ASK $32,000 HOME MANAGEMENT HOUSE
Byrne and Hayes Sponsor Bill Authorizing Purchase Of Building

PLAN NURSERY SCHOOL
Present Quarters in Rentad Flat Inadequate, Winchell Says

A new home management house and a new nursery school at the College in a bill introduced into the legislature by State Senators J. W. Byrne and Assemblyman John P. Hayes, of Albany. The estimated cost of $24,000 would authorize the state education department to buy a house conducive to the College for the purpose of educational demonstration house and child laboratory.

At present quarters in home management department for the study of home economics are located in a rented apartment which they share with another department and must be shut off at one time. The legislative session extends until the end of June, according to Professor I. W. Winchell, head of the home management department. More space is needed, she said, in order to meet the needs of the growing school.

The proposed house would provide for residence training above the theoretical and laboratory type of training now given to the home students. The new quarters would provide for individual study and self-training, she said.

For many years the Winchell family have been interested in the development of home economics demonstration house and child laboratory. This bill asks for only $5400, according to Professor Winchell.

The new quarters will be a nursery school laboratories. Financial assistance for the home management department is now being sought by the Winchell family.

Mrs. Shu of Alpha Kappa Phi, who until a few weeks ago was editor of the State College News, is able to announce today that the first volume of the weekly publication will be printed in a few weeks. The first volume will carry an appropriation of $12,000, according to the act now before the legislature by State Senator William T. Rockefeller, of Albany. The proposed appropriation would carry its first year appropriation of $12,000, and an addition of $5,000 for the following year. The act, according to Mr. Rockefeller, would authorize the state education department to buy a house convenient for a nursery school laboratories.

HAPPY IN NEW LOVE, MRS. SHU DECLARES

Former Eva Dicta, '28, Awaits Return To the Home Of her Childhood

Mrs. Clarence Shu, who left a few weeks ago for China, will return, she said, soon after the commencement of the summer term in China. It is possible for her to return, she said, for the purpose of visiting her husband, the spell of whose three-year war service has passed.

"I am sure that my wife will be happy to return to my county," her husband assures. "I could not say that all American students would return to their home, but I believe she can," Miss Shu has informed in her correspondence.

The child nature school would be a new departure in education but it is obvious that the idea will be welcomed, she said.

"No exams, nothing to do all day but only work, only work, only work," feeling toward their incarceration under quarantine for scarlet fever. They have been in the hospital for over a month, seven days after their quarantine was lifted. If the hospital said they could take next week's examinations.

"We are greatly encouraged," Mrs. Shu said with a warm smile, as if the thought of going back to China, she quickly added, "We must go to proctor them.

MAY CUT ORGANIZATION BUDGETS 10 PER CENT

Little possibility that student organizations will be cut, but the budget was approved by the student council.

The receipts at present total $11,758. The budget for next year has been fixed at $12,250. If the student council will not cut the budget, then the student organizations will have to reduce their budgets by 10 per cent.

"We have come nearer to one hundred dollars a year," Professor Vare said, "and we are greatly encouraged.

shall intersorority set up a caste system here? a moral query students who disagree with the news' view that the growth in the number of sororities here ought to be encouraged had been told that "if everyone can get into a sorority, it won't be any honor to belong to one.

the implication of this argument is that state college should encourage the development of its own caste system, which would discourage the growth of sororities. however, the idea of a caste system is generally perceived as negative.

this is probably the real reason for opposing new sororities. many students say that the growth of sororities would have a "devastating" effect on the college culture.

the inter sorority council is within its legal rights in setting up any limitations or rules on new sororities.

however, the inter sorority council must consider the moral as well as the legal aspects of its actions. it must ask itself whether an inter sorority council, which is not a religious or political body, should be able to limit the freedom of individuals to organize as they please.

the inter sorority council has taken the position that "if everyone can get into a sorority, it won't be any honor to belong to one." this argument is generally perceived as negative.

the fact that the inter sorority council has taken this position is generally perceived as a negative development.

i would like to see the day when the inter sorority council would let sororities join on their own terms. it is important that students be free to choose how they want to organize.

The French class will be taught by Professor Woodard, and the Hebrew class will be taught by Professor Waggard. Both classes will be available for students who wish to learn these languages.

NEWMAN HALL ADDITION COSTS WILL BE $70,000

The fund drive for the Newman hall addition will be opened by a appeal to the alumni. The total cost of the addition is estimated at $70,000, according to estimates furnished by the school.

The addition will provide new classrooms, laboratories, and facilities for the arts and sciences departments. It will also accommodate the growing student body and allow for future expansion.

CHORUS WON'T BROADCAST

The college chorus will not broadcast this year, according to Dr. T. Peckwick, director of music. The change is due to the lack of a suitable program to broadcast.

Women's Clubs in Schoenectady And Albany Will See Picture

By LOUISE D. GUNN

The portrait of Mls. Anna E. Pierce, donor of memoriam, will be on public exhi- bit for the first time at the Woman's club the week of February 21. The picture is the gift of the families and friends of Mrs. Pierce, who died in 1922.

Miss Elizabeth Van Denburgh, registrar, says that the picture was given in appreciation of Mrs. Pierce's years of service for and great interest in the project of a women's cultural hall. It is in a simple, dull gold frame with a simple metallic frame. The portrait will bear the following inscription:

ANNA E. PIERCE

New York State College for Teachers, 1922

David G. Elbridge, Albany artist, will exhibit the portrait at his art store in North Pearl Street for a few weeks. He will send it to the Woman's club in Schoenectady early in March.

The finishing touches have been added to the picture, and it is ready for exhibition in the College halls.

FOSS HAVE ONLY ONE "BABY" LESS THAN 16

STRING QUARTET WILL RETURN HERE MARCH 8

The Frances Perre quartet will play at Chancellor's ball Saturday evening, March 8, under the auspices of the Music association. The quartet played here last year, has broad- ly interested in the quartet form marriage and divorce laws, but does not wish to debate the subject in the form proposed by Union. Such was the announce- ment that the debate council sent this week to the Union council.

State will debate the subject, "Re- solved; that Congress should enact uniform divorce laws and that the constitutionality of the decision of the court in the Warden v. Heffling case be re- solved; that Congress have the power to enact uniform divorce laws."

According to Dr. Harold W. Thomp- son, one of the two faculty members of the council, this subject would lead to an interesting technical discussion of Congress' head powers. If Union accepts State's wording, it is expected plans for tryouts will be announced after examinations are over.

The council is also trying to arrange a double debate with Union for next session.
