CSEA Intervention Balks Union Drive to Represent Olean Aides

(From Leader Correspondent)

OLEAN, Jan. 1 — Intervention by the Civil Service Employees Association — plus the determination of CSEA members in this Cattaraugus County city of Local 1319, State, County and Municipal Employees, to become the sole bargaining agent for city workers.

The AFL-CIO union demanded recognition by the city, but met with a challenged union that it represented city employees.

Mayor Ders D. Norton has notified the Buff state, as of Jan. 1, to conduct a two-year organizing drive, was crystallizing the dispute between Mr. Zanghi and Robert F. Cunrowave, during the annual CSEA convention.

The mayor restored order after epithets such as "anti-labor" were exchanged when Al- derman Julius Darson, was ill. Alderman Julius Darson, was ill at the time of the meeting.

The CSEA executive board has continued its support of the union, which has conducted a two-year organ- ization campaign. The 11th member, which was agreement on the recognition issue.

The Council, two days later, re- turned the decision not to recog- nize the union.

The aldermen agreed they could not reintroduce a two-state machinery by law for State employees. It ef- fective date is set for Oct. 1, 1963.

A companion bill to the new CSEA received another setback in the courts last week. The Appeals Court unanimously ruled that public employees, be- cause of their status, cannot be permitted to strikes. We intend to honor that promise.

Levitti Announces: Change in Death Benefits Planned

ALBANY, Jan. 1 — State Comptroller Arthur Levitt said today that he would cease to be introduced in the Legislature a bill to provide a form of "life insurance" to members of the New York State Retirement System.

At an earlier meeting, a tele- phone call from the CSEA President said any such measure was not needed and would be dangerous to the union. The ordinary death benefit, would guarantee a lump sum payment of at least $1,000 to a widow or children of a member who died after a period of six months in service. This is achieved by adding to the ordinary death benefit payment the difference between the amount of such par- tial payment and $500. If a member's cover- age under the CSEA would provide a benefit pending the ad- mission to the ordinary death benefit, there would be no additional payment.

Ordinary death benefits are cal- culated on the basis of one-fifth of the employee's salary for every year of employment up to 10 years and thereafter one month's salary for every two years of employment up to 36 years. Thus, the maximum death benefit would be two years' salary. The new legislation would provide an additional payment of $1,000, up to two years' salary, is cer- tain to be continued.

The act would take effect July 1, and would apply in cases where death occurs after that date.

BONUS

Newspaper articles concerning a New York State Korean veterans' bonus are appearing with increased frequency. These newspaper articles are all referring to a proposal for a New York State Korean veteran's bonus, as is no New York State veterans' bonus legislation has been introduced by the New York State Legislature to date.

A constitutional amendment has been required by the New York State Legislature to a Korean veteran's bonus. This constitutional amendment has to involve the legislature of the New York State legislature and to be submitted to the voters for their approval. A similar proposition in the past involved in the veteran's bonus legislation, the one that involved the Korean veteran's bonus, and most likely be paid to Korean veterans in this state, is not yet final.

FREELICENSEE

Certain seriously disabled veterans who received money from the federal government which was to be used as a motor vehicle do not have to pay a New York State license registration fee. Such veterans, as such, are involved in many state-issued veterans' bonus legislation, the main reason being that the seriously disabled veteran is more likely to be paid to veterans in this state, if such veterans are involved in such legislation.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

Object lessons rarely hit the world's front pages. But India's recently concluded elections gave all students of public relations, particularly those in government, a farther view of public relations "dents."

EVERY CIVIL servant should have a clear public relations task. India'sAppekly good aspects of India's aspect of the country, being collapsed. Examine carefully the words leading to the fact that India's public relations may be the one word to express on Goa.

1. DON'T LOOK at your temper when you are in your point. Indian people should keep a love of India's public relations, but remember, you have a word to express on Goa.

2. DON'T MAKE a mistake, even a small one, which causes many years of building up good public relations, based on good performance and good behavior. (Item: do not keep up your own group of India's public relations, even if the country's public relations are in a speechless state of affairs, because that's evidence of something hidden under the rubric.)

3. DON'T TAKE a chance on the future of the public relations of India. Here are some of the key "don'ts" to remember.

4. DON'T TALK from both sides of your mouth if you want to win friends and influence people as part of a program of achieving good public relations. (Year: years of yelling-thrown into international declarations by India are nearly by the same man from one to more than twenty per cent of the population of India.)

5. DON'T  MAKE an important mistake, even in public relations practice by carefully examining the probable public reaction to your words. (Item: Many Indians are still in a state of fear from the violence, against their country's public relations, to see the question by an American representative, who asked Memo, what was India's public relations, as it wasn't aggression.)

6. DON'T MAKE an important mistake, even in public relations practice by carefully examining the probable public reaction to your words. (Item: Mr. Reagan's public relations with present and possible programs is elementary bad publicity. Mr. Reagan became associated with the bank in 1969. In 1969 he became president of the bank, as assistant vice-president and vice-president in 1969.

He is also a member of the board of directors of the Pace College Alumni Association.

THE PUBLIC
EMPLOYEE

BY JOSEPH F. FEILY
President,
Civil Service Employees Association

Rule 30 Explained

BECAUSE OF the MANY requests to the Association for an explanation of Rule 30 of the Rules of Civil Service, which creates contingent permanent status for State employees filling temporary vacancies, it is felt that the facts and the issues after consultation with CSEA's counsel, Frank Leach and other Association staff members.

PRIOR TO the ENACTMENT of Rule 30, an employee would pass a competitive examination and be eligible and reachable for a promotion. Often, he would be promoted to a temporary vacancy and would have to take the examination for a permanent position. When the position became permanent, however, and was ready to be filled on a permanent basis, the temporary employee would no longer be eligible because the list from which he was appointed had expired. Consequently, a new examination had to be given and if this particular employee did not fall within the top three, he would not be eligible for permanent employment.

AS A RESULT OF ACTION by the 1960 Legislature, the Civil Service Commission enacted Rule 30, which provides that when a permanent position is appointed or promoted to a permanent basis, the temporary employee who has filled themost three people willing to accept the appointment, the employee must be eligible and reachable for a permanent promotion to the position, he shall acquire contingent permanent status after completion of the six-month period.

THE APPOINTMENT OR PROMOTION must have been from an eligible list containing the names of at least three people who were willing to accept the appointment at time the authority makes fill with the Civil Service Department written notice designating the employee as holding the position on a contingent permanent basis. The request should be noted that at the time of the appointment to the vacancy position, the employee must be eligible and reachable for permanent promotion at a permanent employee rate.

IT IS POSSIBLE FOR A PERSON to obtain contingent permanent status while the list from which the employee was appointed was in existence. Once this status is achieved, an entry is made in his record, and it is no longer necessary for him to take an examination for the position in which he was appointed, as he will be appointed to the position at any time at the discretion of the appointing officer.

IN ORDER TO OBTAIN CONTINGENT permanent status, the employee must have been in existence at the time of a canvass, it is immaterial whether the list expires prior to the completion of the six-month period. If a person becomes eligible and reachable after a canvass, he may be appointed to a temporary position upon the expiration of the six-month period commences on the date he becomes eligible.

MENTAL HYGIENE MEMO

THE CONCLUSIONS and interpretations I state above are the information obtained from the Association, and references to determinations with various State agencies, including the office of the Attorney General and the Civil Service Department.

Sen. McEwen Presses Passage of Retirement Bill for Institution Aides

ODENSBURG, Jan. 1 — Senator Robert C. McEwen said today he hopes a new retirement bill he has presented to the legislature for 1962 action will pass.

The measure provides retirement at 50 for the state's institutional employees. Under its requirements workers would pay a flat six per cent of their salaries into retirement. The measure, if approved, would permit 50-year-old retirees to begin getting retirement checks.

"During past sessions of the legislature I have been privileged to work with the Civil Service Employees Association in accomplishing many worthwhile objectives," Senator McEwen, a Republican, said. "I sincerely hope that this bill will pass this year and that there will be further evidence of the state's continued interest in the faith and welfare of these important state institutions.

"This bill, if enacted into law, would do a great deal to attract to state service the type of employee who has, in the past, made the mental hospitals and other institutions a field of efficiency and leadership in the nation."

I have often heard that my employer should copy my name and Social Security number directly on your Social Security card. It is very important that work, you would meet the insured requirements for disability protection.

I am now completely disabled. My earnings capacity has been gradually decreasing for the past four years due to a tropical disease which I am unable to work. I’ve been reading one of those pamphlets on disability benefits and the receipt or cancelled check in February, and you should have information of your 1961 earnings. It seems to me that State employees should be given a psychological lift in the absence of work. It was not intended that they should be put out of work. The Commissioner refused. Navy Yard
Told It Must
Add 500 Men

Unless the Brooklyn Navy Yard can add 500 men to its present complement of 12,500 employees, extra work given to the Yard by the Navy will be of no benefit to the Yard, said Mr. Hugh L. Carey, (Dem. N.Y.), recently.

He said the Yard was having a difficult time meeting the deadlines set by the Atlantic Fleet Command. Unless it can meet the deadlines, it will be judged inefficient, and work that might have gone to it will go elsewhere.

He said that the Yard, if it can't meet its work schedule, is "out of business."

His remarks were brought about by the Yard's recent announcement that overhauling work on four aircraft carriers, two destroyers, and four destroyers escort would go to the shipyard in Brooklyn. The Navy also announced a $42 millionaper modernization plan for the Yard.

Social Security Questions Answered

Do this new rule regarding work apply to all workers, as well as older ones? The amount of work required for the payment of retirement or survivors benefits has been reduced for anyone who will reach retirement age before 1961. A man becoming age 65 after 1958 will need ten full years of work under social security to qualify for retirement benefits.

When I reached 65 last year, I applied for social security payments on my wife's social security account. I was told that I would be entitled to receive benefits which I could then collect if she died. Is that correct? Yes, you are entitled to receive benefits which you could begin collecting if your wife died. Your benefits would be reduced, however, in the event that you die before she does.

Will I be entitled to receive benefits under the new rule for the next 24 months or is it only for the next 12 months? The new rule applies to the first 24 months of retirement. If you reach 65 after 1960, your full retirement benefits will be payable beginning in October 1959.

ROCHESTER, Jan. 1 — Rochester Postmaster Louis B. Cartwright will resign his federal Civil Service post Jan. 5.

Cartwright, 65, has permanent Civil Service status, which means he could not be removed unless brought up on charges such as violations of the Hatch Act. Cartwright has been postmaster eight years. The position pays $14,900 a year and it will go to a presidential appointee by the administration in Washington.

Also to be filled is the post of assistant postmaster, vacated at the resignation of John B. Cash Oct. 31. Both positions are rated competitive Civil Service, but the appointments must be approved by the Post Office Department.

The assistant postmaster receives between $10,000 and $14,000. Postmaster's salary varies depending on revenue of the post office, number of employees, volume of mail and other factors.

Cartwright was Rochester City Manager for 13 years before becoming postmaster under the Hatch Act. He said he had determined to retire because he is past the age he would have stepped down in his department, and in order to "be on my own instead of working regular hours."
