Fely Addresses Washington, D.C. Conference On Retirement

Joseph F. Fely, president of the New York State Civil Service Employees Association, has been invited to address the 19th annual National Conference on Public Employee Retirement Systems being held June 1-3 in the Maxim-Hilton Hotel, Washington, D. C.

Mr. Fely, who will address the conference on June 3, has been asked particularly to speak on the development and adoption of the association's plan, whereby New York State employees—and local employees permanently—received an increase in their take-home pay by having the first five points established by employers in their retirement plans taken over by the State.

Fely Discusses Other Legislation

In addition, Mr. Fely will report to the conference on other important retirement legislation sponsored by the CSEA during the recent legislative session. This will include passage of the two-year death benefit and the granting of supplemental pensions to railroad workers.

The CSEA is a nation-wide conference and is headed by John R. Davis of the Massachusetts Association of Contributory Retirement Boards, Boston.

Kaplan Initiates Study On Ways To Up Benefits Of Health Insurance Plan

ALBANY, May 30 — H. Eliot Kaplan, president of the State Civil Service Employees Association, has initiated a study to determine what optional benefits might be added to the state health insurance program.

The cost of health insurance protection has gone up from 10 to 31 cents per day in recent years, and Kaplan feels a study might reflect in pay checks by May 13th for institution employees and by May 14th for department personnel.

The commission said the change in rates in '60 was necessary because of continued rise in cost of hospital services and by increased number of claims by enrollees.

Under the State's health insurance law, the surplus will be returned to the employees.

The chart below shows the charges both to employees and the State under each plan:

Joe Benedit Elected President Of Metropolitan Conference; Draws Up '61 Program Plan

Robert Benedit, State Insurance Department representative to the Board of Directors of the Civil Service Employees Association for 18 years, has been elected president of the CSEA Metropolitan Conference. His opponent was the incumbent, Irwin Schlesinger.

Following his election, Mr. Benedit announced he would submit the following program for 1961 to the Conference for adoption:

1. Gaining of an increase in salaries sufficient to bring State pay scales up to the levels in private industry and, in certain competitive actualities, to exceed these salaries when necessary.

2. Employee representation on the State Retirement System and Health Insurance Boards.

3. New officers will be installed at the 1960 session of the Legislature in regard to the retirement system, vesting of retirement rights, and also explained the ordinary disability retirement and the accidental disability retirement before age 60.

4. These measures were gains made by the CSEA in regard to the retirement system and the accidental disability retirement before age 60.

5. Claims for hospitalization, 26,792 of the department processed 16,094 more claims in 1960 than in the prior year.

6. There will be a Western Conference meeting held on Saturday, June 5 at the L'Alamo Castle Restaurant, Olean, N. Y. Cattaraugus and Cattaraugus County chapters plan for its services.
Personnel Aides in Training Conference

About 50 training aides from various hospitals met recently at the New York City Civic Center for a day's conference. The meeting was sponsored by the New York City Health Department and the Municipal Personnel Society.

The day's program included discussions on various aspects of personnel training, with sessions devoted to topics such as job description, job evaluation, and personnel policies. The program was designed to help hospitals improve their training programs and meet the needs of their staff.

Awards were presented to hospitals that had shown outstanding progress in their training programs. The awards were given in recognition of the hospitals' efforts to improve the quality of their training and to enhance the skills of their personnel.

The conference was well-attended, with representatives from hospitals across the city. The event was seen as an important step in the ongoing effort to improve personnel training in the health care sector.
By Harry W. Albright, Jr., CSEA Assistant Counsel

I discussed in last week's issue of the CSEA Letter the enactment of the increase-in-takes measure which substantially benefitted the State Retirement System by five percentage points. There are in addition, of the Leader, some of the results of the legislative program since that time. His pension effort and continuous selling, the Association has to its credit the enactment of a vesting program. Kven though this committee concurred with all members of the CSEA's requests to the Governor, the Association now finds itself faced with the fact that neither the Dewey nor the Harriman Administration ever sponsored a vesting measure. The Association concurred with all members of the Governor's request. Gov- ernor Rockefeller, prior to his election to office, stated that if he were elected in November, that he would, among other things, call for an "increase in supplemental pensions for retired employees under the State Retirement System." As a result, therefore, supplemental pensions became a part of the Governor's program for the State civil employees. Gover- nor's Approval

At the same time, Governor Rockefeller also signed a measure which would allow the retirement allowances provided in the Retirement System to be increased by a supplemental pension based upon any increase in living cost. As a result of the Governor's approval of these measures, the increased cost of living to re- tiree state employees will be increased by

Variable Annuities May Interest All Public Aides

As a result of the activities of the New York State Civil Service Employees Association some impressive gains in retirement legislation were made this year that not only benefited State employees but help public workers as well. These gains included a plan developed by the Employees Association whereby public agencies would pick up the first ordinary death benefit from one year to two, thus more nearly and the right for workers who leave State service to retain a discretionary living cost scale. In other words, funds would be invested as a service to all public workers. Book on City Government Airs Commissioners' Problem
In Naming Bureau Chiefs

The problems and the inside story of how a department head chooses a bureau chief gets some exposure in a new study of New York City government published last week by Russell Sage Foundation.
The book is titled: "Governing New York City." In its fact-packed pages, the actual workings of city government and politics get a thorough and frank go over beyond the usual scope of high school civics.

The complexity of New York City government becomes more apparent the more one learns of it. The authors of the book, two individuals who know a great deal about New York City government, are Wallace S. Sayre, Civil Service Commissioner in the LaGuardia administration, and Herbert Kaufman, a member of two commissions that have studied New York City government during the past decade.

Rules Limit Choice

Noting that "the rules and practiced under which the department head must act serve not only to limit his choice, but to place all save a few participants as a disadvantage in their opportunities to influence the department head," the authors point out that "the civil service law places one-quarter of the bureau chief positions in the competitive class and requires that the appointments be made from one of the top three eligibles. However, in "the Police Inspector," the chief inspector and other grades of lieutenants are appointed at the discretion of the Police Commissioner from among those holding the rank of lieutenant in the uniformed force.

In making these appointments the Police Commissioner, himself a graduate of the police bureaucracy, is subjected primarily to the rival pulls of police factions and his own personal ties, but other participants include party leaders, other officials, ethnic and religious groups, other participants in the examination process, and a simultaneous "public service" which he may resort to in selecting a bureau chief as his own choice while the examination process is under way. There is some chance that the "public service" appointment may be able to compete and thus become eligible for regular appointment, and the department head will at least have had his choice of oftice for a time."

Are You All At Sea

When It Comes To

Health Insurance?

There is no need to be! A few simple navigational aids will keep you off the rocks of unwanted doctor bills.

Before you embark on any program of medical care insurance, ask these five basic questions:

1. Does the plan provide its benefits without extra charges* over and above the premium?

2. Does the plan fully cover the cost of today’s expensive specialist services?

3. Does the plan assure coverage of the full cost of operations — regardless of how rare or costly the surgery would otherwise be?

4. Is the plan concerned with the quality of care rendered to you?

5. Can you continue with full benefits if you change your job or retire?

Only one health plan — H.I.P. — can give a “yes” answer to all of these questions.

*The only exception is a $2 charge for a home call requested and made between 10 P.M. and 7 A.M.

The New Expanded GHI FAMILY DOCTOR PLAN is the finest medical care insurance in the New York Metropolitan area

The New Expanded GHI FAMILY DOCTOR PLAN will be available to all groups of ten or more employees on July 1, 1960. This Plan removes the financial barriers which prevent people from seeking the prompt diagnosis and early treatments that are so important to modern medicine. By easing the burdens of medical expense, it encourages better medical care for its subscribers.

PAYMENTS FROM THE FIRST DOLLAR

The New Expanded GHI FAMILY DOCTOR PLAN provides insurance protection against the very first dollar of expense for medical care. There are no "deductibles". Benefits are paid for preventive medical care as well as for treatment of illness — and these benefits also begin with the first visit.

DOCTOR BILLS PAID-IN-FULL

Thousands of GHI participating doctors in the New York Metropolitan area have agreed to accept GHI allowances as payment-in-full for their services if the patient notifies his participating doctor before receiving services that he is a GHI subscriber and, in hospitalized cases, applies for and uses semi-private or ward accommodations.

FREE CHOICE OF DOCTOR

If the subscriber chooses to seek care from a non-participating doctor, GHI pays the same allowances, but the patient is liable for the difference, if any, between these allowances and the doctor's charges.

TRULY MODERN MEDICAL INSURANCE

The advances of modern medical science — including the development of dramatic new surgical and anesthetiological and x-ray, emphasis on preventive care, progress in dealing with mental and nervous disorders and the introduction of miracle drugs — can now cure conditions which were impossible to treat only a few short years ago. However, these medical advances have been paralleled by rising costs.

The New Expanded GHI FAMILY DOCTOR PLAN extends coverage to these new areas of medical care; raises benefits to pay more adequately for such complex procedures as open heart and brain surgery; encourages early diagnosis and prompt treatment of illness; and eliminates unnecessary hospitalization through coverage for out-of-hospital X-ray and diagnostic tests. In short, it is a realistic approach to the economics of modern medicine.

COVERAGE FOR THE RETIRED

Subscribers covered for five years who retire from the group in which they are enrolled may continue their full FAMILY DOCTOR PLAN coverage without a physical examination with a non-cancelable, direct-payment contract. Premiums are at community group rates, which are substantially lower than the usual charges for such contracts.

GHI — THE OLDEST AND THE MOST ADVANCED

GHI is the oldest, non-profit medical care insurance organization in the New York Metropolitan area. It has been the pioneer in doctor bill insurance. GHI, in 1942, was the first to institute insurance against the cost of medical care in the hospital. In trail blazing continued when it introduced such new coverages as: 1) paid-in-full benefits for unlimited home and office care, with free choice of doctor; 2) a pilot project of insurance against the cost of short-term psychiatric treatments, both in and out of the hospital; and, 3) the first community-wide dental care insurance plan in the United States through its non-profit "sister" corporation, Group Health Dental Insurance, Inc. (GHDI). The New Expanded GHI FAMILY DOCTOR PLAN is the result of the experience of these many years.

There are currently more than 600,000 GHI subscribers and dependents.

PLEASE COMPARE

Compare the benefits, premiums, exclusions and limitations of the New Expanded GHI FAMILY DOCTOR PLAN with those of your current group insurance program. Write your inquiries for full details: telephone Spring 7-6000, ext. 10, or write Dept. IH.

Van Wey Corrects South Conference Missive

Elaine Van Wey, who was listed in a previous edition of The Leader as a candidate for president of the Southern Conference of the Civil Service Employees Association, has advised The Leader he is no longer seeking this post.

At Mr. Van Wey's request, the following letter is presented:

I was most distressed to read the list of nominations for candidacy of Southern Conference in the "leader" issue of May 17, 1969. I did not accept the nomination of President in a formal written letter to Mr. Charles Lamb, Chairman of Nominating Committee, on July 2, 1969.

Emi Bidman has advised me he also declined the candidacy.

I therefore feel justified in calling this to your attention for clarification and retraction.

I fully intend to run for the office of first vice president, Southern Conference.

Poughkeepsie Public Works Chapter Meet

The Poughkeepsie chapter of the Civil Service Employees Association, Department of Public Works, held its quarterly meeting at the Italian Center recently. A buffet dinner was served, Charles Pyers, president, headed the meeting.

The guest speaker was Thomas J. Louisoppia, CSEA field representative, who reviewed employee benefits for the chapter. Business was transacted, also a monthly meeting at the Irving mobile bureau.

Death Benefit

The two year ordinary death benefit provides that beneficiaries of employees who die in State service receive one month's pay for each year of service between 11 and 25, and then two months' pay for each year of service thereafter. In the event the employee's gross salary exceeds the two month's pay, the additional amount is payable.

In addition to the payable amount which is paid by the State, the bill raises the minimum pension for retired employees based upon the increase in cost of living. This bill was opposed by the retirees who have been hurt by the consumer inflation.
