CASTLE HEARS ABOUT HIGHWAY

Due to popular request, the leader is submitting, in a series of installments, the text of a speech on new retirement legislation by Max R. Weinstein, associate to the State Insurance Fund.

The talk was given at the Metropolitan-Northwestern CBA's 17th Annual Spring Workshop, held on April 29 at the Conrad Hotel.
Employees Slighted by Democratic Platform

U. S. employees have been somewhat slighted by the Democratic platform in its service plank. For instance, one of the party’s traditional planks is to support and strengthen the career service—this year it was not mentioned.

Another worker of the platform committee was silent on one issue that employee organization leaders had expected some statement on, that was a pledge to strengthen and support the career service—this year it was not mentioned.

The convention also limited its support for better pay and working conditions to postal employees. It included 2 million other federal employees, including a million postal workers, without even a reference. This seems strange since in the recent pay raise pushed past the President’s veto, postal employees received more benefits than any other. Previous Democratic platforms have strongly endorsed fair pay rates for all government employees.

The Clark Bill

The Clark Bill, which would “authorize” certain civil service employees to join an executive branch union, has been seconded by Senator John F. Kennedy. The bill’s sponsor is James Martin, assistant administrator and gives the Civil Service Commission the power to represent the employees unless it is committed itself one way or the other.

A Living Wage for Govt. Employees in India

GOVERNMENT employees in the United States received a little bit of a shock last week reading about their counterparts in India. It seems that government employees in India now receive $1.05 a month and an extra cost of living allowance to investigate the State Social Security. In India the civil servant rates high. The Leader office and were surprised to note the comments are for terms ending July 31 at the guiding stick, or are you just contented that your name is on the list? Letters to the Editor

Letters to the editor must be signed and be submitted for publication upon request. They should be no longer than 300 words and must be written in a clear, easy-to-read style. They may be edited for clarity and brevity.

A minor item in New York Mayor Wagner's "Highlights of the Executive Expense Budget for 1960-61" tells a great deal in six lines:

"Increased revenues from management studies and budget cuts total $19.5 million, including reduction of positions to the minimum of the desk audits and elimination of 1,400 positions. This will aggregate 5,400 positions dropped in 3 years, at a saving of $24 million annually, including fringe benefits."

During this period the city payroll has not dropped. Expanded services in other fields, the changeover required by civil service reform from its inception all agree in the conclusion that the power of selection for a public office is and should be vested in the people and is governed by the civil service commission; that a civil service commission should have this power, which from the latter had at least a reasonable range of selection. There is no reason why I should write on the essence of the short end list when I can quote the language from the opinions. In the Mosher case the Court of Appeals wrote:

"That it is seen that the authorities upon the subject and the legislature have recognized the necessity for the Senate to the Civil Service Commission to provide for original appointments. The start would require an amendment to the law.

The short end list started at the turn of the century in the early days of development of the civil service law. It stemmed from two decisions, People v. Mosher in 1900 and People v. Roberts in 1906. The courts of Appeals felt at the time that selection should be made by the appointing power, not by the civil service commission; so that a civil service commission should have the power to give the appointments. The amendment to the law was then made.

The short end list started at the turn of the century in the early days of development of the civil service law. It stemmed from two decisions, People v. Mosher in 1900 and People v. Roberts in 1906. The courts of Appeals felt at the time that selection should be made by the appointing power, not by the civil service commission; so that a civil service commission should have the power to give the appointments. The amendment to the law was then made.

The amendment to the law was then made.

The City of New York is giving to the people of the city an opportunity to help in the building of a new City Hall. The citizens of New York are invited to contribute to the fund for the construction of the new City Hall.

The City Hall, which was completed in 1872, has been in use for over 100 years. It is now becoming overcrowded and in need of repair. The new City Hall will be built on the same site as the old one, but will be much larger and better equipped.

The cost of the new City Hall will be approximately $30 million. The construction will take about 5 years and be completed in 2023.

The City of New York is inviting people to contribute to the fund for the construction of the new City Hall. Contributions can be made in any amount, and will be matched by the city. Contributions can be made online or by mail.

To contribute online, go to the City of New York website and click on the "City Hall" link. You will be taken to a page where you can make a donation.

To contribute by mail, send a check payable to "City of New York" to City Hall Fund, 1 Centre Street, New York, NY 10007.

Aid to qualified persons for the construction of the new City Hall is available. Contact the City Hall Fund at 212-343-3434 for more information.

The new City Hall will be a landmark for the City of New York and will provide much-needed space for the City Hall office.

The City of New York thanks everyone for their support and looks forward to the completion of the new City Hall in 2023.

Syracuse CSEA Has June Dinner

Almost 300 members of the Syracuse chapter, Civil Service Employees Association, and their friends attended the CSEA dinner meeting, held this year at Tobin's Restaurant on June 27, and heard dapper engineer and transportation engineer for the Department of Public Works deliver an interesting outline of the arterial highway system area around Syracuse.

Raymond Castle, second vice president of the Association, was master of ceremonies and Chapter President Peter Volmes gave a summary of the chapter's accomplishments. Sources included Representation Association representative Benjamin Roberts and Association President Vernon Tapner and Mrs. Tapner, Mrs. Earle E. Towill, Mrs. Raymond Castle and Mrs. Peter Volmes. Chairman for the meeting was John C. Wolf and the Department of Public Works Ruth Sewell, chairman, was honored on June 24 as a dinner held at Tobin's Restaurant was presented, and was with only the traditional gift, but a black handbag to put it in. She retired this month after eleven years with the Department of Employment, having worked in Niagara Falls and Syracuse, and plans to travel for awhile and visit members of her family before returning to her home in Syracuse. Supervisor Irving Kasenberg has returned from a brief hospital stay, just in time to attend an Industrial Relations conference held this season at Kutscher's.

SAY AS MUCH AS

30% NOT LESS THAN 15% ON AUTO INSURANCE

IN NEW YORK STATE you save 30% on Collision and Comprehensive coverages and 15% on Liability coverages.

IN OTHER STATES you save more on Collision and Comprehensive coverages. You save most as low as 40% on Liability coverages (exact savings depend on the state in which you live).

And You May Pay Your Premiums in Three Convenient Installments.

These rates are on file with state insurance regulatory authorities and represent the lowest savings from Bureau Rates.

HOW GEICO SAVINGS ARE POSSIBLE

1. GEICO pioneered and perfected the "direct-to-the-policyholder" sales system which successfully eliminates the major expenses of the customary method of selling auto insurance.

2. GEICO insures only persons in its eligible "preferred risk" groups — those drivers who are identified by preferred rates.

3. The low GEICO premium is the full cost of your insurance — there are no membership fees, no assessments or other non-claim charges of any kind.

HERE IS THE PROTECTION YOU GET

You get exactly the same standard family automobile policy used by most leading insurance companies, and you are fully protected wherever you drive in the United States and its possessions. A GEICO automobile insurance policy can comply with the Financial Responsibility Laws of all states, including the compulsory insurance requirements of New York and North Carolina.

GEICO is one of the largest insurers of automobiles in the U.S., is rated A4- (Excellent) by Best's Insurance Reports, the industry's authority on insurance company reliability.

COUNTRY-WIDE PERSONAL CLAIM SERVICE

Claims specialists are strategically located throughout the United States and its possessions (46 of them are in the New York City area). They are ready to serve you day or night-24 hours a day. You get prompt settlement without red tape or delay. The speed and fairness of claims handling is one important reason why more than 600,000 persons now insure with GEICO and why 87 out of every 100 renew their expiring policies each year.

I am completely disabled and only 30 years old. Under Social Security, am I entitled to receive disability benefits? Why?

It is extremely important that you apply for a disability claim because this is the only way you can assure that benefits payable to you in the future will not be lowered or forfeited entirely because you are unable to work any more.

I am 51 years old. My wife is 51 and we have three children, ages 7, 8, and 11. In October, 1950, my wife had a heart attack, and my doctor tells me I’ll never be able to work again. I understand that I can receive social security disability benefits beginning with May 1960. But what about my family? Will they be able to receive benefits also?

Yes. You and your wife should apply now for benefits for yourselves and your children. If your claim is approved, your wife’s benefits will be payable to all of you beginning with May 1960.

I was involved in an automobile accident and have been unable to work for about five months. The doctor says I should be able to go back to work in a few more weeks. Am I eligible to receive social security disability benefits for the months I’m not working?

No. Social security disability benefits are not payable on account of injuries received in a motor vehicle accident.

In order for your wages to be included in your social security benefits, it is necessary that you employ an insurance company or the Social Security Administration to receive the benefits.

I have often heard that my employer will show your name and social security number directly on your paycheck and you will receive benefits also?

It is impossible to determine the amount of any individual’s benefits or amount of any benefit payable to any individual until the claim is approved.
