Four Are Honored
Leader Gold Medal Awards
Presented By Sen. Kennedy;
One Special Medal Given

Four public employees were honored for "outstanding, distinguished and dedicated service" this week when Senator Robert F. Kennedy presented the annual Civil Service Gold Medal Awards in ceremonies at the Versailles Room of the Carlyle Hotel, New York City.

Selections of outstanding employees were made by Dean Raymond Harvey of the New York University School of Public Administration, Lawrence Bar, Robert C. McDonald and Louis L. Kollin, and were presented by the Governor or the Chairmen of the Classification and Compensation, Employment Security, and Retirement Systems, respectively.

ALBANY—The State Civil Service Employees Assn. has asked Governor Rockefeller to request his budget director to make an immediate study of the State correction officers' salary appeal so "he would be in a position to act on it promptly after the study of the latest appeal," said Joseph F. Pepe, CSEA president.

The Commission recently held a public hearing on a CSEA appeal by correction officers in the State Prison Department.

"In making his request to Governor Rockefeller, CSEA president Joseph F. Pepe said, 'you are aware of our great concern over the morals of our State correction officers who have been severly disappointed as a result of the denial of their salary appeals for salary upgrading.'"

The CSEA president said, "we do not understand how the State Civil Service Commission can reach a decision without our appeal decision issues a result of the denials thus far of their appeals and a result of the denials thus far of their appeals for salary upgrading.""

In asking the Governor to have the State Civil Service Commission reject a three-grade salary reallocation request for all State correction officers, CSEA's Mr. Law Morre said: "In making his request to Governor Rockefeller, CSEA president Joseph F. Pepe said, 'you are aware of our great concern over the morals of our State correction officers who have been severly disappointed as a result of the denial of their salary appeals for salary upgrading.'"

Bernays’ PR Biography

WHEN EDWARD L. Bernays, father of modern public relations, sat down in his study more than five years ago to write his autobiography, he just had to produce the best book about public relations ever published. And indeed he did.

BILLIED AS Mr. Bernays’ memoir, “Biography of an Idea” (Simon and Schuster, $12.95) describes everything written in public relations whether text, handout, a how-to-do, or history. In one sweep, Mr. Bernays raises public relations to new heights of respectability and usefulness.

Mr. Bernays’ list of nearly 250 clients he has served over the years should be a fair hint of the wealth of the book’s contents—among which range from outright press agents to brilliant public relations, brain-storming at the highest corporate and government levels.

WHAT ADVICE does a public relations man give to the public relations man over the years? Bernays’ answer is that it is to think like a public relations man, which he did.

Under civil service, detectives will be appointed on the basis of competitive exams. They could not be demoted without a Departmental hearing on charges.

Detectives now serve at the public safety commissioner's pleasure. Without civil service status, they can be reduced to patrolman without the placing of charges. They have civil service protection if demoted. Therefore, probation officers are recommended placing detectives under civil service.

Leader Survey Shows U.S. Aides Have Mixed Emotions On Value Of Their PayHike

Although a healthy proportion of dissent from the popular view was in evidence, a survey of the Federal civil servants working in New York City shows that a majority feel the 3.6 percent pay raise, recently passed in Congress, is insufficient.

Of those officers successfully solicited (since many were reluctant or unable to respond; approximately 80 percent felt they should have received a larger raise. Others seemed happy enough; seeing the raise as a reasonable gain, although they would have liked to have received more. Another attitude was expressed by a young woman who explained that she hadn't heard about the raise, since she doesn't read newspaers but was sure that she would be told about it "sustainably" very shortly. Along these lines, another gentlemen contended, "we seldom hear about these things (prospective raises) until they are ready to be passed on to Congress."

When asked his opinion on another matter dealing with Federal civil service conditions, he responded that, being a career man, he never gave the matter much thought.

Some were more outspoken in their objection to others. "We feel very unhappy about having an axe held over us in this matter.... very insufficient in thinking of us a benefit."

"A Tuesday thru Saturday work-week without overtime is ridiculous... they wouldn't be paid for it in private industry.... On the pay raise again, "Why didn't the President allow us the same privilege of a five percent raise that he advocated for private industry."

On the other hand some thought that the President's responses, in keeping with the Administration policy of setting guidelines for private industry by the impending law and having them at the rate received immediately without time of his involuntary separation

At the rate received immediately after separation for a period of Federal service over a period of 2 years

A. Any employee who has a "temporary" position which he held in service of three days following service under a "permanent" appointment is eligible for severance pay.

Q. Does this mean that an employee who is eligible to apply for retirement at the time of his involuntary separation cannot receive severance pay?

A. Yes.

Q. What are the exceptions?

A. Generally speaking, all employees Salary law?

Q. In the future, will a person who has been paid for a period of service time for which he was not eligible for severance pay purposes?

A. No.

Q. How is the amount of severance pay figured?

A. The basic severance pay allowance is computed on the basis of the employee's one week's basic compensation as the rate received immediately before separation for each year of civilian service up to ten years and two weeks' pay for each year of service over ten years. This amount is further increased by ten percent for each year that the employee earns more than $15,000 a year. Total severance pay may not exceed one year's pay.

Q. Does this allow for service time service in.

A. Yes.

Q. Are there any other requirements?

A. Yes. To be eligible for severance pay an employee must be currently employed for a period of at least twelve months.

Q. In the future, will a person who has collected severance pay for a period of Federal service be able to collect again for the same period if reemployed?

A. No. Once severance pay has been paid for a period of service time this may not be used again for severance pay purposes.

CONGRESS, just before adjournment, passed the Federal Pay Raise Bill which will entitle federal workers to a higher paycheck in the weeks to come.

The total bill was a breakthrough for government employees who are paid, on the whole, less than those in private industry.

A major section of this bill provides for severance pay for Federal workers who are laid off from jobs through no fault of their own. In some cases, workers will be able to receive up to a year’s salary.

This section of the bill was suggested and fought for by the Brooklyn Metal Trades Council of the Brooklyn Navy Yard and they can consider passage of the measure a tribute to them and the work they have done for the Federal civil service employee.

This type of fringe benefit might be worthy of consideration for employees of local and State government.

The drought which for four years has sucked the life and vitality out of New York and the entire northeastern United States has not only taken a toll of farmland, orchards, and gardens, but has also gravely endangered our water supply. Even now the water is still drunk, and it forces people living in New York City to live on water which is scarce and expensive.

With the recent rains, the crops have been saved, but it is not yet time to relax. Just as the farmer relies on good weather to bring in a good harvest, so does the city rely on good weather to meet the demands of its water supply.

More than an automatic turntable, it is an Automatic Transcription Turntable. The LAB 80 has been designed for professional reproduction of LP/stereo records (33 1/3 and 45 rpm) . . . literally without compromise. It was created expressly for those who have not been willing to accept any automatic unit heretofore. Now, feature-by-feature examination will verify that the concept of the single play turntable combination has been obordinated by a superior new class of mechanism.

With the LAB 80, Gardner establishes a spectacular new precedent in record playing equipment . . . combining precision, performance, and convenience of a standard not previously available, in single play or automatic units.
Investigate Air Conditioning Of NYC State Build.

ALBANY—The State Office of General Services has assured the Civil Service Employees Assn. that it "will ask the State Architect for an estimate of the cost of air conditioning the State Office Building at 270 Broadway, New York City, and, thereafter, will discuss the possibility of its financing with the Division of the Budget." The assurance was given recently by C.V.R. Schuyler, Commissioner, Office of General Services, as a result of CSEA inquiries urging that the building be air-conditioned.

Joseph P. Pully, CSEA president, had told Schuyler that "we have received many requests from members who work at 270 Broadway, advising that during the summer months the heat is intolerable and prevents efficient work." In his reply, Schuyler said "We are completely sympathetic to your request, son, as you know."

In Comparing Health Plans
Ask A Few Probing Questions
—Like These:

Q. Which health plan gives the broadest coverage — with no ifs, ands and buts?

A. Let the Columbia School of Public Health answer that one. It studied New York health plans and found that “the most complete contract offered for sale in New York State is provided by the Health Insurance Plan of Greater New York.”

Q. Does the plan adequately cover specialist care?

A. Only H.I.P. provides its specialist care without extra charges. When it comes to today’s vitally needed specialist services, other plans limit their coverage. Compare specialist coverage carefully. Note, for instance, that out-of-hospital specialist care — so important and so costly today — is never a “paid-in-full” benefit in cash allowance programs.

Q. Is the plan concerned with the quality of care?

A. H.I.P. is the only plan in the New York area that has its own professional standards. Every doctor in every Medical Group must be approved by a medical board of physicians from top medical schools and hospitals. H.I.P. doctors give only the kind of service for which they have been expertly trained.

Q. Can you continue with comprehensive benefits (home and office calls) if you leave your job before retirement?

A. Only H.I.P. permits this. You need only be in H.I.P. for three months to be able to convert to a direct payment policy without loss of home and office coverage, regardless of your age.

Choose Carefully. Write or Phone for “What’s The Difference?” — A Comparison of Benefits.

The majority of assemblymen and senators to Albany and these lawmakers will be bringing a whole new bag of hometown problems with them that will get more attention than in previous years.

Effect on Civil Service

All of this may pose considerable problems in the next two years to civil service organizations. Both Republican and Democratic legislators with long years of experience and an understanding of the civil service have been swept out of office in the tornado of change that has occurred this past two years. While new friends have been made, the deep understanding and personal commitment needed to put public employee programs in the Legislature across the state has not had time to develop. And this year's champions may be next year's losers and the search for the new champions must start again.

Some of this worry may be offset by longer sessions. Most public employee groups feel that this year's lengthy term allowed them time to "sell" programs because there was time to provide more detail and exercises greater personal persuasion. In many cases, new legislation that at first either did not care about civil service, or the majority of legislators were not familiar with the problem, will be asked to consider.

Workmen's Comp., Disability; Volunteer Firemen's Benefits

Maximum cash benefits were recently increased under the Workmen's Compensation, the Disability Benefits and the Volunteer Firemen's Benefit Laws, administered by the State of New York Workmen's Compensation Board, according to its Chairman, Col. S. E. Senior. The benefits were requested in the Governor's legislative message, passed by both houses and, subsequently, approved by Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller, who said: "These increases will raise benefits paid under these programs to a realistic level, in keeping with the needs of employees and economic progress in New York State."

Specifically:

Chapter 391, Laws of 1965, effective July 1, 1965, increased from $55 to $60 the maximum weekly cash benefit payable for work-connected disability under the Workmen's Compensation Law for:

- Accident or disablement occurring on and after July 1, 1965.
- Accident or disablement occurring on and after July 1, 1965, effective July 1, 1965, increased from $50 to $55 the maximum weekly cash benefit payable for non-occupational disability under the Disability Benefits Law commencing on after July 1, 1965.
- Chapter 311, Laws of 1965, effective July 1, 1965, increased from $55 to $60 the maximum weekly cash benefit payable for injury or disablement in line of duty under the Volunteer Firemen's Benefits Law occurring on and after July 1, 1965. In announcing the consensual legislation, Chairman Senior said: "Increases in benefits help supply immediate relief for the plight of the injured worker; however, I am sure we all realize that complete rehabilitation and restoration to employability and employment remain the ultimate objective of the workmen's compensation program."

To protect your pension benefits...

* Protect your pension benefits
* Prevent waste of public funds
* Promote responsible representation

VOTE NO ON QUESTION NO. 1!

On Election Day you will be asked to decide whether the State should call a Constitutional Convention—a convention that could cost up to 10 million dollars. One result of such a convention could be the repeal of pension safeguards granted to civil servants in the present constitution.

Delegates to such a convention will not be responsible to the electorate. Unlike the Legislature, they will be subject to heavy pressure from many special interest groups.

Remember:

- Civil servants have never benefited from Constitutional Conventions.
- A Constitutional Convention would cost millions of tax dollars that could be used to better advantage.
- There are those who seek to repeal our hard-earned pension gains and guarantees.
- The Legislature, which is responsible to us as voters, has successfully kept the constitution up-to-date.

We urge you to protect your interests and those of all our citizens when you go to the polls on November 2nd and be sure to spread the message among your family and friends!

At the age of 80, he was the administrative director of the New York State Law Department, a position he held since April, 1958. From May to July, 1939, he was the coordinating officer on the Governor's Task Force on Protection From Radioactive Fallout. Plaque Is Presented In Memory Of Mrs. Pierce

CANTON—A plaque was presented recently in memory of Margaret S. Pierce, a member of the Lawrence County chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn. Mrs. Pierce, employed in the County Welfare Department, died while still in service. The plaque, presented by her foster home mother and father with whose Mrs. Pierce was closely associated, is on display in the Child Welfare Department office of the County Welfare Department.

The inscription reads:

In Memory of Margaret S. Pierce

Social Worker

Children's Division, St. Lawrence County Department of Social Welfare

January 1916 to May 1955

Trust one Child — Take My Hand

I will comfort, love and guide you

Shed your tears — I will understand.

Sometimes even grown up don't.

Have Faith Child — No need to fear.

I kiss away your pain.

Your reaction is breaking — I know dear.

You are very young and not to blame.

Be patient child — God will help us.

To make the world a happier place,

He will listen — No need to blain.

He wants a smile to brighten your face.

Be gay child — You wonder-laugh.

Will bring great joy to others.

Life through love, goes on forever after.

In God's Way of creating evey one.

Trust, Faith, Patience, Laughter.

All these gifts I leave to you.

If you cherish them and use them you will be wise.

But above all else that you do,

Reach out with love to comfort, every child who cries.

This company was blessed with money collected by her foster mothers at the time of Mrs. Pierce's death and will be displayed in the office of the Child Welfare.
