Civil Service Leader

L. I. Legislators Lend An Ear to CSEA Program

Both state and county chapters of the Civil Service Employees Association worked together recently to present State legislators from Long Island with an informed viewpoint of major CSEA legislation for 1961 and to seek their support for this legislation.

At a luncheon meeting tendered by the Long Island Commissioners and the Civil Service Employees Association at the Salisbury Park Club House in Westbury, the 11 legislators attending the meeting heard particular emphasis placed on two major measures—increased salaries for State employees and protection against removal for per diem and labor class employees with five years service.

Although the two bills, if approved, would affect State employees, this did not keep the county members of the Committee from giving it their support to the measures.

The legislators, who were interesting in chapter's constitution, declared they would support the CSEA salary resolution, as well as the vital need for government to preserve the high quality of its service, including maintaining modern standards of employment.

Parkway Police Appeal Decision On Reallocations

The Long Island State Parkway Police have requested the President of the Civil Service Commission, H. Eliot Kaplan, to reconsider the recent decision of the Commission, confirming the denial of the Director of Classification and Compensation to reclassify the titles of Traffic Officer, Park Officer and Traffic Server to higher grades.

The Long Island State Parkway Chapter, together with the Civil Service Employees Association, has sponsored a request for an upward allocation of these titles from grade 12 to 14 and from grade 15 to 16. This request was initially denied by the Director of Classification and Compensation and appealed to the Civil Service Commission. It was again denied.

The Civil Service Employees Association feels that if the Civil Service Commission were in possession of all of the pertinent State pertaining to these titles, its action might be reconsidered.

Mrs. MacTavish this week will be in the chair at meetings within the next two weeks.

Legislation to Dominate Southern Conference's Meeting At Newburg

The Southern Conference of the Civil Service Employees Association will hold its Winter meeting at the State Armory, Newburgh, New York, on Friday, January 27, at 8:00 P.M. Another important item on the agenda for this meeting will be the Commission and By-Laws Committee Report on proposed changes in the present Constitution and By-Laws, which will be discussed and proposed for adoption.

Erie Senator Seeks Correction Officer Uniform Allowance

Sen. John H. Cooke, Erie County Republican, has opened a drive to win an allowance for all State correction officers for uniforms. The possibility, under Point 3, covering many of these positions in the competitive class would be greatly enhanced, he added.

Another important item on the agenda for this meeting will be the Commission and By-Laws Committee Report on proposed changes in the present Constitution and By-Laws, which will be discussed and proposed for adoption.

Mrs. McTavish Takes State Post

Mrs. Dorothy McTavish, a member of the CSEA, and Newburgh Employees Association headquarters staff in Albany, has resigned to accept a position with the State Legislature.

Mrs. McTavish this week will assume her duties as a member of the staff of Sen. Majority Leader Walter J. Maloney.
Five Charities Split $2,520 from Police

The New York City Police Department Charity Fund recently donated $2,520 to five different organizations. The checks were presented by Police Commissioner Stephen P. Kenny in the board room of Manhattan Police Headquarters.

The National Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Inc., a national voluntary organization with 1,000 chapters, received $300. The organization is in charge of caring for and educating families on this disease.

The Staten Island Mental Health Industrial Home for the Blind, a home for the blind, received $240 each. The organization also operates a school for the deaf, providing education and resources to students.

The Catholic Association of the State, an organization that supports the Catholic Church, received $240 each. The organization is involved in various charitable activities, including education and social services.

The paraplegic division of the National Cerebral Palsy Foundation of America received $240 each. The organization provides support and advocacy for people with cerebral palsy.

The funds were raised through various police department events, including the annual charity ball and various department functions. The donations will help support these organizations and their efforts.

Cheryl MEURY RETIRES FROM KINGS PARK

On Jan. 15—Chaver state employees have been selected to head up eight new regional units, under a major reorganization of the State Conservation Department.

Dr. Harold G. Wills, commissioner, disclosed plans for the department reorganization and said the move would improve service to the public by streamlining department upscale field operations.

A New System

Under the new system, field forces for the department's Fish and Game Division, the Conservation Commission, the State Land and Forests have been re-aligned into eight regional units which will benefit our patients. Their health and safety are our goals.

Because of his understanding and initiative, the medical leaders have entered will benefit our patients. Their health and safety are our goals.

GOVERNOR ROCKEFELLER has recommended that the State now give greater attention to the 35,000 patients once considered irreparable. It is planned that new drugs and new treatments will be employed in this program. Mental hygiene employees strongly endorsed the change, saying it would mean more patients will benefit from the new system.

GOVERNOR ROCKEFELLER -deserves an accolade for his efforts on behalf of the foreign trained Doctors in our Institutions.

Six Bills Introduced in Congress Would Benefit Federal Gov't. Workers

Six bills were introduced in Congress last week designed to improve benefits for Federal employees, as well as certain U.S. Governmental activities, to encourage lifetime careers in the Federal service by Congressman Victor L. Anthus, Democrat of New York.

Outlines of the six measures follow:
1. Employees who have completed 30 years of service with the U.S. Government shall be permitted to retire on full annuities, regardless of their age. Similar, those who have reached the age of 65 and have completed at least 15 years of such service, may be permitted to retire.

2. Government employees should be entitled to coverage under the Social Security system, with the provision that those now in the Federal service should have the right to choose whether they desire such coverage.

3. Repeal of the so-called "Health Act", which was originally intended to prevent "pernicious political activities" but which has become an instrument to discourage any political interest and activity on the part of Federal workers all over the country for fear of losing their jobs. As such, the act is not in the interest of the democratic process of government.

4. Election Day on even-numbered years, when the Nation chooses a President, Vice President, and a new Congress, should be made a national legal holiday in order to stimulate increased voter participation in national elections. This should begin with the elections in November 1962. With such a law on our statute books, between 65 and 90 percent of eligible voters in the U.S. would go to the polls, instead of 60 or 65 percent now.

5. Establish a Customs Enforcement Division in the Bureau of Customs to improve the enforcement of anti-smuggling laws, particularly the smuggling of narcotics into the U.S. Stricter enforcement would help to decrease the crime rate in the country and would also serve as a security measure.

6. Custodial employees in the postal field should remain under the jurisdiction of the Post Office Department, and should be under that department for the sake of efficiency and economy.

"Adoption of these bills", Mr. Anthus said, "especially the first three, dealing with retirement, benefits and security measures, would have the effect of discriminating against Federal service should have the right to choose whether they desire such coverage.

The examination announcement (No. 2. 1960), which contains full information, and application forms are available at the Office of the Director, Federal S. Civil Service Region, 250 East 42nd Street, New York, N.Y. and from the main post offices in Brooklyn, Flushing, Jamaica, Long Island City, Paterson, and Staten Island.
The New York Post Office has announced an examination for career substitute garagemen. Vacancies are in the post office garages in the five boroughs of New York City. Residents of the City boroughs will be given preference.

The starting salary for substitute garagemen is $1.85 an hour, reaching $2.60 an hour after a year, plus an additional $1.75 with an annual increase. Ten per cent additional is paid for night work. To qualify for promotion, applicants must have been employed in the Post Office for a minimum of two months, and be able to perform the essential duties of the job.

Applicants must be at least 18 years of age and cannot have been convicted of a felony. They must also pass a written test and demonstrate their ability to perform the duties of the job.

The examination will be held on April 15th at various locations throughout the city. Applicants should check the schedule for the date and time of their test. For more information, contact the Civil Service Commission at 1000 Frankfort Ave. or by calling 212-788-1100.
Levitt Proposals For Improving Retirement System Deserve Action

State Comptroller Arthur Levitt last week announced the result of a survey he had ordered of the State Retirement System. From the results of this survey, Mr. Levitt made several proposals which deserve attention and whose merit should not be overlooked merely because they came from an elected official whose party is not in dominance in the State Legislature.

A prime example of such a measure which Mr. Levitt said he will seek approval on this year is a non-contributory pension system. Sometimes, although not necessarily in this case, employees are granted benefits which they cannot afford. Since the State last year accepted a proposal from the Civil Service Employees Association to reduce the employee's contribution rate to the Retirement System, it would not be too big a step for the State to do the remaining points. This would be a great boon to most public workers.

Certainly Mr. Levitt's call for other retirement benefits than the death benefit, based on a closely on social objectives as well as on service, is in line with modern thinking and should receive serious attention.

The possibility of variable annuities is a fascinating subject and one that may well answer the problem of the fluctuating dollar in relation to fixed incomes. The Employees Association is studying this matter and hopes to reach its conclusions soon and it is encouraging to see that Mr. Levitt has given serious consideration to variable annuities.

We hope that when Mr. Levitt submits his proposals on retirement matters to the Legislature they will get a bipartisan action on these.

Strike No Tool of City Firefighters

Once again New York City fire fighters have reaffirmed that under no circumstances will they participate in a walk-strike, whether or not they believe they have just cause for one.

Last Saturday evening, Mike Quill, president of the Transport Workers Union, told a television audience he thought firefighters should have the right to strike like any other members of organized labor. John Corcoran, president of the Uniformed Fire Officers Association, was quick to retort: "Speak for yourself, Mike." He also pointed out, however, that he and his men are fully aware of injustices they suffer because they are without the strike as a bargaining weapon.

What rights the firefighters enjoy are the concern of themselves, the Uniformed Fire Officers Association and the Uniformed Firemen's Association. They are also the concern of citizens and the City administration, which should in fairness give them the long and careful consideration they deserve as the only practicable substitute for the right to strike, whether this right is taken away by law or by voluntary agreement.

800,000 of Them

Leo Egan, the head of The New York Times Albany Bureau, is the shrewdest analyst of New York State politics. Many politicians who would "fool all of the people all the time" cannot fool some of the time because Mr. Egan is so shrewd.

In a special dispatch from Albany the day before the Legislature convened, Mr. Egan wrote that the season would be "planting time for those who have been selling yield crops with which they hope to tempt voters in next fall's city elections and in the state elections of 1962." He then wrote about particular crops being planted for particular groups with strong voting power.

Mr. Egan did not mention the Civil Service as one of the groups scheduled for consideration. I believe the omission was significant because he did not make his list all inclusive.

Not the Criterion

I do not contend that quantity should be the criterion for legislation. However, if Mr. Egan is correct about the thinking in the capital in favor of "specialty crops" for particular groups with voting strength, then I point out that there are 800,000 State and local employees in this State. Nearly all of them have families and friends who will vote in elections.

The value of the political support of public employees is frequently overlooked. I do not know the figure. Perhaps it is as much as 300,000 votes which are cast for candidates who have the support of the public employees. This is an indication that an awareness of civil service strength may develop in the 1961 session because of its voting power.

There is still another angle in the political strength of the civil service. During the last presidential campaign, in this column, I ran a list of reformers demanded by the Federal Civil Service. Shortly after publication, I received a letter from one of them and later from the President. It seems that the reformers are following the reformers in their own field and that the Civil Service Reform Act may be passed this year.

Letters Will Not Count

In the 1961 and 1962 campaigns, Levitt, alone, will contest for the position that it will be the legislation of this session, and not next year.

The Civil Service has an important legislative program this year. The first step, however, is to improve the salary structure, to decrease the members' retirement contributions, to confer tenure on a large group, and after that to present the reformers with the Civil Service Reform Act, plus a good many other bills. I will write on that problem from time to time during the season.

Mr. Egan's article made me feel that this introduction would help.

Youth Board Aides Star on Television

Two employees of the New York State Youth Board, backed by opening and closing statements by Mayor Wagner, were featured last week in a television program on "Girls and Gangs" on WOR-TV. The documentary explained the Youth Board's work with teenage girls who associate with fighting street gang.

The production showed how girls become involved with gangs and what can be the outcome of such an involvement. Featured in the program were Actual Rogers, assistant to Youth Service Commissioner Ralph Weirhan and director of the Youth Board's street club project, and Martha Lewis, who is in charge of the girls' division of the unit.

The program was written and produced by WOR-TV in cooperation with the community relations department of the Youth Board.
LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

In conclusion, it is the writer's hope that the folly of closing the farms will not be tried in other State departments. Don't dispel the sense of security that has existed State positions to thousands through the years. May the Empire State be big enough in heart to retain faithful workers who have given so much of themselves for so long at such modest wages.

Another Complaint on Welfare Promotions

Editor, The Leader:

The last step in my career in the New York City Welfare Department is now twenty months old. Twelve of the top people on this list have accepted appointments in other City departments. Yet one promotion has been made to the Welfare Department from this list.

This is an impossible situation, and one that cries out desperately for a solution of some sort. We who are on this list are trying to be patient, believing that our union is really trying its best to secure concrete results in our behalf, but realizing that time as it must for all men, is running out of the hourglass.

It is difficult to urge patience and caution upon people who feel convinced that they are being cheated out of promotions that they have earned by loyalty, service and examinations. Yet this is the very thing we must do in spite of the real frustration and hurt that we have every right to feel.

Relief of some sort is urgently required to alleviate this most unpleasant situation faced by some 500 senior clerks who were fortunately enough to place on the 1959 promotion examination for supervising clerk. We call upon our Commissioner, our Civil Service Commission and Budget Director Brinckerhoff to unite their efforts in our behalf.

Example Cited of Welfare Police Probe

Editor, The Leader:

In numerous articles about the plight of New York City Welfare Police, we have tried to stress the various hazardous and heart-rending working conditions we are en- countered in—among them, the lack of "respect" from our own department and the City administration in general.

The lack of respect from various sides is obvious in many instances concerning the Welfare Police. Recently, a Welfare patrolman was hindered in arresting a welfare recipient at the men's shelter at East 3rd St., Manhattan.

The arrest occurred on Christmas Day. An ambulanceman had been summoned by the welfare patrolman for the aged man, who had gone berserk and injured himself during the arrest. It was the officer's intention to have the prisoner put under mental observation. The hospital attendant in- stead of doing his job properly proceeded to berate the officer in front of everyone, and the prisoner became violent due to the attendant's uncalled for attitude.

The attendant went as far as to shove the officer, and accused the patrolman of "inhuman treatment" of a poor ailing. The attendant refused the call and would not cooperate.

The officer was unable to place the attendant under arrest due to the fact his prisoner tried to attack him again. The attendant left the shelter and stopped a passing police car and told the officers that they better investigate the brutal treatment of a poor unfortunate in the shelter, and to stop the welfare patrolman. This is just a typical example of the harassment and abuse suffered by the Welfare Police in trying to perform their job.

Civil Engineer Test

An up-coming promotion examination for civil engineer will be broadcasted to include qualified personnel in the Transit Authority. According to a resolution approved last week by the New York City Civil Service Commission.

Is H.I.P. now the State's second largest "City"?

H.I.P. today serves more than 600,000 men, women and children. This subscriber population is virtually a "city" in itself.

In fact, H.I.P.'s insured population on January 1 exceeded the population of the City of Buffalo, the state's second largest city. One in every fourteen Greater New York residents is now an H.I.P. member.

In 1947 H.I.P. pioneered in starting a health plan that would be different—that would really insure the employee and his family against the cost of medical care.

Other groups have attempted over the years to develop medical insurance programs that would at least come near H.I.P. in scope of coverage and of prepayment. But—

• H.I.P. still stands alone as the only plan in this area that can assure group subscribers they will have no extra charges* for its wide range of services.

• H.I.P. still stands alone as the only plan that maintains its own high professional standards for its physicians.

• H.I.P. still stands alone as the only plan whose system of medical group practice enables it continuously to study and review the quality of care rendered to its subscribers.

* The single exception is a possible $2.00 charge for a home call both requested and made between 10 P.M. and 7 A.M.
Personnel Certifies 200 Fireman Eligibles to Fill 100 Vacancies; To 1996.5

The New York City Department of Personnel last week sent the Fire Department the names of 200 eligibles on the current list for Fireman, from whom the Fire Department expects to fill 100 vacancies. The last name certified was Thomas E. Callinan. The current list for Fireman Eligibles to Fill 100 Vacancies until it has filled the 100 vacancies and send any names left over back to the Personnel Department. These names will be placed at the top of the list and will be the first called on the next certification.

The present list was established on July 16, 1959, with 2,833 names. Thus, with this new certification, it will contain 3,035 names.

The names of those certified follow:

Grace M. Trent, director of the Commission's Blind Vocational Rehabilitation Service.

Booklet on Area Legislators is Ready, Costs 25c

The Commerce and Industry Association of New York City has distributed its new and expanded "Know Your Legislators" publication according to Arnold Withe, the Association's secretary.

The booklet has been printed for 25 cents from the Association's legislative division at 99 Church St. The new edition includes maps showing New York State and City Congressional, Senate and Assembly districts and listings of all members of the State Legislature, State delegations to Congress, the New York City Council and the Board of Estimate, as well as the names of the local and governmental delegations from the neighboring states of Connecticut and New Jersey.

Giving recognition to rapidly expanding legislative subcommittees, subdividing New York City, maps of the Assembly and Congressional districts in Nassau and Westchester counties are included, as is a map of the Congressional districts of the northeastern New York area.

The booklet also features information containing the composition of the city, State and Federal legislatures and presents tips on how to contact their legislators. It advises every citizen to tell his representative what he thinks, or he who has a right to know and have the duty as well as the right to inform him so that he may truly represent you.
Police Win Awards For Meritorious Service

Citations were announced last week for 145 members of the New York City Police Department for meritorious service by Police Commissioner Robert F. Kennedy.

These awards include all cases acted upon by the Department's honor committee since the issuance of the last General Order No. 40 on Sept. 12.

The top award, Honorable Mention Award was Det. William G. Cullen of the 23d Precinct, who interrogated a man and woman fleeing from a hotel robbery in Brooklyn, last June 14, established their guilt, one of whom was himself finally wounded. Both bandits were arrested.

Also a winner of the Honorable Mention Award was Det. William G. Cullen of the 23d Precinct, who interrogated a man and woman fleeing from a hotel robbery in Brooklyn, last June 14, established their guilt, one of whom was himself finally wounded. Both bandits were arrested.

For Meritorious Service Mention Award was Det. William E. Tuwey, January 17, 1961, patrolman assigned to Safety Unit of the 602d Precinct.

A robbery was taking place in a restaurant at 225 W. 57th St., Manhattan, when he got there, the bandits pointed a gun at him. Mr. Cullen shot him, and the man died later that day. It was figured he had a long criminal record and was at that time on parole.

City Rehabilitation Counselor Test Will Be Open to Jan. 25
From now until Jan. 25, applications for the New York City examination for the title of rehabilitation counselor may be filed. This exam was previously open in December of 1960. The salary range is $3,900 to $5,300 a year. There are annual increments and a longevity premium.

Candidates for this exam must have 4 years of experience. Experience may be supplemented by 11 credits in education vocational guidance, guidance counseling, psychological counseling, or correction rehabilitation and one year of experience in vocational guidance or correction rehabilitation. An M.A. or 40 credits of graduate study in vocational guidance or rehabilitation may be substituted for the specific credit and experience requirements.

The written test is tentatively scheduled for April 10. The written test may include questions to test general intelligence and practical knowledge of principles and practices of rehabilitation and of sociological and psychological aspects of alcoholics and drug addicts. The oral test will be given which will probably cover similar principles and practices of rehabilitation and oral job interview.

Applications can be obtained at the office of the Commissioner, 500 W. 34th Street, New York City. Those who filed applications in December of 1960 need not do so again.

City Deckhand Exam Re-opened to Jan. 25

The New York City examination for deckhand has been re-opened.

Applications for this position will be accepted until Jan. 25. The salary for this job is $6,078 a year. Vacancies are now in the Department of Marine and Aviation. Other vacancies occur from time to time.

Under supervision a deckhand has to operate gates and gangplanks, load and unload freight, handle lines, act as lookout, clean vessels, and perform other manual labor. The written test will be of the short answer variety and may include questions on navigational and deck seamanship, ship maintenance, aids to navigation, lifeboats, fire fighting and first aid, tides and weather, nautical terms, the compass, and other related subjects.

In addition to the written test, a performance test is required. Candidates must be able to swim and knot tying. Those who failed applications this position in December of 1960, need not file again, but they may make additions or amendments.

Deckhands are eligible for promotion to the title of mate as soon as one year after appointment. Candidates must be at least 18 years of age as of Jan. 5. Those were engaged in military duty after July 1, 1960 may deduct the length of time they spent in such duty from their actual age. The age requirement makes because of the physical effort called for the position.

Applications are available at the Department of Personnel at 99 Duane St., New York, N.Y. Mail requests for application forms must be received by the Department by Jan. 9. And must be accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

State Exam for Cashiers Opens; Bronx Residents

Residents of Bronx County may apply for a New York State Examination for cashiers. The salary for this position runs from $5,500 to $6,500 a year.

Candidates must have at least two years of experience in the handling and accounting for large sums of money, and have a high school graduate, or have a satis factory equivalent in training and experience.

Applications will be accepted until Feb. 6; the written test is scheduled for March 11. Application forms may be obtained from room 2106, 270 Broadway, New York, N.Y. 7.

The examination number is 2173.
Social Security Questions Answered

If it can be proved that I am totally disabled, even though I die before I claim Social Security benefits, will my wife be paid the amount that was due me? Federal and state laws governing Social Security are designed to ensure that benefits be paid to the claimant's legal representative or, if that person does not exist, to the claimant's surviving spouse.

The payments are based on your average monthly earnings in the year prior to the date your disability began. Payments can range anywhere from $33.00 to $121.00 a month at the present time. When will benefits checks for disabled workers under 50 first be mailed? These checks will be mailed on alternate Mondays, as follows:

1. METROPOLITAN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION—125 Fifth Avenue, New York City (50 Plymouth Street, Brooklyn)
2. LABOR RELATIONS—Louis J. Key, Director of the Labor Relations Department of the United States Department of Labor, Washington, D.C.

UNIONS SEEK LESS THAN CSEA

ON DECEMBER 19, in room 315 of the State Capitol the equalization committee appointed by Governor Rockefeller held a final hearing before deciding the equalization problem. This is what happened:

REPRESENTING COUNCIL 50 P. O. F. L. — C. I. O. was Samuel Cohen, counsel; Forest Wagner, President; Joseph P. Finley, president of the C.B.S.E.A. for a three grade upward adjustment also emphasizing that the longevity increments must become part of the equalization. The STATE-WIDE PRISON Conference represented by Thomas Hents of Elmira and John Peoples presented no plan but asked for an early settlement of the problem.

THE CORRECTION CONFERENCE represented by Edward O'Leary of Elmira, Charles Lamb of Orangehust Prison and yours truly presented comparison figures with the New York City Correction Department and urged at least the adoption of the Civil Service Employees Association plan.

L. G. MALCOLM WILSON, Commissioner of Correction Paul Mccllrain, Deputy Commissioner of Correction John Cam, Commissioners of Corrections Robert A. Gray, Norman Henderson, and experts from Civil Service and the budget listened attentively to the various speakers. The Lt. Governor as chairman of the meeting was the only one to speak. The Equalization Committee had already passed the grade three plus wait and received our recommendations. The report has not yet been reached. Words from the best sources say, "the correction officers will do alright."

NO FEARS ARE BEINGshed by State Police over the retirement of Francis McCarry, Superintendent and George Bate, his deputy. A state police recruit or for retirement has filed application for Civil Service examinations that Police Commissioner Kennedy in New York City wind up next month. Pension changes passed last year in fourth calendar year into effect, are supposed to continue the 2-year death benefit and possibly vesting at age 65.

Cities-Wablen law should be repealed, but let's get on with important legislation—more money.

Promotion to Cashier Tests Open in State

New York State competitive examination for the title of Cashier will be held on March 17. The salary for this job runs from $3,060 to $4,560 in five annual increases. Applicants will be accepted to Feb. 6. Examination number 5032 is open only to those candidates who have worked for the competitive class in the Department of Motor Vehicles for one year in a position of Grade three or higher, and the minimum examination number 5032 is open only to those who have been employed in the Department of Taxation and Finance and Phonics for a year in a position Grade Three or higher.

The examinations will be given on the ability to make change accurately, to write standing written material, knowledge of office and cashiering terminology, rules, and procedures will also be tested.

Applications forms are available at our offices or at Room 2031, 270 Broadway in New York City. The examination will be held in the Department of Taxation and Finance in Room No. 5032.

The officers installed by CSEA Field Representative Thomas L. Schmidt, were Dorothy Feldman, president; Joseph Annunziata, vice president; Raymond Prunato, secretary, Louise C. Rafferty, treasurer; Helen Bospisil, third vice president; Marguerite Longo, recording secretary, and Muriel Holister, Corresponding Secretary.

Section director Fred A. Jones, Jr., presented gift certificates to Dorothy Feldman and Kenneth Boyce. These three Association members have recently re- tired after approximately 20 years of active service to the CSEA.

The Unit also presented Fred Jones with a gift in recognition of the excellent work he had done as Section director for the past two years.

P. M. Raymond, supervisor, members of the Common Council and Westchester Chapter President Joseph H. Burbeck and Caroline Caruso were among the 210 who attended the affair. Acting City Judge, Louis J. Lemberger gave the invocation.

New Director of State Parks

Hutchison succeeds Evans as State Parks Director

ALBANY, Jan. 16—Leonard L. Hutchison, a civil engineering graduate of Cornell University and a career state employee, is the new director of state parks.

In a two-year program, he succeeded by the retirement of James P. Evans as director. Mr. Hutchison became director and his post as assistant director now has been filled by Robert J. Middletown, another career state employee.

Mr. Hutchison began his conservation career in 1933 with the CCC State Park program. In 1937, he became general manager of the Central New York State Park Commission and was named assistant director of parks in 1951. He became director of the Southern State Park Commission, a member of the staff of the State Adjutant General, but has been employed by the state since 1948. His salary will be $13,346. Mr. Hutchison's salary will start as $13,346 a year.

Of Mr. Evans' retirement, Conservation Commissioner Harold O. Wilms said: "His talents of leadership and dedication to the job at hand have been extraordinary. He has helped create a great state park system, outstanding in the nation, and we are all the better for having known and admired him in our minds."

Evans well known

Jim Evans is one of the best known state employees in government service. A native of New York State, he has been the State Parks Director for fifteen years as director and had a total of 37 years of state service. He will continue to serve on the Executive Board of the Agency and to the State Power Authority.

Located in Saratoga, the State parks are now a special legislative representative in seeing funds for expansion of the state park program. His most recent battle was for state acquisition of the Sampson Naval area for recreational purposes.

His service spans the entire growth of the state from its inception to the present national park program. In addition, he was a member of the original advisory committee to the State Park Board. In 1945, he directed the World's Fair in the Madison Square Garden. He was a member of the New York-New England Inter-Agency Committee.

Honey, William

Is Honored

A retirement dinner for Honorable William H. Honey, Jr., County Chair of the Civil Service Employees Association was held in the Park Club house in the Canton Room. Mr. Honey served as Stormville, one of the first parks in the state park system. He served as a member of the state legislature for twenty-eight years. The dinner was served by the Stormville B. P. Oil company. The honoree was attended by 90 co-workers, friends, and Chapter members.

Joseph H. Burke, Superintendent was master of ceremonies and made a few words in a speech signed by his co-workers and friends.

Chester Balistreri, Executive Secretary of the L.I.S.P.C. presented Mr. Honey with the first of 20 pin.

Herman Bourtier and William Blegen were speakers. The dinner ended with the presentation of a framed photo of the Inscription with gold letters made by a chapter member.

Yonkers CSEA Unit Elects New Officers

At a recent election meeting, the members of the Yonkers Non-Instructional Employees Association elected Elizabeth Prula as its new president. Also elected were Assistant President, George Waterman; treasurer, Victor Vadano; record secretary, Martin Fechter; financial secretary and Ernest Menahem, assistant-secretary.

The annual meeting of the Unit of the Westchester Chapter of Civil Service Employees Association was held in the Yonkers CSEA office. Members of the Yonkers School District who have recently been secured, Bennett Zelinger, assistant secretary to the Retirement System, was elected as the new director of a non-profit organization.

Shown above is Felice Amadio, president of the Middletown State Hospital chapter of the Civil Service Employees Association, presenting the annual donation for the patients' Christmas parties and food at the State Hospital. The proceeds helped to provide Christmas parties and food at the State Hospital.
