1917 NEWS PRINTS FIRST AUTHENTIC RECORD OF PROM

The first authentic record that can be found of a Junior Prom is the one of 1917. According to Miss Anna Y. Sayles, the principal of the junior high school in 1917, although it fairly certain that the junior work was a custom, when the YC refers to the fact that juniors always had balls in the fall of the year, it is not absolutely certain that the dates when the junior work was conducted in the gymnasium. It was not until 1916 that senior work was on the faculty and senior dances were inaugurated 1917.

The junior festivities continued to be rather limited until 1920 when the prom was conducted in the yachts club at Ten Eyck hotel. At that time the prom was affiliated with a great many events during homecoming week which was held for the first time at Port Dickinson. The junior work was conducted at the Colony Pizza and each junior was required to pay $10.00, a sum which it had not been exceeding, various classes and activities to be paid for. In 1917 the final innovation, the junior dance, was adopted which brings the junior work up to date. The name "junior work" was the name of this unique social event.

SENIORS RECEIVES TEACHERS OFFICE BUREAU

Five more seniors have teaching positions for next semester, according to Miss Anna Y. Sayles, principal of the junior high school. These five seniors will teach subjects which have been assigned to them by the department of Modern language.

Leo D. Ridgway will teach English, and an English paper will be written as the class work for the second semester. The subjects taught by the seniors will be English, arithmetic, science, and history. The seniors will also teach general science, and German, and French.

Six Men Chosen Varsity Debaters

Newcomb Miller, Donald A. Arnett and Roy N. Einsdorfer have been chosen to debate on the arguments presented by the varsity debate team.

For the first time since its participation in inter-collegiate debating ten years ago, the varsity debate team will be represented by two teams for the season when the schedule is carried out for debate.

Six men were chosen for the two teams. The first team will consist of Lawrence C. Sturrock, Phil Dobbs, A. Miller, and Donald P. Rice. The second team will consist of W. Orr, R. A. Mosher and Donald P. Rice.

The first team will meet Hamilton College on Tuesday night, March 9. The second debate will be held at Hamilton College on Wednesday night, March 10. The question for debate will be "Resolved, that the United States should extend compulsory unemployment insurance to its citizens for a period of three years."

The debate will take place in the auditorium of Page hall.

TOWERS OF LIONS

The monumental narrative of the history of carillons and carillon music of Europe and America is written by Professor William Gorham Rice, artist, and he has been a pioneer in the study of the subject. Rice's study of the carillons of all parts of the world is reflected in his commentary on the most famous towers, and the building of many of them is explained in one of the most interesting chapters of the book. Interesting anecdotes of the amount of pay which covered the sophomore mascot. The huge fire and war dance that followed was to be the lead in interclass rivalry.

Towers of Lions, with the words lion and lioness, is published in 1929, and written for inclusion in the instruction of all students. It is impossible to assure that all of the books of publications are perfectly aware of the individual merits of the individuals on the several staffs.

ATTEND DEBATES

As the spring approaches the interest of the men and the women manifests to fulfill their schedules. Several important debates will be held this year, and there will be at least three that will be conducted in the coming weeks.

The devoted body could certainly enjoy their company. All of the boys are to be congratulated on the good work.
TWO OF FACULTY TO ADDRESS 1932
Dr. Smith and Mr. Moore to Speak at Luncheon Tomorrow.
Chairman Says
Dr. Donnell V. Smith, assistant professor in history, and Carlisle A. Moore, instructor in biology, will be the faculty speakers at the junior luncheon to be conducted at the Dr. Wit Cline Hotel at 1 o'clock to make their addresses. Dr. Harrie Witter, MA, chairman of the faculty, said Dr. Smith and Mr. Moore will also be speakers for the luncheon.

The other speakers at the luncheon will be Catherine Traher, freshman president; George Rize, sophomore president; and Carle Member, junior president. They will give the class history for the freshman, sophomore, and junior years, respectively, and Samuel Dransky, who will give a prophecy of the class' senior year.

The luncheon decorations will be in the class color, yellow, and the flowers will be yellow roses.

At the tea dance, to be the gymnasium in Page hall, Miss M. Anne Dobbin and Mr. Marion P. Smith, instructors in French, will preside. The tea dance will be from 3 to 5 o'clock, and the charge for Prom tonight will be seventy-five cents a person.

Students Choose Senior Year As Best
Symposium of Members of 1931 Shows Minerva adjusted her spectacles, turned the four under her helmet, and gazed at us for a moment.

"You are now enjoying the best four years of your life." The Goddess gazed solemnly, "but you cannot understand such a truth as this."

"What about the last year?" we asked.

"The last year was the best," we demanded with the searching expressions characteristic of college undergraduates.

Minerva smiled with just enough patronizing coziness to give us the impression of saintly tolerance and replied, "All things that the Gods grant are the best." We searched in vain what that meant. We knew we should do with it, but were afraid to ask what that meant.

"What about the last four years?"

"The last four years were the best," we answered.

"You are now enjoying the best four years of your life," our Goddess insisted, "but the last four years were the best," she continued.

"You are now enjoying the best four years of your life," the Goddess repeated.

"But which of the four years is the best?" we asked.

"You are now enjoying the best four years of your life," our Goddess returned.

"Which of the four years is the best?" we asked.

THOUGHTS OF JUNIORS FOR PROM

The last of the free of the month of August—the Dance and Prom are here, and all romances and waltzes, with a final flourish, are about to be duplicated in the coming game. It is to be expected that the fighting spirit which has characterized the team will be maintained in the coming contest, and that there will be no lack of enthusiasm from supporters and fans.

The Manhattan college game is scheduled for Friday night, February 19, and the armory can hold a large gymnasium. The State college students are expected to come to the game, and should be played on the State college ground. The game should take place in the armory because of difficulties in hearing the band.

An R. P. I. he-man of basketball: "The armory would be advisable if State college students did not come to the game. If State college students, I feel that the game should take place in the armory.

In the days before Montana, the annual Get-Wise party these four damsels might have been counting in anticipation of a "Get-Wise" party that was nothing but truth. The program included the present junior class, in which pupils for the freshman, junior, and sophomore classes. This latter was generally served over the medium of apple pie, considered by the sophomore "entertainment." A FRESHMAN "CUB" WORKING FOR THE PEDAGOGUE

JOLLY JUNIORS AS JUVENILES

Each has ruled in turn.

One of these girls has been domestic. All of the others have joined as anxious members of the college for one term. They were Mabel Turner, '31, and Ethel Goodwin, '31, above, and Bertha Van, '30, and Ellanore Brown, '31, at the extreme left. The assignment for next week will probably be drawn from the ranks of the present group, unless it proves up to take the place of the minors.
