After 5 Year's Service

Last Minute CSEA Win Gives Job Protection To 18,000 State Aides

ALBANY, April 15—In a dramatic, 11th hour action, the State Legislature approved 18,000 State employees in the non-competitive class of removal from their jobs.

Association to Assemblyman Orin Wilcox (R-Jefferson) and Senate Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney got the bill out on the floor for a vote. After passing the Senate, the most dramatic action came on the floor of the Assembly when Wilcox himself shot one vote of passage. He appealed for one more vote by holding up a finger—and got the winning margin.

Prior to calling for a vote on the measure, the Assembly was prepared, in every sense of the word, to adjourn. Wilcox credited action on the bill to the cooperation of Speaker Joseph Cullin who held the Assembly in session solely in order to permit the bill to come to the floor.

Mahoney's View

Commenting on the bill's passage, Senator Mahoney said: "I feel strongly that an incoming administration should have the right to place appointees of its own choosing in exempt positions on the policy level. This is traditional in our system and it is entirely proper.

"Certainly, however, an employee on the non-policy level who has performed his duties faithfully over a period of years, it is not the policy of the Legislature to sack him at the end of the session."}

South Conference To Meet On May 3

The Southern Conference of the Civil Service Employees Assn. will meet May 3 at 8 p.m. in the State Armory at Newburgh, it was announced last week.

A regular business meeting also will be held. (Continued on Page 3)

DANCE TICKETS — Austin M. Sarr, left, metropolitan district engineer, is always receiving tickets from Lou A. Desiderio, president of the District 10 Public Works chapter, Civil Service Employees Association, for a forthcoming chapter dance. The dance will be held May 4 at 9 p.m. at the American Legion Hall, Grove St., Binghamton. Tickets for the "Night in Paris" may be obtained from Dorothy Whitty at the Babylon office, est. 256.

Popular Grand Tour of Europe Departs By Jet On June 18

One of the most popular European vacations—the Grand Tour—has again been organized for members of the Civil Service Employees Association and will depart for 24 days from New York via KLM Royal Dutch Airlines jet on June 18, returning there July 9.

For a total cost of $515, tour members will receive round trip jet transportation; all hotel rooms, half board, sightseeing, air taxis, etc. Group rates are available for the low all-inclusive price, which offers savings of more than $525 over regular rates. (Continued on Page 4)

CSEA Resisting Attempt To Downgrade Painters

ALBANY, April 15—The Civil Service Employees Assn. said last week it would fight any attempt to downgrade painter positions in the Department of Mental Hygiene or other State agencies.

The CSEA's stand was taken at a meeting with J. Earl Kelly, director of the State Division of Classification and Compensation, whose office reportedly has earmarked the painter positions (Grade 10) for review and possible reclassification to maintenance man (painter) at Grade T.

Dramatic Action

Up to the closing hours of the session it appeared that the bill had no chance of passage. Last minute appeals by the Employees Association to Assemblyman Orin Wilcox (R-Jefferson) and Senate Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney got the bill out on the floor for a vote. After passing the Senate, the most dramatic action came on the floor of the Assembly when Wilcox himself shot one vote of passage. Significant Reform

In commenting on the bill, which finally passed the New York State Legislature, Rockefeller for final disposition, CSEA said:

"Poland is one of the most significant reforms directly relating to the Civil Service Law which has been written in the past ten years. Employees who are unable to compete by competitive examination for their positions because of the nature of their work will now be exposed to the vagaries of political change or the whims of their superiors. Certainly, an employee has ample opportunity to determine, in a period of five years, whether an employee is suitable and effective in his position, under Civil Service Law, the non-competitive class includes positions that are not in the exempt, labor or competitive class and for which it is not practicable to test merit and fitness by competitive examination.

Affected Positions

A distribution of State positions compiled quarterly by the Department of Mental Hygiene gives with the greatest number of employees in the non-competitive class, some 850, as of last October, in the non-competitive class with more than 500 positions in the non-competitive class include such positions as: Bell Telephone, 1,525; Health, 1,399; Conservation, 1,101; Social Welfare, 800. CSEA said, as of October 1, 1962.

In memorandum supporting the measure, CSEA said, it has been realized that employees in the policy-making range of State service are those affected by it as they are in the exempt class.

State Senator J. Hefield was co-sponsor of the bill.

Kennedy Requests Pay Reform Funds

President Kennedy has asked Congress for supplemental appropriation totaling $277,978,380 to cover the fiscal year Federal employee pay increases. Additional funds are needed because of last year's pay reform law costs. Federal agencies have been asked to absorb 20 percent of these costs.

Telephone System Connects Federal Agencies in 43 Cities

The new phone system is the latest phase of a project that pays $120 million, a new inter-govemmental telephone system that will make Federal Civil Service employees throughout the country have gone into operation. The system, developed by General Services Administration, is the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., links Federal civilian activities in 43 cities over a 17,000-mile network. The system's communication system will connect some 350 offices and handle almost all civilian-duty telephone tariffs in the country by 1964 or 1965.

CSC Requests Monies For Pre-employment Interview Expenses

In another effort to attract top-quality applicants in shortage occupations such as science and engineering, the Civil Service Commission has sent a proposal to Congress to authorize Federal agencies to pay travel expenses for pre-employment interviews. Model studies undertaken by the Commission reveal that competition for highly trained and specialized workers will remain high and that agencies are handicapped by this competition with private industry. Under this new proposal, agencies are to pay both per diem and mileage costs connected with visits to Federal installations by qualified applicants. Significant Victory For The Merit System

Of all the important aspects of the Merit System the most basic is job protection. Public employees in this State must be reinstated from time to time that this element of civil service is still absent in public employment in large sectors of the country. A notable example is Pennsylvania, where 59,000 jobs were open for political patronage when the incumbent party lost the election.

It is a basic purpose of the bill to provide a significant victory for the Merit System in New York State in terms of job security. The victory is the result of the very last bill that died on the last day of the State Legislature. The measure provides that non-competitive State employees with five years' service cannot be dismissed from their jobs without written charges and a hearing. The bill is now before Governor Rockefeller, who is expected to sign it. The measure will be affected.

We are heartened by the kind of support this bill received. This was the last bill that was brought before the Assembly Employees' Assn., which pressed for its passage throughout the session.

The SHELVEs emptied too soon to meet the demands for so many undertakings, plans and needs for our citizens.

That Bore Cupboard

OLD MOTHER Hubbard's cupboard was quite bare as far as replenishments for State employees were concerned this year.

New York State legislators are now of the opinion that they should exercise greater scrutiny over fiscal affairs of the State this year; to improve their responsibility for the future. They now state that they should study and examine budgets of all State departments and that it should continue during the entire year.

With this thinking, we concur. This seems a logical course to follow and especially if money can be saved. It may be that this plan, if adopted, will benefit the civil servant.

Mental Hygiene attendants, (and many classes of workers in the department) are patiently waiting and hopefully looking forward to a job at Sing Sing, for 35 years—Samuel DeDio, Joseph Mathews, Ralph Conklin, Fred Riekert, and Ralph Conklin, Paul Grosclaude, Francis Coty, Fred Koopman, and Past Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary. Warden Denno presented with a gift and the well wishes of his friends and co-workers.

Contributions Needed

Correction Officers throughout the State are contributing toward a fund for payment to an Albany residence to represent them in an Article 78 proceedings in reference to their recent denial of a reallocation of salaries. Contributions will be greatly appreciated if sent to P.O. Box 301, Oswego, New York.

Examining for Correction Officer, Correction Hospital Officer and Correction Youth Camp Officer will be held on May 15, 1953. Applications close on May 13, 1953. Two lists will be established as a result of this examination. A "B" list, for all successful candidates with graduation from a two-year technical institute, community college, junior college or the satisfactory completion of two years at a recognized college or university. "B" list will be established as a result of this examination.

From the questions set during the examination announcement, one believes that an explanation is in order. All employees are being requested by the Department of Correction to raise the qualifications of entrance level uniform positions, from the present low standards, to enable Correction Officers to seek higher salaried positions in future negotiations. In compliance with the request, the Department scheduled a meeting with the designated spokesmen of each uniform representation presenting the uniform personnel: Department of Civil Service representatives and Correction Officials for the purposes of recommending higher qualifications. This meeting was a first, wherein employee representatives were given an opportunity by the Department of Correction to make such recommendations. When the higher educational requirements were recommended the group was informed that the representatives would receive more favorable consideration if they would agree to the use of an "A" and "B" list. It was explained that the two lists would be available with the higher educational requirements.

The Civil Service department felt it wanted to beef up the "A" list to avoid the possibility of immediately calling for a new examination because of a lack of qualified candidates in the higher category. If the experience proved fruitful with enough higher qualified candidates to fill existing vacancies, the elimination of a "B" list may be possible in the future. After the examination, all employee representatives at the meeting agreed unanimously to the use of an "A" and "B" list in order to secure the higher qualifications.

There appears to be some confusion with reference to the passing and signing of Introductory Print No. 139 by Assemblyman Wilson to "Amend the Correction Law, in relation to the salary basis for computing retirement benefits of employees who are elected or appointed to represent them in an Article 78 proceedings in reference to the question of whether or not they are entitled to represent employees in an Article 78 proceedings in reference to the question of whether or not they are entitled to represent them." What happens to their annual salary.

The old bill provided that employees who were scheduled to receive retirement benefits would be paid according to their former salary. The new bill provides that employees who were scheduled to receive retirement benefits would be paid according to their former salary. The new bill scheduled to receive retirement benefits would be paid according to their former salary.
