Democracy and Americanism

Commentator

It seems to me that the element of free and democratic government is one of the most important of our national institutions. The United States is a nation of free men, and it is only through the democratic process that we can safeguard our freedoms. The democratic process is a system of checks and balances, and it is through this system that we are able to protect our liberties.

Let us build on whatever good we can find in the country.

youth all over the world, and which, as citizens,
as many students as possible is admirable.
