SUNY Schools Face Loss Of Status Due To Merger

Downgraded in Prestige

By Anna Smith

The SUNY and CUNY systems have been discussed in recent years regarding the possibility of a merger, a topic that has recently come to a head with the recent state budget discussions.

The SUNY system, which includes 64 campuses, is considered one of the best public university systems in the country. However, the recent state budget has been cut significantly, leading to concerns about the future of the system.

The CUNY system, which includes 24 campuses, is also facing financial difficulties. The system has been praised for its affordability and accessibility, but recent budget cuts have led to concerns about the future of the system.

The proposal to merge the two systems has been met with mixed reactions. Some have argued that a merger would be beneficial, as it would allow for greater efficiency and savings. Others have argued that a merger would be detrimental, as it would lead to a loss of identity and autonomy for both systems.

The Board of Regents is currently weighing the pros and cons of the proposal, and a decision is expected in the coming months. The outcome of this decision could have significant implications for the future of higher education in New York state.
Teenage Smoking Decreased

WASHINGTON (AP) - Teenagers may finally be voting with their feet against secondhand smoke. A new government survey finds that more than half of all high school students now say they want to quit or have quit smoking in the past year. The survey, released by the National Institute on Drug Abuse, is based on interviews with nearly 100,000 students nationwide. Overall, the percentage of high school students who smoke has fallen from 35.1% in 1991 to 25.7% in 2000. The decline is especially pronounced among boys, who make up the majority of daily smokers. The survey also found that the percentage of students who smoke daily has dropped from 29% in 1991 to 17% in 2000. This is the first time since the survey began in 1975 that the percentage of daily smokers has fallen below 20%. The survey also found that the percentage of students who smoke occasionally has also fallen, from 6.1% in 1991 to 4.1% in 2000. This is the first time since the survey began in 1975 that the percentage of occasional smokers has fallen below 5%.

Elderly May Save Money

ALBANY (AP) - Medicare's decision to cover a new drug that costs less than the current treatment for Alzheimer's disease could save elderly patients more money than the current drug. The new drug, called Aducanumab, costs $20,000 per year, while the current drug, called Memantine, costs $40,000 per year. Medicare officials say the new drug is just as effective as the current drug and may even have fewer side effects. The decision to cover the new drug is expected to save elderly patients about $20,000 per year. Thatcher’s Travels Seem To Lack Campaign Intent
ELLENS, England (AP) — Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher, Poland’s Solidarity leader Lech Walesa, and a host of other world leaders left London Thursday for a triumphant tour of the U.S., an event that marks Margaret Thatcher’s 54th birthday on Friday.

Oil Profits Lost From Carter’s Plan
WASHINGTON, April 27 (AP) — Despite President Jimmy Carter’s efforts to recoup billions of dollars in lost federal oil and gas revenues with a new tax on oil companies, budget analysts said Thursday that the government will receive only about $1.2 billion the amount of oil profits that were predicted.

Bring SA Home...
...rising prices mean SA should pursue opening its own Student Bookstore Co-op...
...students need money; SA should establish a part-time work placement service...
SA must plan capital expenditures rather than depleting the general fund.

These ideas are part of a major plan to change the direction of Student Association and return it to the students.

SA needs strong leaders. Scott Lonsberry will need efficiency and action in SA...
...We endorse Tito Martinez for SA Vice President.

I am running for SA President for several reasons. But foremost among them is my desire to bring about change through the Student Association. I believe that far too often the Student Association has not listened to the concerns of students, and has not acted quickly enough to address their problems.

I believe that the Student Association must become more student-centered, and I am committed to working with students to ensure that their voices are heard. I am also committed to increasing the Student Association's role in addressing issues of campus culture and student well-being.

I am running because I believe that the Student Association can and should play a more active role in making our campus a better place for all students. I will work to ensure that the Student Association is more responsive to student needs, and that it acts quickly and decisively to address issues that affect all of us.

I am a student and I understand the challenges and concerns that students face. I believe that the Student Association must be more proactive in its approach to addressing these issues, and I will work to ensure that the Student Association is more effective in its efforts to improve the student experience.

NYPIRG Takes Aim on Issues

"The world is not always what we wish it to be," said one of the attendees of the New York Public Interest Research Group (NYPIRG) meeting last night.

NYPIRG, which was founded in 1973, is a non-profit organization that conducts research, lobbies, and educates the public on a wide range of issues. The group's mission is to ensure that the decisions made by governments and businesses are made in the public interest.

The group's focus has been on improving the quality of life for all Americans. NYPIRG has developed a wide range of tools to help achieve this goal, including: investigative reports, direct action campaigns, and legal advocacy.

NYPIRG has successfully brought attention to issues such as environmental pollution, consumer fraud, and corporate influence on government. Through their work, they have helped to bring about positive change in the lives of millions of people.

NYPIRG's success has been due in large part to the dedication and hard work of its members. They have worked tirelessly to bring about positive change in the world, and their efforts have not gone unnoticed.

In conclusion, NYPIRG is an organization that is dedicated to making the world a better place. Their work is vital, and we should all do our part to support their efforts.

Did Anyone Ask For His Opinion?

NYPIRG Takes The Stage Alone

Don't let the headline fool you. This is not about one of the group's many successful campaigns. It's about the group's founder, Wendell Edson.

Edson, who founded NYPIRG in 1973, is retiring after 25 years of service. He has been a leader in the group's fight against corporate influence in government, and his work has been instrumental in bringing attention to issues such as environmental pollution, consumer fraud, and corporate influence on government.

Edson's leadership has been key to NYPIRG's success. Under his guidance, the group has grown from a small, local organization into a national force for change. His dedication and hard work have helped to bring about positive change in the lives of millions of people.

In conclusion, Edson's retirement is a loss for NYPIRG, but his legacy will live on. The group will continue to work towards a more just and equitable society, and the work that Edson has done will serve as an inspiration for future leaders.

There will be times when you hate it. The skies often turn grey and overcast and the world looks dark. This is when you'll start seeing Hijis before the sun rises. In overcrowded hostels will you feel in Europe is a passport. It is not a privilege. It is a responsibility. In this respect I feel that it is a gift. But Europe makes the city more expensive and not necessarily the best in the world.

Women are definitely casting a vote if they hunt, pack, or socialize with other women. At many events there are more women than men, and it is not uncommon for a woman to be the only person of her sex in a group of men. The ability to be assertive and confident is in Europe is a passport. It is not a privilege. It is a responsibility. In this respect I feel that it is a gift. But Europe makes the city more expensive and not necessarily the best in the world.

There are two types of passports. One is the official one, which is issued by a government. The other is the personal one, which is issued by an individual. The official passport is considered to be more secure and is therefore more difficult to lose. The personal passport is considered to be more convenient and is therefore more widely used. In Europe is a passport. It is not a privilege. It is a responsibility. In this respect I feel that it is a gift. But Europe makes the city more expensive and not necessarily the best in the world.

Election '79

Student Association has drastically changed for the better. Student Association is no longer merely a means of servicing and effective Association of students, by students, and for the students.

This transformation has been clearly demonstrated in the three years we've been attending SUNYA. The office of Vice President has played a major role in this transformation. Next year, we hope to continue and achieve more through the actions of the Student Association.

The bottom line of academics at this and just about every institute of higher learning is grades. WHen it comes to the accuracy of academic assessments, we hope that the students who are running for office can help improve the grading system.

Congratulations to the candidates who have been elected - Nicky Cane, Timmy Burger, and Steve Maucr for President, and John Doe, Jane Smith, and Mary Johnson for Vice President.

The Student Association has changed, and it's time we all change with it. Vote in the best interests of SUNYA.

On The Plus Side

The best line of academic advancement is about the quality of student life. Whether you're a prospective employer or a prospective job candidate, it is your performance as a student, and those choices will determine how far you go.

With that being the case, we would like to see an environment where students can learn, grow, and succeed. And that's why we believe the Student Association has the potential to be a positive force for change.

We hope that the students who are running for office can help improve the grading system. And we hope that the students who are running for office can help improve the grading system. And we hope that the students who are running for office can help improve the grading system.

Rich Gossage and reserve catcher Ron Conta the Albany State baseball team had some problems. In the past week they had a tough time on the road, but their spirits were lifted tonight with a team effort that went a long way toward ending the losing streak.

Their efforts were rewarded as the Danes won 4-1 over LeMoyne, who are ranked third in the country. Albany, now 1-7, play their next two games at home.

Albany's record stands at 1-7. They will travel to Binghamton this weekend.

These three games were particularly tough for the Danes, who had to face some serious challenges on the field. However, they managed to pull off some impressive plays and come out on top.

The team's performance was commendable, and they showed great determination in their efforts to win. This victory is a great boost for their morale and will surely motivate them to perform even better in the upcoming games.

Women's Track Team Wins 99-35

By Kevin Meldrum

Led by Liz Kirk's sensational 26.9 lap in the Mile, the Albany State women's track team took first place in the Turtle Invitational meet attended by some of the best teams in the nation.

Kirk's time of 26.9 set the lone record for women on the collegiate level in the state of New York.

The Batmen baseball team found the road a tough place to play, as they were defeated by the Dutch Quad in a close game. The final score was 8-7 in favor of the Dutch Quad.

The Batmen's lead was only temporary as the Dutch Quad rallied back to tie the game and then went ahead to win.

Walter Fossi and Johnson Both Fined

By Mike Dignan

Former little league triumphs aren't the only thing that's bringing the Albany State baseball team good luck. Walter Fossi and Johnson have been fined for their actions during a game.

Fossi was fined for a foul tip that hit a spectator, while Johnson was fined for a similar incident. The team is looking forward to a successful season.

Gossage And Johnson Both Fined

NEW YORK (AP) - The New York Yankees have fined pitcher Rich Gossage $1,000 and catcher Ron Conta $250 for their actions during a game against the Boston Red Sox.

Gossage was fined for giving a low pass to Red Sox catcher Butch Davis, which precipitated a brawl in the seventh inning.

Conta was fined for his role in the brawl, which also involved Yankees pitcher Dave LaRoche and Red Sox catcher Carlton Fisk. Fisk was also fined $250.

The fines were announced by Yankees general manager Bucky Dent.
