Public Servants Loyally Dedicate Say Lefkowitz; Cites Lag In Advantages

"While we have made significant advances in salaries of employees, redress of grievances, pensions and other benefits, the public employee still falls far short of the advantages enjoyed by his brother in private employment," Attorney General Louis J. Lefkowitz said last week.

The Attorney General addressed the New York City Chapter of the Civil Service Employees Association, Inc., and installed new officers of the organization at a dinner meeting at Ganser's Restaurant, 76 Dean Street, New York City.

In his address to the Association chapter, the Attorney General said: "Government and its employees must join forces in a vigorous program to raise public esteem for the civil service.

Too Much Spotlight

"As in every line of human endeavor there are the few unprincipled persons who prove false to their trust, so, too, the employee in private industry does something wrong. It rarely merits widespread public attention. But every breach of the public employee is displayed in the news media and reflects upon the entire civil service."

"We have seen far too much of this in recent days. "I do not feel for one moment condone those who are false to their obligations. They deserve public censure and such punishment as is prescribed for their acts. But their fellow employees, and on all levels, are dedicated public servants. They need not shrink from any tests of comparison with the men and women in private industry.

"While we have made significant progress in the field of salary, working hours, redress of grievances, pensions and other benefits of the employees, it is not an easy task."

Metro Conference Will Form Minute-Men Corps To Aid CSEA Legislation

Plans for a legislative "Minute-Men" corps to aid the cause of civil service legislation will be initiated at a meeting of the Metropolitan Conference of the Civil Service Employees Association, at the General Park State Hospital, Sept. 17.

Salomon Bendet, Conference president, announced that he will appoint subcommittees throughout the Conference area to contact legislators and public officials on a steady basis to assure that vital legislation effecting public workers is not overlook but is understood.

"No one can tell the story of the civil servant better than the public employees themselves," Mr. Bendet. "For that reason, I will call on members throughout the Metropolitan Conference area to serve as 'Minute-Men' in carrying our message through on both the state and local levels."

"It's Our Job"

Mr. Bendet said an attempt will be made to designate specific members to contact specific legislators and local officials.

"We all know that a legislator or public official is going to lend a more willing ear to a constituent than to an earnest person who nevertheless, cannot voice in his presence. That is political realism. What we want is, in essence, to let our representatives know how we feel and that we expect them to represent us," Mr. Bendet continued.

"Let's not wait for others to do the job that we should be doing ourselves - this will be our theme," he declared.

Future Program

Mr. Bendet announced also that the Conference meeting, which is to start at 1 P.M., will also devote attention to possible action on federal employees' housing, the retirement system and problems of the program for the coming year.

Items to be discussed included legislation to the Retirement System; State salary increases and grievances procedures.

Letchworth Village Employees Assured U.S. Not Interested

ALBANY, Sept. 12—A resolution calling for a guaranteed half-pay retirement for all employees, regardless of the amount of their contributions, was called for by Joseph P. Petry, president of the 90,000-member Civil Service Employees Association.

In a letter to Rheine Steichen, chairman of the Employees' Association's Resolutions Committee, Mr. Feily asked that his proposals be approved as a resolution to be presented to the total of more than 100 delegates at the CSEA annual meeting next month who can act on it.

Approval by delegates would mean a planning session on the Conference in the official CSEA legislative program for 1961. The idea, according to the full endorsement of the CSEA Pension and Insurance Committee.

In making his proposal, Mr. Feily made recognition of the fact that such a guarantee would require a new retirement plan and pointed out that such a program was the original intention when the Retirement System was organized.

Details of Proposal

The outline of Mr. Petry's request to Mr. Shemin reads as follows:

"I should like to submit for the consideration of the Resolutions Committee a proposal for "new guaranteed retirement benefits," which would provide a guaranteed one-half retirement to all State employees regardless of the amount of their contributions.

I make this proposal fully consistent of the total significance of such a sweeping change in concept. What has occurred over the past 20 years is that employees have been receiving substantially less than they anticipated they would receive at the time of their retirement, because the contributions toward their annuity accounts are insufficient.

It is an interesting fact for those in the Social Security field that the 60 year plan was designed to provide a retirement benefit of one-half of the average salary and was, many years ago, abolished when the "90 year one-half pay plan.""

Term Used Now

This made a true of the State Troopers 25 year retirement plan which most of the members of the Legislative Committee, the Comptroller in his own handbook relating to State Police and for all members of the Retirement System, today's retirees are retiring with benefits greatly reduced from the golden half.

Therefore, that the State establish a completely new Retirement Plan and pay for all employees, regardless of the amount of their contributions, a guaranteed one-half retirement for all State employees, is necessary to provide a true one-half retirement allowance have been thrown aside. Thus, for the State Police and for all members of the Retirement System, today's retirees are retiring with benefits greatly reduced from the golden half figure.

Thus, for the State Police and for all members of the Retirement System, today's retirees are retiring with benefits greatly reduced from the golden half figure.

New Law Will Give Higher Disability And Death Benefits

It has been reported from Washington that the President will sign into law the Bill to liberalize benefits to Federal employees and survivors of those killed while working.

The Administration and the Democratic Congress worked together to get the bill through. It will provide increased veterans' disability allowances, total disability to $110 a month, and the minimum death benefit from $750 to $1,500.

The bill also raises the payment for permanently and totally incapacitated members of partially disabled employees, and for attendants to take care of disabled employees.

Examination Fees Abolished By State As of November 1—Seen As Recruitment Aid

Governor Rockefeller has announced that T. N. Hurst, Director of the State Education Department, has requested of Commissioner H. Elliot Kaplan of the Civil Service Department, the remaining fees for Civil Service examinations, effective November 1, 1960.

Under the State Civil Service law, examinations fees ranging from $2 to $5 have heretofore been levied, the state of the fee depending upon the salary of the job involved. The law permits fees to be waived by the Civil Service director subject to approval of the Director of the Budget. Approximately half of the amount of examinations fees already allocated salary grades had already been waived. The action will phase out the remaining, Recruitment Advantage.

The system of fees was inaugurated during the 1930s when the system of fees was abolished. Forty protests were made affecting employees.

Governor Rockefeller has announced that T. N. Hurst, Director of the State Education Department, has requested of Commissioner H. Elliot Kaplan of the Civil Service Department, the remaining fees for Civil Service examinations, effective November 1, 1960.

In approving this step Mr. Hurst said: "The fee system places New York as a competitive disadvantage along with other Civil Service systems.

Other major items included discussion of the widening labor market and the need for increased training for the State's public service employees. Rockefeller Praises N.Y. State Public Welfare Officials

GOODWIN, Sept. 12—Governor Rockefeller, speaking here at the 51st annual meeting of the New York State Conference of the American Public Welfare Association, had high praise for New York State officials in the field.

Governor Rockefeller told the group that as Governor he was fortunate, indeed, to be able to work with so many outstanding leaders in their fields as Ray Houston, commissioner of social welfare; Herman Bollerman, commissioner of health and Dr. Paul Hosh, commissioner of mental hygiene.

He told the conference: "It is a pleasure for me to speak tonight with you who are devoting your lives to the cause of public welfare. Yours is a high calling, one in which I have a great personal interest and with which I feel a strong personal sympathy.

"The Governor pointed out he has had a member of the Board of Regents of Westchester County for 21 years and that one of the "most exciting periods" in his life was with the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare. Retirement Resolution

(Continued from Page 1) 38 year old will be able to retire at one-half pay after 38 years, and under which employees are currently members of the Civil Service, will be able to retire at one-half pay after 25 years of service. A bill which, if passed, will be able to retire at one-half pay after 25 years of service. I believe that it is high time, indeed, for New York State to simplify and recognize the contributions of the members of the State System along the lines of my proposal for guaranteed retirement allowance of New York State employees at levels which in New York will be a little bit better than those in California.

I recommend this for the consideration both of the Resolutions Committee and the Pension Insurance Committee of our State Association.

City Saves Money By Delaying Pension Hike

New York City leaders are stalling on increased supplemental pensions for retired firemen and their widows because they have, and perhaps rightly, lied such an increase to a general increase in supplemental pensions for all retired City employees, and the City leaders cannot bring themselves to face the costs involved.

The increase for fire and police beneficiaries was made part of a collective bargaining package with the Firemen's and Police Benevolent Associations. The City Charter, voted into effect last November, is more or less forced service on a par with State employment—to grant higher supplemental pensions to retired employees other than police and firemen, as the City did through the Supplemental Pension Bill passed by the Legislature last year.

While the pensioners may think this long drawn-out delay on the part of the City fathers is madness, it is definitely not without method—every additional month the increase is put off means a substantial amount of money that will not have to leave the City coffers. We like to see the City save money, but to do it at the expense of the retired workers and their widows is indeed low.

State Salary Talks Should Start Now

REPEATED statements by Governor Rockefeller and leaders in the Legislature that a 10 per cent reduction in State income taxes is highly possible in 1961 can be a source of encouragement or concern for the State's public employees.

It all depends on how serious Governor Rockefeller is in his aim to place the civil service on a salary par with private industry.

Last year, Governor Rockefeller publicly acknowledged the justice of this aim. The current salary levels have been the target for many labor negotiations. It is the position of the Civil Service Commission, as head of the State's personnel management establishment, that the Civil Service employees will have to be paid in line with those holding comparable positions in the private sector.

If the Governor means what he has said, he and the Legislature will have to plan to have the State pick up the first five contribution points to the Retirement System.

But that was good. But it wasn't the answer to the lagging pay of the service, that it has not done anything like that in the new civil service era, that is a major problem. It has not varied this custom for anyone.

SECONDLY, no one, be he a commissioner or otherwise, can compel the Department of Personnel to give another examination, where there is an existing list, even on the ground that it is necessary. Whether all salaries are not the same, there is no way to know details, and so forth. Obviously, a list made that way would not be a genuine list since there are no elements of fraud or favoritism in this list. It is a final and binding list. Of course, the Department of Personnel may terminate a list after a year. However, it has not done anything like that in the new civil service era. That is a major problem.

THIRDLY, if the Department of Personnel were to give another examination and establish another list, the first list above has been in existence for more than a year; would terminate it with one exception. That exception is that under Section 4d of the Civil Service Law, the Department of Personnel may terminate if the Department of Personnel says that it did not.

In other words, the Department of Personnel, in the last analysis, would be the agency which would determine which eligible employees continued to be eligible or lost their status as such. I am inclined to think that the pay of the City of New York in the Department of Personnel would want to see the eligible protected in their rights.

When a Man or Woman Makes a List

It is equivalent to a voucher of personal qualification by the civil service agency. Anything which subverts that thought should be opposed by the civil service and their friends in public office.

Questions Answered On Social Security

I am 69 years old. I just began to receive my social security benefits. When will I be leaving the United States Social Security Administration? I am a United States Citizen, but have lived and worked in the United States for 28 years. Will I be entitled to receive social security benefits when I return to Honduras?

Yes. As long as you have lived in the United States for five years you can receive your checks in Honduras.

City Saves Money By Delaying Pension Hike

New York City leaders are stalling on increased supplemental pensions for retired firemen and their widows because they have, and perhaps rightly, lied such an increase to a general increase in supplemental pensions for all retired City employees, and the City leaders cannot bring themselves to face the costs involved.

The increase for fire and police beneficiaries was made part of a collective bargaining package with the Firemen's and Police Benevolent Associations. The City Charter, voted into effect last November, is more or less forced service on a par with State employment—to grant higher supplemental pensions to retired employees other than police and firemen, as the City did through the Supplemental Pension Bill passed by the Legislature last year.

While the pensioners may think this long drawn-out delay on the part of the City fathers is madness, it is definitely not without method—every additional month the increase is put off means a substantial amount of money that will not have to leave the City coffers. We like to see the City save money, but to do it at the expense of the retired workers and their widows is indeed low.

State Salary Talks Should Start Now

REPEATED statements by Governor Rockefeller and leaders in the Legislature that a 10 per cent reduction in State income taxes is highly possible in 1961 can be a source of encouragement or concern for the State's public employees.

It all depends on how serious Governor Rockefeller is in his aim to place the civil service on a salary par with private industry.

Last year, Governor Rockefeller publicly acknowledged the justice of this aim. The current salary levels have been the target for many labor negotiations. It is the position of the Civil Service Commission, as head of the State's personnel management establishment, that the Civil Service employees will have to be paid in line with those holding comparable positions in the private sector.

If the Governor means what he has said, he and the Legislature will have to plan to have the State pick up the first five contribution points to the Retirement System.

But that was good. But it wasn't the answer to the lagging pay of the service, that it has not done anything like that in the new civil service era, that is a major problem. It has not varied this custom for anyone.

SECONDLY, no one, be he a commissioner or otherwise, can compel the Department of Personnel to give another examination, where there is an existing list, even on the ground that it is necessary. Whether all salaries are not the same, there is no way to know details, and so forth. Obviously, a list made that way would not be a genuine list since there are no elements of fraud or favoritism in this list. It is a final and binding list. Of course, the Department of Personnel may terminate a list after a year. However, it has not done anything like that in the new civil service era. That is a major problem.

THIRDLY, if the Department of Personnel were to give another examination and establish another list, the first list above has been in existence for more than a year; would terminate it with one exception. That exception is that under Section 4d of the Civil Service Law, the Department of Personnel may terminate if the Department of Personnel says that it did not.

In other words, the Department of Personnel, in the last analysis, would be the agency which would determine which eligible employees continued to be eligible or lost their status as such. I am inclined to think that the pay of the City of New York in the Department of Personnel would want to see the eligible protected in their rights.

When a Man or Woman Makes a List

It is equivalent to a voucher of personal qualification by the civil service agency. Anything which subverts that thought should be opposed by the civil service and their friends in public office.

Questions Answered On Social Security

I am 69 years old. I just began to receive my social security benefits. When will I be leaving the United States Social Security Administration? I am a United States Citizen, but have lived and worked in the United States for 28 years. Will I be entitled to receive social security benefits when I return to Honduras?

Yes. As long as you have lived in the United States for five years you can receive your checks in Honduras.
New Classes Set for Fall At Delehanty

Many new classes in license examination preparation, and for entrance and promotion exams, are being added to the Delehanty Institute’s list of courses for civil servants and prospective civil servants.

Both the Civil Service and the Vocational Divisions of the Institute are initiating new courses, many of which will begin during the next week or two.

Class preparation for the next New York City Service examinations is of particular interest at this time, as the official exam for master plumber is to begin in January and will be followed in April by the exams for master electrician, stationary engineer and refrigeration machine operators.

All lectures will be of two hours duration and will commence at 7:30 p.m. Enrollment will be limited in each course to assure close personal attention and those interested are advised to apply early for full details of requirements for admission. Information should be made at the Civil Service Division, 115 East 15th St., or by telephone to GR 3-9599.

22Small New City Lists Set

The New York City Department of Personnel will establish 30 new promotion eligible lists and two open competitive lists effective Wednesday Sept. 14. It has been announced.

The promotional lists include a 24-name general list for assistant civil engineer and departmental lists for Transit (Const. Dept.), 1 name; Transit (Maint. of Ways), 2 names; Housing, 2; Water Supply Gas and Electricity (NYC Dept.), 2; Public Works, 6; Manhattan Borough President, 5; Richmond Borough President, 2; Traffic, 1; Parks, 1; Marine and Aviation, 1; City Planning, 1; Queens Borough President, 3; Brooklyn Borough President, 6, and Water Supply Board (design dept.), 1.

Other promotions include:
- Senior real estate manager (Marine and Aviation), 2 names;
- Real estate manager (Bd. of Estimate), 2, and supervising examiner (Transit), 10.

The two open competitive promotions are: pursuit inspector (school bus service), 8 names, and social investigator (Borough President), 8, 8 names.

The official lists may be inspected in the Civil Service office, 97 Dear St., two blocks north of City Hall, just west of Broadway, from Wednesday, Sept. 14, through Wednesday, Sept. 21.

Adelphi-Executives’ Business Schools Expands Faciliities

To keep up with modern demands for trained secretarial and business personnel, the Adelphi-Executives’ Schools Inc., now entering its 30th year in Brooklyn, has expanded its facilities.

The main school, at 1712 Kings Highway, has been enlarged to accommodate 125 additional students.

Registration for all divisions of the school is now in progress at the main center, as well as at the branch at 1500 Flatbush Ave., near Brooklyn College.

High School Equivalency

A High School Equivalency Diploma is a necessity for many students.

Civil Service exams today for those who do not possess a four year high school diploma. Exams for the equivalency diploma are conducted at regular intervals by the New York State Dept. of Education.

Promotion Courses

Among the promotional exams to be held in the near future are those for police captain and police sergeant. Classes for these ranks will start immediately in the Delehanty schools in Manhattan and Jamaica. Likewise, classes for promotion to first lieutenant will begin next week in both locations.

Exams are also scheduled to be held soon for both fireman and patrolman and interested young men are invited to attend a class session as guests of the Institute.

Beginning next Monday these classes will meet twice weekly in

California and New York Merit Systems Compared

system in California and we are struggling to keep it that way."}

Conclusions Drawn

Mr. Beetle also commented on his findings in an editorial, in which he argued that the State Civil Service Commission in New York must have "dropped down a long way in its control of the (State) Constitution intent."

He pointed out that the courts have ruled that they cannot enter the field of administering the Civil Service Law in connection with deciding whether it is practical to put certain jobs under the merit system.

In conclusion, he wrote: "We don't think merit civil service is being administered in New York. New York makes it too tough to bring outsiders into state service at higher levels. But we do think that merit civil service is a long way ahead of the 'spoils system' and we can't for the life of us see why — considering the constitutional mandate — we don't get more of it.
