Levitt Orders Studies On Paid Up Health Insurance For Retired Public Aides

Compitroller Arthur H. Levitt has reported to County Manager Gordon A. Rowe of Monroe County that the State Retirement System has embarked on an extensive study of paid-up health insurance coverage for all retired State, local and municipal employees in this system.

He suggested in his annual message to the Monroe County Board of Supervisors that all retired public employees in the retirement system be given a Blue Cross-Blue Shield type health insurance policy to protect them from the impact of a major illness during their retirement years.

“You have touched on a very urgent problem, and I am pleased to lend your interest,” said, in a lengthy letter to Howe. “As your letter suggests, the problem is a State problem, not a County one.”

Howe originally proposed paid-up health insurance for retired Monroe County employees but on February 2, wrote to Levitt suggesting that the matter be considered on a statewide basis because, Howe said, “It seems to me that the need extends beyond the (Continued on Page 5)

Rules Rochester Downgrading Of Seven Illegal

ROCHESTER, Feb. 24 — A State Supreme Court justice has ruled that the City of Rochester acted legally in abolishing the jobs of its police telephone operators and creating new positions for them in lower salaries.

Judge Carolyn A. Roberts ordered seven men affected by the change reinstated to their old positions and the same pay of the old job. They will also receive back salary to July 1, 1963, when the positions were abolished.

The Civil Service Employees Assn., under its special legal program, furnished part of the financial assistance to fight the downgradings.

At the time of the downgradings, Joseph F. Felly, CSEA presid- ent, described the action as an “unfair demotion.”

Onondaga Five Attack Pay Raise: Feily Terms Action ‘Irresponsible’

ALBANY, Feb. 24 — A proposal from five Onondaga County legislators that Governor Rockefeller’s federal and pension program for State employees be slashed by more than half was termed a “wholly unjustifiable and irresponsible action” by Joseph F. Felly, president of the Civil Service Employees Assn.

The “Onondaga Five,” as this group of legislators has been tagged in political circles, suggested that whatever monies were left after the cut should go only to the lower grades. In 1962, most of the members of this group voted solidly against any raises for State employees. This year’s opposition came from Senators John R. Terry and Lawrence M. Rub- son and Assemblymen Robert Hatch, Jr., John H. Terry and Phillip B. Chase, who called their idea for the lower grades a “rip-off.”

Felly’s View

In commenting on the legisla- tors’ proposal, Felly declared in a terse statement: “The statement of Onondaga County legislators urging a $7 million cut in the Governor’s pro- posed $13 million appropriation for State employee salary in- creases represents, in our view, a wholly unjustifiable and irresponsible action.”

“You can’t just say you’re doing this. You must have a purpose. And the purpose was to save money.”

The Governor’s program was carefully worked out over a period of several months and was based upon scientific material submitted by CSEA, the Division of Budget and the Division of Administration and Compensation. The examination of private and public juris- diction which compares with the State disclosed a very real need for an increase along the lines recommended by the governor and supported by CSEA.

Proposal Exploded

“Now it is proposed to arbitrarily slash by more than half the appropriation needed to imple- ment this program and to give

ALBANY, Feb. 24 — All public employees within the State would be protected from personal liability for misconduct occurring in the performance of official duties under the bill submitted to the Legislature last week.

The measure, co-sponsored by Senator Norman F. Lent (R- Monroe) and Assemblyman Joseph F. Nowicki (R-Rockland), would place public employees on an equal footing with private individuals concerning civil suits arising from job - related negligence.

“If a municipality is not to be required to indemnify an employee for a judgment, attor- ney fees and other costs incurred in a defense, the munici- pality should be given the op- portunity to take over and conduct the defense as provided in the bill. The same logic that led to this would be both unfair and dangerous to impose the duty to indemnify without the municipality that the act was fully and adequately defended by competent counsel. If they have the time, can continue to practice law and make money in private businesses. Judges cannot.

The solution to the problem could be a proposition offered by a recent editorial in the New York Times. The proposal was:

Highway Engineers Assn. Supports State Pay Program

A new organization of State employees last week professed unanimous approval for the pension-salary pro- gram worked out between the Administration and the Civil Service Employees Assn.

The Board of Directors of the New York State Association of Highway Engineers, has unan- imously adopted a resolution en- dorsing and supporting whole- heartedly the recommendations of the Governor to the legislature for a salary increase of three percent (Continued on Page 18)

Owen Cities Return Of Political Wolf To Employees' Door

Federal employees have once again raised the old cry that they are under a certain amount of pressure from above to attend $150-a-bit political dinners.

The National Federation of Federal Employees has carried this cry to the point that they believe the system is in serious distress and must be replaced by the system.

In a recent letter to President Johnson, Federation president Vaux Owen declared, "Political pressure, however subtle, is exerting its force on an employee when he has the feeling that his position or his chance for promotion depends on the making of a political contribution or a political vote-getting activity."

New Bill Would Allow Principal's Salary Raise

ALBANY, Feb. 24—Senator Earl W. Brydges, upstate Republican, wants a new section added to the Education Law to set standards for principals for school principals in New York City.

Under the bill, principal's salaries for principals would be based on salary increases granted teachers, who are at the maximum salary rate. The measure would require the City Board to grant increases to school principals if teachers given a raise.

The formula, under the bill, calls for a raise to high school principals of at least 2 times the average teacher increase and at least 1.85 times such an increase for junior high school principals and at least 1.76 times the increase for elementary school principals.

The Woman's Angle

City. State and Federal civil servants are urged to contact the Women's Editor of the Leader with news of interest to women in civil service. Deadline for this material is Thursday at noon for publication in the following week's paper.

An interesting theory has developed as a result of the PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN. President Johnson feels that there is a definite lack of women in high level government jobs and has decided to do something about it. The something involves appointing 50 talented women to fill some of these top-level Federal jobs by March.

Since the deadline is so near, Professor John Watson recently called in the Citizens Advisory Council on the Status of Women to make suggestions. Leonard P. Dunn, chairman of the 17-member group is MARGARET HICKIY, the senior editor of Ladys' Home Journal.

Another interesting proposal was contributed by MISS HICKIY who feels that in order to successfully place top-notch women in useful positions, a clearing-house should be established. This central control would search for the right calibre women in all fields and then try to place them in high level State and Federal government positions.

In her explanation, she stated, "But it is more important to establish procedures, policy, and criteria than to get the names right now." She feels that the policy is important because it will probably be adopted on lower levels and, thus, should be applicable.

Interested parties are keeping a close eye on this subject. Since the presidium's commission was established, many feel that brimse and promotions in the lower grades of Federal, State, and local civil service have shown considerable far-sightedness. At least, they have attempted to do something to improve the status of women. President Kennedy and now carried by President Johnson, some proof of this change is that the New York Times has published an article showing that the New York Times has published an article showing how women have been given better positions under the new policy. State's Graduate School Doing In-Service Review
ALBANY, Feb. 24 — A review of in-service training programs, which are available to local government officials and employees, is now underway. The Local Government Studies Center at the State University's School of Public Affairs is making the study.

The Graduate School hopes, as a result of the review, to determine the ways it can be most useful in assisting development and improvement of local in-service training programs. Dr. O. B. Conaway Jr., dean of the school, said the school plans to serve a clearing-house on urban government agencies and with such school, said the school plans to serve a clearing-house on urban government agencies.

I notice that my social security tax is shown as FICA tax on my W-2 Form. What does FICA stand for?

FICA taxes and social security taxes are the same. FICA is simply the initials for the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, which is commonly known as the social security tax.

I think that some of the men I worked for the first part of last year didn't report me for social security. How can I check on it?

Ask for a payroll card from your social security district office. With this card, you can request a statement of all income subject to your account.

I have been receiving social security benefits for several years. I have worked since June 1936 until June 1960. Since then, I have worked only from January through June for $268 a month. Am I entitled to any amount of insurance?

You are entitled to receive benefits if you have earned work credits. Since June 1964, you may receive benefits if you can prove to the Social Security Administration that you have earned 40 credits.

In health insurance the true cost to you is the premium payment PLUS what you have to pay out of pocket for additional doctors' charges. This means you should look for hidden extra charges before you select any medical insurance program. Unfortunately for you, in some medical programs these extra charges will not long remain hidden after you have selected one of them.

H.I.P. is the only health plan in the New York area that fully protects you against extra charges of this kind — even for specialist services. With one exception — a possible $2.00 charge for a home call — H.I.P.'s "share" or "co-insurance." In other words, in H.I.P. you do not have to pay extra charges after having already paid your premium.

Legislative Wheels Turn To Pay Raise

If things move as predicted, the House of Representatives will be discussing the Federal pay raise by the first of March. In fact, the bill could even pass both the House and the Senate before April 1 if the legislative wheels continue to turn as fast as they seem to be.

At present, the bill is still in the House Rules Committee where Chairman Howard W. Smith (D-Va.), is opposed it. Reports are that in spite of Smith’s opposition, he will yield to the majority feeling of the Rules Committee and the administration. Smith has agreed to hold a hearing on the pay raise by the end of the month.

In the meantime, the Senate Civil Service Committee is investigating the rumors that the pay bill will be clearing the House soon. They are ready to start hearings as soon as the bill gains House approval. The chairman of the Senate committee, Dix Johnston (D-B.C.), has, in fact, set a record in civil service. He has placed more bills through the Senate than any other legislator in history.

Johnson’s comment on the bill was that he didn’t anticipate trouble with the pay bill.

The money has been budgeted by the administration, Johnson’s only problem is getting the bill on the Senate floor before the long civil rights debates begin, according to some sources.

CSSEA Seeks Meeting After OGS Rejects Parking Plea

ALBANY, Feb. 24—The Civil Service Employees Association will meet this week with the State Office of General Services to discuss the parking situation of state employees in the downtown Albany area. The meeting was prompted when OGS turned down a CSEA request that employees who park downtown Albany lots be allowed to use downtown parking facilities, not to be limited to parking at the state campus.

In his appeal for removal of the fee, CSEA president Joseph F. Petly said that employees who work in downtown offices are being discriminated against in that no comparable parking facilities are provided on the state campus and at other state agencies in the Albany area.

Space Diminishing

In refusing the CSEA request, Schuyler said, "It is not now practicable to afford the parking you have recommended." Among his reasons, Schuyler said: "The increase of the amount of space required for employees parking if no fee was involved is simply not possible to accommodate in downtown Albany."

The CSEA's request that employees in the State service be allowed to use downtown parking facilities will be open for filing until March 9. The tentative exam will be open for filing until March 9.
