American Bombs Replace American Bodies

North and South Viet Nam, resume the Paris Conference on Viet Nam, and negotiate seriously, stop using American resources, leave and prepare to the sick sore bones of Vietnamese people. Such is the way to put an end to the sufferings and woes of the Vietnamese people, so being here the GIs; the really honorable and beneficial way out for the United States.

Students at Albany State this summer won't be bombing North Vietnam. Due to a thirty per cent cut in funding this year, the summer upper division undergraduates will pay...

This is the Last War

by Andy Paley

It happened to catch a little report on WRYT-FM which seems to expose the situation in a trivial. The reporter had interviewed several anti-war students and told others. And the anti-war movement was born, nurtured, and turned, told others. And the anti-war movement was born, nurtured, and turned, told others. Assembly Bill Would Kill Mandatory Tax

by Vicki Zelb

A bill that would make it on the ballot as a mandatory tax, and it is one of the most controversial in Albany.

The bill, sponsored by Senator Schiermerhorn, is expected to pass the Senate and Assembly. It would allow college students to collect a 1% annual fee for the school budget.

"We are trying to make sure that students understand the financial responsibilities of a college," said Schiermerhorn.

The bill has been denounced by Assemblyman Joss and other lawmakers. "This is a tax on a tax," said Joss.

The bill has also been criticized by the student government. "We are not happy with this," said the president of the student government.

The bill is expected to be debated in committee next week. The fate of the bill is uncertain.

Council Debates Schedule, Spring Elections

Is Student Association Relevant?

What's SA?

"What's the Student Association?" asked Nomitie, a sophomore from the Philippines. "I don't know what it is, I'm not being involved in any of the activities, and I don't see the point of being involved." His answer was typical of the students who had been asked the question. It seemed that the majority of the students didn't know what the Student Association was all about.

No Help for Me

"If I need help, I go to my professor," said Tom Zhang, a junior from China. "I don't need the Student Association for that."

Against Tax

"I don't pay the Student Tax," said Susan Vossler, a senior from California. "I don't see the point of paying for something that doesn't help me."

More Minority Representatives

"I think the Student Association should have more minority representatives," said Howard Hoffer, a senior from New York. "It's important to represent all the different groups on campus."

English major brings up problems

"There are some problems with the Student Association," said English major Michael Schwartz. "For example, they have a committee for minority students, but they don't really do anything for them."

For Problems

"I have problems with the Student Association," said Regina Quintero, a junior from Argentina. "They don't help me with anything."
Netmen Split First Two

By Alan Abbey

The team name has gone a reported 200 miles in the last two matches. But the team is not playing the same as they did before. They are playing as a team.

Last Friday the Danes housed Elmhurst College, a team that played 2-0 on the year. Elmhurst is also playing as a team.

The first game was a 2-0 win for the Danes. Steve Curtis (2nd) and Steve Normandin (5th) led the Danes to victory. The second game was a 0-0 tie, but the Danes won the third game.

The win for the Danes was Nick Anderson. Nick pitched a good game as he gave up 4 runs in 7 innings. The Danes played well against Elmhurst. Their competition was nil, and they won the game.

After that losing the Danes could not enter another attack. They could not get a hit out of the line. The Danes split the two games with 1-0 and 0-0.

Team Horses Around

On Sunday, April 16, SUNYA rode once again and went with the team. The Danes won the first match and beat the team 2-0.

On Monday, April 17, SUNYA rode once again and went with the team. The Danes won the second match and beat the team 2-0.

On Tuesday, April 18, SUNYA rode once again and went with the team. The Danes won the third match and beat the team 2-0.

On Wednesday, April 19, SUNYA rode once again and went with the team. The Danes won the last match and beat the team 2-0.

Golfers Lose

The Albany State golf team opened the spring season with a 2-0 win over SUNYA. The Danes averaged 81 for their six golfers. Coach Sauers was pleased with Jerry Monusky. He shot a 75, the best score for the season so far.

Tomorrow afternoon the Danes will play at home. The Danes are playing the same as they did before. They are playing as a team.

Doesn't General Electric realize the days of enormous corporate profits are over?

There was a time, fifty or sixty years ago, when a major corporation in America might expect profits of twenty or even twenty-five cents on the dollar.

But that era is over. Not just one, but every corporation has seen its profits drop in recent years. What's behind this decline in corporate profitability?

But if you've seen the profits and the business class in America, you may not have been following the news closely enough to realize that something is happening in corporate America. That something is the reappearance of the idea that corporations are societies, that they have a responsibility to do what is right, not just what is profitable.

Joss Profile

Another complaint that Joss has with the Finance Committee and Student Association is that the money for the club is not well spent. He feels that the Finance Committee is only interested in the money, and not in the students who are using it.

Joss also feels that those who are interested in student government are not being given a fair chance to run for office. For example, he feels that there should be a fairer system for selecting the candidates to run for office. The current system is unfair, and he feels that the Finance Committee should be more involved in the selection process.

Dance Council: "Black Orpheus"

On the opening night, April 20, at 8:00, the Campus Center Gym will be transformed into an ancient Greek theater, complete with black and gold. The dance, sponsored by the Dance Council, is being held in recognition of the film "Black Orpheus," which was released in 1962.

The dance will feature a variety of musical and dance performances, including a live orchestra, a black and gold ballroom dance, and a performance by the black and gold cheerleaders.

Black Orpheus is a story of love and tragedy, set in a small village in Brazil. The hero, Orpheus, is a young man who is in love with a beautiful girl named Eurydice. But Eurydice is kidnapped by the god Pluto and Orpheus must journey to the underworld to rescue her.

The story is told through a series of dance numbers, each one more dramatic than the last. The performance is set in a beautifully decorated Greek theater, with black and gold accents everywhere.

The dance will be held at the Campus Center Gym, and tickets will be available for purchase at the door. Tickets are $5 for adults, $3 for students, and $2 for children. For more information, contact the Dance Council at 518-434-7591.
National Strike Set Today; Albany, SUNY Students Mobilize Guard Called to Md. Campus

BULLETIN.

National Guardsmen moved on to the University of Maryland campus at 3:00 last night and began arresting students who refused orders to evacuate and return to their dormitories. There was no violence and the guardsmen did not fire tear gas to disperse the crowds. A National Guard helicopter lifted the area with a loud blast as the arrests were made. A spokesman for the campus radio station was unable to give an estimate of the exact number of students arrested, but described the number as "more than a van load." The spokesman indicated that more arrests were likely as groups of students refused orders to leave the campus and called to police what they claimed was a fourth consecutive night of demonstrations on the campus. "Grenades are still making their way into the university," the spokesman reported.

By the Associated Press.

SUMMIT, N. J. (AP) — The National Strike called for by students at the University of Maryland is an example of the "organized chaos" that has swept campuses across the country, according to officials of the American Association of University Professors.

"This is a time of chaos and confusion," said AAUP President John W. Gardner. "The strikes are not the solution. We need a return to the classroom and a commitment to education."
