Civil Service Day, Miss Civil Service Contest Set Again

The Leader will again sponsor "Civil Service Day" at the New York World’s Fair and will repeat the popular "Miss Civil Service" contest. Both events, which drew official recognition and statewide attention this year, will be held on Memorial Day, May 31, at the Fair.

The day will again include demonstrations of civil service to the general public by units of Federal, State, County, and City government. Various award ceremonies will be conducted and the program will again conclude with the crowning of the winners of the "Miss Civil Service Contest."

Rockland Widens Base For Aides’ Representation

ALBANY, Oct. 12 — The Civil Service Employees Assn., has learned that the Rockland County Board of Supervisors has passed a resolution allowing for representation of county employees by employee organizations such as CSEA.

The resolution, states that "a duly constituted labor organization, municipal employee associations, group of employees, or other organization duly authorized by the Board of Supervisors . . . shall be permitted to apply to represent" county employees.

The Board’s action came after an original resolution passed earlier this year that called for an election of non-teaching personnel for CSEA membership. His efforts were recognized in recognition of his efforts. The plate is from the chapter, whose president, Irving Flamanzon, is seen in connection with the CSEA’s 1965 legislative program. Others will be dealt with administratively.

CSEA’s membership is made up of some 90,000 State employees and 35,000 employees of local government in New York State. (Continued on Page 16)

More On "That Little Extra"

The Statesmanlikc pronouncement by State Senate Majority Leader William J. Mahoney that civil servants "re- main dedicated to service beyond the call of duty," had a familiar ring to readers of this column.

We also wrote about that "little extra" on July 2, 1963 when we quoted Crawford H. Greenewalt, DuPont board chair- man. Since a gem of a thought has been said here on August 23, 1963 in a column titled "A Little Extra," now, coming from a highly intellectual and respected political leader, possessed of a deep sense of responsibility, this suggestion to civil servants to "give that little extra in their jobs" assumes even greater significance.

An experienced political leader, wise in the ways of human behavior, Senator Mahoney is keenly aware that for the civil servant is somewhat isolated in the world of many "pub- lics." He knows that civil servants, while aware of and活性炭 consider the "little extra" in their jobs, actually are always alert to an opportunity to destroy civil service diffused and all else.

Volunteer with a Smile... Catherine Thornton has been employed in the City Clerk's office for seven years. The thousands of peo- ple she's served doing that have come to know her friendly smile, her cheerful personality.

Like public employees throughout New York State, Catherine believes her re- sponsibility to her community extends far beyond her job. That's why she volun- teered to work at the St. Joseph's Hospital snack bar one night a week. And for three years she has faithfully reported for duty after her own early dinner.

Catherine — she's now the Deputy City Clerk — sees nothing unusual in her extra volunteer work. And of course she's right. Many public servants do outside work for their communities without pay. They're fine people, above in your neighbor- hood.

"We are not happy," said Bur- rons. "But we have decided there is nothing more that we can do this year. Burr, CSEA chairman, and the department representatives decided to lay aside the petitions for now."

He said he in no way intended to approve the actions of the supervisors. But, he said, the Employee Committee of the county board had intended to turn down every request of the CSEA until yesterday.

"We feel our program was presented fully and in a manner which will give most employees a definite increase," Mr. Smith said.

Welfare Group Calls Time Study Caseworker Surbonus

The 1964 requests are concerned primarily with work rules, attendance rules and the turnover fund. But they also ask for the county board to adjust the salaries of 97 individual employees in 45 categories who were unfairly ex- cluded from its (general pay in- crease. The CSEA is requesting a one grade-in-step upgrading for these titles. The cost would be $77,000.

The revision of county attendance rules would affect holidays, advanced sick leave, vacations, retirement or separation pay, per- sonal leave, sick leave and autho- rized absences.

The CSEA also is asking for the county to assume an additional three per cent of the payroll. This contribution to the retirement system in line with the action of the state Senate earlier.

Other requests include the payment of time and a half for all overtime over 40 hours, a benefit widely granted in private industry. Also, there for all non-competitive and labor class employees in county service upon completion of three years of service. Similar provisions have been extended to employees in Nassau County and Westchester County.

Suffolk CSEA Program Aimed at Work Rules, Retirement Improvement

(Riverhead, Oct. 12—The Suffolk County Board of Supervisors is considering a six-point program presented by the Suffolk Chapter, Civil Service Employees Assn.

The legislative program for 1964-65, according to Chapter President Thomas B. Dobbs, makes no major dollar demands on the board. The board enacted a general pay increase for county employees effective Jan. 1, the first such raise in four years. The CSEA then promised not to make any new or major supplementary demands for the coming year.

Primary Goals

The 1964 requests are concerned primarily with work rules, attendance rules and the turnover fund. But they also ask for the county board to adjust the salaries of 97 individual employees in 45 categories who were unfairly excluded from its (general pay increase. The CSEA is requesting a one grade-in-step upgrading for these titles. The cost would be $77,000.

The revision of county attendance rules would affect holidays, advanced sick leave, vacations, retirement or separation pay, personal leave, sick leave and authorized absences.

The CSEA also is asking for the county to assume an additional three per cent of the payroll. This contribution to the retirement system in line with the action of the state Senate earlier.

Other requests include the payment of time and a half for all overtime over 40 hours, a benefit widely granted in private industry. Also, there for all non-competitive and labor class employees in county service upon completion of three years of service. Similar provisions have been extended to employees in Nassau County and Westchester County.

Superga Award Program

Recommended, too, in an em- ployee suggestion program which the state government has used successfully since 1946. The state has given awards totaling $112,400 for ideas which have pro- duced $2,000,000 in first-year savings.

Dobbs said that adoption of the total CSEA program "would save the taxpayers money, not cost them." He said the program would undoubtedly boost employee moral and efficiency. The sugges- tion program, particularly, would be "important enough to enable the county to increase or improve services without increasing taxes," he said.

George W. Schilly SYRACUSE, Oct. 12—George W. Schilly, 74, former business manager of the New York State Office of Examinations at Syracuse, died October 3, after an illness of several months.

He lived at 114 Daniel Drive, Liverpool, a suburb of Syracuse, and was widely known among Civil Service Em- ployees Assn. members as well as the many thousands who have contributed their talents and serv- ices to the Exposition. Surviving are his wife, Madeline, and a brother, Herbert.

No Decisions Are Made
On Navy Yard, Lack Of Fair Play Charged

The decision on whether to assign new contracts to the Brooklyn Navy Yard may not be made until after election day, according to Secretary of the Navy Paul H. Nitze.

Brooklyn Borough President Abe Stark has charged the Defense Department with a lack of "fair play," in being responsible for the dismissal of more than 1,000 employees from the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

And Nitze said last week that he did not think the Navy Yard was "doomed." He said, however, that "unemployment and other economic considerations were not a significant concern in assigning new construction.

Stark said that under the Defense Department's contracts awarded policies, private shipbuilding yards in certain areas were buying with lockboxes of work and that the construction of Navy patrol boats had been ordered in a European yard.

"We keep hearing talk from Washington about a poverty program," he said. "But some people talk up for the Brooklyn Navy Yard, they're causing more unemployment and helping to create even more poverty."

Nitze said that private shipyards had shown that, in many cases, they could construct vessels more economically than the public shipyards.

"It's the upset of competitive bidding," he said. "We got excellent bids.

Nitze said no decision on the yard's future assignments had yet been made. He was uncertain whether the decision would be made before the Election Day.

The shipyard has lost all 1,200 workers since Jan. 1. Unless new construction is assigned, the layoff of an additional 2,400 workers will begin Feb. 1, the Brooklyn Metal Trades Council said yesterday.

The yard now has 975 workers.

Our Good Neighbors Are Good Public Relations

Public employees are good neighbors. In thousands of communities across New York State they work voluntarily in their spare time on just about every imaginable project for youth, for the sick, for the poor, for safety, for making their neighborhood a better place to live.

FETTER, President of the Public, was F. F. F. President of the Civil Servant Employees Assn., appointed a campaign in 35 daily newspapers with the prior general approval of the Screen, he was appointed a member of the Radio Commission. Each of the eye-catching advertisements presents the picture and story of a public employee who is serving his or her community over and beyond the call of duty as an employee. The people in the series of ads are real-life members of OSEA. The accounts of their voluntary activities are true.

The ads are running once a month in each of the papers. Watch for them in your locality. They have won widespread interest. The public relations effort for the campaign has been exceptional in that it has been frequently overlooked. Mr. Fetter is to be congratulated on having an active campaign, now in its third month. This is a genuinely successful public relations effort which deserves to continue for the betterment of the city and state.

A 'Career' Commissioner

TERMINAL Employees Local 832 this week announced the selection of Dr. Anttii Kuusisto for the local's "Commissioner of the Year" Award.

Commissioner Lucia is a career civil service employee who joined City service on January 17, 1938. He began his career in the ranks to the top of civil service promotion line from which he was named commissioner of the department in 1961. Since Lucia's appointment, the department has witnessed a significant growth in the number of employees and the nature of their work. The last senior clerk, the supervising clerk and the administrative assistant's eligible lists were completely exhausted during the four-year life of these lists.

Kuusisto Named to Education Post With State

ALBANY, Oct. 12—Dr. Allen A. Kuusisto of Delmar has been named assistant commissioner for higher education in the State Education Department: His salary is $21,103 a year.

His appointment was announced by State Education Commissioner A. Harold O'Brien, who said that his assistant would succeed R. E. P. W. W. E. for a short time.

The Appellate Division adopted a contention by a few interlocutors who feared that legal success of their colleagues in procuring positions on the eligible list would delay their own promotions. Kuusisto would follow him if some of the petitioners had superior ratings for performance and seniority which would raise their final averages.

Berry Appointed

Appointment of Mr. B. Berry as Assistant Regional Commissioner of the Civil Service Commission in New York City has been announced by the Internal Revenue Service, Berry. Formerly Chief, Analysis and Evaluation Branch, intelligence Division, Washington, D. C., succeeded Francis J. Kelly, who retired August 31, 1964 after almost 30 years of service with the Intelligence Division.

Social Security

Below are questions on Social Security which have been asked by readers and answered by a legal expert in the field. Anyone with a question of a legal nature is invited to write it out and send it to the Social Security Editor, Civil Service Leader, 57 Duane St., New York 7, N. Y.

Q. I am a widow but I receive a social security benefit of $181 a month. Is it true my remarriage will my payments be affected?

A. No. As you are receiving benefits based on your own earnings, your payments will continue unchanged.

Q. What information does the social security office need if I change my address?

A. Always give us your full name, old and new addresses, and your social security number. This information must be in writing and signed by the person to whom social security checks are payable.

Q. I am entitled to benefits on my husband's social security record. Although we are not living together, I wish to change my address. He joined the Civil Service Employees Association. Have I have to report it, and will that affect my monthly benefit?

A. Yes, you must report the divorce to the Social Security Administration. After the final decree of divorce ends your status as a wife and your benefits stop with your divorce. In the case of remarriage the divorce becomes effective.

Q. When I get married, I told my husband I was 2 years younger than I actually am. Now that we are married and I want to file for my social security, will he find I lied to him?

A. No. Unless you want him to. You may arrange to be interviewed, separately from your husband so that you can tell us your date of birth.

Q. What information does the social security office need if I change my address?

A. Always give us your full name, old and new addresses, and your social security number. This information must be in writing and signed by the person to whom the social security check is payable.

Q. I have a domestic worker who works 6 hours every Saturday and pays him cash wages of $5.00 a quarter. She is given cash of $90 in payment. His salary is paid cash wages of $21,103 a year.

Q. If I receive checks on behalf of my son. He works part time during the school year. This summer he is being paid $7 a week. His total earnings for the year will now be $378. I originally brought cash wages up to a little more than $36. Should I notify social security?

A. Yes. The $7 is cash you pay your son. It must be reported to the social security office. The amount must be in writing and signed by the person to whom the social security check is payable.

Public Relations I.Q.

over a very large number of individuals at all levels of an organization.

SENIOR MAHONEY was transmitting precisely the same message as Mr. Greenewalt: GIVE OUTSTANDING performance above and beyond your job description: it will pay off both for you and your organization.

NOWHERE IS this philosophy better explained than in an outstanding new book, "Dynamic Force of Public Relations Today" (Brown, $6.95) by Prof. Sidney Kobre of Florida State University.

With a clarity and intelligence that amazes, Prof. Kobre explains the why's, where's, what's, who's and how's of public relations. As a keen student of Mlahoney and Mr. Greenewalt, he makes practical suggestions to all civil servants: implement Mr. Greenewalt's suggestion to give that "little extra." Get Prof. Kobre's book for a better understanding of how you fit into the public relations picture.

POUCHKEEPSE, Oct. 12—Dr. A. Scott Warthin, Dutchess County Civil Defense Director, recently said that he expects there will be a considerable recruitment of New York State Civil Service Employees at the Hudson River State Hospital, here, as amateur radio station operators, to assist the Civil Defense headquarters as a result of a new personnel policy made known recently.

Interest at the Hudson River State Hospital is anticipated particularly, he said, since that is the location of the county defense organization's emergency radio station.

Under the new policy, state employees serving as civil defense volunteers are allowed leave without loss of pay.

Underutilization Of Professionals
One Cause Of Unemployment

High school drop-outs and unemployment of unskilled and semi-skilled workers were discussed last week by Dr. Theodore H. Lang, chairman of the City Civil Service Commission.

Lang also pointed to underutilization of professionals as one of the causes of the problem and suggested a possible solution.

Training the number of high school drop-outs one of the most important domestic problems in the nation, Lang noted that there are 9,000,000 people in this country who have never gone beyond the fifth grade and some 60,000,000 who have not attended school.

The Vincent Tracy program, the program chairman also pointed out, that the problem is by no means confined to metropolitan areas like New York City, and other large industrial centers, but is also to be found on the farms. It is proving as difficult for dropouts to find employment in agricultural settings as in industry, he said.

"The loss in earning power of one without a high school diploma is far greater than $50,000 during the lifetime of his working years," Lang explained.

Radio Guest

Dr. Lang, the chairman of the "Stay-in-School" program spoke over WOR radio as a guest on the Vincent Tracy program. The broadcast marked the closing of Stay-in-School Month, proclaimed by Mayor Robert P. Wagner.

The program chairman also noted that the problem is of no means confined to metropolitan areas like New York City and other large industrial centers, but is also to be found on the farms. It is proving as difficult for dropouts to find employment in agricultural settings as in industry, he said.

"The loss in earning power of one without a high school diploma is far greater than $50,000 during the lifetime of his working years," Lang explained.

Compounding Problem

Predicting positively, Lang pointed out that both government and private industry are compounding the problem by employing overqualified persons.

"If the job requires a bookkeeper, Dr. Lang said, "don't use an accountant. If it requires a hospital aide, don't use a nurse. If the job requires a nurse, don't use a doctor. And if it requires a general practitioner, don't use a psychiatrist."

B'klyn Museum Day Celebrated At Flea Market

Brooklyn Museum Day was observed at the New York Flea Market, the weekly outdoor bazaar at Sixth Avenue and 26th Street, Manhattan, last Sunday.

A feature of the day was an Indian Trading Post set up by the Community Committee of the Museum where handcrafted articles were offered for sale.

Members of the Community Committee, of which Mrs. Benjamin Kissin is chairman, acted as ticket-takers at the Flea Market, the proceeds of which benefited the Brooklyn Museum.

at least some persons go into an examination with the predetermined passing mark in mind and with the intention of beating that mark and relax their efforts after feeling that they have beaten it instead of continuing to do their very best until the end of the examination. But there are some questions in the law with respect to which a page of history is worth more than a volume of logic (New York Trust Co. v. Eisner, 256 U.S. 335, 354; Cardozo, Nature of Judicial Process, pp. 54, 55); and so, too, there are times when one's sense of justice is a better guide to decision than one's ability to reason."

THE REVERSAL by the Appellate Division made possible an appeal to the Court of Appeals which unanimously affirmed without opinion. A petition to the United States Supreme Court for a writ of certiorari because of the due process involved failed to obtain the essential four-judge approval.

THE PETITIONERS' appeal to natural law was of no avail. Nor was Antigone's. She was buried alive for her offense.

Salaries Are Main Topic Of Ulster Chapter Meet

(KINGSTON, Oct. 12—George Majestic, Democratic candidate for the New York State Senate from the 34th Senatorial District, and Thomas Brant, field representative of the Civil Service Employees' Assn., attended the September meeting of the Ulster County Chapter, CSEA. The topic of the meeting was "Salaries."

Brant spoke about the importance of obtaining a permanent salary schedule for the civil servant. He said, "It is essential for the employee that the Board of Supervisors approve a permanent salary schedule, for most of the county boards of Supervisors have not adopted permanent salary schedules."

Majestic has a resolution before the Legislature to require that local boards provide for salaries. Majestic made the suggestion that the problems of the Ulster County Chapter be put before the public.

Majestic, as a resolution, moved that vacancies be requested for increased salaries for city and village police departments. The vacancies exist in the county as well the sheriff's department and town constables.

The resolution was approved unanimously.

Charles D. Ochenta, James Martin and Dorothy Lacey, members of the salary committee, made a report to the board. The vacancies exist in the county as well the sheriff's department and town constables.

The resolution was approved unanimously.

Personal Leave

11. That all county employees including those employed by the Board of Supervisors be given a minimum leave of four days per year. There shall be a minimum of two days per year for personal leave.

12. That the salary schedule be used by the various departments for the purpose of maintaining the same.

13. That the schedule be revised to include educational requirements and qualifications, salary and job title, and that one salary schedule be used by the county, city and the Board of Education throughout Ulster County.

Mrs. Merely Schwartz Is 'Hostest With Mostest' For Rochester Chapter

(From Leader Correspondent)

ROCHESTER, Oct. 12—Say "party" to any Rochester Chapter member of the Civil Service Employees Assn., and the reply will invariably be Mrs. Merely Schwartz.

As chapter social chairman since joining the CSEA 17 years ago, the former Merely Blumenstein has planned more than 75 parties, picnics and other good-time affairs.

"Every year I say 'never again,' but each new chapter president assures me to take the job again and anyway I love parties," she says.

Loves A Crowd

Mrs. Schwartz, who also served as chapter vice president for eight years, finds most satisfaction in "poor show" parties (90 to 110 from all her careful party preparation.

Her biggest CSEA party drawers 450 persons who were attending a Western Conference meeting in Rochester this past June.

But nothing so far has topped the crowd who turned out for a campaign kickoff buffet in her backyard on Sept. 16, 1963, when her husband, Sam, a lawyer, ran for city court judge.

Sam had a close race but Mrs. Schwartz won the hearts of the 2,700 guests who put away her spread of Kabir and non-Kosher cooking.

Got To Like Parties

There's really no secret to planning a good party, she insists. "Have good help, but do as much work yourself as you would expect your assistants to do. Of course, you've got to like parties," she says.

Mrs. Schwartz was born in Rochester, graduated from East High School and first worked as an errand girl for a local law firm.

Her next job was as a cashier in the county auto license bureau.

For the past 11½ years, she has been a clerk in the indexing division of the Workmen's Compensation Board here, "I've been in the same job in the same office all these years," she says.

In her work with the 500-member Rochester Chapter, Mrs. Schwartz has found that the CSEA "is doing a wonderful job and everyone should back it 100 percent. It's always fair and trying to help the worker."

Ready To Help

She and her husband, who have no children, "love any organization that needs our help." Just this month, her husband became president of Rochester's Beth Sholom congregation.

And what was one of the new president's first acts? He appointed Mrs. Schwartz, naturally, as chairman of a card party (Nov. 4) to raise funds for the charitable milk fund.

Seeks Permission To Solicit

Onondaga Chapter, CSEA Wants Group Life Ins. Plan For County Workers

SYRACUSE, Oct. 12—Onondaga Chapter, Civil Service Employees Assn., is seeking permission to solicit members in county offices for a group life insurance plan.

Kasson said the costs of the plan will be deducted from county workers salaries if it is approved.

The plan permits members to obtain life insurance at group rates. Typical rate, for example, is 12 cents a thousand for men in the 30-34 age group.

Kasson said employees who are now CSEA members will be invited to join the chapter to take advantage of the life insurance plan.
