Two Resignations Leave Vacancies On Myskania

Post Recommended List: Students May Nominate

Two vacancies on Myskania have occurred as the result of the resignations of Joel Simon and Donald Langley. The list of recommended persons for the list has been posted on the Myskania bulletin.

Any member of Student Association may suggest additional persons for the list, and the nomination list is sealed, signed, and placed on the Myskania bulletin by 12:30 a.m. on December 15. The list will be posted at 3:30 a.m. on December 16 and will be available for viewing from that time until December 31, at which time the second semester classes begin. Let us examine carefully the results of this situation.

1. No time is scheduled for conflict exams. If the administration does not wish to hold conflict exams, why not simply enforce the schedule ruling that no student take two courses in the same examination group during the same semester?

2. Second semester Millie and off-campus practice teachers will be involved in preparatory conferences with their supervisors prior to exam week.

3. Borderline students must begin second semester classes without knowing the results of their first semester courses.

This is an extensive job which most frequently goes without any realization.

As a solution to this mess and confusion, may it be suggested that this year and in years to come the mid-year examinations begin on a Monday and second semester classes begin on Monday. This plan would still not give as much time as other colleges receive but at least give a few days as a breathing spell.

Revised to today is the new procedure for handling the resignation list. Petitions are now in the office of administration, and any petition which one can obtain in the library are selections by Sigmund Pierne and "Die Fledermaus" by Richard Strauss. Other records purchased recently is of Serge Koussevitzky conducts the Boston Pops Orchestra.

Second semester Milne and off-campus practice teachers will be involved in preparatory conferences with their supervisors prior to exam week.
