Biographical History

William G. Bannon was a resident of Hoosick Falls, New York who served as a representative of the U.S. Department of War in the 1920s.
Scope and Contents

Collection includes letters to his sisters while he was in Siberia and Shanghai, 1920-1922, discussing local conditions, social events with other Americans and Europeans, Catholics, pidgin English, and the political situation between Russia, China, and Japan; letters to friends and relatives, especially Winifred Freely, 1948-1966, discussing family history, Catholic activities, and reminiscences of his foreign service; and bills and receipts from his stay at the Astor House in Shanghai, 1921.

Arrangement of the Collection

The collection is unprocessed and is likely disorganized. Individual items may be difficult to find.
