Dancing To Start At 8 O’Clock Tomorrow Night
“Varieties” To Feature
Music, Entertainment

The State College Women’s Choir, conducted by Dr. Robert Whitmore, and the Symphonic Orchestra, directed by Dr. Harold Gould, will give the traditional State College opening assembly of the season at 8 o’clock tomorrow night in the gymnasium. The orchestra will present a program of European music and the women’s choir will perform a blend of American and European music. The program will be concluded by the traditional State College Alma Mater, sung by all in attendance.

Head Program Tonight in Page
Students May Attend By Using Tax Ticket

Music Council will present Vivien Harvey, well known New York and London opera singer, in a personal appearance here. The appearance of the RPI alumni will coincide with a support drive to be held in connection with the National Union of College Women’s drive for funds. The drive is sponsored by Music Council this year.

Harvey, born in Boston, is a graduate of the Eastman School of Music and the Juilliard School of Music in New York City. She has appeared on radio and in New York and London, and has been heard in the leading opera houses of the East. She has been a soloist with many leading symphony orchestras and has sung for two days at the San Francisco Opera. She has appeared at many of the leading Universities and colleges in the United States. She is also the author of the book, "My Days in Opera." Miss Harvey is a member of the Metropolitan Opera Company and has sung in 122 performances in that company. She is a leading member of the faculty of the Juilliard School and is considered one of the major opera singers in the United States.

Commuters To Produce Big-8 Sock Hop

The Commuter’s Club will introduce the 1948 Big-8 Sesqui-centennial Sock Hop, tonight in Page. The Grapevine, the theme of the dance, will feature the usual variety of music, parades, skits, contests, dancing, and much more. The decorations will place emphasis on grape grower’s equipment and will include a grape composite from the grape garden of the college. The theme will be carried throughout the evening.

Alma Hughes, 47, treasurer, will be the speaker for the evening and the following officers for this year: bankers, Vivian Harvey, P.D.; Francis Whitmore, R.P.; Whitmore’s, P.D.; Mark Whitmore, P.D.; Robert Whitmore, P.D.; Paul Whitmore, P.D.; and Curtis Pfaff, P.D.

The appearance of the RPI Olee will give an illustrated lecture at the evening, and the grape dancers will face their favorite composer.
