Biographical History

Founded in 1970 and based in Albany, New York, the Pride Center of the Capital Region promotes the well-being of all lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer-identified people and those affected by discrimination based on gender identity and expression. Its programs, both at the Center as well as held throughout the region, meet the health and human service needs of the LGBTQ community as well as educate and advocate for those needs in the broader Capital Region. As the oldest continuously-operating LGBTQ community center in the country, the Pride Center has worked to build a welcoming and empowering community for all people.

According to its records, the Pride Center formed in 1970 under the name of the Gay Liberation Front. It was renamed the Capital District Gay Community Council in 1972 and later was the Capital District Gay and Lesbian Community Council before becoming the Pride Center in 2011.

Scope and Contents

The collection consists of photographs, correspondence, clippings, publications, subject files, and event materials, including records from the annual Capital Pride celebration. The publications include CommUNITY (1974-2002), Speak Out (1974-1978), Northeast Alive, and Capital District Alive among others.

Arrangement of the Collection

The collection is unprocessed and is likely disorganized. Individual items may be difficult to find. The newsletters are arranged alphabetically.

Revision Description

Processing Information
Only a small percentage of the collection (some newsletters) are partially processed. The majority of the collection is unprocessed.

Acquisition Information
The Capital District Gay and Lesbian Community Council, Inc. donated initial materials (predominantly publications) to the University Libraries, M.E. Grenander Department of Special Collections and Archives in 2005. In 2016, the Pride Center donated a much larger amount of records. Lawrence Van Heusen donated a small number of additional items in 2017.

Access
Access to this collection is restricted because it is unprocessed. Portions of the collection may contain recent administrative records and/or personally identifiable information. While it is likely that portions of the collection may be viewed, access must be managed by an archivist.

Copyright
The researcher assumes full responsibility for conforming with the laws of copyright. Whenever possible, the M.E. Grenander Department of Special Collections and Archives will provide information about copyright owners and other restrictions, but the legal determination ultimately rests with the researcher. Requests for permission to publish material from this collection should be discussed with the Head of Special Collections and Archives.
