Hubert Humphrey Presents First Leader Gold Medals For Distinguished Public Service

Higher Blue Cross Rates Not Affecting State Plan Members

Vice President-Elect Gives Highest Praise To Dedicated Workers

"I have often wondered if we can ever adequately reward the efforts of our truly dedicated public employees; certainly, we can seldom do them sufficient justice with money alone."

So said Vice President-elect Hubert Humphrey here last week in presenting The Leader's first annual Gold Medals Awards to four of thousands of public servants who had entered into an alleged contract with a restaurant employees union.

The four received further tribute in a message sent from the White House by President Lyndon B. Johnson, which appears on this page.

The winners, chosen on the Federal, City, State and County levels, are:

- Silvio J. Mollo, chief of the Criminal Division, United States Attorney's office for the Southern District of New York;
- Joseph J. Burgess, director of Office Audit for the State Department of Audit and Control; and
- Margaret W. Daly, deputy commissioner of Mental Hygiene, Onondaga County; and
- Joseph J. Burgess, director of Office Audit for the State Department of Audit and Control.

The winners were: Mary Goode Krone, director of the U.S. Civil Service Commission; Lawrence H. Baer, New York Regional Director of the U.S. Civil Service Commission; Dr. Theodore H. Leung, New York City Personnel Director; and Ray Harvey, dean of the Graduate School of Public Administration.

Fair Treatment Asked By CSEA From Welfare Dept., Rensselaer Co.

(Special to The Leader)

TROY, Nov. 30—The Civil Service Employees Assn. last week asked that all the means available to it to secure equitable treatment from the administration of the Rensselaer County Welfare Department, which announced it had entered into the above contract with a restaurant employees union.

The contract, reportedly signed by outgoing Welfare Commissioners Allan Dixon and the Hotel, Restaurant and Bartenders Union of the Capital District, would grant the union exclusive bargaining rights for employees of Van Rensselaer Manor, a unit of the Welfare Department which houses County welfare patients.

In announcing the agreement, Dixon, who was defeated Nov. 3, in his bid for re-election to the Welfare Department post, said the union has shown sufficient evidence of majority representation. The CSEA, which maintains it has a majority of employees in the Welfare Department, contends the union has no

State And City Officials To Discuss Base Closings With Defense Secretary McNamara

By MIKE KLION

State and City officials are expected to carry the fight to Washington to keep the Brooklyn Navy Yard, Brooklyn Army Terminal and Port Jay open.

A meeting with Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara has been requested for this week by Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, Mayor John V. Lindsay, Robert Wagner, Senator Jacob Javits, Senator-elect Robert Kennedy and others to discuss the closings.

A spokesman in the Mayor's office told The Leader at press time that no date has been set.

A Defense Department spokesman said that the request had been received and that action on it should be forthcoming.

To Get Information

The purpose of the meeting with McNamara will be to get as much information concerning costs and quality in the operation of the installations.

In a telegram to President Lyndon Johnson, Gov. Rockefeller urged that a meeting be arranged between them to discuss the problems that are being faced by the people because of the phasing-out plan.

Rockefeller also stated, "...I ask that full information compiled by the Defense Department, the Navy, the General Accounting Office and other agencies concerning the costs and quality of construction and operation be made immediately available to the State of New York.

I also urgently request an appointment with you at the earliest possible time to discuss this grave matter.

The Governor also asked that the order to close the installations be stayed until all of the evidence is in regarding the facilities.

Put To Work

Rockefeller indicated that he has ordered State Industrial Commissioner Martin Catherine and State Comptroller Commissioner Keith McNichol to put the full resources of their departments to work to cushion the human and economic impact that the shutdown will have.

For Committee

Senator-elect Kennedy urged that a committee of private and public citizens be formed to look into the matter.

Kennedy questioned how the administration could effect a war on poverty by cutting back employment.

Kennedy received word of the shutdown directly from McNamara. He said that the decision cannot be accepted as final with the limited amount of information that is available.

Side Effects

Some of the side effects of the shutdown order are already taking hold.

The order to close the Brooklyn Army Terminal not only affects the employees working for the government, but those who are employed by private companies.

Some 700 longshoremen will be affected when the terminal closes.

New Contract

The possibility that they may strike is growing since they have been in negotiation on a new contract for some time.

With the announcement came an additional demand by the employees' union that cutting the work force at this time would not be economical. An impasse could be reached, a strike by not only the 700 men here, but all over the country could become reality.

The officials of the State and City see this as a possible premise and are calling for a reconsidering of the order by the President.

PA Concern

Port of New York Authority Executive Director Arthur Tobin suggested in a telegram to McNamara that the closing of the terminal and Navy Yard would have a harmful effect on the broad national interest.

Tobin pointed out that many of the ships that come into the Brooklyn Army Terminal also stop at other facilities in the Port of New York.

If the base is relocated, this extensive range of shipping services would not be available.

A decision would not only be felt in the loss of the 450 civilian jobs at the Army Terminal, but also in the loss of cargo which has provided employment for 700 longshoremen there and additional port workers.

Your Public Relations IQ

A Bridge To Good Relations

CAN A BRIDGE carry vehicles across an ocean expansive from one side to another, have a public relations identity? The answer is: a resounding "yes."

AND SO THIS new Verazzano-Narrows Bridge has begun its long and useful life with a well-accepted bank account of good public relations.

This brings us to the next query: How is it possible for a bridge only 10 days in the public service to win good public relations?

FIRST, it is starting its career as a bridge with mountains of good will from all the publics involved, but principally motorists. This latter point makes this bridge so bad that it has bestowed on the bridge a corset of good will that makes it matches hurricane won't easily blow off.

SECOND, the people of Staten Island, so long isolated from the other four boroughs of New York City, have been transmitting radar signals of good will in the direction of the bridge of so many years that it would require an equal amount of time to dissipate all this good will that has been generated.

THIRD, the bridge has already generated enough interesting controversy for the good will that has been communicated far and wide. Because there was no bitterness or recrimination in the controversy, practically no adverse publicity rubbed off on the bridge.

FOURTH, the Verazzano-Narrows Bridge now boasts the world's largest central span — 4,506 feet. This, if by itself, is enough to make any world champion.

FIFTH, the world's longest central span — 4,506 feet. This, if by itself, is enough to make any world champion.

SIXTH, the bridge is already considered one of the world's greatest engineering accomplishments. The engineering and construction will be hailed as a new era of engineering.

NINTH, the bridge is already considered one of the world's greatest engineering accomplishments. The engineering and construction will be hailed as a new era of engineering.

TENTH, the bridge is already considered one of the world's greatest engineering accomplishments. The engineering and construction will be hailed as a new era of engineering.

Long Island Parkway Police Inaugurate Court Action For Higher Salary Classification

FARMINGDALE, Nov. 30—The Long Island State Parkway Police, Independent Association, has filed a complaint with the State Supreme Court in Albany to set aside a determination by the Civil Service Employees Association which denied pay increases for the union's members.

Further, the association is seeking to have the matter reconsidered by the Civil Service Commission.

Police Chief Barney Averson, president of the group, said through PBA attorney Albert A. Blinder that the Commission's determination was arbitrary, capricious and unreasonable in that the Commission refused to consider and act upon the facts submitted by the association in its bid for upward salary classification.

He said that the Commission's argument was contrary to the internal relationship of salaries within the union, the alignment of salaries in other jurisdictions and the same type duties as the parkway police were higher.

Nevertheless, the group stated that the union's request for salary increases, averson noted, would have been approved had the duties now being performed by the Parkway Police been identical to those of State Troopers.

With a salary of $1,034 in 1963, instead of the $800 currently paid to the union, the Association's request for salary increases was denied.

A further action was taken by the Association's Court action to have the Commission's decision set aside and referred to the Department of Civil Service, the group stated.

Other Salaries Higher

The commission admitted that salaries paid municipal police officers and other police agencies performing similar duties were higher than the Association's members.

Another point of view was filed by the Association's court to have the Commission's decision set aside and referred to the Department of Civil Service, the group stated.

Other Salaries Higher

The commission admitted that salaries paid municipal police officers and other police agencies performing similar duties were higher than the Association's members.

CSEA Makes 10-Point Budget Request In Elmira; Seeks Pension Cost Cut

ELMIRA, Nov. 30—The Chemung County chapter, Civil Service Employees Association, has presented a ten-point budget request for members employed by the City of Elmira, according to Mrs. Ruth Goles, chapter representative.

The plan, if approved by the City Manager, City Council and the Mayor, would be included in the 1965 salary budget.

The complete package request follows:

* That the City of Elmira give an increase in salary to those listed in the Schedule of the Salary Plan, as positions not assigned to Salary Grades.

* That all employees working for the City of Elmira, including those in the 1965 Salary Plan, be given their next increase step in the Budget of 1965.

* That the City of Elmira provide for an 11% increase in take home pay for employees by reducing retirement contributions.

Erie Welfare Unit Newsletter Makes November Debut

BUFFALO, N.Y.—The CSEA Erie Unit newsletter, "Erie Observer," has been given a new format, according to the Welfare Unit of Erie chapter. Civil Service Employees Assn., made its debut with the November issue.

The Observer contains an editorial urging the Erie County Board of Supervisors to increase the pay of welfare workers.

Another note reveals that the welfare employees donated $4,024.70 to the 1966 United Fund appeal. The quota was $4,000. The group's Christmas party will be held Dec. 9 in Hotel Buffalo.

John J. Ryan, vice-president of the unit, is editor of the Observer. His article includes Joseph E. Lip- perti and Joe Ann Puglisi.

One of New York's best mayors. "This high regard for the civil employees; certainly, we can seldom do them sufficient justice with money alone."

Vice as voiced by the holder of the second highest public office in the nation.

Something More Than Money

In numerous conversations in recent months with the Vice President, the holder of the second highest public office in the nation.

Dr. Sidney Lebowitz, the Board of Education's Medical Director, gave the teacher an appointment for a medical examination by two physicians. This was followed by a letter from the principal stating that, as the teacher was incapable of continuing his duties, he might have to be removed from the school. The teacher, however, did not return to his position, and the Board of Education's Medical Director called a meeting of the Board of Education's Medical Director.

The teacher was promptly transferred to another junior high school and assigned to teach science. The teacher was asked, "Why don't you try pushing men around?"

About this time, nineteen teachers signed a petition urging the administration to give the teacher a chance to continue teaching. The teacher was given an opportunity to continue teaching, but he was not yet eligible for retirement.

The teacher was given an opportunity to continue teaching, but he was not yet eligible for retirement. There was no second chance that the psychiatrist for the Teachers Retirement System would find him good in good mental health. He therefore retired an attorney who wrote to Dr. Lebowitz requesting his client's examination by any other psychiatrist. The letter was not answered. Instead, the petitioner received a letter from the Board of Education charging him with "failure to complete a medical examination and suspending him from his position without pay."

One of these approaches to establish needed equity rather than simply to apply a formula to existing disequities. Permit sick leave accrual beyond 1125 hours (final year paid anniversary or semi-annually) for such accrual in excess of 1200 hours. If the State does not wish to continue to serve for many years without currently accruing any sick leave.

The State would be "too costly," pay lump sum at death, or resignation.

Instead, the teacher was relieved of all duties, and the Board of Education's Medical Director gave the teacher a direction to appear before a certain psychiatrist on the Board's panel. As the teacher had heard that this psychiatrist always found that the charges by the supervisors were justified, he requested the Board to appoint another psychiatrist. The request was denied although the teacher had the support of the United Federation of Teachers.

An adverse diagnosis by the psychiatrist would result in the teacher's dismissal. Besides, as he was not yet eligible for retirement, there was no second chance that the psychiatrist for the Teachers Retirement System would find him good in good mental health. He therefore retired an attorney who wrote to Dr. Lebowitz requesting his client's examination by any other psychiatrist. The letter was not answered. Instead, the petitioner received a letter from the Board of Education charging him with "failure to complete a medical examination and suspending him from his position without pay."

The Teacher's attorney immediately sought a Court order for a hearing on the charges against the teacher.

In a lengthy opinion, Special Term held that the Board of Education has the authority to bring disciplinary proceedings for refusal to submit to psychiatric examination. The teacher was unable to present his case, and the Board ordered his suspension without pay.

Land & Claim Adjusters File By Dec. 7 For Exam

Applications for the Jan 9 exam for land and claim adjusters should be filed with the State Civil Service Commission by Dec. 7. Some 125 career vacancies with the State of New York are expected to occur in the near future in the real estate field as a result of the State's rapidly expanding construction program.

Positions are at the assistant and junior level. Annual salaries are $8,175 to $9,880, in five annual steps, and $6,540 to $7,935 respectively.

For the assistance and claims adjuster exam applicants should have eight years' experience. Six years' experience is needed for the junior land and claims adjuster examination.

College study may be substituted for experience on a year-for-year basis.

For more information write to Recruitment Unit 62, New York State Department of Civil Service, The State Campus, Albany, New York 12226.

City Employee Suggestion Program Awards Presented To Six By Personnel Director

City Civil Service Chairman and Personnel Director Dr. Theodore H. Lang presented six members of the Department of Personnel with awards for suggestions submitted to the City's Employees' Suggestion Program.

The awards were presented at the Civil Service Commission's meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 17. Also participating in the award ceremony were Commissioners Anthony M. Marniello and George Gregory, Jr.

Handling the list of recipients was Louis Charney, an investigator, who received three separate awards of $15 each for suggesting revision in forms used in the process of investigating new City employees.

John Voukend, a senior clerk, received an award of $25 for proposing a revision to a form in the process of collecting pay

Why HIP Can Do More For You!

- HIP is the only plan in the New York area that gives full coverage for any needed amount of care provided by its family doctors and specialists.

- HIP is the only medical care plan with no extra charges beyond the premium, the one exception being a possible $2.00 charge for a home call between 10 P.M. and 7 A.M.

- In HIP, there are no doctor bills for medical group services — no claim forms, no deductibles, no other red tape. And you do not have to discuss fees or family income with the doctor.

- In HIP, more than half of all physician services are given by specialists qualified in fourteen fields of medicine and surgery.

- In HIP, the qualifications of every family doctor and specialist have been approved by a medical board of distinguished physicians. Each doctor in a medical group provides only those services for which he has been specially trained. This means that babies are cared for only by pediatricians, mothers are delivered only by obstetricians, surgery is performed only by qualified surgeons.

- HIP has no waiting periods for maternity or any other condition.

- HIP has no limit on the amount of medical care, physical therapy, or laboratory services that may be given.

- In HIP, a subscriber and his family can continue with full service benefits if he leaves his job after having been insured for at least three months — regardless of his age.
It is expected that 40 women will be selected before Jan. 1 for the U.S. Coast Guard's pilot project involving the women's SPAR Reserve Division.

Young women between the ages of 18 to 30 will be chosen from the six-state area including part of New York. Applicants must be high school graduates and should be single and without dependents. They will take three written tests as well as a physical examination.

Women residing in the Third Coast Guard District may contact local Coast Guard recruiting offices for complete information on the program. The district includes the states of Connecticut, Delaware, New Jersey and parts of New York, Pennsylvania and Vermont.

Career Positions Opened
With U.S. Government

Thousands of Career positions with the Federal Government are soon to be filled through the Federal Service Entrance Exam, filing for which is now open. December 17 is the closing date for the next application. Thousands of positions will be filled for a wide variety of careers within the Federal agencies and geographical locations. Over 300 career fields are filled by this examination. In each test, it is one application to many employers at the same time.

More than 6,000 appointments were made from this examination last year for positions in the District of Columbia and foreign lands. In addition, many persons who have entered the government service through the FSEE have advanced to high level positions in the Federal Civil Service.

Application

For further information and applications contact the U.S. Civil Service Commission, New Building, 230 Shaw 41 St., New York, N.Y. 10017. When writing, include the announcement number 333 in the letter.

Awards Inspired by Humphrey

The Leader publisher paid tribute to Vice President-elect Hubert H. Humphrey's long record of public service and his effforts for the improvement of local and federal civil service. Mr. Finkelstein said: "Contrary to the Vice President's kind remarks about the origin of these gold medals, it was not Senator Humphrey's inspiration that prompted these awards which do credit to all who serve the American public with dedication and distinction."

The reports are that the Governor has already informed his advisors of his decision.

Unbeknownst to Gov. Rockefeller's plans are a series of events which will affect the fortunes of many Democratic and Republican hopefuls.

Chain of Events

On the Democratic side, first and foremost, is Mayor Robert W. Wagner. But also affected is the following group, waging in the wings, Nassau County Executive Eugene F. Nickerson; Comptroller Undersecretary, Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr.; District Attorney Frank Hogan; State Comptroller Arthur Levits; District Attorney Frank O'Connor; and Robert M. Morgenthau, who would like to take another crack at Albany. Last, but not least, is Representative Sam Stratton who will be watching political events with an eye toward his own future.

Just as importantly, the Governor's decision affects his own political colleagues. If Mr. Rockefeller runs again, Representative John H. Lindsay, whose tremendous showing at the polls last month vaulted him into the obvious position as one of the nation's top vote-getters on the Republican ticket, would have no place to go except to make the New York City Mayoral race next year. And such a decision would affect Mayor Wagner's political future.

Lindsay or Javits?

Only two Republicans are given much chance against New York City's Mayor — Representative Lindsay and Senator Jacob K. Javits. At this writing, it appears that Senator Javits is looming ever larger on the Senate floor. However, no one turns down the Mayor's job — especially if, like Senator Javits, he becomes convinced he can win it. But, it looks like the odds can go to Representative Lindsay, who Republicans also feel can win.

On the other hand, should Senator Javits make the race — and he might be a better candidate against Mayor Wagner — the wheel of fortune would swing around to Mr. Lindsay. Already in the talking stages is the following plan:

Should Senator Javits run for Mayor and win, with Rep. Lindsay setting as his campaign manager, then Gov. Rockefeller — the reasoning goes — would appoint Mr. Lindsay to the Senate. The beauty of this plan is that neither Senator Javits nor Representative Lindsay have to resign their present posts to carry out the Grand Design. Mr. Lindsay, however, would obviously please the Governor's chair, since, like his Democratic counterpart in the State Senate, Javits is seen as a likely future Presidental timber.

Rockefeller's Prestige

Gov. Rockefeller himself currently believes he has, in defeat, gained huge support and additional respect of the moderate and liberal Republicans — since only be made the fight against Governor Goldwater, Ass. 10 cents per-week per thousand of insurance. Payment of premiums for new enrollment in the plan is conveniently arranged by payroll deduction. The plan provides double indemnity for accidental death and waiver of premiums if the member becomes totally disabled prior to age 60.

No medical examination is required if an application is filed within the first two months at $5, 8th Street, Albany, within 120 days of the date of initial employment. The employee is insured if the employee has hazardous or arduous occupation.

In the event of death 2 years from the date of enrollment of the plan and favorable loss experience thereafter, a number of improvements were added to the plan without increase in premium thereafter. These added benefits included 30 percent additional insurance, which in 1966 was put into the plan. Double indemnity in the event of death and waiver of premiums if the member becomes totally disabled were added.

Over 65,000 members of CSEA participated in the low cost Group Life Insurance Program. Application forms and explanations of the plan can be secured from CSEA Headquarters, 8th Street, Albany, or from the State Comptroller's Office at 11 Park Place, New York City, or from any of the CSEA chapters through their office.

2 weeks vacation for employees working 5 years.

4 weeks vacation after 10 years of service.

- That the Council consider a "Personal Leave Plan" to include 3 days with pay for an employee to use when necessary for personal business.

- That the Council re-examine the Sewage Treatment Pay Schedule, and upgrade the sewage treatment plant employees, who have completed training.

- That the Council re-examine the rates of pay for all laborers, and bring salaries up to similar jobs paid by industry.

- That all employees of the City of Elmira be given Lincoln's and Washington's Birthday as a paid holiday, or the equivalent of time off.

In her letter of transmittal, Mrs. M. M. O'tis, Village Clerk of the Village of Elmira, would like to take this opportunity to thank you for the 40-hour work, a long dedication to the welfare of the residents of the community.

We shall appreciate all consideration in your study of the Bill and hope that this measure will reward our career employees, whose dedication of service deserves moral recognition.
