Administrative History

The office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs was established in 1965 by President Evan R. Collins as a successor to the Office of the Dean, which had previously overseen academic programs. The Provost manages all aspects of the University's academic mission. This includes oversight of all of the undergraduate and graduate programs, enrollment, and advisement. The Provost is also responsible for overseeing the registration process for new academic programs as well as the periodic review, conducted by the State Education Department and by outside accrediting bodies, of existing programs. As of 2016, the office is referred to as the Office of the Provost, while the Provost's title remains Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Scope and Contents

Includes correspondence and reports of the Vice President for Academic Affairs relating to the establishment, accreditation, and review of academic departments and programs; the closing of the Milne School and phasing out of particular academic programs in the 1970s; administrative policies about probation, transfer students, enrollment and faculty salaries; long range planning documentation; documents on international programs; and campus construction and space planning documentation. Also included is a complete run of bulletins and course catalogs.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Arrangement of the Collection

This collection is arranged into 8 series. Series 1 contains archived versions of the Provost's website. Series 2 through 6 contain materials designated by the State retention schedule for permanent retention: bulletins (Series 2), program registration letters from the State Education Department (Series 3), program accreditation letters from outside accrediting bodies (Series 4), articulation agreements (Series 5), and supporting materials documenting the program registration and review processes (series 6). Series 7 consists of curriculum development materials that document the approval of individual courses at the University. Finally, Series 8 contains administrative records from the Office of the Provost that document the day to day administrative functions of the Office.

Program Proposal and Review Records, 1951-2004 (1970-2000)

Date [inclusive]: 1951-2004

Date [bulk]: 1970-2000

Physical Description: 52.66 cubic ft.

Conditions Governing Access:

Conditions Governing Access

This series may contain personally identifiable information, access must be arranged through the University Archivist.

Arrangement

Materials are partially processed, individual items may be difficult to find.

Scope and Contents

This series consists of materials gathered to support the establishment, review, and accreditation processes for academic programs and departments. This includes correspondence with the State Education Department, documentation of State Education Department regulations, reports and reviews of academic programs conducted internally and by external reviewers, letters of intent for the establishment of new programs (including letters of intent received from other universities and colleges), and other supporting correspondence and documentation. Some of the graduate program review materials were originally created by the Office of Graduate Studies, but were transferred to this collection to keep all program review material together and better comply with State retention requirements.
