former Newburgh Leader Praises CSEA Efficiency in Work for Employees

NEWBURY, Aug. 1 — The Civil Service Employees Association received the applause of the former city manager of Newburgh, at a dinner in his honor.

Albert J. Abrams, who recently resigned his post to become a real estate broker, attended the dinner. Members of the community and city employees were also in attendance.

During his term in the Newburgh office, Mr. Abrams said, a sick leave program for city employees had been put into effect. The plan is believed to be the first such program public employees of that community have had.

Among other benefits, it provides for one day a month sick leave. Leave up to 30 days can be accumulated under terms of the plan.

The Newburgh Common Council presented Mr. Abrams with a pair of Lincoln-head hooked rugs. He received a calendar desk set from city employees. He will leave Newburgh for Albany on Monday to begin his new job.

ALBANY, Aug. 1 — The Civil Service Employees Association is seeking an increase in salary for three job classifications in the State Department of Employment.

Briefs have already been filed with the Commission for a hearing.

The hearing, ordinarily scheduled for Wednesday, will consider pay hikes for Unemployment Insurance Claim Examiners, Employment Interviewer and Unemployment Insurance Claims Clerks.

The Newburgh hearing date has been cancelled, but another date is expected to be set.

A spokesman for the Association said arguments comparing this State's schedule for these jobs with other states show the reason for the "serious recruitment problem" faced by the Department of Employment.

Felly Lauds Oswego Action Granting Its Employees 5 Points

ALBANY, Aug. 1 — Joseph P. Felly, president of the Civil Service Employees Association, has praised the City of Oswego, Honorably Ralph Linqua, and the Common Council, for their action in allowing workers to opt out of certain deductions.

The law provides that a municipality may assume a portion of the employees' annuity contributions to the retirement system and give that portion to the employees in their place.

Mr. Felly's letter follows:

"I have just learned that, through your efforts and those of the Common Council, employees of the City of Oswego are going to be allowed the benefits of Chapter 289 of the Laws of 1960 which will result in the city employees of Oswego receiving a 5% increase in their take-home pay. The law provides that a municipality may assume a portion of the employees' annuity contributions to the retirement system and give that portion to the employees in their place."

Mr. Felly's letter continues:

"I am rendering my personal appreciation to the Moorhead Grant for this item. The civil service employees of Oswego who are members of the Retirement System, I know, will certainly be appreciative of the added dollars to their pay envelopes."

Implications of New Retirement Laws Spelled Out By Weinstein

Due to popular request The Leader is presenting, in a series of installments, the text of a speech on new retirement legislation by Max R. Weinstein, actuary to the New York State Employers' Retirement System.

The talk was given at the Metropolitan-Southern Conference, of the American Institute of Actuaries, April 25 at the Conrad Hotel, Rock Island.

In their issues of The Leader, the Five Point Plan and the Illinois Business Review, Mr. Weinstein takes up the supplement pensions and the death benefit.

Supplement Pensions

"I believe another important milestone is being broken in connection with the provision of supplement pensions. We have had a Supplemental Pension Plan on our books since 1932. The supplemental pension was at first considered as a device to provide a measure of welfare benefit, to be paid in addition to any qualified retirement allowance. In those days, the welfare allowance was so small that they cannot live on it.

But, in the case of persons retired under the old supplemental pension law provided that the maximum supplemental pension payable to anyone was $1,200 a year. This law was amended in 1940 to increase the maximum supplemental pension to $1,800 a year. The supplemental pension was based on a formula which provided a certain minimum dollar amount for each year of service, but also contained the provision that the maximum supplement to any one person would not exceed $1,200 a year. This formula was liberalized somewhat, but the basic concept of a welfare plan was retained.

"For some years now the Comptroller has been studying this subject. The Comptroller has been looking into the needs of the retirees from the former Civil Service system who have not been entitled to pension benefit. These people had retired after many years of service on an annuity basis, and it has been the plan of the Center to provide them with a measure of income after retirement and to provide them with the means to maintain their purchase of goods and services. This formula was liberalized somewhat, but the basic concept of a welfare plan was retained.

"It was the Comptroller's desire to ensure that the maximum pension would offset this ending of inflation; that the formula be retained, so as to offset the effects of inflation. For that purpose a formula was devised which would provide a supplement expressed as a percentage of the first $3,000 of salary for each year of service.

"This formula was approved by the board of trustees in 1932, in order to offset the effects of inflation.

"The Comptroller has strongly advocated such a measure for several years. I am glad to report that this year, it finally passed. We have an act which provides a supplement expressed as a percentage of the first $5,000 of salary for each year of service which is included in the ordinary death benefit.

"In accordance with Rule 111, sub-division 1, of these Rules, the percentage would be increased to 4% for those employees who have more than 15 years of service before retirement. The increase in the amount of the death benefit is based on 4% of the annual salary to such employees who have more than 15 years of service before retirement. The increase in the amount of the death benefit is based on 4% of the annual salary to such employees who have more than 15 years of service before retirement. AFGE Unit Asks For Optional Social Security

The American Federation of Government Employees' Social Security Security Lodge, No. 1700, has announced resolutions, to be presented to the AFGE convention in Cincinnati, on August 29, endorsing enactment of legislation extending social security coverage on an optional basis to all Federal employees.

Robert N. Nash, the Lodge's president, said he had been reliably informed that "many lodges of our national union are gathering forces to seek passage of this important legislation."

The resolution reads:

"Now, therefore, be it resolved that it is the considered opinion of the strongest possible terms that the enactment of legislation extending social security coverage on an optional basis to all Federal employees must be considered an important matter of national importance. Be it further resolved that the American Federation of Government Employees, in Convention assembled, endorses and seeks immediate passage of such legislation..."

Nearly 1.5 Million
Enroll in Health Plan

With 35 of the 38 participating health plans reporting, figures released today show that 1.5 million Federal employees have enrolled in the Federal employee health benefits program.

The enrollment figures are based on the number of registration forms received by participating carriers by the close of business on July 15. The breakdown by class is:

- Government-wide Service Benefits Plan: Blue Cross-Blue Shield, 400,000, or 27 percent of the total registration.
- Dental Plan: Aetna Life Insurance Company, 114,000; Federal Credit Union, 39,000.

NFFE Attacks 3% Reduction in Jobs

The National Federation of Federal Employees has charged that arbitrary applications of the President's directive to reduce Federal jobs by three percent could "seriously and adversely affect programs vital to the security and welfare of the nation."

NFFE president Vaux Owen said that "arbitrary across-the-board actions to bring about job reductions are inexcusable and unwise."

"The directive," he continued, "calls for reductions in force by non-filling of vacancies by failing to fill vacancies as they occur, by refusing to establish new positions, and by layoffs work to old employees. In many instances key positions are left vacant by resignations, retirements, reassignments or death."

"Failure to establish new positions, when new positions are urgently needed for new programs, can be hurtful and not helpful to the nation. It is neither sound business nor a pragmatic approach to national security."

"How adverse the effects the present directive will have will depend upon the way in which it is applied, the results will be both serious and hurtful."

"The real issue is whether the wise nation is best served by a Government adequately staffed by qualified employees or by one operating under mandated arbitrary reductions indiscriminately applied to all agencies except those which keep the employees remaining after previous cut-backs," he concluded.

Candidates' Backing of Employees Sees Vague

The two Presidential Candidates, Senator Kennedy and the President Nixon, have both voted for employee reforms. Kennedy, in the Senate and Nixon as a member of the House and Senate, but neither have been leading figures in such legislation.

Kennedy was one of the first presidential candidates to speak out for a Federal pay raise, earlier in the year, but he was absent for the voting on the pay bill. He did vote to override the President's veto, but he didn't speak in favor of his position.

Nixon was represented as believing the pay raise issue could have been handled better, although he didn't oppose the President on it. Most employee leaders feel he is more sympathetic towards employees than the President, but there is not much of concrete value to support this view.

Mr. Nixon was partially responsible some time ago for the firing of employees whom he imported were distasteful and had been fired for security reasons. Many of them were later cleared and restored to their jobs, and others were still counted as security risks after leaving the service, and were unaware of the changes.

The major mark against Kennedy as far as employees are concerned is in his outspoken opposition to a reduction of the 40-hour work week. He says this it not the time to cut down and take things easy.

It appears, then, that Federal employees are not left with any firm line in追求 the best candidate in terms of aid for employee reforms. Both have spoken out, somewhat vaguely, for more benefits to Federal aides, but neither has really done much. And there is little reason to believe that the campaign vacation will cease on November 6th.

Broome Chapter Urges Proposals

The officers of the Civil Service Employees Association chapter at Broome County Home and Hospital, Binghamton, N.Y., met recently with the employees committee of the Board of Supervisors to discuss the chapter's requests for 1961. The Board was urged to take favorable action.

The chapter's proposals consisted of the following seven points:

1. Reduce the employee's retirement contribution by the 8 percent that was made permissible for the municipalities.
2. Increase mileage for privately owned cars used in county business from 8 cents to 10 cents per mile.
3. Freeze in the $300 cost-of-living in present salary ranges.
4. Add one increment after 15 years service and retain the present increment after 25 years of service. We feel that an added incentive should be afforded the employee to continue working for the county after attaining the maximum in his or her particular salary range. This could be achieved we feel, by the establishment of a system of extra increments based on longevity of service.
5. Evaluation of the present vacation plan with the following: 1 year of service to receive 1 week vacation; 2 years service to receive 2 weeks vacation; 10 years service to receive 3 weeks vacation; 15 years service to receive 4 weeks vacation.
6. A percentage increase of 5 percent for all employees. The City of Binghamton has granted percentage raises to its employees for the past three years.
7. Conduct an evaluation study for all Broome County employee salaries in line with our written request of January 20, 1960.

Inmates at Attica Prison Graduate from Classes

Warren, Walter H. Wilkins, of Attica Prison, presented 82 diplomas and certificates to inmates at the prison's annual commencement exercises, held recently.

Thirty-eight of the men honored were earning secondary-school diplomas; one man received his regents diploma; the other diplomas were earned through Cornell Agricultural College and the International Correspondence Schools of Scranton, Pa.

One man was awarded a certificate of achievement for planning in the upper 10 per cent in a mathematics contest sponsored by the Mathematical Association of America and the Society of Actuaries.

W. William Burgen, Corrections Commissioner, was the guest speaker. His message to the graduating class was one of encouragement. He urged them to take advantage of the educational advantages offered them in the prison school.

He said that he has a somewhat contradictory roll to play in that he sentences men to prison and at the same time he will hold them up for the respect and esteem they are entitled to. He said that they are entitled to do what he can in addresses before civic groups, business organizations and prison groups to persuade people to help men confined, who are eligible for release.

He said it is the duty of society to help persons re-establish themselves in the community after they have paid their debt to society.

A total of 853 men were enrolled during the year in organized education at Attica Prison. Of these 146 wore assigned to the account clerk, grade 6, and senior secretaries or those of the State or Federal group.
