MEN AND WOMAN VIE FOR POSITION

Miss Pearl and Gertrude Rice remain Candidates for Fire Vote

Miss Pearl Deaver, a sophomore, has been elected to the fire committee, doing the work that she was assigned.

One Will Be Delegate

Woman Collect Goods for Poor

The Woman's Union collection includes a large stock of gifts for the poor. These gifts are also being sold at the sale at the school, being put up for the benefit of the poor. The gifts include clothing, food, and other necessities. The Women's Union has been busy collecting these gifts and has made a great effort to get them. The gifts will be sold at a low price to the poor, and the proceeds will be used to help them.

Law School Wins Game, 44 to 36

Former Spanish Instructor

Miss Alice Taylor Hill, former Spanish instructor in State college and supervisor of public school education, will speak in the chapel of the college at Haverford College, Pennsylvania, on December 2.

Miss Hill was graduated from Haverford college and worked at the same time. She ended her term in education at the teaching college. The talk will be on December 2.

The talk will be on December 2.

72 FRESHMEN GET CHECKS AS PART OF SCHOLARSHIPS

Miss Pettiette Names Committees for Plays

A new committee has been formed to handle the social events of the college. The committee consists of Miss Pettiette and Miss Pettiette. The committee will be in charge of all the social events of the college and will work closely with the other committees to make sure that all the events are handled properly.

Cellar Echoes, '22

Miss Pettiette, '22, gets orchestra bids for sophomore

A new orchestra has been formed to handle the social events of the college. The orchestra consists of Miss Pettiette and Miss Pettiette. The orchestra will be in charge of all the social events of the college and will work closely with the other committees to make sure that all the events are handled properly.

President Names

Daniel Conk, '31, Dance Supervisor

The college president has named Daniel Conk as the new dance supervisor. Conk will be in charge of all the dance events of the college.

Five Students Added

Five students have been added to the campus commission. They are: A. B. Brown, A. L. Brown, A. L. Brown, A. L. Brown, and A. L. Brown. They will be in charge of all the events on the campus.

Jury to Decide on Murder Case Today

Both Sides Are Confident of Victory

The trial of the murder case is scheduled for today. Both sides are confident of victory. The defendant, a student, is charged with the murder of a fellow student.

Rally of Spanish Students

A new committee has been formed to handle the Spanish students. The committee consists of A. L. Brown and A. L. Brown. The committee will work closely with the other committees to make sure that all the Spanish events are handled properly.
STATE COLLEGE NEWS, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1930

BOOKS: STORY OF EXPLORATION; LIFE OF SAMUEL PEPYS

"Women And Arbitration Are Uncertain;" Freshmen Defend Force In Debate

The story of the conquest of the South Polar regions by Admiral Byrd and his associates is told in this quarter. It is the story of an achievement made by the United States on the polar ice and a trip across the Antarctic Continent in the face of strong opposition and the utmost of difficulty.

NEED FINALLY ANSWERED

"Women And Arbitration Are Uncertain;" Freshmen Defend Force In Debate

The story of the conquest of the South Polar regions by Admiral Byrd and his associates is told in this quarter. It is the story of an achievement made by the United States on the polar ice and a trip across the Antarctic Continent in the face of strong opposition and the utmost of difficulty.

NEED FINALLY ANSWERED

"Women And Arbitration Are Uncertain;" Freshmen Defend Force In Debate

The story of the conquest of the South Polar regions by Admiral Byrd and his associates is told in this quarter. It is the story of an achievement made by the United States on the polar ice and a trip across the Antarctic Continent in the face of strong opposition and the utmost of difficulty.

NEED FINALLY ANSWERED

"Women And Arbitration Are Uncertain;" Freshmen Defend Force In Debate

The story of the conquest of the South Polar regions by Admiral Byrd and his associates is told in this quarter. It is the story of an achievement made by the United States on the polar ice and a trip across the Antarctic Continent in the face of strong opposition and the utmost of difficulty.

NEED FINALLY ANSWERED

"Women And Arbitration Are Uncertain;" Freshmen Defend Force In Debate

The story of the conquest of the South Polar regions by Admiral Byrd and his associates is told in this quarter. It is the story of an achievement made by the United States on the polar ice and a trip across the Antarctic Continent in the face of strong opposition and the utmost of difficulty.

NEED FINALLY ANSWERED

"Women And Arbitration Are Uncertain;" Freshmen Defend Force In Debate

The story of the conquest of the South Polar regions by Admiral Byrd and his associates is told in this quarter. It is the story of an achievement made by the United States on the polar ice and a trip across the Antarctic Continent in the face of strong opposition and the utmost of difficulty.
COMMITTEE PICKS FAVORS FOR PROM

Short News Notes

BUILDING OF HALL TO START IN 1931

First Unit of Residence Hall Will Provide Quarters For 200 Women

The building of the first unit of the residence hall, planned by the State college alumni association will be begun next spring, according to Miss Bertha E. Rimcr, executive secretary of the association. This first unit will include the general social rooms, the kitchen and dining rooms, and living quarters for about two hundred women, she said.

The building committee has held several meetings and has authorized the architects to prepare complete plans for the unit. The architects are Feller and Robinson of Albany. Dr. Ernest Goining is chairman of the committee. The secretary is John E. Blackland, and the executive secretary is Mrs. Finkler. The other members of the committee are Anna A. Peters, Judge Newton F. Van Puren, and Professor John M. Dagel, principal of Mike High school.

The advisory committee consists of: President R. A. Bradhurt, Mr. Charles J. Kime, Miss Neta Fritin, president of the alumni association, Miss Amanda D. De Vos, Mr. Van Puren, and Professor John C. Dagel, principal of Mike High school.

New head of the residence hall, Mrs. Bertha E. Rimcr, executive secretary of the association, has announced the following: Mrs. Bertha E. Rimcr, executive secretary of the association, has announced the following:

KAPPA DELTA PHILAM to hold a tea on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Pi Kappa Phi sorority for the benefit of the building fund.

Ms. Minnie Scotland, instructor in mathematics, has been named to a teaching position at Stillwater high school, according to Theresa Maurice, '31, who had recently announced the appointment of Mrs. Minnie Scotland as instructor in mathematics at Stillwater high school. She is the second woman to be appointed to a teaching position at Stillwater high school, and the second to be appointed to Stillwater high school.

TEN STUDENTS REPORT

For Burning This Year

Eight women and two men have been chosen to receive the annual award of the annual award. The award is given to students who have shown exceptional ability and achievement in the academic year. The award is given to students who have shown exceptional ability and achievement in the academic year.

Miss Mary To Attend

Fraternity Convention

Miss Mary To Attend, a student at the College of Education, has been elected to the annual convention of the annual convention. The convention is held each year to elect the officers of the annual convention. The convention is held each year to elect the officers of the annual convention.

Miss Helen Faye Writes

Article For Magazine

The Miss Helen Faye, a student at the College of Education, has written an article for the annual magazine. The article is titled "The Value of Education," and it is to be published in the annual magazine. The article is titled "The Value of Education," and it is to be published in the annual magazine.

YORK CANDY SHOP

ALBANY HARDWARE & IRON CO.

10-20 Front St.

"Basket Ball Equipment"

Special Prices on Uniforms and Full Teams Overstock-Prompt Service

ALBANY CANDY SHOP

OPPORTUNE THE

AMERICAN CLAYERS and Dyers

We Clean and Dry all kinds of Ladies' and Men's

Washing Apparel

RIT MADISON AVENUE

Phone 6-073

A GIFT FROM

VAN HEUSEN CHARLES

MEANS M'IL

The Van Heusen Charles Company

18 Broadway

Albany, N. Y.

Trep

"We Understand Eyes" Shaded

B. V. SMITH

EYEGLASOKOPTOMETRIST

50 N. Pearl St., Albany, N. Y.

PRINTING OF ALL KINDS

Students and Groups at State College will have 50 per cent attention

6 Mills Art Press

934-336 Broadway

4-2287

HEWETTS

A Reliable Place to Buy Reliable Silks, Woolens and Cottons

Albany's Silk Shop

10-22 N. Pearl St.

PALLADINO

Personality Fobs-Finger Waves - Permanent Waving

Hair Styling

38 Central Avenue (near Robin)

WESTLAND GOLF GARDEN

241 W. LAWRENCE ST. AT MADISON AVE.

Learn to play GOLF on the best and the most beautiful

18 hole indoor miniature GOLF course in the state.

CHECKING FREE

GROUPS CONDUCT CHRISTMAS PARTY

Sororities and Departmental Clubs

Several of the College organizations, including the sororities and groups of the College, have planned their annual Christmas parties during the past week.

On Monday evening, several of the organizations combined in the Commercial Building for a reception given in honor of the national sorority Rush. The reception was a social affair and a good time was had by all.

Tuesday night, the Alpha Xi Delta sorority and the National Honor Society of the College entertained a large group of students in the Home Economics Building. The reception was a social affair and was well attended.

On Wednesday night, the Beta Sigma sorority gave a party in the Alpha Xi Delta sorority house. The party was a social affair and was well attended.

On Thursday night, the Kappa Delta sorority gave a party in the Alpha Xi Delta sorority house. The party was a social affair and was well attended.

On Friday night, the Alpha Xi Delta sorority gave a party in the Kappa Delta sorority house. The party was a social affair and was well attended.

On Saturday night, the Kappa Delta sorority gave a party in the Alpha Xi Delta sorority house. The party was a social affair and was well attended.

On Sunday night, the Alpha Xi Delta sorority gave a party in the Kappa Delta sorority house. The party was a social affair and was well attended.

JUDGES TO PICK VARSITY FORENSIC TEAM JANUARY 13

Try-outs to select the members of the Forensics team for the spring debates will be conducted in room 20 of Richardson Hall Tuesday afternoon, January 13, at 4:00 o'clock. Dr. Harold T. Thompson, professor of English and coach of debate, announced today.

The debate council met Wednesday noon and scheduled four debates for the season. Two of these will be for the men and two for the women. All of the debates will take place in the page hall auditorium.

The women's team will debate Medieval college on Thursday, January 13, at 8:30 p.m. The debate will be given in the home of Helen M. Collier, president of the College, and will be attended by the President of the College, the President of the College, and the President of the College.

The men's team will debate Medieval college on Thursday, January 13, at 8:30 p.m. The debate will be given in the home of Helen M. Collier, president of the College, and will be attended by the President of the College, the President of the College, and the President of the College.

The debate council met Wednesday noon and scheduled four debates for the season. Two of these will be for the men and two for the women. All of the debates will take place in the page hall auditorium.

The women's team will debate Medieval college on Thursday, January 13, at 8:30 p.m. The debate will be given in the home of Helen M. Collier, president of the College, and will be attended by the President of the College, the President of the College, and the President of the College.

The men's team will debate Medieval college on Thursday, January 13, at 8:30 p.m. The debate will be given in the home of Helen M. Collier, president of the College, and will be attended by the President of the College, the President of the College, and the President of the College.

The debate council met Wednesday noon and scheduled four debates for the season. Two of these will be for the men and two for the women. All of the debates will take place in the page hall auditorium.

The women's team will debate Medieval college on Thursday, January 13, at 8:30 p.m. The debate will be given in the home of Helen M. Collier, president of the College, and will be attended by the President of the College, the President of the College, and the President of the College.

The men's team will debate Medieval college on Thursday, January 13, at 8:30 p.m. The debate will be given in the home of Helen M. Collier, president of the College, and will be attended by the President of the College, the President of the College, and the President of the College.