Public employees who failed to apply to obtain social security coverage have one more chance to do so. And it will be the last chance.

Deadline to apply for retroactive coverage will be Sept. 28, as the new National Social Security Act of 1959 makes it possible for previously eligible employees to apply to obtain coverage for services during the retroactive period of Jan. 1, 1959, to the date of their application.

The re-opening came as a result of negotiations with the Federal government and was urged by the Civil Service Employees Association.

Aides Must Get Forms

Interested employees should immediately obtain the necessary forms from their personnel or payroll officers and file at once. John J. Peters, Civil Service commissioner, has urged all persons who failed to take advantage of Social Security to do so now.

Who Is Eligible

Here are the eligibility requirements:

In accordance with the provisions of chapter 138 of the Laws of 1959, the following employees shall be eligible for social security coverage under this law:

1. Employees of the Employees' Retirement System, Teachers' Retirement System, Correction Department, Government Pension Plan, and Military and Naval Affairs Pension plan who have not previously filed an application for Social Security under this law shall file such an application on or before September 29, 1959, if they were formerly employed by the State or the Federal government.

2. Employees of the Employees' Retirement System, Teachers' Retirement System, Correction Department, Government Pension Plan, and Military and Naval Affairs Pension plan who have previously filed an application for Social Security under this law shall file a new application on or before September 29, 1959, if they were formerly employed by the State or the Federal government.

The Conference expects candidates for the offices of president, vice president, secretary and treasurer to be nominated at the convention to be held Sept. 25 at the Warwick State School.

2 Seats Left For Capitol District

European Tour

Only two seats are open for the tour of Europe being sponsored by the Capitol District Conference of the Civil Service Employees Association, Hazel Abrams, president, announced.

The two leaves by plane directly from Albany to September 23.

Applicants for the remaining two seats available may have a choice of either purchasing the round trip air transportation or the whole tour. Price for air fare only is less than $100.

Those who wish to take the entire tour are offered a real bargain, Miss Abrams reported. For less than $750 they will receive round trip air transportation, all land transportation abroad, all hotel rooms, meals, sightseeing tours, night life entertainment in the capital cities, etc.

Applicants must be members of the Conference and the only other persons who can go are a member's spouse, children or par ents.

Miss Abrams announced that the final pair of seats open will be sold "on a first come, first served basis."

All persons interested should come to Albany on Monday and attend the State Education Dept., Albany.

Industrial Commissioner M. P. Calhew opened that a study of the operations of the Labor Department's Division of Research and Statistics showed that no change in location would be necessary before September 1, 1950.

Commissioner Calhew said that, in fact, the question whether any major function of the Division would be transferred, even after September 1, was still open to study. The Commissioner's statement was intended to put to rest speculation which arose as a result of his decision early in the year to make the Department headquarters at Albany. Commissioner Calhew said that it was possible that selected individual personnel from the Division would be transferred to Albany within the coming year but the number would not appear to exceed a half dozen and that there would be no immediate plan for such transfers.

In his statement, the Commissioner said that the whole question of the best integration of the Divisions of Research and Statistics has been carefully studied since the first of the year and that, on the basis of that study, it has been concluded that the Division should remain in New York City for the coming year.

When Commissioner Calhew first took office it was reported that wholesale moves of personnel from New York City to Albany would take place. The Commissioner said that the number of such moves would be small and that there would be no immediate plans for such transfers.
PBA Raps Kennedy Stand On Dues Checkoff, Denies It's 'Creeping Unionism'

John J. Cassese, president of the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association, has accused Police Commissioner Kenneth of going out of his way to stall a dues checkoff for PBA's 22,643 members, and has announced a State Supreme Court suit on Aug. 8 to compel the check-off. Mr. Cassese said the need for automatic payroll deductions has developed from a voluntary life insurance policy recently set up by the PBA for its members, with $1,000 coverage paid for by the contribution and another $1,000 paid for by each member. Because of the 21-day grace period for paying the insurance premium, it is often physically impossible for the PBA precinct delegates to collect from individuals, said Mr. Cassese.

It was indicated that the Commissioner opposed the dues checkoff as a form of "creeping unionism." Mr. Cassese said, "There's no unionization involved here."

He stated that there was legal authorization from the City for such a checkoff, and characterized Mr. Kennedy's stand as legally "irrelevant."

He said that Labor Commissioner Harold A. Felix said PBA was within its rights in asking for Clerk Louis L. Stutman to protest the inaction that's holding up further steps — such as directing Chief Law Enforcement Gerosa's office to hold the needed protection for the $28.70-a-day position of cement mason. Any employee of the Sanitation Department, the Borough President, and the Housing Authority will be based on the 31-day grace period for paying the insurance premiums.

The PBA head said that Loyal Harold A. Felix said PBA has announced a State Supreme Court suit on Aug. 8 to compel the check-off. Mr. Kennedy has announced a State Supreme Court suit on Aug. 8 to compel the check-off. Mr. Kennedy's stand as characterized by the PBA as "a checkoff, and characterized his "authorization from the City for the PBA precinct delegates to deduct dues from paychecks once a month on a voluntary basis."

Satisfactory Rating

Dr. Harry L. Shirley, right, dean, State University College of Forestry at Syracuse University, and John J. Kelly, Jr., administrative assistant to the New York State Employees Merit Award Board and the college, a Merit Award—the eight he has earned—Miss Elizabeth E. Klein of 1303 Carsba Drive, was among the top topics discussed at a meeting in Albany last week between representatives of the Civil Service Employees Association, headed by President John F. Powers, and Industrial Commissioner Martin F. Catherwood.

Present at the meeting with Commissioner Catherwood were: Mr. Powers; President of the State Civil Service Commission, Grover N. Gilbert, Labor Department representative of the Association; Constantine Mitchell, Chairman of the Division of Employment and Unemployment Insurance, Commissioner Catherwood confirmed the fact that the cut in Federal funds is planned to make very less than the bad hit the method we suggest, by compensating them for their unused sick leave accumulations about 150 days.

We believe the fair and equitable administration of personnel in today's world to be a difficult problem. The treatment of large masses of people always brings problems. The state is a large employer, with 100,000 people working for it. We know that rules of operation are necessary, but the maintenance of the state to operate as smoothly and efficiently as possible. We know that food are necessary to prevent waste, but we also believe that treating human beings with a positive rather than a negative attitude can be rewarding.

Most people like recognition. If they get it they are more often than not willing to gratefully repay that recognition in greater effort, rather than not willing to gratefully repay that recognition in greater effort, rather than not willing to gratefully repay that recognition in greater effort.

Commissioner Catherwood assured the representatives that as soon as he had reliable information, he would communicate that the effect would be substantial.

In Washington, Mr. Ives confirmed the fact that a cut in Federal funds is planned to make very less than the bad hit the method we suggest, by compensating them for their unused sick leave accumulations about 150 days.

Pattie's public—and not doing any visible good. This is a matter of protecting without paying overly high premiums. A total of 95 per cent has signed the check-off carried out in the city. His stand can make the police department stand. If unionism comes, it will not creep, the force need protection unless it can clearly be shown that the CSC said that lack of funds, lack of funds, paid out of PBA dues. Now there is a regular group of Federal agencies who have the authority to furnish any information that might be printed. It was only a little more than his next raise it would be okay—

The Police Checkoff

POLICE Commissioner Kennedy's delay in allowing a dues and insurance check-off to members of the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association is harming the police and the public—adding doing any visible good. This is more than the matter of "creeping unionism" that he has been talking about. This is a matter of protecting every man of them?

If neither was the case, the CSC petitioned to direct the Commissioner to senior attorney. The court held that the Commissioner can be shown not to warrant the continuance of the monthly benefits. I have not worked for disability benefits. I told her I should see about social security death, to your family in case of your social security... No Benefit. No. Benefits are not payable for disability sustained in private industry. A good part of private industry, in some City, State and Federal Agencies, is a policy of shortening hours to accomplish the same time pay. The court held that the Commissioner is not entitled to be paid to workers who are under 50 years of age six days at straight time, time and one-half for holidays when worked. This is another case...

QUEENS BUILDER URGES HOME BUYING NOW AS HEDGE AGAINST RISING COSTS

The prospective home buyer who waits too long is more than likely to pay a penalty for his delay before the end of the year, according to Charles Winsten of Amos Realty Corp., 147-16 101st Ave., Kew Gardens in Queens.

"Buying costs of materials and labor—the latest as a result of the recent current work stoppage—will be reflected in the end of new construction," Mr. Winsten said.

Home buyers should compete between now and September most immediately show an increase in price over comparable units built or begun within the past six months and now available for occupancy.

"By purchasing now, therefore, the new-home buyer can effect a substantial saving—an opportunity which is not likely to be available much longer, in view of the tremendous demand for new dwellings, particularly within New York City limits."

The Amos Realty construction program has been particularly intensive in the most desirable areas of Queens—So. Ozone Park, Rego Park, St. Albans, Hollis, Springford Gardens. Jamaica Hills, East Kew Gardens, where a wide variety of one-family ranch homes and apartment style two-family homes are now being offered, and where the sales figures compare more favorably with those of previous years.

As an additional inducement to immediate purchases, which will be offered, a new home buyer will be guaranteed a long-range advantage in saving to those who buy now in view of the severe restrictions which have already been imposed on mortgage financing for homes at current rates of interest.

NOTE: A busy, last-minute rush for the purchase of new homes began this summer, despite the fact that most such deals are already filled.

For that new home be sure to call Mezei Realty Corp. largest home builders in Queens at CL 4-8800.

CIVIL SERVICE LEADER

Tuesday, July 28, 1959
A change in minimum qualifications for the State Civil Service Life Insurance Exam has been defended by the State Civil Service Department as "sound and reasonable."

The Association of New York State Insurers recently asked the Civil Service Department to set aside minimum qualification changes it had proposed. The department had reduced the requirement of service in the grade from one year to six months.

In so doing, the department said it was acting on the recommendation of Saratoga Baptist and Joseph Altman, to compete in the promotion examination that they were not both qualified to pass the exam and that they had been serving less than six months.

"The change has been defended by the State Civil Service Department to set aside the requirement of service in the grade from one year to six months," the department said.
