law enforcement to have police officers or public fund raisers in their behalf, soliciting contributions from storekeepers, commercial enterprises or other members of the public, for journals of organizations affiliated with the Police Department. "Experience has demonstrated that such a practice inescapably leads to a suspicion, whether justified or not, of corruption, intimidation or expectation of favor."

Rules and Procedures were amended as follows:

20.3 A member of the department shall not solicit, accept, print or publish advertisements, message space or booster lists, directly or indirectly, or receive funds in connection therewith, directly or indirectly, from storekeepers, businessmen or any other person, in connection with journals, periodicals or any other publication, of any police line organization or any other organization of this department, without the approval of the Police Commissioners.

Easing of Hatch Act
Not Likely This Session of Congress

It looks as if the bill to ease the Hatch Act — the act of laws and rules restricting political activity of Federal and some State employees — may not clear the House and reach the Senate in time for action during this session of Congress.

Rep. Robert T. Ashmore, chairman of the House Subcommittee on Elections, reported in a letter last week to Meyer L. Aron of Brooklyn, N.Y., that the U. S. Civil Service Commission has changed its position on several features of the bill. This has stopped action on the bill for the time being.

Questions Answered on Social Security

My husband died in December, 1944 and had been under social security since 1936. I am a teacher covered by Social Security and will reach retirement in three years. Will I be able to draw on any husband’s benefit? For that part of the question.

The benefit payable to me is based on my own work record. You should be able to obtain proof of age and evidence of the dates of termination of such prior marriage to your Social Security card and also your wife’s card, if she has one. A record of prior marriages is included in the form of a withholding statement and a statement of your earnings that will be helpful in expediting your claim. It will also be necessary to know how long you lived together and any prior marriages and the dates of termination of such prior marriage for both you and your wife. Last, but not least, being your wife.

I have been paying social security tax for years. Now that I am 65 and eligible for benefits, why should I still take the chance of checking if I earn over $1,200 a year? Social security benefits are intended to replace loss of income. If you should die fully insured under the Social Security Act and your son is dependent, you are entitled to benefits for him at that time. The Congress realized that there should be some minimum allowable earnings, therefore, $1,200 a year was arrived at as a reasonable figure.

Several years ago I applied for widow’s insurance benefits but my application was disapproved because I was not living with my husband at the time of his death. Is this true now and what are the conditions that “living with” is no longer a requirement for wife’s and mother’s benefits?

Yes. Beginning September 1957, a person who has once been paid by the widow with this aid has to engage or is otherwise qualified even though the support be given her husband at the time of his death. The “living with” requirement applies to the family of workers who are receiving old-age benefits.

I do not believe a record of births was kept when I was born. Should this be considered a relative or friend to make an affidavit as to my correct age when I apply for retirement benefits.

You should first check to see whether your birth has been recorded. The requirements for the birth of your child are subject to change from time to time, but the general rule is that you must have a birth certificate or an old insurance policy. In addition, it will be necessary to prove your age and so forth. The number of old friends: Church records of births; unarrived entries in old records; the number of old friends; and military records, etc. A written record establishes many years of work and adds to your retirement in greater value than an affidavit.

My 52-year-old son has been disabled since he was eleven years old and I have been his sole support. Is he entitled to any benefits from Social Security?

If your son’s disability is of such a nature that it meets the definition of disability as required by the Social Security law, he is entitled to benefits. If he is still dependent upon you, when you reach 65 and become entitled to benefits, you should die fully insured under the Social Security Act and your son is dependent, you are entitled to benefits for him at that time.

If my wife is now 65, do I have to file Social Security and your conversion to public health sanitarians to your account. What should I bring?

You should first check to see if you have evidence of age is necessary, such proof may be in the form of a birth certificate or a marriage license. You should also have evidence of the dates of termination of such prior marriage for both you and your wife. Last, but not least, being your wife.

Leah Wein, a stenographer in the District Office for 36 years, retired last June.

During her employment here she worked under several District Engineers, beginning with Charles Mudge, ending with Bernard Perry. Previous to coming to Rochester, she had been employed by the State in the Income Tax Department at Elmira, N.Y. and maybe bad work for a lawyer in that city.

Now with our aforesaid and eminent, a retirement dinner was given for her on the evening of June 10th, at the Liederkranz Club in Rochester, attended by the enjoyable affair. Mr. Gallan-cy, Aunt, Eun. Eun. made a fine stand, in retirement, to the manner of a four-co-worker, and read a highly complimentary letter from Mr. Perry, who was unable to attend.

Also present were friends of many years standing, in retirement, they were, Mr. John Larson with Mrs. Lauren, Fred

Douglas, Mr. McFarland and Mr. Edgar Lyon with Mrs. Lyons. More recently retired also attending were Audley Zabel, Jane Bider, Florence Brice, Nadenie Roach Facer, Josephine Spitzel, Eleanor Dury, Evelyn Elsner, Elizabeth Tock, and Anna Upper bastien.

The honor guest received many letters and telegrams of congratulations and good wishes for her happy retirement years. An attractive booklet was made up which listed the names of all those who contributed to the party gift, a television set, which we hope Leah will enjoy during her well earned leisure.

Josephine Spitzel, former clerk in the Payroll Dept., has a daughter born April 8th. We hope for little Judith Ann some 300.

Altha Blossom, Typist in our Administration Dept., is entering an extended vacation touring with her family in the western states. We have received several messages from points she has visited, with her comments presenting in a very interesting manner. The Motor Launch “Venice”, out of Erie, Pa., captained by Sam Libutak, is moored at the Barge Canal Terminal for the next several weeks. One evening recently, thirty-one State employes, their wives and children, embarked on a 3-hour cruise on the Genesee River and the Barge Canal, proceeding to Lock 33. “Looking through” was a new experience for many on board. All agreed that the cruise was the best of the three offered daily, and ended all too soon.

On the sick list at this time are Ruby Walters of the Bridge Dept., Eleanor Bacher of the Payroll Dept. and formerly of the Conservation Dept., and Hulda Turner, clerk, who formerly worked at Rochester State Hospital. All three are extended our best wishes for a speedy return to good health.

Four employees of Dist. 4 en-

Funds Voted to Continue State’s Investigation in Suffolk County

ALBANY, July 29—Governor Rockefeller, the Temporary President of the Senate, the Assembly Speaker, and the members of the Executive Committee of the Legislature have taken the step necessary to provide additional funds for the investigation in Suffolk County which has been in progress since January 1953.

The Governor has recommended an appropriation of $250,000 to be used in the investigation, bringing the amount to be allocated to a total of $750,000.

The amount determined to be necessary to be appropriated from the Emergency Fund will depend on the findings of the investigation and the extent to which it may be necessary to make additional appropriations in the future.

The additional funds will be made available from the Rockefeller Temporary General Emergency Fund held by the State Comptroller.

In his budget submitted to the Legislature in February 1953, Governor Rockefeller recommended an appropriation of $100,000 for this investigation. It was appropriated for the conduct of an investigation in Suffolk County which has been in progress since January 1953.

The appointment of the Board of Directors, standing (i.e., r.o.) are: Ray Budier, Madoz Koerner, Philip Ryan, Anne Ryan, Elizabeth Anderson, Ellen Helleges, William Anderson and Lawrence MacDonald.

Blue Cross Rise Doesn’t Apply
To Health Plans

The rate increase recently proposed by the major New York health insurance companies will not affect the health plans of the Blue Cross and Blue Shield Association for New York State, as the association has stated that the Blue Cross Rise is not applicable to them.

The Blue Cross Rise is a $300,000 grant to Group Health Insurance and Associated Hospital Service of New York (Blue Cross) does not apply to the Program for New York State employees, according to a joint announcement.

The two-year program was fully explained by representatives of the two associations which are available in the Metropolitan and Hudson Valley areas.

As a result of a previous announcement in The Leader, many members of the association were concerned about the Blue Cross Rise. However, the association has stated that the Blue Cross Rise is not applicable to the health plans.

Two NYC Chapter Members Get MAs

Sheldon R. Wason, executive secretary of the Associated Hospital Service of New York (Blue Cross), and Henry J. Tompkins, director of the Medical Department, have been awarded masters degrees in public health administration by New York University.

In satisfying requirements for degrees, both members completed an extensive research project on the management of plans in the New York area.

Their report, considered by members of the faculty as one of the most significant in the field, was published by the University.

Both are members of the Blue Cross Rise Fund Board of Associated Hospital Service Employees Association.
