This Is A Wheel Amongst Wheels-Ecker Is The Name

SYRACUSE, Sept. 14—Nearly a quarter of a century of active membership in the Civil Service Employees Assn. is the record of Charles Ecker of Warners, who is now President—for the fourth terms—the unit he was active in forming in 191.

He has served on the CSEA's education and membership committees, and now is a member of the Special Mental Hygiene Committee which is to meet with the commission in mental hygiene.—Sept. 14 in Albany. And he is an active member of the CSEA Central Conference, and chairman of one committee and a member of three others.

In the Syracuse State School Chapter, Ecker served as treasurer, delegate and vice president before being elected to his first term as president.

Ecker's rise in CSEA almost paralleled that of the state school.

Starting as an attendant in 191, he quickly rose to the position of bim monthly, on the Industrial Arts instructor, to Recreation In- structor, Social Worker, Colonel Supervisor and then to Senior Colonel Supervision, in charge of Wick School of the Syracuse State School's Suburban Division, the post he now holds.

The boost to take-home pay would lessen the impact of the new county salary plan on employees whose salaries would increase by only small amounts next year, some employees are due to get raises of as little as $10 to $15 under the new plan.

Ondondaga Chapter officials explained that approval of the payroll would mean a boost of $150 to $200 as previously estimated.

Harrows then suggested that the $8,000 "surplus" could be used to pay the additional three percent of retirement cost, and boost employee's take home pay. "We will make a lot of little people happy," he said.

The salary plan, some county officials have indicated, has brought complaints from a number of county workers, particularly those earnings up only the smallest amounts.

Under the new plan, all employees whose salaries would increase by only small amounts next year, some employees are due to get raises of as little as $10 to $15 under the new plan.

The personnel committee last week also boosted the minimum wage for the county employees 40 cents to $1.50. Action on this is also scheduled.

WATERTOWN, Sept. 14—The West County chamber opposes the new police and fire chiefs policy. Forbes' challenge to civil service through appointment of police and fire chiefs has brought on to the city manager's action. Chief J. Joseph Bitts of the police department has been named in defiance of local civil service authority.

To bring the matter into proper focus for eventual official ruling by the New York State Civil Service Commis- sion. Attorney Ward proposed the city council adopt a resolution requesting exempt status for the two chiefs. The council agreed.

Now the local commission will be required by law to hold a public hearing on the council request. Following the hearing the matter will be handled to the state commission to decide if the law permits the change.

City Manager Forbes apparently made up his mind after the police chief who retired Sept. 1, Carl H. Green, had failed a civil service non-competitive examination. Social Security Questions Answered

Q. How do I find out if all my earnings have been credited to my Social Security account?

A. Your district office or representative has a special form for writing your Social Security account. It is called "Request for Statement of Earnings." For a copy of the form, call your local post office. The request form encourages everyone to check on his earnings record from time to time. If you change jobs frequently or work for more than one employer during the year, the request may become more readily corrected.

Q. I am a new bride and do not plan to retire from my job. What do I do about my social security card?

A. You should apply for a social security card for your own use. You will be requested to complete a short application and then will be issued a new card.

Q. Mr. My wife hires a cleaning woman who is not a relative. Should she be given a Social Security card?

A. Yes, she should. She must be given the same Social Security card that is issued to all other workers. For this purpose, the Social Security Administration will make the necessary adjustment.

Q. What do they mean by a "social security card?"

A. It is a card that is issued by the Social Security Administration and serves as evidence of your identity when you apply for Social Security benefits. Your Social Security card is a record of all your earnings and is used by the Social Security Administration in determining your eligibility for Social Security benefits.

Q. Where and how are Social Security taxes paid?

A. Your Social Security taxes are paid quarterly on your earnings. If you have a job, your employer deducts the taxes from your wages and remits them to the government. If you are self-employed, you pay the taxes yourself. The rate is 6.2% on the first $90,000 of wages or income, and 1.45% on all wages or income.

Q. Should I continue to work after I retire?

A. It depends on your circumstances. If you continue to work, your Social Security benefits will be reduced. However, if you retire and then return to work, your benefits will be restored after a period of time.

Q. When my earnings are reported with my Social Security card number, how are they credited?

A. Your earnings are credited to your Social Security account as reported to the Social Security Administration. The amount of your Social Security benefits is based on the amount of your earnings and work record.

Q. When do earnings become taxable?

A. Earnings become taxable when they exceed $1000 for the year. However, if you have earned more than $1000, you should file a revised estimate as soon as possible to avoid an overpayment of benefits. At the end of the year when you have filed your annual report, it can then be determined whether you have been underpaid or overpaid, and the Social Security Administration will make the necessary adjustment.

Q. What is the law regarding the reduction of Social Security benefits?

A. There are several laws that affect the reduction of Social Security benefits. For example, if you have worked for more than 10 years, your benefits will be reduced by 50% for each additional year you work. If you have worked for less than 10 years, your benefits will be reduced by 20% for each additional year you work.

Q. Can I work while receiving Social Security benefits?

A. You may work while receiving Social Security benefits. However, the amount of your benefits will be reduced by 50% for each $1 in excess of $1000 that you earn in a calendar year. If you earn more than $1000, your benefits will be reduced by 50% for each $1 in excess of $1000 that you earn in a calendar year.

Why H.I.P. Can Do More For You!

- H.I.P. is the only plan in the New York area that gives full coverage for any needed amount of care provided by its family doctors and specialists.

- H.I.P. is the only medical care plan with no extra charges beyond the premium, the one exception being a possible $2.00 charge for a home call between 10 P.M. and 7 A.M.

- In H.I.P. there are no doctor bills for medical group services — no claim forms, no deductibles, no other red tape. And you do not have to discuss fees or family income with the doctor.

- In H.I.P. more than half of all physician services are given by specialists qualified in fourteen fields of medicine and surgery.

- In H.I.P. the qualifications of every family doctor and specialist have been approved by a medical board of distinguished physicians. Each doctor in a medical group provides only those services for which he has been specially trained. This means that babies are cared for only by pediatricians, mothers are delivered only by obstetricians, surgery is performed only by qualified surgeons.

- H.I.P. has no waiting periods for maternity or any other condition.

- H.I.P. has no limit on the amount of medical care, physical therapy, or laboratory services that may be given.

- In H.I.P. a subscriber and his family can continue with full service benefits if he leaves his job after having been insured for at least three months — regardless of his age.

Executive Chapter Elects Two New Vice Presidents

ALBANY, Sept. 14 — Because of resignations due to job transfers the executive chapter, Civil Service Employees Assn., recently elected two new vice presidents. Mrs. Dorothy MacTavish, State Commission on Capital Civic, was elected first vice president and Mary Masterson of the office of local government was elected the second vice president.

Mrs. Rose Frambach was named as the new membership committee chairman by the president of the chapter, May Defreese.

The chapter plans a seminar Sept. 15 at the Assembly Room of the Public Security Bldg. here. The Seminar will be on social security and will start at 3 p.m.

The chapter also plans to have a "Dollar Dance," to be held in the near future.

还以为只有游泳池才需要防晒霜吗？现在可不止这些啦。户外活动时，防晒的重要性不言而喻。下面我们就来看看不同的户外装备如何正确选择和使用。

首先，了解自己的皮肤类型。皮肤可以分为干性和油性两大类。如果你是干性皮肤，那么选择含有油性成分的防晒霜会更适合你，因为这种成分能帮助锁住水分。而如果你是油性皮肤，那么选择含有水溶性成分的防晒霜会更合适，因为这种成分可以快速蒸发，不会堵塞毛孔。

其次，选择防晒霜的SPF值。SPF值越高，防晒效果越好。但是，SPF值越高，使用起来就越油腻。因此，选择适合自己的SPF值非常重要。

最后，保护眼睛。在户外活动时，保护眼睛同样重要。可以选择带有UV保护的太阳镜，或者选择带有UV保护的防晒霜。

除了防晒，户外运动还需要注意防晒。比如，跑步时要注意防晒，防止皮肤晒红。骑自行车时，要选择防晒效果好的防晒霜，防止皮肤晒伤。

防晒是户外运动中非常重要的一环。希望大家能够正确选择和使用防晒霜，保持皮肤健康，享受户外运动的乐趣。

Co-op Housing

Units in Demand

Response to the initial announcement of the availability of cooperative apartments in East Harlem and in the midtown housing development which will be built in upper Manhattan, has been impressive, according to George Brooks, vice-president of Dublin Realty Corp., sales agent for the project.

The opening of sales offices at 1700 Amsterdam Avenue last week created a response that was even greater than the immediate expectations of the sponsors and others who had planned the venture on the assumption that an active and interested market would be developed for cooperative housing in the area.

The development, which upon completion will contain 1870 apartments, will occupy the site of a 142-story skyscraper which was abandoned by the city several years ago between 146 and 148 streets and Seventh Avenue.

ALBANY, Sept. 14—Mrs. Marion Blanchard Kennedy of Auburn, who has been named a member of the Board of Trustees of the Schuyler Community College. She succeeds Dr. Anthony L. Culidora, also of Auburn, who retired.
