Flame Is His Daily Bread

Fireman First Grade Robert W. Jackson, along with other members of Engine Company 67, was stretching hose line up the interior stairs of a burning apartment building at 314 W. 17th St., Manhattan, at 3:30 p.m. Friday, May 13. Little did he know that within an hour he would be badly burned and very much a hero.

Flames were licking along the upper portion of the door of apartment 32 and Mrs. Strauss, was still inside.

Fireman Jackson went into the apartment after her, passing through flames and extreme heat, and came out not having been burned in the head he'd been on nor had ventilation been affected.

He failed to locate Mrs. Strauss and was forced back out of the apartment by the heat. Then he heard the grandmother calling for help, and following her voice he perceived the burning rooms to find her.

When Fireman Jackson reached her side in the apartment's kitchen, she was in a state of hysteria. He found there was no way out but the way he had come in. By this time flames were moving out but the way he had come in.

Fireman Jackson went into the kitchen. Mrs. Strauss and was taken to Mother Cabrini for treatment of her burns.

To protect your savings against health expenses . . .

Choose BLUE CROSS and BLUE SHIELD

Health care is one of the most costly of the unexpected expenses, which can upset family savings. This year, more than 500,000 American families will have health bills which amount to more than their annual income. Inflation and advances in medical science have driven the cost of health care up sharply since World War II.

To protect their savings against such unexpected expenses, more than 250,000 civil service employees in New York State have Service Benefits as part of their Blue Cross and Blue Shield protection.

Blue Cross Service Benefits are covered-in-full hospital services for most civil service employees who receive non-maternity care in semi-private rooms of general hospitals.

Blue Shield Service Benefits are covered-in-full services provided by one of the more than 23,000 Participating Physicians in New York State to civil service employees, whose incomes fall within certain limits.

When Service Benefits are not apply, Blue Cross and Blue Shield subscribers eligible for protection receive liberal cash allowances.

By making regular subscription payments to Blue Cross and Blue Shield, civil service workers are actually budgeting for hospital and doctor bills and . . . relieving themselves of much of the worry about what unexpected accidents or illnesses could do to their savings.

ALBANY, June 13 — Capital District Conference European tours, Reminder On Passports, Vaccination

Standing in its office a member of the board of a round trip plane ride and one of the two organized tours of Europe began to talk about "groaning against public and private officials".

In a speech to the American Society of Professional Journalists, President John Adams said:

"I am hopeful that in the next legislative session all of the interested parties will have an opportunity to meet again and resolve their problems."

He added that a proposal which provides for an escape from tax laws and obviates the objections contained in the Governor's veto.

BILLS PASSED BUT OPPOSED

The Association objected to Chapter 1016 of the Laws of 1963 which transfers the administration of the State Civil Service Law with respect to school districts to local control.

Under the former law, the State Civil Service Commission was required to administer the Civil Service Law with problems relating to the school districts. It has become more evident over the years, that the State had to give up some of its powers for the State Civil Service Commission to effectively administer the civil service. Instead of providing sufficient funds to do the job, the Department of Public Welfare was encouraged.

"I disapproved last year (May 1963) a bill which would have imposed similar penalties on employees who were employed at harness tracks if he had worked at tracks if he had not worked at a harness racing track."

I have been told that the existing law which now permits employment of all permanent employees in the competitive Civil Service provides insufficient funds for the Civil Service Law with respect to school districts for the several magistrates and agents of public officials is sure to drive them at will.

I quote John Adams in draft: "I disapproved last year (May 1963) a bill which would have imposed similar penalties on employees who were employed at harness tracks if he had worked at tracks if he had not worked at a harness racing track."

Compromise Retirees’ Health Plan Offered

The only hope remaining for the enactment in 1900 of a government-sponsored health plan seems to be a new compromise bill by Rep. John Loebl (D-Mich.), which does away with two aspects of the previous bill that the Administration found objectionable.

The two major differences lay in the effective date and the number of plans to be offered. The new bill would be effective July 1, 1901, instead of Jan. 1, 1900, and would limit the number of plans from the proposed 40 to two active in the Federal employee health benefit program to just one government-wide plan.

The biggest obstacle left now is to get the bill through the House Civil Service Committee, where a crowded calendar might cause it to be held over until next year.

Good BARGAINING Points For the Crossing Guards

THE REAL VALUE to the people of New York City of their school crossing guards is pointed out by the honorable mention awards being presented two of them who were seriously injured pushing school children out of the path of fast-moving vehicles. The awards are to be presented at the School Crossing Guards Association meeting Friday, June 17, in the Mabel Dean Bacon Vocational High School, Manhattan.

Aside, according to Crossing Guards President Elia McElroy, four guards have been seriously injured since February, but dry as they guarded their crossings.

The guards receive a salary of $1.00 an hour and are seeking a raise through negotiations with the Budget Bureau. It seems to us that the number and seriousness of the injuries these women sustain in the line of duty are very good bargaining points.

The Squeeze Is On

TQ THIS WEEK saw several reports in the press which claimed state employees were being pressured into buying $100 tickets for a political event. We are glad to hear that the state official in question has renounced against such pressures, but at the same time, dismayed to hear a leading legislative figure in the state declare that he was selling tickets to be keen in comment on the matter because I'm not going to discuss party operations in the newspaper.

We think the Civil Service should be immune from such pressures and to our mind the whole business is low grade and probably illegal.

Let us hope that such selling tactics, having been exposed, will now cease. If so, this newspaper would appreciate hearing from any employee who feels he is being unfairly subjected to contribute to any party's funds. Names will be kept in confidence but the seller will be identified in these columns.

LAW & YOU

Questions Answered

On Social Security

Below are questions on Social Security problems sent in by our readers and answered by a legal expert in the Social Security Service, Robert W. Service, 79 Dane St., New York.

I became 72 years of age in the last part of last year. I have not been drawing Unemployment Insurance because I have been working at my regular job. My employer told me that I cannot receive benefits regardless of my earnings. Is this correct?

a. Benefits are payable to an individual beginning with the month he reaches 72 regardless as to the amount of wages he earns.

b. You should contact your social security office immediately.

c. If I file for a benefit because of my age and I am denied and later turn 72, can I file again?

d. There is no, the same method of figuring is used when you qualify for a disability payment as would be used if you were age 65.

What is the maximum payment a disabled person may receive?

The maximum is $85.83.

Although I am 65 years old, I am working at a part-time basis. Can I still collect my benefits?

You can make up to $1,080 a year and still receive a social security check for every month of the year.

If a disabled person ceases to be disabled, does he have to repay the amount of benefits which he received and his dependents' benefits?

The benefits will be terminated for both the disabled person and his dependents. The last payments will be made for the month before the month in which the person's disability ended.
Monroe County employees now have the privilege of participating in one of the finest Accident and Health programs in existence for public employees. Through the avenue of payroll deductions, you may have your premium deducted for the C.S.E.A.'s accident and health plan, which has been in existence since 1936. The plan has a proven record of service through benefits paid to State and County employees who were totally disabled. Claim checks are very tangible benefits, indeed, to the claimant and his family, because in addition to your continuing routine overhead expenses you also have additional costs. The C.S.E.A. sponsors the plan to provide the benefit, Monroe County is sponsoring the method to provide for "PAINLESS PREMIUM PAYMENTS" payroll deductions.

The plan is underwritten by The Travelers Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn. Historically, the Travelers has been and is one of the leaders in the insurance industry. Many of today's standard forms of insurance protection were conceived by the Travelers. Accordingly, the Travelers was the first insurance company to offer accident insurance in America. More than 3,000,000 employees are insured by its accident and sickness programs. The Company pays over $2,000,000 in the average working day to or on behalf of its policy holders.

Ter Bush & Powell, Inc., your administrative agency, has been a pioneer in providing income protection plans for the leading employees, professional and trade associations of New York State. Its staff of trained Accident and Health counselors is always ready to serve you.

The three seals appearing below are symbols of the very realistic security program available to Monroe County employees. The C.S.E.A., the Travelers Insurance Company and Ter Bush & Powell, Inc., work for you.

Messrs. Tom Cnty, Tom Farley and George Wachob, will be contacting you for the purpose of acquainting you with the details and the benefits of the plan. When they contact you, feel free to ask questions. It is, in fact, your plan and is the answer to the question "Where do I get money when I am totally disabled by either accident or illness?"

Disability Income Insurance is your solution to this ever present problem. The C.S.E.A. made it possible. Messrs. Cnty, Farley and Wachob will be available to answer your questions and to put the plan to work for you and/or your family.

CSEA Counsel's Report On 1960 Session of Legislature

We consider this measure to be a definite step backwards in the administration of the merit system. It was our contention that the best solution in the interest of proper administration of the merit system would be to retain jurisdiction in the Civil Service Commission, and to provide funds for a staff sufficient to do administrative work, in the interest of efficiency.

Repeals Section 25B of the Election Law Which Provided That Any Person Entitled to Vote Shall, on the Day of Election, be Entitled to Time Off For a Period of Two Hours While the Polls of the Election Are Open

The Association also opposed Chapter 357 of the Laws of 1960 which repeals Section 25B of the Election Law, Section 25B of the former law, which limited the amount of time any person entitled to vote shall be on the day of election, he entitled to two hours. The proposed law would reduce such a period of two hours while the polls of the election are open. The last amendment to the Civil Service Retirement Law, was sponsored by the Civil Service Employees Association, and provided that civil service employees shall also be entitled to a period of time off for a period of two hours while the polls of election are open.

The new law sets up a complicated formula authorizing "sufficient time off of an employee, working hours within which to vote at any election," and further requires the employees to notify his employer no more than 10 nor less than two working days before the election that he requires time off to vote.

We opposed this bill on the grounds that it is contrary to the interest of the public, and that it means help but delay due to the inexcusable delay.

We believe the provisions of this bill will delay largely in the field of diversion.

CONCLUSION

A full listing of all Association bills has been started in earlier issues of The Leader. Let us know of any necessary items to treat each of the bills and any new bills that may come up. We shall be at your service and any detail, no matter how successful or unsuccessful the individual efforts may be during the legislative session, it seems clear that the results of the session were far beyond the expectations of many of our members. I am sincere to all of our able leaders and all others who have been so helpful, both in the writing of this report and during the legislative session itself.

There are two names, however, which I would like to single out for particular thanks — namely Milton Alpert and Max Weinstein, who did such good work with respect to the five percentage points bill.
