The Young Women's Christian Association will conduct a dinner meeting at the College of Bucknell on Tuesday, November 17th, at 12:30 o'clock, in the Lounge of Richardson Hall.

The dinner meeting will consist of round table discussions on "The World of Science," with Dr. George M. York, head of the science department, as chairman; Miss Clarece lidlcy, assistant professor of English, and Mrs. Thompson; Mr. Eckcrt; faculty, Philip Riccardi; the lounge committee; and the general discussion.

The Young Women's Christian Association, in charge of the dinner meeting, will be composed of: programs and bids, Leo faculty speakers; Dr. Caroline (H. Lehman will conduct the lounge meeting at 5:30 o'clock on the eve of the dinner meeting.

The Lounge committee will conduct the dinner meeting at 5:30 o'clock on the eve of the dinner meeting at the College of Bucknell on Tuesday, November 17th, at 12:30 o'clock.

The dinner committee will consist of round table discussions on "The World of Science," with Dr. George M. York, head of the science department, as chairman; Miss Clarece lidlcy, assistant professor of English, and Mrs. Thompson; Mr. Eckcrt; faculty, Philip Riccardi; the lounge committee; and the general discussion.

The Young Women's Christian Association, in charge of the dinner meeting, will be composed of: programs and bids, Leo faculty speakers; Dr. Caroline (H. Lehman will conduct the lounge meeting at 5:30 o'clock on the eve of the dinner meeting.

The Lounge committee will conduct the dinner meeting at 5:30 o'clock on the eve of the dinner meeting at the College of Bucknell on Tuesday, November 17th, at 12:30 o'clock.
Published every Friday in the college by the Editorial Board. Entered as second-class matter at the post office at Albany, N. Y., under the act of March 3, 1879.

The News does not necessarily express sentiments endorsed by the students or faculty of this institution, and while the editors may espouse certain views, the News as a whole does not endorse any particular party, club, or association.

PRINTED BY C. F. Williams & Son, Albany, N. Y.

STATE COLLEGE NEWS, NOVEMBER 3, 1933

THE NEWS STAFF

Mildred G. Wooster, Editor-in-Chief

William C. Wills, Managing Editor

Jean Carnser, Advertising Manager

Katherine Campbell, Newsroom Manager

Dan Van Luyken, Managing Editor

Ruth Williams, Managing Editor

Melvin F. Fricker, Circulation Manager

Senior Associate Editors: Almina Russ, Bessie Statler, and Helen Smith, editors; Ruth Brooks and Vivian Brown, juniors. Junior Associate Editors: Helen Bishop, Diane Gorham, Beulah M клис, and Wally Elenberg, editors.

Professor Wooster, President

Sterlings and Robert Bursley, editors.

The News does not necessarily express sentiments endorsed by the students or faculty of this institution, and while the editors may espouse certain views, the News as a whole does not endorse any particular party, club, or association.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

Published every Friday in the college by the Editorial Board. Entered as second-class matter at the post office at Albany, N. Y., under the act of March 3, 1879.

THE NEWS STAFF

Mildred G. Wooster, Editor-in-Chief

William C. Wills, Managing Editor

Jean Carnser, Advertising Manager

Katherine Campbell, Newsroom Manager

Dan Van Luyken, Managing Editor

Ruth Williams, Managing Editor

Melvin F. Fricker, Circulation Manager

Senior Associate Editors: Almina Russ, Bessie Statler, and Helen Smith, editors; Ruth Brooks and Vivian Brown, juniors. Junior Associate Editors: Helen Bishop, Diane Gorham, Beulah Miracle, and Wally Elenberg, editors.

Professor Wooster, President

S terlings and Robert Bursley, editors.

The News does not necessarily express sentiments endorsed by the students or faculty of this institution, and while the editors may espouse certain views, the News as a whole does not endorse any particular party, club, or association.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

Published every Friday in the college by the Editorial Board. Entered as second-class matter at the post office at Albany, N. Y., under the act of March 3, 1879.

THE NEWS STAFF

Mildred G. Wooster, Editor-in-Chief

William C. Wills, Managing Editor

Jean Carnser, Advertising Manager

Katherine Campbell, Newsroom Manager

Dan Van Luyken, Managing Editor

Ruth Williams, Managing Editor

Melvin F. Fricker, Circulation Manager

Senior Associate Editors: Almina Russ, Bessie Statler, and Helen Smith, editors; Ruth Brooks and Vivian Brown, juniors. Junior Associate Editors: Helen Bishop, Diane Gorham, Beulah Miracle, and Wally Elenberg, editors.

Professor Wooster, President

Sterlings and Robert Bursley, editors.

The News does not necessarily express sentiments endorsed by the students or faculty of this institution, and while the editors may espouse certain views, the News as a whole does not endorse any particular party, club, or association.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

Published every Friday in the college by the Editorial Board. Entered as second-class matter at the post office at Albany, N. Y., under the act of March 3, 1879.

THE NEWS STAFF

Mildred G. Wooster, Editor-in-Chief

William C. Wills, Managing Editor

Jean Carnser, Advertising Manager

Katherine Campbell, Newsroom Manager

Dan Van Luyken, Managing Editor

Ruth Williams, Managing Editor

Melvin F. Fricker, Circulation Manager

Senior Associate Editors: Almina Russ, Bessie Statler, and Helen Smith, editors; Ruth Brooks and Vivian Brown, juniors. Junior Associate Editors: Helen Bishop, Diane Gorham, Beulah Miracle, and Wally Elenberg, editors.

Professor Wooster, President

Sterlings and Robert Bursley, editors.

The News does not necessarily express sentiments endorsed by the students or faculty of this institution, and while the editors may espouse certain views, the News as a whole does not endorse any particular party, club, or association.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

Published every Friday in the college by the Editorial Board. Entered as second-class matter at the post office at Albany, N. Y., under the act of March 3, 1879.

THE NEWS STAFF

Mildred G. Wooster, Editor-in-Chief

William C. Wills, Managing Editor

Jean Carnser, Advertising Manager

Katherine Campbell, Newsroom Manager

Dan Van Luyken, Managing Editor

Ruth Williams, Managing Editor

Melvin F. Fricker, Circulation Manager

Senior Associate Editors: Almina Russ, Bessie Statler, and Helen Smith, editors; Ruth Brooks and Vivian Brown, juniors. Junior Associate Editors: Helen Bishop, Diane Gorham, Beulah Miracle, and Wally Elenberg, editors.

Professor Wooster, President

Sterlings and Robert Bursley, editors.

The News does not necessarily express sentiments endorsed by the students or faculty of this institution, and while the editors may espouse certain views, the News as a whole does not endorse any particular party, club, or association.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

Published every Friday in the college by the Editorial Board. Entered as second-class matter at the post office at Albany, N. Y., under the act of March 3, 1879.

THE NEWS STAFF

Mildred G. Wooster, Editor-in-Chief

William C. Wills, Managing Editor

Jean Carnser, Advertising Manager

Katherine Campbell, Newsroom Manager

Dan Van Luyken, Managing Editor

Ruth Williams, Managing Editor

Melvin F. Fricker, Circulation Manager

Senior Associate Editors: Almina Russ, Bessie Statler, and Helen Smith, editors; Ruth Brooks and Vivian Brown, juniors. Junior Associate Editors: Helen Bishop, Diane Gorham, Beulah Miracle, and Wally Elenberg, editors.

Professor Wooster, President

Sterlings and Robert Bursley, editors.

The News does not necessarily express sentiments endorsed by the students or faculty of this institution, and while the editors may espouse certain views, the News as a whole does not endorse any particular party, club, or association.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

Published every Friday in the college by the Editorial Board. Entered as second-class matter at the post office at Albany, N. Y., under the act of March 3, 1879.

THE NEWS STAFF

Mildred G. Wooster, Editor-in-Chief

William C. Wills, Managing Editor

Jean Carnser, Advertising Manager

Katherine Campbell, Newsroom Manager

Dan Van Luyken, Managing Editor

Ruth Williams, Managing Editor

Melvin F. Fricker, Circulation Manager

Senior Associate Editors: Almina Russ, Bessie Statler, and Helen Smith, editors; Ruth Brooks and Vivian Brown, juniors. Junior Associate Editors: Helen Bishop, Diane Gorham, Beulah Miracle, and Wally Elenberg, editors.

Professor Wooster, President

Sterlings and Robert Bursley, editors.

The News does not necessarily express sentiments endorsed by the students or faculty of this institution, and while the editors may espouse certain views, the News as a whole does not endorse any particular party, club, or association.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

Published every Friday in the college by the Editorial Board. Entered as second-class matter at the post office at Albany, N. Y., under the act of March 3, 1879.

THE NEWS STAFF

Mildred G. Wooster, Editor-in-Chief

William C. Wills, Managing Editor

Jean Carnser, Advertising Manager

Katherine Campbell, Newsroom Manager

Dan Van Luyken, Managing Editor

Ruth Williams, Managing Editor

Melvin F. Fricker, Circulation Manager

Senior Associate Editors: Almina Russ, Bessie Statler, and Helen Smith, editors; Ruth Brooks and Vivian Brown, juniors. Junior Associate Editors: Helen Bishop, Diane Gorham, Beulah Miracle, and Wally Elenberg, editors.

Professor Wooster, President

Sterlings and Robert Bursley, editors.

The News does not necessarily express sentiments endorsed by the students or faculty of this institution, and while the editors may espouse certain views, the News as a whole does not endorse any particular party, club, or association.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

Published every Friday in the college by the Editorial Board. Entered as second-class matter at the post office at Albany, N. Y., under the act of March 3, 1879.

THE NEWS STAFF

Mildred G. Wooster, Editor-in-Chief

William C. Wills, Managing Editor

Jean Carnser, Advertising Manager

Katherine Campbell, Newsroom Manager

Dan Van Luyken, Managing Editor

Ruth Williams, Managing Editor

Melvin F. Fricker, Circulation Manager

Senior Associate Editors: Almina Russ, Bessie Statler, and Helen Smith, editors; Ruth Brooks and Vivian Brown, juniors. Junior Associate Editors: Helen Bishop, Diane Gorham, Beulah Miracle, and Wally Elenberg, editors.

Professor Wooster, President

Sterlings and Robert Bursley, editors.

The News does not necessarily express sentiments endorsed by the students or faculty of this institution, and while the editors may espouse certain views, the News as a whole does not endorse any particular party, club, or association.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

Published every Friday in the college by the Editorial Board. Entered as second-class matter at the post office at Albany, N. Y., under the act of March 3, 1879.
IT TAKES HEALTHY NERVES TO PLAY CHAMPIONSHIP GOLF!

DENSMORE SHUTE—Britons gasped and gaped when he won the 1933 British Open over St. Andrews’ deceptive fairways and angry bunkers. Golf prophets say Shute will line up with Golf Immortals. Answering a question, Shute recently said: “I have tried all the brands, and long ago found that Camels are milder, and what is even more important to any golfer, they do not jangle the nerves.”

TOMMY ARMOUR—Often called “Wizard of the Irons,” Armour has won a flock of championships, including the U. S. Open in 1927, the P. G. A. in 1930, the British Open in 1931. Tommy knows his golf and his cigarettes. “What do I think of Camels? They are my brand and have been for years. I smoke a lot but I must be sure that my nerves are healthy and my head is clear—that’s why I prefer Camels.”

GENE SARAZEN—This great golfer began his winning ways in 1922 when he became U. S. Open Champion. He has been a consistent tournament winner ever since. This year he won his third P. G. A. Championship. On the subject of cigarettes Sarazen says: “I agree with Shute and Armour—I smoke Camels, too. They always taste good—and they never interfere with my nerve control.”

Men and women whose work and play demand healthy nerves and level heads prefer Camels. Active people agree that they can smoke these fine-flavored, milder cigarettes without fear of jangling their nerves.

Another thing about active people—they are pretty generally steady smokers. And, as anyone who smokes Camels will tell you, you can smoke as many of these cigarettes as you want—and never have a “cigarette” aftertaste. The last cigarette at night tastes as good as the first in the morning, if you smoke Camels.

Try a package of Camels today...Enjoy the superior flavor of their costlier tobaccos. If you are a steady smoker you will appreciate the fact that Camels never get on your nerves, never tire your taste.

IT IS MORE FUN TO KNOW
Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand. You will find Camels rich in flavor and delightfully mild.
PAUL REVERE rode to fame in more ways than one, for he was one of the first to engrave a sketch of Harvard University, the original being reproduced at right above. Above is shown the John Harvard statue which has been placed in front of University Hall, Harvard’s administration building. The buildings shown in the engraving, made in 1775, are still standing.

"SUITCASE" WARD is the University of Idaho's star fullback, and wears specially constructed shoes —size 13 double E. He is hard to start, and equally hard to stop.

MISS BENAOU of 1938 in private life is Miss Ayline Johnson, a freshman at the Oatesville, Ga., institution. She was selected as the Queen of Brenau College in a recent beauty contest.

"OLDEST AND NEWEST"! Members of the oldest college sorority in the United States, Alpha of Kappa Alpha Theta at DePauw University, welcome their newest sisters-in-the-bond. The party that closed the "rush week" was held in the historic parlor of the old chapter house at the Greencastle, Indiana, institution. We wonder how many times did the girls hear the phrase "oldest college sorority" while they made their rounds of the campus.

"NINE GRID TEAMS play for Yale University—only against each other. Nine football teams have been organized on the campus under the college plan of intramural athletics. There include teams from each of the seven colleges, and two from non-college groups, the first known as "Vanderbills," representing Vanderbills, Bingham, and Connecticut dormitories, and the second called "Wright" and representing Wright, McClellan and Welch dormitories."
Whether or not you believe that the classroom is a prison, students at Temple University at least have all of the prison trimmings—a requirement of registration is that the student be photographed and numbered for identification purposes.

32,000 MILES for an education—at least that is what Miss Sara Hollopeter will travel during the four years that she attends a California college. Her home is in Colombia, South America, and she is shown here arriving for the 1933 school year.

"THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT" faces the facade of the beautiful Memorial Church on the campus of Leland Stanford University, Palo Alto, Calif., the outstanding structure of its kind in the United States. The facade is done in full color mosaic set against a background of gold tile. The tile as well as the workmen were imported from Italy to complete the work in 1903.

"BRINDY", MAC & COMPANY, Marietta College's gallant oarsmen, are preparing early for their tough rowing schedule of next spring. Above is shown the Ohio institution's crew in full practice, while at the right are Coach J. Ellis "Hooter" MacDonald and "Brindy", the mascot.

GIBBETS are the new style in tackling dummies in England, or at least the supporting structures bear a distinct resemblance to the ancient weapon. At the left is shown a St. Paul's school rugger tackling a dummy on the West Kensington, England, field.
FIFTEEN YARDS were covered by Tommy Blake after this picture was taken before he was stopped by Centre College during the game played with Boston College in Boston. Blake's playing resulted in Boston's one touchdown victory over the Kentuckians, who invaded the east in one of the opening games on their schedule. The other players shown are (left to right) Bartlett, Anderson, Captain Maloney, and Boyd.

BEST SOLDIER at Rutgers University, Cadet Colonel Philip H. Spitzhoff was awarded the Daughters of the American Revolution medal by Mrs. Frank B. Whitlock at the 42nd annual field day of the Rutgers R.O.T.C. unit, which was given excellent rating by the War Department.

THE BICYCLE FAD has taken the University of Illinois campus, and here is a group of co-eds getting ready for an afternoon outing. They rent these bicycles from a former Illini grid star.

THE "FIGHTING HUNDRED", the University of Michigan's 100-piece band, took the field for its first game this fall under the baton of a new drum major, Donald A. Strouse, shown at the right above. The band is shown standing at attention in front of the Michigan stands, playing the famous Wolverine song "The Yellow and Blue." The unit gave concerts at the World's Fair in connection with the Michigan-Chicago football game.

NEW HEAD COACH at Iowa State Teachers College, John Baker, famed Trojan All-American, is having unusual success with his Purple Panthers.

TULSA'S NEW DEAL in football is being sponsored by Nira, the University of Tulsa's Jersey bull calf mascot. Captain of the Golden Hurricane, Bill Volok, all-American for two years, is holding the ball, while Charlie Suggar, end, is holding Nira.

BROTHER OF AN ALL-AMERICAN, Roald Amundsen Morton, Dartmouth College halfback, is endeavoring to equal the record of Bill Morton during this year's Big Green football season. Bill was the Dartmouth star of two seasons ago.

CO-ED MEMBERS of Theta Phi sorority on the campus of Cortland, N.Y., have been awarded the Mabel Wickwire scholarship trophy for their high scholastic standing. Above are shown Mabel Jones, left, and Mabel Ammerman with the trophy which is awarded each year.
STEPPING AROUND left end for a five-yard gain, substitute halfback Jacobs of Lafayette proved himself an effective ball carrier during the Leopard's tussle with New York University at the Yankee stadium. The Pennsylvanians missed a chance for a tie on a poor placement in the final quarter and went down to a 13-12 defeat.

HONORING Dr. John H. Finley, associate editor of the New York Times, this bronze bust by the late Dykaar will be presented to the College of the City of New York in honor of the publicist's 70th birthday.

DEAN OF ALL ATHLETIC DIRECTORS, Dr. Frederick W. Marvel is this year starting his thirty-first year of continuous service as head of the athletic department at Brown University.

THE HAPPY WARRIOR, Alfred Emanuel Smith, was lauded as "a son of the cosmopolitan city of New York" by Dr. Frank P. Graves, New York's commissioner of education, when he presented an honorary L.L.D. from New York University to the former governor of the state.

FOLLOWING HER FATHER'S FOOTSTEPS, Miss Laurence Williamson, daughter of the former South Dakota congressman, is head of the student government body at the University of South Dakota. She was prom queen last year, and is active in student activity circles.

"FRONT BOY" and five hundred college men applied for the bus boy jobs at a New York City hotel, much to the consternation of the publicity hating management, who confiscated the plates of the unfortunate lensman in the middle of this melee. Jobs are scarce for college men these days in the largest city in the United States, and an advertisement will bring a like rush of applicants for almost any kind of position.
Gentleman Farmer... By J. B. Lippincott Co.

Mr. Ford is an extremely self-conscious artist, and into the personal vein of this autobiography he brings his sensitivity and wit: you at those idle moments when you have a brief respite from the serious duties of the classroom.

The plot centers itself around a series of his finer creations, he presents his autobiography and into the personality of Adolph Hitler.

Mr. Ford is wholly unexpected. The story keeps us engrossed for its entire length. The plot centers itself around a series of his finer creations, he presents his autobiography and into the personality of Adolph Hitler.

The novels and essays of Ford have always been interesting for their urbanity and affable precision of language. In his volume, which the author insists tells us to be regarded as one of his finer creations, he presents his autobiography and into the personality of Adolph Hitler.

Wholesale Murder... By Carolyn Wells. J. B. Lippincott Co.

Mr. Ford's story of his adventure as a gentleman farmer in southern France. It was his custom to issue the names of his favorite and hated literary acquaintances to his books and prize jokes to the avid readers of her prolific creations. The book is diverting and should amuse the conscious artist, and into the peremptory Stone is wholly unexpected. The stone is skillfully accomplished and the story keeps us engrossed for its entire length. The plot centers itself around a series of his finer creations, he presents his autobiography and into the personality of Adolph Hitler.

The autobiography is, perhaps, his finest achievement and it is exactly the type of book with which every student of the arts should become acquainted. It possesses a great psychological merit and particularly in this instance, goes farthest toward bringing to us the author in a perspective which most truly presents him as he is in the mundane, level actions and experiences of his life.

Wholesale Murder... By Carolyn Wells. J. B. Lippincott Co.

In an attempt to vary the customary procedure in the writing of mystery stories, Carolyn Wells introduces us to the wholesale murder of an entire family of four people. Each has been put to death by different means and the situation is wholly unexpected. The book is diverting and should amuse you at those idle moments when you have a brief respite from the serious duties of the classroom.

The novels and essays of Ford have always been interesting for their urbanity and affable precision of language. In his volume, which the author insists tells us to be regarded as one of his finer creations, he presents his autobiography and into the personality of Adolph Hitler.

Mr. Ford is wholly unexpected. The story keeps us engrossed for its entire length. The plot centers itself around a series of his finer creations, he presents his autobiography and into the personality of Adolph Hitler.

Mr. Ford's story of his adventure as a gentleman farmer in southern France. It was his custom to issue the names of his favorite and hated literary acquaintances to his books and prize jokes to the avid readers of her prolific creations. The book is diverting and should amuse the conscious artist, and into the peremptory Stone is wholly unexpected. The stone is skillfully accomplished and the story keeps us engrossed for its entire length. The plot centers itself around a series of his finer creations, he presents his autobiography and into the personality of Adolph Hitler.

The autobiography is, perhaps, his finest achievement and it is exactly the type of book with which every student of the arts should become acquainted. It possesses a great psychological merit and particularly in this instance, goes farthest toward bringing to us the author in a perspective which most truly presents him as he is in the mundane, level actions and experiences of his life.

Wholesale Murder... By Carolyn Wells. J. B. Lippincott Co.

In an attempt to vary the customary procedure in the writing of mystery stories, Carolyn Wells introduces us to the wholesale murder of an entire family of four people. Each has been put to death by different means and the situation is wholly unexpected. The book is diverting and should amuse you at those idle moments when you have a brief respite from the serious duties of the classroom.

The novels and essays of Ford have always been interesting for their urbanity and affable precision of language. In his volume, which the author insists tells us to be regarded as one of his finer creations, he presents his autobiography and into the personality of Adolph Hitler.

Mr. Ford is wholly unexpected. The story keeps us engrossed for its entire length. The plot centers itself around a series of his finer creations, he presents his autobiography and into the personality of Adolph Hitler.

Mr. Ford's story of his adventure as a gentleman farmer in southern France. It was his custom to issue the names of his favorite and hated literary acquaintances to his books and prize jokes to the avid readers of her prolific creations. The book is diverting and should amuse the conscious artist, and into the peremptory Stone is wholly unexpected. The stone is skillfully accomplished and the story keeps us engrossed for its entire length. The plot centers itself around a series of his finer creations, he presents his autobiography and into the personality of Adolph Hitler.

The autobiography is, perhaps, his finest achievement and it is exactly the type of book with which every student of the arts should become acquainted. It possesses a great psychological merit and particularly in this instance, goes farthest toward bringing to us the author in a perspective which most truly presents him as he is in the mundane, level actions and experiences of his life.

Wholesale Murder... By Carolyn Wells. J. B. Lippincott Co.

In an attempt to vary the customary procedure in the writing of mystery stories, Carolyn Wells introduces us to the wholesale murder of an entire family of four people. Each has been put to death by different means and the situation is wholly unexpected. The book is diverting and should amuse you at those idle moments when you have a brief respite from the serious duties of the classroom.

The novels and essays of Ford have always been interesting for their urbanity and affable precision of language. In his volume, which the author insists tells us to be regarded as one of his finer creations, he presents his autobiography and into the personality of Adolph Hitler.

Mr. Ford is wholly unexpected. The story keeps us engrossed for its entire length. The plot centers itself around a series of his finer creations, he presents his autobiography and into the personality of Adolph Hitler.

Mr. Ford's story of his adventure as a gentleman farmer in southern France. It was his custom to issue the names of his favorite and hated literary acquaintances to his books and prize jokes to the avid readers of her prolific creations. The book is diverting and should amuse the conscious artist, and into the peremptory Stone is wholly unexpected. The stone is skillfully accomplished and the story keeps us engrossed for its entire length. The plot centers itself around a series of his finer creations, he presents his autobiography and into the personality of Adolph Hitler.

The autobiography is, perhaps, his finest achievement and it is exactly the type of book with which every student of the arts should become acquainted. It possesses a great psychological merit and particularly in this instance, goes farthest toward bringing to us the author in a perspective which most truly presents him as he is in the mundane, level actions and experiences of his life.

Wholesale Murder... By Carolyn Wells. J. B. Lippincott Co.
IT TAKES HEALTHY NERVES TO PLAY CHAMPIONSHIP GOLF!

DENSMORE SHUTE—Britons gasped and gaped when he won the 1933 British Open over St. Andrews' deceptive fairways and angry bunkers. Golf prophets say Shute will line up with Golf Immortals. Answering a question, Shute recently said: “I have tried all the brands, and long ago found that Camels are milder, and what is even more important to any golfer, they do not jangle the nerves.”

TOMMY ARMOUR—Often called “Wizard of the Irons,” Armour has won a flock of championships, including the U. S. Open in 1927, the P. G. A. in 1930, the British Open in 1931. Tommy knows his golf and his cigarettes. “What do I think of Camels? They are my brand and have been for years. I smoke a lot but I must be sure that my nerves are healthy and my head is clear—that’s why I prefer Camels.”

GENE SARAZEN—This great golfer began his winning ways in 1922 when he became U. S. Open Champion. He has been a consistent tournament winner ever since. This year he won his third P. G. A. Championship. On the subject of cigarettes Sarazen says: “I agree with Shute and Armour—I smoke Camels, too. They always taste good—and they never interfere with my nerve control.”

Steady Smokers turn to Camels

Men and women whose work and play demand healthy nerves and level heads prefer Camels. Active people agree that they can smoke these fine-flavored, milder cigarettes without fear of jangling their nerves.

Another thing about active people—they are pretty generally steady smokers... And, as anyone who smokes Camels will tell you, you can smoke as many of these cigarettes as you want—and never have a “cigaretty” aftertaste. The last cigarette at night tastes as good as the first in the morning, if you smoke Camels.

Try a package of Camels today... Enjoy the superior flavor of their costlier tobaccos. If you are a steady smoker you will appreciate the fact that Camels never get on your nerves, never tire your taste.

IT IS MORE FUN TO KNOW

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand. You will find Camels rich in flavor and delightfully mild.

CAMEL’S COSTLIER TOBACCOS

NEVER GET ON YOUR NERVES... NEVER TIRE YOUR TASTE

Copyright, 1933, N. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company
METROPOLITAN FANS saw their first football game of the season when Fordham swamped Albright, 52 to 0. Parlicovic of Fordham is shown above stopping Conway of Albright in the east's opener.

COLLEGIATE CHINESE on the western coast are all voting for Yik Mun, left, for queen of the Chinese Jade Festival. She is a student at the University of California, where she is known as Helen Fong. The festival pageant is one of the most colorful in the United States.

GREAT DEFENSIVE player on Michigan's eleven, Charles J. Bernard is one of the best centers in the nation. He was all-conference center last year.

TEXAS JACK GARNER, vice-president of the United States, puts on a cotton and wool suit grown, woven, and tailored for him by students of the Texas Technological College. Dr. Bradford Knapp, president of the college, is aiding the "forgotten man."

"GENTLEMEN MAY" prefer blondes," cheers pretty Kay Hughes, of Los Angeles Junior College. "but brunettes get the contracts," she added as she tucked away her long term movie contract that she earned last summer.

SEEING THE SPOTLIGHT in the first major upset of the season, the University of Iowa Hawkeyes, beaten underdogs of the Big Ten conference for four long years, came to the fore in the opening game of the conference by scoring the first major upset of the current season, defeating a confident Northwestern team by a score of 7 to 0. Joe Laws, Iowa quarterback, is shown below getting under way for the lone touchdown in the last quarter.
A PANTHER ON THE RUN. Wien­stock, University of Pittsburgh star half­back, played a large part when the Pan­thers gained a 9 to 0 victory over Wash­ington and Jefferson in one of their first games of the season. Wienstock is shown above making a gain of four yards during the fourth quarter of the game.

ROBERT EINSTEIN, cousin of the famous German phys­icist, has deserted his German home and has enrolled in Tulane University, New Orleans, to continue his medical studies. He asserts that Nazi Germany had “restricted his pursuit of knowledge” and “limited his social freedom.”

THE LAWYERS LIVE HERE. An aerial view of the Law Quadrangle at the University of Michigan showing the Lawyers Club in the foreground with the legal research library to the right of the center.

"FRESHIES" WERE FRESHEST at the end of the annual brawl between the freshmen and sopho­mores at the Los Angeles Junior College. The field was made muddy, and the tug-of-war very slip­pery, when firemen flooded the grounds in anticipation of the war. The tug-of-war was won by the first-year men.

AN OLD PENN CUSTOM—when fall rolls around at the University of Pennsylvania the freshmen begin to plan the ceremony commemorating the changing of the university’s name in 1791 from the College of Philadelphia to its present title. They parade around the college and kiss the toes of the statue of Benjamin Franklin, founder of the university.

BETWEEN SCRIMMAGES Head Coach “Reggie” Root and Captain Bob Laver of Yale University watch the team go through some light practice. The Yalemen are working hard “pointing” for the annual Yale Har­vard classic.
LEGISLATOR SWEEPS WAY TO EDUCATION! Most popular man on the campus at Southeastern Oklahoma Teachers College, Sam Sullivan, 22-year-old state legislator acts as janitor of the Administration building to help defray his college expenses. He is the baby legislator of Oklahoma.

WITH CAMERAS TURNING on the tip of a 75-foot crane, Fredric March, University of Wisconsin graduate, Marjorie Hopkins, Syracuse University graduate, and Gary Cooper, Greenwich College graduate, perform atop a precarious four-story set on the Paramount lot. They act under the direction of Ernest Lubitsch, who did not graduate from an American institution.

"BOILER" was the lusty cry of juniors and seniors at South Dakota State College as they retrieved their paddies from trunks. This same boiler has been used to tame the frosh since 1915, but the frosh this year stole it and hid it just after the picture was taken.

"THE FINEST GYMNASIUM IN THE WORLD"—that is what they call the Payne Whitney gymnasium at Yale University, and above is shown Edward Field Sanford Jr., putting the finishing touches on the statue "Victory" which is to be placed over the main doorway of the structure. The figure typifies young American rowing.
A FAVORITE among the sports at Saint Mary-of-the-Woods college is riding along the many paths that lead through the area surrounding the college. Above are shown Catherine Bruening, Vera Fullaytar, Frances Courtney, Helen Moynihan, Capt. Lancaster, riding master, Dorothy Ball, Frances Love, and Marguerite Reiss.

CHARGING FULL SPEED ahead and right into the camera, here's Georgia Tech's first string backfield limbering up before the start of one of their strenuous practice sessions. Left to right are shown Davis, halfback; Galloway, quarterback; Phillips, fullback; and Martin, halfback. Martin, a sophomore, is developing into a sensation in the southern league, and is a baffling triple threat to Tech's opponents.

HOBO DAY and beards go together for men at South Dakota State College, for no male student on the campus is allowed to shave for many weeks before the annual Hobo celebration at that institution. These collegians have not shaved since October 6. This is the only college in the United States to have a Hobo Day as their homecoming day.

SCOTLAND'S IMMORTAL BARD is honored by the Robert Burns Club of Washington University, St. Louis, and they have placed this fine image of the famed poet on their campus. A student must be a lover of Burns' works to qualify for membership in the organization.

DIXIE'S BEST BAND has the added distinction of having one of Dixie's most beautiful cows as its sponsor. Miss Margaret Walker, above left, is the sweetheart of the 90-piece University of Kentucky band, and a prominent social leader on her campus.
TALKING THINGS OVER during a rest period, "Pop" Warner, new head coach at Temple University, gives his "boys" some of the fine points of the game before sending them back to the practice field for a scrimmage game. The Philadelphia institution's gridders have a difficult schedule this fall to test the skill of their new mentor.

YOUR BUSY CO-ED will find this tailored ensemble appropriate for almost any daytime occasion. It's in brown, with rust colored satin in the upper part of the frock and girdle. Stylists predict many beret-like little hats with feather tufts this fall.

GLAUC AND WHITE form striking contrasts in this frock of black crepe set off by a white pique collar, cuffs and white gloves. The hat is a black felt turban rising to a point at the back.

“ANY MILK TODAY LADY?” With this greeting, Mickey Kirkness approaches housewives of Fargo, N. D., to sell milk to earn funds to pay his way at North Dakota State College. The cow's name is Hortense.

AERIAL PHOTOGRAPHY is the newest course at Harvard University, and here is one of the first products—a view of the historic Harvard Yard. In the center can be seen University Hall, the administrative center of the university, built in 1813. Behind it can be seen the spire of the new Memorial Chapel and the great square of the Widener Memorial Library. The buildings to the left are the dormitories which house the entire Freshman class—their future "Houses," each of which is really a college within Harvard college.

TO STUDY AMERICAN CUSTOMS, Miss Vera Dudychova, exchange student from Czechoslovakia, has enrolled in Temple University. She is preparing herself for a life dedicated to the cause of international peace.
A Logical Thriller . . .
Murder in Bermuda. By Wilmuda'is the occasion which sets in motion the adroit, speculative ac­ atility. From the outset the story moves forward at a rapid pace, employ­ acters working upon the case help
each other and together see the thing through, so that in this story, instead of the one stere­
super sleuth very nobly carer in which the various police of­ ers working upon the case help
acters working upon the case help
each other and together see the
thing through, so that in this story, instead of the one stere­
super sleuth very nobly carer in which the various police of­

ters are very convincing and the readers alternately perturbed and
satisfied.

The author utilizes all the long­
accepted conventions of the mystery story, but he does so with such ingenuity and creates such a welter of involved circumstances that we are almost entirely un­ ware of his technical trickery. Afcessing only the few dull moments, that do occur now and then, we find before us a story which has a welcome freshness and orig­ city. The leisurely style in which the various police of­

cers working upon the case help
acters working upon the case help
each other and together see the
thing through, so that in this story, instead of the one stere­
super sleuth very nobly carer in which the various police of­

ters are very convincing and the
readers alternately perturbed and
satisfied.

The author utilizes all the long­
accepted conventions of the mystery story, but he does so with
such ingenuity and creates such a
welter of involved circumstances that we are almost entirely unaware of his technical trickery. Af­ feter allowing us to suspect various people, the guilt is finally fastened on the person who is ostensibly least concerned with the characters in the book.

The pleasant variation from the general mystery story is the maner in which the various police of­

cers working upon the case help
acters working upon the case help
each other and together see the
thing through, so that in this story, instead of the one stere­
super sleuth very nobly carer in which the various police of­

ters are very convincing and the
readers alternately perturbed and
satisfied.

Mr. Sharp, who is a Harvard graduate, and a young retired
member of the New York Stock Exchange, now a resident of Bermoda, has a good bit more to offer
in than the average writer of mur­

ters are very convincing and the
readers alternately perturbed and
satisfied.

Mr. Sharp, who is a Harvard
graduate, and a young retired
member of the New York Stock
Exchange, now a resident of Ber­
moda, has a good bit more to offer
in than the average writer of mur­

ters are very convincing and the
readers alternately perturbed and
satisfied.

Mr. Sharp, who is a Harvard
graduate, and a young retired
member of the New York Stock
Exchange, now a resident of Ber­
moda, has a good bit more to offer
in than the average writer of mur­

ters are very convincing and the
readers alternately perturbed and
satisfied.

Mr. Sharp, who is a Harvard
graduate, and a young retired
member of the New York Stock
Exchange, now a resident of Ber­
moda, has a good bit more to offer
in than the average writer of mur­

ters are very convincing and the
readers alternately perturbed and
satisfied.

Mr. Sharp, who is a Harvard
graduate, and a young retired
member of the New York Stock
Exchange, now a resident of Ber­
moda, has a good bit more to offer
in than the average writer of mur­

ters are very convincing and the
readers alternately perturbed and
satisfied.
IT TAKES HEALTHY NERVES TO RUN 308 AT BILLIARDS!

ABOVE—MR. HAGENLOCHER SAYS, "IF I WERE TRYING TO GIVE ONE SIMPLE RULE FOR SUCCESSFUL BILLIARD PLAY, I SHOULD SAY, 'WATCH YOUR NERVES!' THAT'S WHY I'VE SMOKED CAMELS FOR YEARS. I LIKE THEIR TASTE BETTER AND THEY'RE MILD. BUT MORE THAN THAT, THEY NEVER UPSET MY NERVOUS SYSTEM."

ERICH HAGENLOCHER, twice 18.2 balk-line billiard champion of the world, and holder of innumerable other titles, is famous among billiard professionals for his coolness under fire. Healthy nerves have carried him successfully through the sternest international competition.

ABOVE—TALKING IT OVER CALLS FOR MORE CAMELS. STEADY SMOKING REVEALS THE TRUE QUALITY OF A CIGARETTE. PROVE TO YOURSELF THAT CAMELS KEEP RIGHT ON TASTING MILD, RICH AND COOL—NO MATTER HOW FREELY YOU SMOKE THEM. CAMEL'S COSTLIER TOBACCOS DO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

RIGHT—TALKING IT OVER CALLS FOR MORE CAMELS. STEADY SMOKING REVEALS THE TRUE QUALITY OF A CIGARETTE. PROVE TO YOURSELF THAT CAMELS KEEP RIGHT ON TASTING MILD, RICH AND COOL—NO MATTER HOW FREELY YOU SMOKE THEM. CAMEL'S COSTLIER TOBACCOS DO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

"I KNOW OF NO SPORT," SAYS ERICH HAGENLOCHER, "THAT PLACES A GREATER STRAIN ON THE NERVES THAN TOURNAMENT BILLIARDS. THE SLIGHTEST INACCURACY OR Miscalculation can ruin an important run. If I were asked to give one simple rule for success, I should say, 'Watch your nerves!' That's why I smoke Camels, and have smoked them for years. I like their taste better and they're milder. But more than that, they never upset my nervous system, and believe me, I smoke plenty."

There is a difference between Camel's costlier tobaccos and the tobaccos used in other popular cigarettes.

You'll notice the difference in taste and in mildness—and Camels never jangle your nerves. You can prove this yourself. Begin today!

CAMEL'S COSTLIER TOBACCOS
NEVER GET ON YOUR NERVES
NEVER TIRE YOUR TASTE
CLUB ANNOUNCES INITIATION OF 16 TO MEMBERSHIP

Mathematics club received sixteen students into membership on Thursday night according to George Ketchum, '36, chairman of initiation committee.

The new members performed several stunts pertaining to mathematics as part of the initiation ceremony.

The new members are: Leora Weitz, Dorothy Bhatu, Basie Rizov, and Elizabeth Scott, freshmen; and Glenn Ungerer, '36; and Alice Kemp, Elizabeth Faerber, Emma Cooke, Janet Brown, Allen Deeter, Frances Morey, '34, and Reba Morey, '35.

Six Delegates Attend Lutheran Conference

Six members of Lutheran club are attending the annual conference of the Lutheran Student association of America at Wagner college, Staten Island, New York, this week-end. The delegates are: Lois Nielsen and Helen Smith, juniors; and Joseph Ouellette and Martha Dashnow, sophomores.

The initiation committee included: Ketchum, chairman, Katharine Cohle, '34, and Roda Morey, '35.

The Side Line

At a recent meeting of the men's athletic council two important appointments were made. Harry Yaffe was named manager of varsity tennis, and Al Jucik, freshman's bad boy, was awarded the management of intramural athletics. Incidentally, Al put on a nearly intramural program last year and promises a better slate for the '34-'35 season.

The fracas which you might have witnessed on the Western avenue campus last Saturday was what Stanford would call social. The game ended in a tie—the fresh scoring one soccer goal and the sophs tallying one football goal. The most thrilling event of the afternoon was "GS" Bancroft's successful attempt at deflation act. Unpredicted, I say, unprecedented. Monday night, in answer to the first call for varsity and frosh basketball, about thirty men gathered up the gym. According to the expectations of your columnist (apologies to Winchell), the varsity looked a bit rusty and the frosh a bit rusty. Many a pleasant haunting experience by visiting the "cozy nook called "The Haunted Bookshop" in a corner of the College cooperative book store. Many a pleasant hour can be spent there reading the best works in literature, and such one may choose his favorite "literary haunt" from the well-filled shelves of the Co-op's contribution to our permanent "Literary Halloween".

The Side Line

1934 YEAR BOOK TO HAVE "MOSTS" VOTE ON FRIDAY

Members of the Pedagogue staff will conduct that publication's annual votes for the "most" section in assembly Friday. Eleanor Waterbury, '34, editor-in-chief, announced this morning. Votes will be to determine the most popular man, the most popular woman, the most beautiful woman, the woman who has done most for State, the man who has done most for State, and the most versatile woman.

Pedagogue "cubs" will distribute blanks to assembly to sign up for subscriptions. It will be the last opportunity to satisfy their desire for "spooky" parties and daring journeys through weird places. These haunts are but passing events which leave few constructive imprints upon our souls. However, the students of State college now have the opportunity to satisfy their desire for haunting experiences by visiting the cozy nook called "The Haunted Bookshop" in a corner of the College cooperative book store. Many a pleasant hour can be spent there reading the best works in literature, and such one may choose his favorite "literary haunt" from the well-filled shelves of the Co-op's contribution to our permanent "Literary Halloween".
List of Freshmen Shows Increase of 10.5% Over Last Year, Registrar States.

Seventy-nine members of the freshman class will receive University scholarship checks, Miss Elizabeth Van Denburgh, registrar, announced recently. This is an increase of 10.5% over the number given to freshmen last year.

These checks will be for the amount of sixty dollars, the first payment toward the four hundred dollar scholarship awarded to each of the students by the University of the State of New York. The total amount to be distributed at this time will be $4,880.

Thirteen of the freshmen to receive scholarships, or about 17%, are women. In 1932 nine out of a total of sixty-nine freshmen, or only about 12%, were women.

The following is a list of the names of the scholarship winners for 1933:

- Thomas Barrittong, Mildred Blaine, Jr., Gerrit Bolt, James Bren, Rae Broak, Susan Caldwell, William Chevalier, Helen Clyde, David Cohen, Law Collins, Mary Cook, Margaret Densteth, Katherine Cunningham, Katherine A. Creel, Louise Cunningham, Robert Dave, Mr. Sahil, Margaret Davies, Frances Davies, John Edwards, Laura Evans, Laura Ferris, Helen Follot, Dorothy Fradell, Patricia Goff, Ethel Goodfellow, Charles Greenwood, Loopy Grinnell, Margaret Gunter, Ruth Hallock, Evelyn Hauser, Victor Hay; Mary Ethel Goodhart, Anne Harvey, Alice Hotchak, June Jolliff, Thomas Kelley, Alice Kelly, Ethel Kenney, Frances Kalbfleisch, Dorothy Landor, Velma Leghun, Helen Lomen, Virginia Loomis, Margaret Look, Dorothy Loring, Ethel Louise, Irene Mathews, Althea Mercer, Gertrude Miers, Charles Morris, Mary Morris, June Murphy, June Randell, Dutchness, Helen Rosenberg, Dorothy Burke, Virginia Sorensen, Virginia Stowe, Thelma Styer, William Stokes, Marion Sholties, Mary Spalding, Margaret Spencer, Virginia Steward, Mary Swann, Rachel Tann, Margaret Tappel, Robert Tucker, Marjorie Tymeson, Lula Van Patten, Elizabeth Van Patten, Helen Varnell, Winnifred Wetmore, Wilfred Wilcox, Laura Chick, and William Zahn.

1937 COMPLETES CLASS ELECTIONS IN RECENT VOTE

The freshman class has completed its list of officers by revotes conducted at a recent meeting. As announced at the last issue of the News, John Denbo will be the class president and Irving Stineman will act as class leader.

The results of the revotes are as follows: vice-president, Alice Allard; finance, Charles Morris; secretary, Lois Duffey; treasurer, John Smith; and song leader, Elsie Shearer.

Emanuel Hall to Have Dance Tomorrow Night

Emanuel hall will conduct a formal dance at 4:00 o'clock, according to Katherine Wurtz. The committee for the dance includes: 1934 dormitories, general chairman, Miss Mary Barrittong; 1935 dormitories, general chairman, Miss Emily Adelson; 1936 dormitories, general chairman, Miss Margaret Goodwin; 1937 dormitories, general chairman, Miss Margaret Montgomery.

The committee consists of the following: 1934 dormitories, all members; 1935 dormitories, all members; 1936 dormitories, all members; 1937 dormitories, all members.

WELCOMES PLEDGES

1937 SCHOOL AWARDS TOTAL 77

Silver Tea to Follow Annual Show; Program to Be Presented on November 18

Thirteen co-eds have been chosen to model in the annual fashion show to be conducted by the Young Women's Christian association, November 18, in the auditorium of Page hall at 4:00 o'clock.

The models are: Harriet Goodenough, Thelma Smith, Dorothy Munter, Alice Hoyland, Virginia Simms, and Helen Mohr; seniors; Gertie Nissel, Gertrude Morgan, and Grace Fitchard, juniors; Ernest Farrell and Elizabeth Whitman, sophomores; and Jeanette Creek and Clare Leonard, freshmen.

Jayne Buckley, 35, will introduce the models who will present old and new fashions. Miss Buckley will control the models, showing the modern trend toward old-fashioned styles. Following the fashion show, a silver tea will be conducted in the Lounge of Richards hall for students and faculty. Committee in charge are: Catherine Sumner and Helen Proctor, 34, chairmen of hostess and general chairman; Carla Nielson, 35, chairman of old-fashioned fashions; Sarah Logan, 35, chairman of tickets; Syl Smith, 35, chairman of music; Har­­riet Ten Eyck, 34, chairman of the tea; Charlotte Strohman, 35, chairman of publicity; John Bills, 35, chairman of stage; Maybelle Matthews, 34, secre­tary; and Virginia Clark, 35, chairman of property.

Tickets for the tea and tea will be available in the Room of Draper hall the week preceding the fashion review. They will be twenty-five cents.

FOR THE INTERESTED

EYES EXAMINED

The Biographical Club will present Dr. Rudolph Ruedemann, world-famous paleontologist and head of the New York state department of paleontology, in a lecture in the Lounge of Richardson hall Saturday night, November 18, at 3:00 o'clock, according to Gertrude Rosenberg, 34, president of the club. After the lecture an informal reception will be conducted.

Miss Rosenberg will act as general chairman in arranging for the lecture. The following committees will assist in the preparations: Flora Bennett, 35, posters; Anna Praksl, 34, chairman; Marion Cowell, 34, and Miriam Conrath, 35; and invitations, Ellen Kowaling, 37.

Faculty and students of State College, Russell Sage college, Rensselaer Polytechnic institute, Union college, and the Union Free high school are invited to attend.

Biological club has collected a number of interesting fossils on its several trips around the vicinity of Albany; and Miss Rosenberg is planning to have her class in Milso high school arrange in exhibition of these, together with some specimens from the farm of Richard H. Kirtland, professor of education.