Governor Signs Trooper Half Pay Retirement—Report on CSEA Bills

ALBANY, April 17 — State troopers will now be able to retire at half pay after 25 years' service as the result of legislation approved by the 1961 Legislature and signed here by Governor Rockefeller.

The measure was approved by the Governor in a ceremony here attended by the new Superintendent of State Police, Arthur Correll, and by Joseph F. Felly, president of the Civil Service Employees Association, and Harry W. Albright, Jr., CSEA counsel.

After the ceremony, Mr. Felly told The Leader that: "The Employees Association felt very proud to have played a part in getting the half-pay retirement bill for State troopers after 25 years of service. This bill has been one of our objectives for some years. It is important not only as an immediate benefit to those State troopers who are contemplating retirement but also to all who are interested in seeing the Retirement System improved."

The 20-day bill period, during which the Governor will approve or veto measures passed by the Legislature, ends April 24. He has already approved several Employees Association bills and others are awaiting his signature.

The Leader presents the status of those bills as they were reported at press time for this issue.

Armory Aides' Bill Signed

(Special to The Leader)

ALBANY, April 11—Armory employees in the State will now be on a salary par with other State employees as the result of legislation Governor Rockefeller will sign today.

The bill grants all armory employees a $100 across-the-board raise they were denied in 1964 and, at the same time, places them in a salary scale that is equal to the State Police.

This equality was brought about after a long campaign in the Legislature by Civil Service Employees' Association and through the personal intervention of Mal-

Stuart Brewer, district administrator of Workmen's Compensation Board.

Survey Shows 90% of Federal Aides Satisfied With Health Program

A recent survey by the Civil Service Commission (CSC) on the new health benefit program shows that 90% of Federal aides are satisfied with it, but that some would like to see more.

Questionnaires filled out by 10 percent of Federal employees showed that most of the aides surveyed had actually used their plans during the last 6 months before the survey. The aides were asked to state what they thought of their plans and what changes they would recommend.

About one third of the employees who filled out questionnaires suggested specific changes in their present plans, and about one fifth suggested changes in the overall program. Disillusioned users complained about delays in payments, lack of coordination with claims forms and procedures. Users also complained that the plans don't pay enough for what they are.

The changes most desired by the employees included those that would have added to their benefits. More than one fifth suggested changes in the overall program. Disillusioned users complained about delays in payments, lack of coordination with claims forms and procedures. Users also complained that the plans don't pay enough for what they are.

Legal Program for Federal Aides Taking Shape

The CSC has started to establish the support necessary to deal with the problems confronting the public service management, such as urban redevelopment, education, and health.

Mr. Macy urged civil servants to recognize the importance of programs and to deal with them effectively, and to encourage new ideas. He also urged more extensive research in public administration to prevent the "unpredictable outcomes" of policies and to overcome the handicaps of their discrimination. Another proposal would create more high jobs in the classified and postal services. A plan in the legislative program is to plan to make the 10 percent increase in benefits paid to Civil Service employees permanent.

$496,776,508 Paid to N.J.S. Vet's in '60

New York State veterans and their families received a total of $496,776,508 in cash benefits and services during the fiscal year of 1960, the Veterans Administration announced recently. New York State was second only to California in the local expenditures.

Compensation-free service-connected disabilities were paid to 383,695 veterans in the amount of $218,315.30. An average of 565 disabled veterans of World War II and the Korea Conflict in New York trained during the fiscal year of 1960. More than 5,000 veterans trained during the year, who were 17 years old under the World War II and Korea GI Bills.

Macy Addresses Public Administration Group; Calls for "New Vitality"

Civil Service Commission Chairman John Macy addressed the National Conference of the American Society for Public Administration recently on change and public administration.

The implications of recent change is deep-rooted in all of us," Mr. Macy said. "In public administration, as in other pursuits, we cannot or should not abandon a carefully wrought and established policy by a failure to cope with a new situation. We have got used to the existing condition; we feel comfortable with what we have applied skill and energy to create that condition in the past."

Lauds Leader PR Column; Urges One On Work Quality

Editor, The Leader:

I want to congratulate you and congratulate Leo J. Margulies for his forceful and incisive article in The Leader on the need for a centralized forum through which the Board could learn first hand the representative of various employee groups and even department officials made pleas for higher pay and fringe benefits and better working conditions.

As far as I can see, there have been hearings rarely result in any action by the City, either favorable or unfavorable, but serve rather as a forum where employees can let off steam. They apparently serve no other useful purpose.

Setting off steam can be reason enough in the eyes of the Estimate Board to hold the hearings, but it certainly seems to us the occasion could be far more useful as a genuinely productive hearing, bringing into the open and solving at least the symptoms of the problems shared by City employees what is wrong in civil service and then take heed.

The responsibility, however, lies not only with the Board of Estimate. Too often, certain employee groups use the hearings merely as propaganda outlets and fail to present a reasonable, responsible case. This attitude of a few employees is not representative of the majority, but it does demand some excuse for their apparent lack of serious attention to the hearings.

A Meaningful Bill

ONE OF THE most important measures signed by Governor Rockefeller this year is the legislation which guarantees that State troopers will now be able to retire at half pay.

The two important words in that legislation are "guarantee" and "half pay.

In the past, any State employee retiring, regardless of the reason, has been entitled to the full pension or pensioner benefit; there seems to be a considerable indifference on the part of some employees to leave a legacy of benefits to a successor in the form of amounts of money given to the job as well as regarding the quantity and substantiality of the benefits as well.

This negative attitude may be partly due to some legitimate grievances on the part of the employee. However, from an ethical point of view, any employee should have the opportunity to leave a resource to his successor and to the State on the condition that it is a necessary and prudent one.

And even from a very practical point of view, the legislature is trying to make sure that the advantages of all public servants—especially those in the classified civil service—will be protected in this year of change for consciousness, interest in the job, desire to improve the service, and, most important, for the necessity of, and necessary, wise and adequate service.

Urges City Employees To Leave Service

Editor, The Leader:

I feel I was very lucky three years ago to be able to get a job in the private industry outside of civil service, and I took it. I am a believer in the free enterprise system. I have no complaints concerning the city's system of rewarding those who are given the opportunity to be a civil service employee—should be willing himself, and should expect others, to give a 'fair day's work for fair day's pay.'

And even from a very practical point of view, the legislature is trying to make sure that the advantages of all public servants—especially those in the classified civil service—will be protected in this year of change for consciousness, interest in the job, desire to improve the service, and, most important, for the necessity of, and necessary, wise and adequate service.

HARRY G. FOX was a State employee 32 years and a member and officer of the Civil Service Employees Association during that time. His good humor, affable nature and his talents as an administrative officer for the State Civil Service Department earned him friends and a high reputation in New York City and throughout the State.

His death last week was untimely and tragic and he will be sorely missed by all who knew him. He was a fine public servant and a great friend. May his soul rest in peace.

Questions Answered

On Social Security

I was told I had not worked long enough to qualify for social security benefits at age 65. Has there been any change in the amount of work required?

A person who is entitled to benefits has been reduced by one-third, and if you were told in the past that you did have enough work under social security to qualify for payments, you should get in touch with your local social security office now to see if you are eligible under the changes in the law. There has been no change.

When should a person who is going to retire get in touch with the social security office? Should he wait until he is to be held off work so he will be entitled to benefits?

No. He should not wait until he retires. He should apply as early as three months before retirement and this will speed up his benefits check.

In private industry you have better guarantees of job security, usually provided by a solid company (which must make), whereas in the Federal government (which must do), whereas in civil service you have excellent job security unless you happen to cross paths with any one of a number of political hacks who are your old friend, who can happen on them too easily.

But in private industry you

Dr. Beckenstein, Brooklyn State Director, Honored

The Brooklyn State Hospital chapter, Civil Service Employees Association, reports:

A testimonial dinner was held in honor of Dr. Nathan Beckenstein at St. George’s Hotel in the grand ballroom on March 23rd, to celebrate the merging of the Brooklyn juvenile Guidance Center, Inc., with the coordinated Commission of Mental Health Clinic of Brooklyn, Inc. The Chairman of the event, Judge J. Vito P. Coupland, and attending on the dias was Clinton L. Miller and Dr. Peter H. Patchen, Director of Department of Mental Hygiene. The dinner was a huge success and an indication of the years of untiring effort by Dr. Beckenstein in the field of mental health.

Dr. Beckenstein was presented with a beautiful plaque from the group and in honor was presented with a portrait of himself by Robert Schmitt, President of the Board of Directors of the Hospital with the best wishes of the Board.

Congratulations Dept.

Conversations to Dr. and Mrs. Patchen preceded the event, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Croom on the birth of a daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Aronson on the marriage of son, on their recent addition—a baby girl. Back of Jack to Mrs. Mary Gallagher and Mrs. Ann Sening on their resignation from the Hospital. Congratulations to Allen W. Wold, President and Mrs. Wold for their retirement.

Harry G. Fox, Longtime CSEA Treasurer, Dies in Albany

The Nassau County Chapter of the Nassau Community College in Mineola has announced the receipt of $12,500 from the Nassau chapter of the Civil Service Employees Association.

This money was given to the Nassau County College Association to be available as scholarships and loans for tuition payments for students at Nassau Community College. This fund, to be administrated by the College Association, is expected to be had by all.

PILGRIM EMPLOYEES HONORED: Mrs. Robert Patchen and Robert Patchen, left and second from left, were the honored guests at a dinner dance held recently by Pilgrim State Hospital chapter, Civil Service Employees Association. Mr. Patchen, followed by his wife, has been appointed business officer of Willard State Hospital. Employees with 25 years of service were also honored at this dinner. From left to right, starting third from left, Dr. Constance Barwise, food for thought for their service of 22 years and who was so recently-termed in the CSEA during his entire working career. A native of Troy, he served as a sergeant in the 5th Infantry Division in Europe during World War II.

He lived at Cherry Tree Road in Loudonville with his wife, Marli, and daughter, Carol. Another daughter, Mrs. John Patry, is a teacher in the Buffalo school system.

Cumberland County CSEA Forming

The formation of a Cumberland County Chapter of the Civil Service Employees Association took a step closer to certainty last week when over 87 of a possible 100 employees of the Department of Motor Vehicles joined the Association.

This number of members need to constitute a county chapter of the 90,000-member organization. Field Representative Patrick G. Martinez, who conducted the drive, closed the membership at midnight Saturday, thereby indicating that there are students who might make good use of this assistance made available by the Civil Service Employees Association.

Mr. Flumenbaum expressed his delight at the fact that the Civil Service Employees Association would contribute towards the establishment of such a useful scholarship and loan fund, and voiced his hopes that his Association and others would continue to add to this fund in the days ahead.

5-Point Plan Is Extended

ALBANY, April 17 — The take home pay raises for public employees, last year by the Civil Service Employees Association, have been extended for another year.

Governor Rockefeller approved three bills to extend the five point plan.

In a memorandum Mr. Rockefeller said "The first bill extends the take home pay raises for public employees by a reduction in employee contributions toward retirement, for members of the Civil Service Employees Retirement System. It also implements the original intent of the program by limiting its benefit to contributing members of the system."

The Governor said the second bill will extend the benefits for members of the State Teachers Retirement System and would similarly limit the program to contributing members.

The third bill will extend the program for members of the Closed State Hospital Retirement System.
All bills provide for a one year extension.

Noting he had recommended this legislation in his annual message of Jan. 4 Governor Rocke- feller concluded "I recommend this extension as a part of the effort of this Administration to retain and attract into State service the highest caliber personnel.

The bills were sponsored by Senator Frank E. Van Lan, Rochester Republican; Assembliesman John E. Johnson, Genesee Republican and Assemblyman Pres-ident B. Huntington, Buffalo County Republican.
